

LOCALS

—Several ornamental trees were planted on the grounds of the Pruner Orphanage, West Pine Street, last week by Joseph Pavuzza.

—Mrs. E. E. Widdowson, of North Allegheny Street, has been called as a juror in the United States District Court, Scranton, beginning Wednesday, November 6.

—Mrs. Edward E. Miller, wife of the Centre County Sheriff, and George Miller, of West Pine Street, Bellefonte, went to Scranton, Monday, having been called to that city to serve as jurors in Federal Court. They were taken to Scranton by Sheriff Miller who returned home the same day.

—George R. Snyder, local Equitable Life Assurance Society representative, departed Tuesday for a business trip to Pittsburgh, expecting to remain in that city for the annual banquet of the Veterans Legion of the Equitable Society and the 60th anniversary of the Edward A. Woods Co. Friday night at the William Penn Hotel.

—Charles Quici and Herbert Clouser, of Detroit, Mich., motored to Bellefonte during the latter part of the week to spend the weekend with relatives. Upon their return to Detroit, Sunday, they were accompanied by Mrs. Quici, who has been recuperating at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clouser, at Milesburg, after a lengthy illness.

—A motor party consisting of Nevin Smith, Gray Treasler, Fred Yorks, and Paul Crispin, all of Bellefonte, and Frank Knarr, Centre Hill, went to Hahona, N. Y., to attend the Cornell administration 21 to 7 defeat to Ohio State. The crowd was the largest ever to witness a football game at Cornell.

—The local fans returned home the same night.

—Jean Arline Houck was guest of honor at a party held last Thursday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Houck of East Bishop street, in observance of her sixth birthday anniversary. The children were entertained with gifts and the honor guest received Gladys and Sally Owens, and Karen Toupp, of East Bishop Street, attended the party.

—Among those who went to Hahona, N. Y., during the weekend to witness the Cornell-Ohio State football game, Saturday afternoon, was a group consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brown, Samuel Waite, Richard Herman, and James R. Hughes. They not only were members of a record through in the Cornell stadium, but also saw Coach Carl Snavely's team defeat Ohio State by a score of 21 to 7.

—The Bellefonte branch of the Needlework Guild of America is displaying its 1940 collection of garments for the infant and children in the window of the Broeckerhof building, formerly occupied by the A. and P. store, this week. Each of the ten directors of the organization has at least 20 donors on her list who gave a total of 470 articles of clothing and a sum of money for use in emergency cases.

—A home connection and need arises through authorized welfare representatives, such as the state, school, and Red Cross nurses.

—About ten o'clock Monday morning while employees at the S. H. Roomman garage, South Water street, were filling the radiator of Mr. Roomman's car with anti-freeze, some of the inflammable fluid leaked through a hose connection and sprayed on the hot manifold. The liquid caught fire and burned with an intense heat. A general fire alarm was sounded but before Logan and the Uncle companies arrived on the scene a salesman at the garage got a hand extinguisher from his car and extinguished the blaze. Damage was confined to a small section of the hood, where heat melted thin metal decorations.

—Although other social affairs during the evening reduced the attendance at the Bellefonte High School Alumni Association masquerade dance at the Spring Street school Friday night, the affair was a most pleasant and successful one. Officials report that the costumes varied and original and prizes were awarded as follows: To Mr. and Mrs. William B. Troupe, for the funniest couple; Glenn Aumiller, most elaborate costume; Lew Peters, most original costume; J. E. Cleveland, Jr., ugliest costume; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McClure, and Jack Cole and Miss Mary O'Hara, awards for spot dances.

—Persons having business to transact at the Centre County Hospital, have been complaining about the condition of the road leading from Willowbank Street to the hospital entrance. The road has been regraded and repaved from Willowbank Street to the borough line, which passes near the Edward R. Owens property, but above that point there is a short stretch of unpaved road in Spring township, which is badly in need of repair. The section is extremely rough and in wet weather becomes a slimy bog. Since the road is the only entrance to the hospital all traffic and from the institution must pass over it.

—A recent wedding of interest to Bellefonte residents was that of Miss Ellen R. McSherry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alban G. McSherry, of Atlantic City, N. J., and Mr. Ward Cannon, also of Atlantic City. The ceremony took place in Holy Spirit, Catholic Church, Atlantic City, with Rev. John J. Henry performing the ceremony. Mrs. McSherry is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wise, formerly of Bellefonte, now living in Spring Grove. The bride's mother is the former Anne Wise who was born and reared in Bellefonte. When the Wise family lived in Bellefonte they occupied the Dr. J. M. Brockhoff house at the corner of S. Spring street, now occupied by the Collins Shoemaker family.

