

Modern Etiquette

- 1. Is it ever permissible for an employer to take his woman secretary to lunch?
2. Shouldn't a girl give her order direct to the waiter when dining with a man?
3. Is it necessary for a man to rise when being introduced to another man?
4. What type of young man would you call the one who, upon every date with a girl, uses the girl's cigarettes instead of having some of his own?
5. When a woman who hasn't the facilities at home entertains a party of friends in a public dining room, would it be all right for one of the men to offer to pay the bill?
6. Isn't it discourteous for a man to cut in at a dance, and not thank the man who relinquishes his partner?

Answers to Modern Etiquette

- 1. Yes, when strictly a matter of business, but not in a social way unless he is willing, if seen by friends, to have his act misinterpreted.
2. No; she should tell her escort what she would like and let him place the order.
3. Certainly, unless he is ill, crippled, or a centenarian.
4. The most forceful name for him would be the slang expression, "a tightwad."
5. Never.
6. Yes, he should always say "thank you."

YOUR HEALTH

(From the Educational Committee of the Board of Trustees of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, of which the Centre County Medical Society is a component.)

All mushrooms are not edible. There is a poisonous variety of this fungus, familiarly known as toadstools. Many fatalities occur each year when the toadstool type of mushroom is eaten. There are several kinds of food poisoning which kill between 600 and 700 persons in the United States each year.

Food poisoning ranked thirteenth among accidental causes of death in 1938, the latest year for which statistics are available.

In 1937, there were 665 fatal food poisonings. The 1938 record of 608 was the lowest since 1933. At this rate, there was one food poisoning death for every 200,000 persons in the United States.

Children under one year of age suffered most from food poisoning. After infancy, the greatest number of deaths from food poisoning occurs in the 45-49 and 50-54 age groups.

Food poisoning are more common in the southern states than in this part of the country—Texas leading and Georgia second. Cities of 100,000 or more population reported only 15 per cent of the fatal cases of food poisoning.

In view of the fact that there is much home canning of vegetables in smaller communities and in the country, a rapidly fatal form, botulism, is blamed for a large percentage of food poisoning deaths.

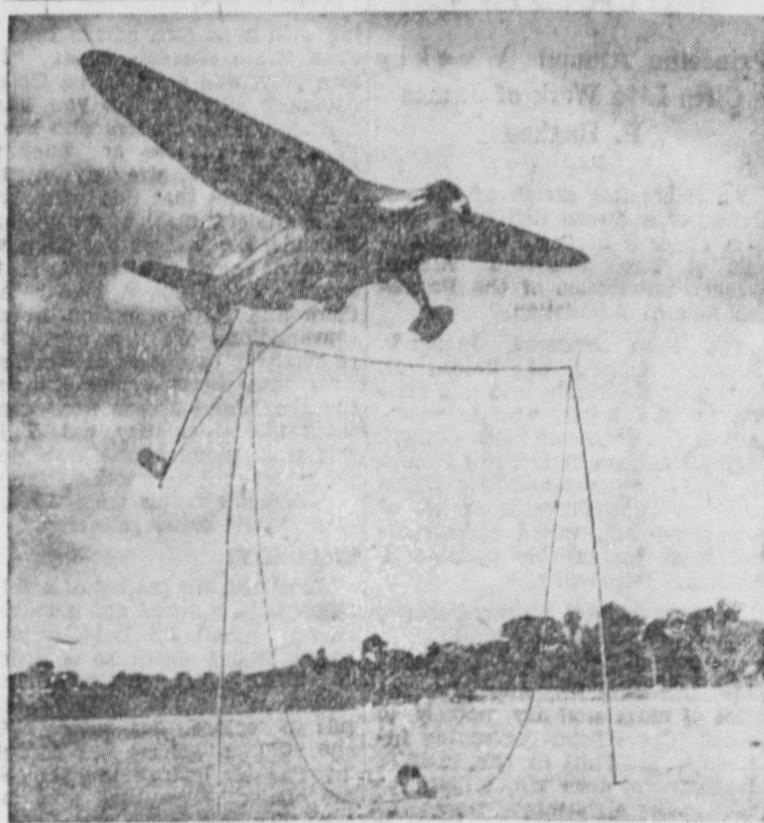

As many home preserved foods will be eaten with the coming of cooler weather, housewives are urged to boil thoroughly all vegetables canned at home and to boil again for 6 minutes when later opened to be eaten.

