

cats, and when a group of New Columbia school boys found one (with a white stripe along its back) they shut it in the school house There was no school the following day, and a scheduled meeting of the Townsend Club was cancelled. The skunk had made its escape, but the odor remained.

Didn't Bother Him Sixty-year-old Albert Schwamline of Ashland. was accidentally shot in the back by a small calibre rifle as he leaned over to inspect an old oil First he pursued the boy drum. who fired the shot but didn't catch him. Then he carried home the oil An hour later he went to drum. the Ashland Hospital where physicians extracted the bullet.

Worth Digging For

Harry Robertson, of Brookfield, Mo., thought there must be a catch when he discovered someone had scattered 39 shiny silver dollars about his potato patch one night. He sent a sample to the Treasury 10 a. m .- Devotional Period-Rev Department and Uncle Sam pronounced it a genuine, minted dol-

Want To Buy It?

Manheim borough in Lancaster county wants to sell one-third of its three-cell jail. There isn't room for the cell in the jail building, said Police Chief Charles Hollinger, and anyway "never in my memory were all three occupied at once."

Beaned

Charles Berry, of Colhan, Colo. Church, Howard. started for market with a six-ton load of beans on his truck. He ar- 2:15 p. m.: Dedication of District rived with a four-ton load. An No. end-gate had loosened-scattering President. beans for 151/2 miles.

Dorsey F. Decker, 21, of Tyrone, had gone into a nearby field with

Fall Convention of Church Workers

Centre County Council of Christian Education to Meet

at Blanchard

The Centre County Council of Christian Education will hold its annual Fall convention in the Church of Christ at Blanchard on Thursday, November 14. The theme for the three-session meeting will be: "Teaching Stewardship in the Church School

Morning Session

Presiding officer-Thomas G. Haugh, First Vice President.

9:30 a. m.-Registration of Delegates (no registration fee.) M. S. Rogers, Pastor Church of Christ, Blanchard.

10:15 a. m.-Welcome-Rev. D. M. Packer, Assistant Supt. Church of Christ School.

10:20 a. m .: Address-Mr. Walter E. Meyers, Secretary Pennsylvania State Council, Philadelphia, 11:00 a. m.: Discussion Period. 12:00 Noon-Dinner, 25 cents. Afternoon Session

Presiding Officer-Prof. J. F. Wetzel, 2nd Vice President. 2:00 p. m.: Devotional Period-Rev.

car amounted to $200, the Fleck car is the proud possessor of one of escaped with approximately $35 rethe 9,000 blue capsules used in the pany responded to the call with all pair bill ANOTHER GREAT DETECTIVE STORY BY A MASTER SLEUTH Tuesday Astonishing revelations about a upon the scene. He failed to see the parked truck until too late to

While damages to Mr. Neidigh's vendetta that was responsible for ceived an admission ticket to the the strange death of four men who were mysteriously murdered after sary of the head-on collision near freight bound from Lock Haven.

national lottery under the Selective of their equipment. Firemen don-Service Act in Washington last ned smoke masks and extinguished Mr. Gates, a guest of scout execu- from a booster tank. Little damage

MAN HAS DRAFT CAPSULE

Marshall Gates of State College 9:30 o'clock Friday morning

Members of the Alpha Fire Com-

Lock Haven, purchased Luck Lad, year subscription, Centre Democrat the price being $575. Another cen- Nancy Wallace. Jane McKinley tral Pennsylvania sale was that of baske; groceries, Hoag's Dairy Store West for $500 to Paul Welp, -Everybody reads the Classifieds Stamm. 24 lb. flour, Shaffer Store, way to Lock Haven where it had the other train was severely injured, six months old. He was married to quoted Engineman John Leitzell of been ordered for duty. At the al hough not seriously. Conductor Miss Sarah J. Borman. He had curve, two miles east of Beech Woodling of the Tyrone work train been employed as flagman on the before as marking the 38th anniver- Creek, the work train met the extra received a fractured left arm and work train for fourteen years and also served as extra conductor. In was severely bruised about the body. 1888 Mr. Haupt, with his family, re-John Haupt of Bellefonte and collision occurred with almost no Jesse Snyder of Tyrone were demoved from Bellefonte to Tyrone Tyrone lost their lives. Incidental- warning to the men on the two stined to lose their lives in the unand were residing there at the time iy, Mr. Leitzell is the only living trains. None of the crews had any fortunate accident that cast a pail bit atta and the following children: trains. None of the crews had any fortunate accident that cast a pail his wife and the following children: 22 c May, Bessie, Charles, John, Ralph. rifle, Leroy and Lawrence, all at home.