—Leo Hartle, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hartle, of Spring Creek, recently accepted a position in the munitions building of the War Department at Washington, D. C.

—Mrs. Charles Mensch returned home during the weekend from Lancaster, where she attended the session of the State D. A. B. convention. During her absence, Mrs. Mensch went to New York for a final view of the World's Fair before it closed.

—Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Frey, of York, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with friends. The Freys were formerly well known residents of Bellefonte, occupying an apartment in the Library building until they moved to York about three months ago.

—Franklin B. Schad, president of the Bellefonte School Board, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, at the Centre County Hospital, was discharged from that institution, Friday, and is now recuperating nicely at his home on East Curtis Street.

—Arthur Houck, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Houck, who has been confined to his parental home, East Bishop Street, for the past two weeks because of an eye injury suffered when he was struck by a falling saw, is reported to be recovering slowly. The injury was received while Houck was picking black walnuts.

—Mrs. John Kinley last week closed her home on South Thomas Street and has gone to Williamsburg to spend the winter with her son, a six week-old child, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Butterworth, as has been her custom for several years. She made the trip as the driving guest of Mr. and Mrs. Butterworth who came here for her.

—A "Victory" dance will be held in the high school gymnasium on Thanksgiving night. This dance is being sponsored by the Bellefonte Alumni Association, the proceeds to be used toward the college fund established by them last year. The dance committee, Annette Decker chairman, is now receiving orchestra bids. All bids should be submitted as soon as possible.

—Miss Angeline Capparello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Capparello of Coyleville, last week entered the Philadelphia School of Nursing at Philadelphia. After a six week course at that institution, Miss Capparello will be assigned to another Philadelphia hospital for the remainder of her training period. She was a member of the graduating class at the Bellefonte High School in June.

—Rev. C. Nevin Stamm, pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church; Harry E. Clevens, Edward R. Owens, Galvan Troupe, of Bellefonte and John Hartwick, of State College, all deacons of the church, moved to Huntingdon last week to attend the Central Pennsylvania synod meeting of the Reformed church. Others who attended the sessions included Mrs. J. M. Harris, wife and daughter, Susanne, Mrs. John Cleveland, Mrs. Stamm and Mrs. Norman Jodon, all of Bellefonte.

—Work was begun this week on preparations for the erection of stop lights at High and Spring streets in Bellefonte. Borough workmen are completing the digging of holes on the four corners for the erection of the lights. It will be necessary to dig ditches along four sides between all four standards for the purpose of laying the cable, it was explained. Several days will be required to complete the work of setting up the new stop lights at High and Spring streets and at Allegheny and Bishop streets.

—A group of forty residents of Hunlock Creek, Pa., headed by the Rev. O. B. Williams, pastor of the Methodist church in that community, stopped in Bellefonte Saturday while en route to Tyrone to spend the day at the Methodist Home for the Aged. Traveling in a special bus, the party was delayed for three hours before reaching Bellefonte by motor trouble, but they obtained another bus for the remainder of the trip. They stopped at the Pleasant Gap Fish Hatchery and in Bellefonte to visit the famous trout on Water Street before continuing on to Tyrone. The Rev. Mr. Williams is a brother of Harry M. Williams, of Pine Street, Bellefonte, who is well known throughout the county where he spent his boyhood years.

—Mrs. Lord Underwood, of Pitscairn, called at our office Wednesday while in town, attending the funeral of her uncle, Elmer White.

—After spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weaver, of North Penn Street, Mrs. Daniel Currie, returned during the weekend to her home in Donora.

—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Frankline, of South Thomas Street, spent the weekend in Baltimore, Md., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Justice, former well known residents of this community.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Charles Saxton and son, James, of East High Street, were recent guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mabury, at their home in Baltimore, Md.

—After a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in New Jersey and New York states, Miss Margaret Cook returned to her home on West Linn Street, Friday. Miss Agnes Nelson, who makes her home with Miss Cook, spent the time with friends in New York City.

—James Hoffer, member of the Electric Supply Company staff, suffered a painful but not serious injury on the day last week when one of his fingers was caught between the rolls of an electric wringer he was demonstrating. The resulting wound required seven stitches to close. Jimmy, son of Mrs. G. Earle Hoffer lost no time in work and the injury is now healing nicely.

—Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Har. Trester, at their home here on the Bellefonte airport, were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Trester and daughter, Geraldine, and Jack Bruns, all of Altoona; Mrs. May Harter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Trester, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Trester, all of State College; Miss Irene Newcomb, and Richard Hewitt and son, Linn, all of Bellefonte.