DO YOU KNOW

Because air attacks have brought civilians into the same danger from air attacks as soldiers, the British government has made similar arrangements both treatment, of casualties and for payments for disablement.

The ancient Greeks and Romans used carbon monoxide gas to execute criminals and many ancient suicides were accomplished by its use.

NEW AIR PICK-UP SYSTEM

New system for picking up and delivery of air mail and air express in flight which has been developed by All American Aviation, Inc., and which soon will be placed in operation on company's five Air Pick-up routes in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, New York, Kentucky, and Delaware.

HARRIS TOWNSHIP SCHOOL NEWS

The Junior Class members have ordered their class rings from the ring salesman representing Diegas and Clust company.

Last Friday excitement ran high. The reason—our pictures, which the school photographer took several weeks ago, came and we all rushed to the office to receive our package.

The following students were on the spelling honor roll for September: Eighth grade—Earl Jordan and William Gladfelter; Seventh grade—Fern Dunkle and Sylvia Horner.

School lunch will be served at the high school beginning October 14th. This year students may contribute supplies and receive lunches as credit. Surplus commodities will also be used.

The seventh and eighth grade boys who enrolled in the Home Economics Club held a picnic supper in Dunkle's woods on Monday, September 30th.

The tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade boys who enrolled in the Home Economics Club are meeting once a week for instruction in cooking.

The Boalsburg Bisons defeated State College High in soccer by a score 2-0 on Friday, October fourth.

The boys played a fast game and were in good form. Coach Edwin Dale predicts a successful season for Boalsburg. The next game will be played at Hubbersburg, October 11th.

The students having perfect attendance for September are as follows: Twelfth grade, Home Room, Dorothy Rinsinger, Winton Callahan, James Keller, John Smith, Kenneth Tennis; Eleventh grade, Home Room, Pauling Billings, Harry Bailey, Richard Gentzel, Lested Gladfelter, William Hess, Frank Homan, Lynn McClintic, John Patterson, Robert Walker, William Weber, Richard Zaleski, Helen Ferrar, Kathryn Graham, Ruth Ross, Pearl Way, Ann Whitman, Ninth and Tenth grades, Home Room, Ralph Summers; Donald Gentzel, Fred Jordan, Philip Weber, Mary Bailey, Marie Hess, Violet Horner, Barbara Houz, Barbara Ross, Sara Adleman, Jean Boty, Duhel, Ebel Graham, Betty Homan, Miriam Homan, Susan Horner, Helen Kerstetter, Fred Horner, Donald Way.

Seventh and eighth grades, Home Room, Edwin Dale; William Gladfelter, Robert Houser, Earl Jordan, William Lansberry, Shirley Nevel, Fern Dunkle, Lester Garner, David Houser, William Miller, David Rishel, Calvin Shawley, Sam Walker, William Weaver, Ruth Bleich, Sylvia Horner.

The Seventh grade boys are making a model of the ship Hispaniola in connection with their English work. The girls are dressing clothes pins to represent the characters in Treasure Island.

Elmo L. Brooks, 46, Greenwood township farmer and a veteran of the World War, residing near Bloomsburg, was instantly killed when a tractor he was operating overturned, and he was pinned under the machine, the steering post against his chest and a cross bar against the neck, which was fractured. It is believed that the machine stalled and started backward down the hill when the brakes failed to hold.

Poets' Corner

OUR GRANDDAUGHTER She is such a lovely baby, Only four months old today, But she gives to all a welcome With a smile so bright and gay.

