rinted and Distributed Each Week. Covers

Thoroughly Every Town and Village In Centre County.

Economical Selling Medium.

NAME MEMBERS FOR DRAFT BOARDS

List is Subject to Governor's Approval

Each Board Allotted Half Axemonn Child Is of County in Conscription Program NAME PHYSICIANS

Commissioners Ready For Registration Next

Wednesday

BULLETIN Announcement of the recommended personnel of Centre county's two local draft boards to serve in the coming conscription pro-gram, was made last night by the five-man commission appointed recently by Governor James.

The recommendations are sub-ject to final approval by the Gov-

The personnel of Local Board No. 1, which will serve the boroughs and townships in the south-W. G. Edwards, 503 W. Fair-mount avenue, State College.

Rev. C. F. Lauer, Rockview Penitentiary chaplain, Bellefonte, R.

S. A. Bierly, Rebersburg. The physician for this board is Dr. Grover C. Glenn, of State College, and the attorney is John T. Taylor, State College.

Suggested members of Local Board No. 2, which will serve the northern half of the county are: Harry E. Dunlap, Howard street,

R. H. Shreffler, Philipsburg. Benjamin F. Nicodemus, Port

This hoard's physician is Dr. Enoch H. Adams, chief of staff of the Centre County Hospital, and the attorney is Philip H. Johnston, Bellefonte.

The five-man board named last week by Governor James to choose the personnel of two three-man boards to supervise conscription registration in Centre county, last night reported that five of the six men have been chosen and that the full roster will be submitted to the Governor for approval before the deadline on October 12. Members of the five-man board

(Continued on page six)

Three Democratic Rallies Booked

Dr. Robert C. White, Philadelphia Comptroller, Is Among Speakers

scheduled to be held in various tend the convention, and since memparts of Centre county during the berships to the county unit are now coming weeks as the Presidential campaign swings into its last month. ed in historical matters are cordialscheduled to appear is Dr. Robert C. White, comptroller of the city of Philadelphia, who as a pinch-hit speaker at the Jefferson Day dinner at State College last winter, delighted his audience with an address which was more like a sermon on "How to Live" than a political ad-(Continued on Page 4)

C. D. A. of District May Meet Here

The October meeting of Court Patrick McArdle, Catholic Daugh-ters of America of Bellefonte was held Monday night in the court room on West High street with 33 members present. Miss Louise Carpeneto, grand regent, presided.

In addition to routine business reports were given by various committee chairmen. Mrs. Sarah Moerschbacher, Mrs. Mary Beldin and Mrs. Edith Anderson were named members of the rosary committee, while Mrs. Helen Bicketts is chairman of October activities. Plans were completed for a spaghetti supper to be held on Election Day, November 5, in the court room (Continued on page seven)

Traffic Lights To Be Installed

Installation of traffic lights at the schools of Spring township, the corner of High and Spring On November 30, 1893, he was streets and at the intersection of Allegheny and Bishop streets, is scheduled to begin within the week, it was reported Monday night at a regular meeting of Bellefonte Coun- at Coburn Friday night, October 11, president of Grand Rapids College, ly appreciated by the guests.

The women's reading room at the The delay in erecting the lights, will be in commemoration of Col- Charles Copeland Smith, radio opposite end of the building is which were delivered some weeks umbus Day which is one day later, commentator and lecturer, of the equipped with a large radio, it is Above is an artist's sketch of the photo is Allegheny street, and The square section facing on Alle- although their actions at the time livery of wire necessary for the in- greater part of the program with Sessions begin at 10 a.m. each tribute one for the men's room is High School building the Bellefonte at the bottom of the photo is Lamb gheny street would be the auditor- were roticed by an officer were susstallation, George Carpeneto, Bor- the exception of the special num- day. Friday afternoon teachers in asked to get in touch with officials the West Penn Power Company has enjoy participation in this type of time they will elect one delegate are from 1 to 4 p. m. and 6 to 9 p. are successful.

(Continued on page seven) program are urged to attend.

(Continued on page three) m. daily.