Wife Discovers Body Lying silly before election, and we still Sherman C. Ross, 34-year-old more than eight years, might devote home at Altoons, R. D. 2, a short His lifeless body was found lying on the bed by his wife and child about 11 o'clock after they returned from a drive in an automobile. A note, not addressed to any par- of the majority ticular person, was found lying on his pocketbook on the floor, giving MAYBE HE'S RIGHT: directions for the disposal of his Karl Kusse's contention that the personal property and asked that Turnpike can be used for a day, or his body be sent to the state ana- indefinitely, for that matter, for the tomical board in Philadelphia. The man had shot himself changes, may be sound, this corner through the right temple with a has learned from other sources. We 22 calibre long rifle bullet from his hope to organize an unofficial trip

His wife stated that her husband once and for all, that the system is had been ill for some time but or is not workable. We hope Friend

DeHaas Electric Co.; Catherine Coble, Silver spoons, Spigelmeyer's Mrs. Andrew Runkle, 24 1b, sack flour. Shaters Store Allegheny St.

Miss Betty Ritchie, 4 pr. ladies taps

ing, F. & F. Cleaners: Bernice wave, Milady's Beauty Salon; Mrs. Roy Rider, groceries, A. & P. Super Market: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beaton, Box letter paper, Hunter's Book (Continued on page six) Store; Mrs. Pat Moore, wall lamp

> Altoona Shopman Takes Own Life

on Bed After Returning

From Drive

Pennsylvania rafiroad crane direc- his last term in office to legislation tor in the Alloona shops, shot and favoring his own interests, or interkilled himself Wednesday night of ests of some favored clique or group. last week in the bedroom of his The hope of unlimited time in ofdistance back of Lakemont park. any President to carry out the wish-each received a weird warning. Read tives at national headquarters, re- resulted. lottery and witnessed the drawing. ELECTRIC IRON CAUSES FIRE AT STATE COLLEGE

The morning was foggy and the

The engines came together with

to Benefit By Federal

Decree

employment until March 31, 1941.

recreation areas, and 1,600 in Alle-

Aitch, R. F. D.; Petersburg, Coburn,

Marienville, Kane, Sheffield, Pine ing.

Weikert

Ninety-six hundred enrollees in

An overheated electric iron burn-the flames with the aid of water Buys Horse at Auction

At the auction sale of horses last Lugi Lallie Shop; Mrs. Julia week in the Pennsylvania Farm Thompson, Mixing bowls, Olewine Show arena, W. N. Frederick of Hardware Co.; James Boscaino,

Reba Jones, 5 lb. bacon, Walizer's Market; Charles Sherry, $1.00 clean-

Store; Florence Hogencamp, 2 din- the victim's body. quaris milk, Brooks Dairy; May Jo Joffe, 30 quarts milk, Bellefonte Milk Products; Margaret Miller. ner tickets, Brockerhoff Hotel. Wilma Lair, $1.00 laundry ser-Ladies Blouse, Walter Cohen; Mrs. vice, City Sleam Laundry; George Seeger, Shampoo Pinger

Clyde Love, chair, Wolf Furniture Co.; Mrs. Clair Hazel, 25 lb. flour, Brouse Grocery Co.; John Reese, Man's shirt, Montgomery's; George

As this is written the citizens of the United States are flocking to the polls to cast their ballots. We don't know how the election came out, nor will we know until after this column is in type. If Mr. Willkie was elected we hope he forgets one of his campaign promises-the one that when Congress meets in January he will urge the passage of a law barring any President of the United States from serving more than eight years, at the most. We thought the third term furore was think it is utter folly to limit the time a good President can serve his nation. It is conceivable that a President, knowing he couldn't serve fice, we contend, is an incentive for es of the majority of the people. Election every four years assures the people that any President can be voted out of office when his services no longer represent the wishes price of a toll between two interto the Dream Highway to prove, ed an ironing board in the basement of the Sparks House, Penn Ila State College home economics prac- Bloomsburg. tice building located on the North Drive of the Campus, shortly after RECALLS 38-YEAR-OLD R. R. WRECK this thrilling story in the November 17th issue of The American Weekly the big magazine distributed with the Baltimore Sunday American. On sale at all newsstands.

Enough cash in the palm will get a soothsayer to see anything.

Saturday's Tyrone Daily Herald

that city having recalled the day

Beech Creek in which John Haupt of Bellefonte and Jesse Snyder of George Young, retired, and Law-

Live Stock Exposition

the service of the company, while the ground.

avoid a crash.

ESCAPES INJURY WHEN TRUCK STRUCK HIS CAR

George F. McFarland, an employ of the O. W. Houts Lumber Company. State College, escaped injury at 6.30 o'clock Friday morning when a truck crashed into his car on the mountain east of Potters Mills on Route 322.