She's so fat and round and rosy, Eyes so bright—a lustrous blue, And displays the sweetest dimple When she laughs or smiles at you.

In the morning 'ere the sunrise You can hear her laugh and crow, As she lies and kicks and wiggles, Trying hard to get, that toe.

She is like a little rose-bud Which unfurls from day to day Scattering pink and snowy petals All along life's stormy way.

On the innocence of babies Knowing not what life may hold Whether joy or grief or sorrow, Will some day to them unfold.

But, we wish them all the gladness And from sorrow, care be free, And that ne'er a sore temptation May befall Joanne Marie.

Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg, Rebersburg, Pa.

ALONE I am alone, alone am I, A single star lodged in the sky, I am but one, I want to be Alone, alone in a heavenly sea. I do not shine as bright as some, I rival neither moon or sun, But I am here and that's what counts.

Perhaps some day I'll higher mount, Until that time I'll not complain Though my soul be oft disdained, For deep inside I know my role That's written on the Master's scroll. My life is but a dim mirage

Perfect Attendance The students having perfect attendance for September are as follows: Twelfth grade, Home Room, Dorothy Rinsinger, Winton Callahan, James Keller, John Smith, Kenneth Tennis; Eleventh grade, Home Room, Pauling Billings, Harry Bailey, Richard Gentzel, Lested Gladfelter, William Hess, Frank Homan, Lynn McClintic, John Patterson, Robert Walker, William Weber, Richard Zaleski, Helen Ferrar, Kathryn Graham, Ruth Ross, Pearl Way, Ann Whitman, Ninth and Tenth grades, Home Room, Ralph Summers; Donald Gentzel, Fred Jordan, Philip Weber, Mary Bailey, Marie Hess, Violet Horner, Barbara Houz, Barbara Ross, Sara Adleman, Jean Boty, Duhel, Ebel Graham, Betty Homan, Miriam Homan, Susan Horner, Helen Kerstetter, Fred Horner, Donald Way.

Seventh and eighth grades, Home Room, Edwin Dale; William Gladfelter, Robert Houser, Earl Jordan, William Lansberry, Shirley Nevel, Fern Dunkle, Lester Garner, David Houser, William Miller, David Rishel, Calvin Shawley, Sam Walker, William Weaver, Ruth Bleich, Sylvia Horner.

The Seventh grade boys are making a model of the ship Hispaniola in connection with their English work. The girls are dressing clothes pins to represent the characters in Treasure Island.

Elmo L. Brooks, 46, Greenwood township farmer and a veteran of the World War, residing near Bloomsburg, was instantly killed when a tractor he was operating overturned, and he was pinned under the machine, the steering post against his chest and a cross bar against the neck, which was fractured. It is believed that the machine stalled and started backward down the hill when the brakes failed to hold.

REBERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoersterman of Los Angeles, California, and Thomas Musser of State College, visited at the home of their aunt, Miss Celia Brungart last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Swank and son Paul of Williamsport, were weekend visitors with Mrs. Swank's mother, Mrs. Gertrude Corman. Rev. and Mrs. N. F. Douthy, Miss Esther Waite, Mrs. C. S. Hoersterman, Charles Hoersterman and Mahlon Cummings motored to Killbuck on Monday, where the latter two joined the Army Air Corps.

Misses Mary and Catherine Kone and two cousins from Kingston spent the weekend with the former's sister, Mrs. Lavand Bierly. Mrs. Donald Byers and son James visited relatives at Danville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Metzger and son John and the latter's girl friend, Miss McAllister of Pennbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver, of Lewisport, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Everline and Mrs. John Schreckengast of Greenbush called at the home of Mrs. Ida Weaver Sunday.

Mrs. Mary M. Abbott, Mrs. William Kelley, Mr. R. W. Meyer and Mr. Edward Abbott, motored to Lewisport on Sunday to visit Prof. Henry Meyer, who has been ill the past two years with a heart condition. Monday morning the word came that he had passed away.