Injured By Auto Emory W. White, Jr., aged 20 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory W. White, of Axemann, was admit-AND ATTORNEYS ted to the Centre County Hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from a fractured leg and possible other injuries received about 1:30 o'clock when he was struck by a car driven by Norman D. MAc Bean, 42, of St.

David's Delaware county. Police report the child started to cross the highway to join his mother who was purchasing produce from a trucker. The MAc Bean machine was traveling slowly and stopped almost instantly after the mishap. The driver brought the child to the hospital.

Fire Victim Succumbs Here

Wife of Penn State Auditor Dies Friday at Local Hospital

Burns suffered early Sunday morning, September 29, at the family home at State College, resulted fatally to Mrs. Eleanor Waugh Hanley, wife fo James A. Hanley, Penn Sta'e College auditor, who died at the Centre County Hospital here at 12.45 o'clock Friday morning, October 4, 1940.

Mrs. Hanley suffered seven burns about the waist, chest, arms and hands in a fire which destroyed the living room and its contents. The blaze is of unknown origin.

16-months old daughter, Janet, and (Continued from page 6)

Town To Be Host To Convention

are: Judge Ivan Walker: County State Historical Society to Meet Here And at State College

> The 9th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Historical Association will be held in State College and Bellefonte on Friday and Saturday, October 18 and 19, it was announced yesterday by George R. Meek, newly-elected president of the Centre County Historical Society. Anyone holding a membership in Three Democratic rallies are the county society is entitled to atbeing received, all persons interest-Outstanding among the speakers by invited to join. The annual dues are $1 payable in advance. Membership committees have been appointed in various communities (Continued on Page 4)

E. E. Ardery Dies Suddenly at Home

Was First Civil Service Employe in Bellefonte; Former Councilman

E. E. Ardery, retired mail carrier the effects of a heart attack suffered short time earlier. Mr. Ardery, at one time a school teacher, became ill Sunday morning while attending services at St. John's Reformed church. A second attack resulted fatally.

Ellis Ellsworth Ardery was a son of James and Hanna Poorman Ardery and was born at Martha Furnace on August 20, 1861, making his age at time of death 79 years. I month, and 16 days. As a young man he taught school at Aaronsburg for two years, leaving that community to come to Bellefonte,

On November 30, 1893, he was ap-(Continued on page seven) Community Sing at Coburn

ACCIDENT VICTIM AND WIFE

THE LATE JOSEPH DELALLO AND MRS. DELALLO

HUNDREDS ATTEND FUNERAL

the "field of battle." The hundreds of firemen and these things gave mute but indisfriends who visited the home to pay

Joseph DeLallo, member of the their last respects to the deceased; eph DeLallo, 35, member of the Undine Fire Company's crack ladder the overflow crowd at St. John's Bellefonte Undine Fire Company's team, killed in an accident at Lewis- Catholic church during the requiem ladder team was fatally injured town last Thursday morning, was high mass; the departure from cus- when the ladder snapped, dropping given a hero's burial here Saturday tom at a Catholic funeral whereby him to the street. the Rev. Father William E. Downes Judged by any standard, the last delivered an impressive sermon; the Lewistown Hospital, about fifteen ites for the courageous ladder man mountain of floral tributes, second minutes after the thousands of specwas of the kind reserved only for only to the mass of floral offerings tators in Lewistown's Monument those who live bravely and die in at the funeral of the late beloved square had witnessed the fatal Frank L. Wetzler, of Milesburg-all

(Continued on Page 4)

Suspect Under Arrest

(Continued on page three)

Collect Garments; New

Officers Elected

Every year the directors of the local branch of the Needlework

Guild contact each donor on their

(Continued on page six)

So. Williamsport,

BHS In Stalemate

Scoreless Tie; Red Chandler Fractures Arm

South Williamsport High and

Bellefonte High battled to a 0 to 0 stalemate at Williamsport Saturday afternoon in the first major game on the Red and White's grid over State College High two weeks

ful offensive and defensive line showed strong end drives and off-tackle offenses, but they were un-able to muster sufficient force to Bellefonte's first major accident of

(Continued on page three)

Room at County Home

South Williamsport,

push through for a score.

