CENTRE HALL-POTTER TWP. PTA HOLDS MEETING

At a meeting of the Centre Hall-Potter Parent-Teachers Association Monday night, the Rev. Delas R. Keener addressed the group in an introductory fashion on the theme selected for the year's programs, "Education for American Life".

The Rev. Mr. Keener defined America's mode of living as an intangible spirit aiming to make it possible for each American to accomplish his own fullest, richest life. He offered these challenges to those interested in educating for the American way: first American institutions, home, school, democracy—need to be interpreted to youth; second, adults need to show faith in these institutions; and third, the American institutions need to be adjusted to suit a changing world.

Mrs. J. F. Wetzel, vice-president, presided at this meeting in the absence of Mrs. C. A. Spyster and the Rev. W. K. Hosterman was in charge of devotions.

Donald Shope reported that he had purchased a bass horn as he was authorized at a spring meeting and the group agreed to pay the bill of $192.50.

The treasurer, Mrs. Paul Bradford, reported a balance of $228.93 in the treasury.

A special entertainment feature was a clarinet solo by Miss Miriam Brooks, accompanied on the piano by Betty Searson.

At the close of the regular business Donald Shope conducted an informal sing and a contest for recognition of old familiar songs. Ernest Wagner was the winner in the contest.

According to a report of the program committee of which Mrs. George Sweney is chairman the year's program will include: October, joint meeting with the Woman's Club on cancer research; November, visual education; January, a panel discussion on the theme for the year; February, founders day celebration; March, drama night; and April, rural school round-up.