Prof. Meyer was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer, deceased, and was a native of Rebersburg, and was very highly respected by all who knew him. His many friends will be grieved to learn of his death.

Burial was at Lewisburg Thursday. He is survived by his widow, one brother, R. W. Meyer, of Rebersburg, and three sisters, Mrs. Jane Weber, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Mary M. Abbott and Mrs. Sara Kelley of Rebersburg.

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Miller of Stormstown, were Monday visitors at the home of their son-in-law, Curtin Greninger and family.

L. L. Meek and family of Bellefonte called in Rebersburg Sunday evening. Mrs. Neta Bierly and son Darrell accompanied them home and will remain there for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heckman and Miss Martha Bost of Centre Hall, visited Mrs. T. A. Auman Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hoersterman attended the Bucknell-Penn State football game at State College last Saturday.

Roy Brungart, and family were Sunday guests at the Merrill Brungart home at Coburn. Paul Ziegler of Fort Matilda, and Mrs. G. S. Swartz of Millheim and Mrs. Fred Whitehill and baby Marcia of Lemont, were Sunday supper guests with their father, H. C. Ziegler.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bair and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wolfe called at the home of Mrs. Thilie Peck at Nittany Sunday.

Rev. Orvis Frank moved from Vandergrift last Monday into the home in West Rebersburg which they recently purchased from Howard Walker. Mr. and Mrs. John Shrauger of Vandergrift accompanied the Franks to their new home and remained for a few days.

Rev. Frank is a native of Rebersburg and was a teacher in the public schools at one time. His many friends are glad he chose to return here upon retiring from the active ministry.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg were weekend guests with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Casper at Hamburg. On Monday they were joined by Rev. and Mrs. Charles Catherman of Hanover and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Zacharias of Allentown and the entire party motored to the World's Fair where they spent days.

Mrs. S. A. Bierly was a Monday caller in Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cummings of Lock Haven, were Sunday guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cummings.

The following persons from out-of-town came to pay their respects and attend the funeral of C. O. Driver: Doss, Lantz in Hospital Charles Caffrell, 27, of Trone, was rushed to the Phillipsburg hospital with a broken wrist and a mouth injury received Saturday when he fell asleep behind the wheel of his truck which crashed into a stone bank four miles north of Water street.

Praises College Beauty Praise for the architectural beauty of the Pennsylvania State College has come all the way from Switzerland, from the lips of an expert, who recently spent six months touring the campuses of all the leading United States educational institutions. Ulrich, Swiss architect, stated that he would give an important place to the architecture of Penn State in illustrated lectures he has been invited to present at the Polytechnical University of Zurich.

Driver Doss, Lantz in Hospital Charles Caffrell, 27, of Trone, was rushed to the Phillipsburg hospital with a broken wrist and a mouth injury received Saturday when he fell asleep behind the wheel of his truck which crashed into a stone bank four miles north of Water street.

HOUSEHOLD SCRAPBOOK

Dyeing.

When dyeing red over yellow, the final shade will be orange; blue over green over blue gives a blue-green. Light colors may be dyed darker, but dark colors cannot be dyed a lighter shade unless a dye remover is used. Always remember that the original color plus the dye used equals the final shade.

A Tight Cork

An obstinate cork can be easily removed by first dipping a piece of woolen cloth into boiling water and wrapping tightly about the neck of the bottle. In a few minutes the cork can be removed.

Scuffed Shoes

If the toes of the tan shoes are scuffed, paint them with iodine and then polish as usual.

Bleaching Sheets

An easy, but effective, way to bleach sheets is to stretch them on the line and each time the sun dries them turn the hose on them. This will save the trouble of taking them down each time to wet them.

Threaded Needle

An embroidery needle can be threaded easily by taking a short piece of sewing thread, putting the two ends together, and pushing through the eye of the needle. Then put the yarn through the loop formed and pull it through the eye.