Tuesday, October 22.

Driver Held Man Slain Af West Chester As Girl Dies

Dean Runkle, Centre Hall, Son-in-Law of Tony Nas-Jailed on Involuntary tase, Snow Shoe, Victim; between the first and second sec-Manslaughter Charge

Acting upon the recommendation | Philip Guinta, aged 32, West Ches-Mr. and Mrs. Hanley returned of a Coroner's Jury, State Motor ter taproom operator and son-in-home early Sunday morning, Mrs. Police Tuesday night lodg d a law of Tony Nastase, proprietor of Hanley retiring while Mr. Hanley charge of involuntary manslaugh- a meat market at Snow Shoe, was went to the living room to read, ter against Dean Runkle, of Centre killed late Sunday night by a blast to the second floor, picked up his was fatally injured September 19.

Miss Horner died at the Centre of Guinta's brother-in-law at West County Hospital here at noon, Mon- Chester. day. Her injuries included puncture | Samuel Guerra, aged 40, Coateswounds of the windpipe and esopha- ville vegetable and produce dealer. arms and a fracture of the arm at with the slaying, police said,

With Miss Horner's death the gun, recently fired, was found in umber of persons who lost their the kitchen of Guerra's home and lives in accidents happening in the that the two men had been drinkmonth from August 23 to September 23 increased to a total of eight Arraigned before Justice of the (Continued on page three)

Bank Completes Interior Changes Bellefonte Organization to

Bellefonte Trust Company Now Has Additional Working Facilities

After a period of extensive re-modeling of the banking quarters the Bellefonte Trust Company, he firm this week announces completion of the work and extends a cordial invitation to the public to inspect the completely modernized

The original need which first gave rise to thought of remodeling was he need of adequate quarters for he Trust Department, and before the planning of the work was com-pleted, it was deemed advisable by this long-established banking company to make improvements in all departments, toward greater convenience for customers, and higher First Major Game Brings efficiency in the conduct of the bank's work.

The space for adequate quarters and former Bellefonte councilman, for the Trust Department was prodied unexpectedly at his home on vided for by occupying the first Reynolds avenue at 6:50 o'clock floor of the store room adjacent to Sunday night, October 6, 1940, from the bank. The facade of this por-(Continued on page six.)

Institute Will Open October 17 ago, threw into the game a power-

408 County Teachers Expected to Attend; Prominent Speakers Scheduled

Centre county's 408 school teachers are expected to assemble at the Seek Radio For Men's where for seven years he taught in Court House next Thursday for the annual two-day teachers' institute, F. Glenn Rogers, County Superintendent of Schools declared yester-home report that the men's reading The principal speakers at the in- room at the institution is without a

65-Foot Ladder Fails; Fireman Fatally Hurt Joe DeLallo, 35, Crack Un-dine Ladderman, Victim of Fall

CONVENTION CROWD WITNESSES TRAGEDY

Fellow Firemen at Lewistown Exhibition Powerless to Aid

Clinging to the top of a 65-foot adder during an exhibition at the State Firemen's convention at Lewistown last Thursday morning, Jos-DeLallo died about 11 a. m. at the Veteran Auto plunge. Death was caused by crush injuries about the face and head. The accident happened during the first act in the Undine's ladder exhibition. The ladder, one of a complete set of new aluminum ladders recently purchased by the Undines. was placed on the ground and was the garage business here October 1. held vertically in what is known as a "vertical stand by six members of the team while DeLallo as-

The climber halted at the joint (Continued on page 6)

Rumor Penn Belle To Have Taproom

Rumors have it that the two first find the room on fire. He rushed Berenice Horner, 17, of Spring Mills, what police said was an argument with Street, are to be converted in a private alleyway near the home into a taproom. Credence is given the rumors by of the rooms, is preparing to move the meeting. gus, severe lacerations of one of her was arrested later in connection his shop to the west end of the An officer related that a shotbook binding firm.