Crumlish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Crumlish, of Pleasant Gap, who had been employed as an engineer at the Western Electric Co., was assigned to the staff of the military department of the Pennsylvania State College, as an instructor. L. Crumlish and Mrs. Crumlish arrived in Centre county, Sunday, and will make their home at State College.

—George B. Zettle, native of Centre county, is enjoying a several week vacation in his boyhood haunts in George's Valley. He and Mrs. Zettle having arrived here from their home in Winslow, Illinois, October 19. Mr. Zettle, who is 76 years of age, left this area 58 years ago and since then has farmed in Idaho, Tennessee, Illinois and Wisconsin. He has visited in states, Old Mexico and Canada, and retains most of the "accent" and vitality he had in his youth. While in Centre County Mr. and Mrs. Zettle are guests of the former's brother, Fred Zettle and family in George's Valley. Since his departure from this county, Mr. Zettle has kept in touch with his "home" through the columns of The Centre Democrat, of which he has been a constant reader for the past 57 years.

Gardner Faces Trial In Slaying of Woman

clock the morning of September 1, about two hours after the shooting, and that Gardner emphatically admitted the shooting. The officer quoted Gardner as saying he "didn't give a damn if he hung tomorrow." The officer added that his elderly mother said he had fired the shot because Mrs. Miller had been running around too much with under men.

Under cross examination by Attorney W. J. Schwartz, Gardner admitted that he had been drinking but was not visibly intoxicated. The officer explained that the man had a strong alcoholic breath, but that in answered questions readily and his speech was not thick. Jordan produced the revolver with which Gardner allegedly fired the fatal shot.

Dr. W. J. Schwartz, of Bellefonte, who performed an autopsy upon Mrs. Miller's body at a Philadelphia funeral home, said noon, Saturday, that the bullet which killed her, Dr. Schwartz said that Mrs. Miller died as the result of complications due to the severance of her spinal cord. He stated that the complications involved the kidneys and bladder and that an accumulation of fluids in her body finally entered the lungs, causing a fatal pneumonia. He testified it was his belief that the bullet wound was the direct cause of the fatal complications.

Shortly after the shooting Mrs. Miller underwent an operation for the removal of the bullet, which entered at a point about midway between the hips and shoulders, and in severing the spinal cord caused complete paralysis of the lower part of the victim's body. Dr. Schwartz said, there was no cross-examination of the witness.

After the testimony had been heard, Judge Cowley remanded Gardner to the county jail without bail to await the action of the Grand Jury, which will meet here on November 23. If a true bill is returned by the jury, his trial probably will be scheduled for the regular December criminal court, which will convene on December 9.

Monday morning of last week Gardner appeared before Judge Ivan Walker at a special session of court here and entered a plea of guilty to a charge of assault with intent to kill, and was sentenced to serve from 3 1/2 to 7 years in the Western Penitentiary. He was being held in the county jail awaiting transfer to the Pittsburgh prison when officials received word of Mrs. Miller's death.

Further details of the shooting were brought out at the Health Bureau here at Osceola Mills Saturday afternoon when a coroner's jury heard the dead woman's husband, son and daughter-in-law testify.

John Miller, her husband, who was in the kitchen of the Miller home August 31 when Gardner shot his wife in the back with a revolver, told of Gardner being in the Miller home and how Mrs. Miller told Gardner to go home and drink after he had drained a bottle of water he took from the refrigerator. Miller then told his wife, Gardner, that he had come back with his "home" through the columns of The Centre Democrat, of which he has been a constant reader for the past 57 years.

30,000 People Read This Column

Every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering the low cost and the benefit derived it is indisputably Centre County's Community Bazaar Counter.

Saturday night several hours before the shooting, Mrs. Miller stopped in Philadelphia. Gardner also was in Philadelphia and is said to have threatened her on the street and in a Philadelphia establishment.

According to statements made by Gardner, he later went home, got a gun, and went to the Miller home where the shooting took place shortly before midnight. A few minutes before the shooting, Mrs. Miller allegedly drove Gardner from the house with the kitchen stove poker. He then opened the door and fired the shot into her back.

HALLOWEEN PRANK CAUSES TRAFFIC JAM

A Halloween prank is believed to have caused a traffic jam at the intersection of South Frazier street and West Foster avenue, State College, early Tuesday, when a barrier was found across the South Frazier street to the west of the intersection with West Foster avenue, barring motorists making a right turn.

The barrier, it was learned, was moved from a street near the State College High school, where steel for the new addition to the building is now being unloaded and placed.

Missionary Convention.

The annual Missionary Convention of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church will be held in the new Tabernacle on East Howard Street, Bellefonte, on Saturday, October 26 to November 3, 1940. Rev. E. E. Johnson of St. Petersburg, Fla., will be the evangelist