Prevent Sticking

Corks for bottles containing glues and cements can be prevented from sticking if a little vaseline or glycerine is rubbed over the ends of the corks before inserting them into the bottles.

To Make Candles Fit

Where a candle is too small or too large for a candlestick, dip it into hot water to soften the wax, and then push into the candlestick. If the candlestick is too small, the candle can be squeezed in; if too large, the soft wax will spread and hold the candle upright.

Cutting Glass

When cutting glass, be sure that the surface is clean and that it lays flat. If using a diamond for the cutting, start on the far edge from you and press hard enough to make a fine line, using a wood or steel-edged ruler for a guide.

Paint Odor

To remove the odor of fresh paint, put a few slices of onion in a pail or basin of cold water and leave it in the newly painted room a few hours, closing the room tightly.

Leaking Gas Pipe

If you are using a gas pipe with a tubing that leaks or smells, melt some paraffin wax and dip the leaky part into it, or dip it in all over. It will be as good as new. Painting metal gas hose with aluminum paint stops any leak and greatly prolongs its life.

PENN STATE DESIGNS

Ten new controlled-temperature cabinets in the new Fear Laboratory building at the Pennsylvania State College will enable college entomologists to discover the most "favorable" temperature conditions for various insect pests.

The new equipment, designed by the Penn State Engineering Experiment Station, contains both heating and cooling elements and mercury thermoregulators to balance one against the other. It is expected by this rigid control to be able to hold temperatures to within one-tenth of one degree Fahrenheit.

Dr. H. N. Worthy, professor of economic entomology, said that codling moth, grape-berry moths, tobacco hornworm, and other pests would be studied under controlled temperatures to determine when their growth is hindered or encouraged.

Some Sweet Potatoes. A sweet potato, weighing three and a half pounds and measuring 22 inches in circumference, was grown this season by Mr. and Mrs. Landis Yergler, Mifflinburg, R. D. From two 200-foot long rows, Mr. Yergler dug eight bushels of "sweets."

FARM CALENDAR

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State College School of Agriculture

Forester to Return—Alumni and former students of forestry will attend a housewarming in the new Forestry Building at the Pennsylvania State College as a part of the annual Homecoming Festivities Saturday, October 12. They will enjoy an outing, dinner, inspection of the building, and meeting of their alumni association.

Use Deep Litter—Utilizing the dry, broken litter as a base, deep litter in the poultry house can be built up by adding small amounts of new material frequently. The hens' scratching will break up the new litter better than if large quantities are added, say poultry specialists of the Pennsylvania State College.

Plants Take Wood—Paper plants buy hundreds of truckloads of peeled wood from Pennsylvania woodlots every year. Practically all kinds of our native woods are used in this business, according to foresters of the Pennsylvania State College, except white pine, hemlock, hickory, and locust.

Tomato Industry Grows—During the past 10 years, the acreage of tomatoes grown for canning in Pennsylvania has increased nearly five times, from 4,280 acres in 1930 to about 20,000 acres now, report vegetable gardening specialists of the Pennsylvania State College.

Prevent Soil Erosion—Rich topsoil will be lost from sloping fields unless some system such as strip cropping is used, say Penn State agronomists.

Keep Clean and Healthy—In the production of high quality milk, both the cows and the attendants should be clean and healthy, emphasize dairy specialists of the Pennsylvania State College.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A very delightful birthday celebration was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pletcher, of Howard, at which Mrs. Pletcher was the guest of honor. A delicious dinner was served at high noon.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pletcher and son, Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bension and daughter Virginia, and their grandson, Robert Diehl, of Mill Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Mac Bension, Mr. Thomas A. Pletcher and daughter Alma, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lauth and daughters Marie and Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pletcher, Mrs. Pletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Pletcher and two children, Herbert and Carolyn, Rev. Bozes, a former Methodist minister of Howard parish; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shaver, Centre Hall; Miss Kathryn Martin and brother, Carl, of State College; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Swartz and daughter Mary, Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Earle Yersick and mother, Mrs. Jane Yersick, Hubbersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Yearick, Jacksonsville; Mrs. John Moore, Flemington; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rishel, Clintondale; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rishel, Emporium, and sister, Mrs. Jane McClintic, Johnsonburg.