Needlework Guild Many Contributions Begins Campaign

The Undine Fire Company, headed by the Bellefonte American Legion Junior Band, won first prize

Needlework Guild of America is noon. making plans for its 1940 collection tions are asked to bring their gifts ladder drill that morning.

(Continued on page seven)

Retires

Dealer Retires

George A. Beezer Held Studebaker Agency Over 31 Years

When George A. Beezer, prominhe had completed 31 years' continuous service as the local Studecended to see whether the locks on oldest Studebaker representative on the company's records barber shop is now located in one A luncheon will be served before The program includes special enhotel, in the room being vacated by tertainment for town and farm peothe Lion Auto Store, which has ple; a special agricultural program; been moved to State College. The short talks and discussions by the tap room, it is said, will occupy the farm group on poultry for the home present Boscaino room as well as and farm, and on the use of ferthe quarters vacated recently by a tilizer on home grounds. Farm movies also are to be shown. All

Given DeLallo Family Falling Walnut Hits

Arthur S. Houck, Jr., aged 15, son of $150 for the best appearing com- of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Houck, pany in line with a band at the 61st of East Bishop street. Bellefonte, annual State Firemen's convention suffered an injury to the left eye The Bellefonte branch of the at Lewistown last Thursday after- carly Sunday afternoon while assisting his father and uncle to pick The prize fund was given by the black walnuts along Spring Creek. of garments. Its date for final dis- Undines to the family of Joseph The youth suffered a hemorrhage play and distribution has been set DeLallo, ladderman and assistant of the eye when a walnut, dropping for Thursday, October 24. Contribu- Undine chief, who met death in a from a tree, struck him in the face, In an effort to prevent further hemto their directors not later than John D. Coughlin, of the Greens- orrhages he is confined to bed at burg Fire Department which won his parental home, where he is un-

Seven Plead Guilty At Special Court

C of C To Hold Annual Rockview Inmate Gets 4 Dinner Here Friday

The Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce will hold its third annual dinner meeting at the Hotel Brock- MT. EAGLE YOUTHS erhoff, Friday night, October 11, at :30 o'clock.

The speaker will be C. G. Hobart, school for store managers and lerks in Pittsburgh for the past several years, . His subject will be "Modern Trends in Merchandising. During the dinner Victor Pifer and his Banjoleers will play, and Presifive new directors who were elected Friday and gave himself up Sun-H. Caum, Charles Mensch, Bossert sion of court here Monday morn-DeHaas, and W. J. Emerick.

(Con inued on Page 7) Board Acts To

Aid BHS Band

Schools Close Oct. 16

adopted at a special meeting of the

Through action taken by the members the band has lost in the sic store, is to conduct a special sale of new instruments. The purchase clude $7.50 for instruction. Harold

(Continued on page six)

Near Unionville

Bellefonte Youth Returns

Home Safely as Widespread

Search Begins

Robert Shaffer, 18, of North Spring

Street, member of Battery B., 190th.

Pield Artillery, Bellefonte, lost in he mountain wilds of the Rattlenake area north of Unionville last Wednesday afternoon, returned home Thursday morning safe and sound just as a widespread search

While fellow members of the local National Guard unit, firemen, and

(Continued on Page 6-2nd Sec.)

Free Barbecue at Hecla

becue at Hecla Park at 6 p. m. Friday evening, October 18, Bond C.

White, Willkle chairman, reported

The Associated Willkie Clubs of

for him was getting under way

Guardsman Lost

past two years.

Authorize Employment of Part-Time Teacher; Local

Mr. Beezer who is 66 years old. night. accepted the agency in 1909 when the company, long manufacturers board, V. H. Pifer's plan to recruit of farm wagons, first began making and train a class of new members automobiles. For two years the cars was approved, a part-time instructbore the names "Flanders" and "E. or was employed and other arrange-(Continued on Page 6-2nd Sec.) ments made to replace some 33 BROTHERHOOD AT GAP

TO MEET NEXT THURSDAY Mr. Pifer, owner of the Pifer mu-Pleasant Gap Community Brother- price of each instrument will inbood will be held at the high school building, Pleasant Gap, at 6:30 o'the fact that Joe Bascaino, whose clock Thursday evening. October 17.