Mrs. Pletcher was the recipient of many useful gifts. In departing for their homes the guests wished Mrs. Pletcher many more happy birthdays.

PENN STATE MEN SPEAK AT POULTRY EXPOSITION Five members of the agricultural faculty of the Pennsylvania State College were active on the program of the poultry exposition sponsored by the Northeastern Poultry Producers' Council at Atlantic City last week.

H. H. Kaufman, poultry extension specialist, spoke on "Turkey Fencing Experiments," and F. E. Manning, extension agricultural economist, talked on "Accounting and Auditing for Egg Cooperatives." P. H. Maroff, instructor in poultry husbandry, demonstrated killing and dressing of chickens and turkeys. E. W. Callenbach, professor of poultry husbandry, and C. O. Dossin, poultry extension specialist, judged baby chicks.

Pipers Get Big Order In connection with a $750,000 promotion program by the Brown & Williamson Tobacco Company of Louisville, Ky., the Piper Aircraft Corporation of Lock Haven, has received a contract for 53 airplanes, the largest received so far by the factory. The contract calls for weekly delivery of a Piper Cub.

Children under one year of age suffered most from food poisoning. After infancy, the greatest number of deaths from food poisoning occurs in the 45-49 and 50-54 age groups.

Food poisoning are more common in the southern states than in this part of the country—Texas leading and Georgia second. Cities of 100,000 or more population reported only 15 per cent of the fatal cases of food poisoning.

In view of the fact that there is much home canning of vegetables in smaller communities and in the country, a rapidly fatal form, botulism, is blamed for a large percentage of food poisoning deaths.

As many home preserved foods will be eaten with the coming of cooler weather, housewives are urged to boil thoroughly all vegetables canned at home and to boil again for 6 minutes when later opened to be eaten.

Because air attacks have brought civilians into the same danger from air attacks as soldiers, the British government has made similar arrangements both treatment, of casualties and for payments for disablement.

The ancient Greeks and Romans used carbon monoxide gas to execute criminals and many ancient suicides were accomplished by its use.

The following students were on the spelling honor roll for September: Eighth grade—Earl Jordan and William Gladfelter; Seventh grade—Fern Dunkle and Sylvia Horner.

School lunch will be served at the high school beginning October 14th. This year students may contribute supplies and receive lunches as credit. Surplus commodities will also be used.

The seventh and eighth grade boys who enrolled in the Home Economics Club held a picnic supper in Dunkle's woods on Monday, September 30th.

The tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade boys who enrolled in the Home Economics Club are meeting once a week for instruction in cooking.

The Boalsburg Bisons defeated State College High in soccer by a score 2-0 on Friday, October fourth.

The boys played a fast game and were in good form. Coach Edwin Dale predicts a successful season for Boalsburg. The next game will be played at Hubbersburg, October 11th.

The students having perfect attendance for September are as follows: Twelfth grade, Home Room, Dorothy Rinsinger, Winton Callahan, James Keller, John Smith, Kenneth Tennis; Eleventh grade, Home Room, Pauling Billings, Harry Bailey, Richard Gentzel, Lested Gladfelter, William Hess, Frank Homan, Lynn McClintic, John Patterson, Robert Walker, William Weber, Richard Zaleski, Helen Ferrar, Kathryn Graham, Ruth Ross, Pearl Way, Ann Whitman, Ninth and Tenth grades, Home Room, Ralph Summers; Donald Gentzel, Fred Jordan, Philip Weber, Mary Bailey, Marie Hess, Violet Horner, Barbara Houz, Barbara Ross, Sara Adleman, Jean Boty, Duhel, Ebel Graham, Betty Homan, Miriam Homan, Susan Horner, Helen Kerstetter, Fred Horner, Donald Way.

Seventh and eighth grades, Home Room, Edwin Dale; William Gladfelter, Robert Houser, Earl Jordan, William Lansberry, Shirley Nevel, Fern Dunkle, Lester Garner, David Houser, William Miller, David Rishel, Calvin Shawley, Sam Walker, William Weaver, Ruth Bleich, Sylvia Horner.

The Seventh grade boys are making a model of the ship Hispaniola in connection with their English work. The girls are dressing clothes pins to represent the characters in Treasure Island.

Elmo L. Brooks, 46, Greenwood township farmer and a veteran of the World War, residing near Bloomsburg, was instantly killed when a tractor he was operating overturned, and he was pinned under the machine, the steering post against his chest and a cross bar against the neck, which was fractured. It is believed that the machine stalled and started backward down the hill when the brakes failed to hold.

Perfect Attendance The students having perfect attendance for September are as follows: Twelfth grade, Home Room, Dorothy Rinsinger, Winton Callahan, James Keller, John Smith, Kenneth Tennis; Eleventh grade, Home Room, Pauling Billings, Harry Bailey, Richard Gentzel, Lested Gladfelter, William Hess, Frank Homan, Lynn McClintic, John Patterson, Robert Walker, William Weber, Richard Zaleski, Helen Ferrar, Kathryn Graham, Ruth Ross, Pearl Way, Ann Whitman, Ninth and Tenth grades, Home Room, Ralph Summers; Donald Gentzel, Fred Jordan, Philip Weber, Mary Bailey, Marie Hess, Violet Horner, Barbara Houz, Barbara Ross, Sara Adleman, Jean Boty, Duhel, Ebel Graham, Betty Homan, Miriam Homan, Susan Horner, Helen Kerstetter, Fred Horner, Donald Way.

Seventh and eighth grades, Home Room, Edwin Dale; William Gladfelter, Robert Houser, Earl Jordan, William Lansberry, Shirley Nevel, Fern Dunkle, Lester Garner, David Houser, William Miller, David Rishel, Calvin Shawley, Sam Walker, William Weaver, Ruth Bleich, Sylvia Horner.

The Seventh grade boys are making a model of the ship Hispaniola in connection with their English work. The girls are dressing clothes pins to represent the characters in Treasure Island.

Elmo L. Brooks, 46, Greenwood township farmer and a veteran of the World War, residing near Bloomsburg, was instantly killed when a tractor he was operating overturned, and he was pinned under the machine, the steering post against his chest and a cross bar against the neck, which was fractured. It is believed that the machine stalled and started backward down the hill when the brakes failed to hold.

Perfect Attendance The students having perfect attendance for September are as follows: Twelfth grade, Home Room, Dorothy Rinsinger, Winton Callahan, James Keller, John Smith, Kenneth Tennis; Eleventh grade, Home Room, Pauling Billings, Harry Bailey, Richard Gentzel, Lested Gladfelter, William Hess, Frank Homan, Lynn McClintic, John Patterson, Robert Walker, William Weber, Richard Zaleski, Helen Ferrar, Kathryn Graham, Ruth Ross, Pearl Way, Ann Whitman, Ninth and Tenth grades, Home Room, Ralph Summers; Donald Gentzel, Fred Jordan, Philip Weber, Mary Bailey, Marie Hess, Violet Horner, Barbara Houz, Barbara Ross, Sara Adleman, Jean Boty, Duhel, Ebel Graham, Betty Homan, Miriam Homan, Susan Horner, Helen Kerstetter, Fred Horner, Donald Way.

Advertisement for the New Ford V-8 car, featuring illustrations of a woman, an elephant, and a dog, with text: 'You think she's beautiful?', 'You think that's big?', 'You think that's pickup?', 'come down-see and drive the NEW FORD V-8 the BIG car with the little price tag DUNLAP MOTOR COMPANY Phone 155 Bellefonte, Pa. FOR THE BEST DEAL ALWAYS SEE YOUR FORD DEALER'