> men of the area are cordially invited to attend.

Local Youth in Eye

dergoing medical treatment.

to 8 Years For Two-Day Liberty

ADMIT GAS THEFTS

of Pittsburgh, who has conducted Trio Placed Under 5 Years Probation: Get Stern Warning

Six pleas of guilty, one of them dent A. L. Francis will introduce the by a Rockview inmate who escaped in the September election, They are day, were heard and disposed of by as follows: Dr. E. H. Adams, Jesse Judge Ivan Walker at a special ses-

> The Rockview fugitive was Andrew Jackson, 31, colored who was discovered to be missing in a checkup about 1 p. m. Friday. That morning the man had gone to the prison infirmary for treatment and didn't report for work afterwards, making his escape by crossing a field into a About 6:30 o'clock Saturday morn> ing bloodhounds were sent to the Rishel service station at Tusseyville when reports were received that a stranger had been seen in that area. The clue turned out to be false.

About 6 o'clock Sunday night Jackson went into the Log Cabin A plan for the rejuvenation of the tavern in Mifflin county, identified Bellefonte High School Band, seri- himself to attendants, and asked ously handicapped through the loss them to call Rockview officials of members by graduation, was come and get him.

In court, Monday, Deputy War-Bellefonte School Board, Monday den C. C. Rhoads said Jacks (Continued on page seven)

Hallowe'en Fete Scheduled Here

Retail Division of C. of C. Sponsor Mummer's Parade October 31

At a meeting of the execu committee of the retail division the Bellefonte Chamber of Co merce it was decided that inasm as the Elks have decided to disc tinue the Hallowe'en parades retail division will step in and spo sor the parade.

It is hoped that all marchin units in Bellefonte and the cou will turn out for the parade, a the retail division invites friends in Snow Shoe, Milesburg, Howard, State College, Hublersburg, Pleasant Gap, Centre Hall, Lemont, Millheim and Philipsburg, and their fire companies to participate in the parade Local merchants will offer attractive prizes for the various costumes and it is hoped that the bands from all the surrounding communities will join with Bellefonte. The retail labor unions to march, as well as the county lodges. The parade will be held on October 31, at 7:30 p. m. The committee is planning to Centre county will hold a free bar- erect a reviewing stand on the Diamond in front of the Court House for this event division extends an invitation to all

Rebersburg Man Wins In Contest

Semi-Finals Today For Prize of New Ford Tractor and Plow Equipment

In a tractor operating contest held Monday and Tuesday, on the Harold Sampsel farm near the Bellefonte airport, Woodrow Meyer, 19, of Rebersburg, was declared winner over 10 young men from near-

The contest was supervised by the Dunlap Motor Co., local deader in Ford tractors and Ferguson Implements, and all of the contestants are members of the National Farm Youth Foundation.

The Foundation is an educational program sponsored by The Fer-(Continued on page four)

Lock Haven Police Question Local Trio

Three Centre County youths, one of whom is now out on bail awaiting disposition by the Centre County Court of a larceny charge against him, were apprehended in Willard's Alley, near Flack's Alley, Lock Haven, last Tuesday night and placed in the city jall on suspicion.

They were discharged Wednesday morning, after being questioned at police court. The police could find although their actions at the time school district hopes to erect on the street. According to the sketch near- ium. The gymnasium would be piclous ough supervisor, reported. The wire shown to the primary and upper grades will of the home.

(Continued on page five)

PROPOSED $365,000 BELLEFONTE HIGH SCHOOL

North Allegheny street site if finan-ly the cutire plot, including the housed in the wing shown to the arrived here Friday and as soon as ted free. Adults 10 cents, Those who hold separate meetings at which Visiting hours at the rear of the build- far left. Most of the remainder of spot, contained a couple of blankets. The street shown at the right of en up by the proposed structure.

ing destroyed by fire, would be tak- the structure would be devoted to an empty five-gallon can, some