Mr. McFarland, traveling towards Lewistown, pulled off the highway when he saw the huge vehicle coming towards him on his side of the road. It is believed the truck driver had fallen asleep. Mr. Mc-Farland, a resident of Punxsutawney. escaped injury.

TWO ESCAPE INJURY IN MISHAP AT COLLEGE

Occupants of two vehicles escaped injury at 3:45 o'clock Saturday morning when the machines crashed on West College avenue, State College

A car operated by Aaron Rabin, Penn State student, stopped to discharge a passenger when another vehicle driven by M. E. Gruver of DuBois attempted to pass the Rabin car. An on-coming vehicle made it necessary for Gruver to cut sharply in front of the Rabin car. according to the report of Borough Police Officer, Grant N. Kough.

blood, he had temporarily saved his Damage totaled approximately life. $30, according to the officer's report.

NATIVE SON TO RETURN

John Sloan, who was born in Lock | ings, designed trinkets for a fancy Haven, August 2, 1871. is returning goods business, illustrated for a to that city for his first visit since Philadelphia newspaper and rose to the heights of his chosen field. the age of 5.

can artist, whose family left Lock speak in the auditorium of the Haven to live in Philadelphia, is regarded as one of the finest teachers of art in the United States and is hailed by artists everywhere as one of the fathers of American realism.

He left high school to work in a Historical Society are invited to atbook store, studied art in the even- tend.

FORMER PRISONER AIDS OTHERS

Nearly 10 years ago the president | homa, where he devotes all his time of an Oklahoma investment com- to the task of helping other paroled, pany stood before Federal Judge pardoned and discharged ex-con-Kennamer and was sentenced to victs regain a respectable place in serve 15 years in prison and pay a society.

$5,000 fine for using the mails to He has organized the Fields Founmisrepresent oil royalists to pros- dation, a chartered non-profit inpective investors. stitution whose purpose is to grant to school, Mary Ann Carnan, died During his "stretch" Ben F. loans to ex-convicts from the time while being rushed to the Clearfield Fields was transferred to Lewisburg they are released until they get a Hospital. Her cousin, Rita Marie as a model prisoner. He was paroled job. April 7, 1938, and on January 13 of The Foundation makes loans with- was struck by the truck, but escaped this year was given a pardon by out interest. No security except the serious injury. President Roosevelt. man's word is required. Ben Fields

Today he lives in Tulsa, Okla- is doing a unique and uplifting job.

rence Lawis are the two other liv-L. E. Kline, Pastor Evangelic ing members of the two crews. The wreck referred to occurred in 5 Project-Dr. W. R. Heaton, miles east of Beech Creek.

2:30 p. m.: Hymn Sing-Songs of the Church. 3:00 p. m.: Divisional Conferences

(Continued on page five)

Leg Is Severed, College To List Sheep and Swine Until March 31st Brings $144 Fines Saves Own Life

Victim of Train Accident Exhibit to Be Part of Chicago Ninety-Six Hundred Enrollees Penn State Fraternity Mem- Seek 412 Volunteers For Bat-

Lock Haven State Teachers' College at 8:15 o'clock Friday evening, Nov.

15. Some of his pictures will be on open afternoons and evenings.

freigh train.

Holds Wounded Stump Under Water Physicians at Connellsville Hos-

Pennsylvania exhibitors at the pital say Merle Overly, 27, of Mt. 1940 International Livestock Expos- 48 Civilian Conservation Corps Pleasant, earned himself a 50-50 ition will include the Pennsylvania camps in Pennsylvania are assured for shooing in the borough on Satchance to survive by keeping the State College, State College station. stump of his right leg in the cold which will exhibit in the sheep and water of Dunbar Creek after the swine classes of this largest annual lower part of the leg was cut off by stock show.

They have listed entries for the protection and development of state two councilmen. Overly was hit by the train while Shropshires, Hampshire, South- forest areas, according to word from walking along the Pennsylvania down, and Dorset sheep classes of CCC Director James J. McEntee, at railroad tracks at Dunbar Friday the show, where both last year and Washington. night. Knocked into the creek, he in 1938 they exhibited the grand managed to swim and crawl to a champion lamb over all breeds, in will be employed on soil erosion bank. There he lay for more than each case a Southdown, an hour, moaning for help, until a Claude G. Aikens, owner of Wilflagman on another train heard lowbrook Farms, near State College, gheny national forest, it was said. him and summoned an ambulance. is also sending entries for the sheep The 48 camps are: Taken to the hospital, he was reclasses of the forthcoming show. ported in critical condition. But which will be held at the Chicago doctors said that by keeping his in- Stock Yards from November 30 to jured leg in the cold water. thus December 7. somewhat staunching the flow of

Loganton, Mifflinburg. Although entries for most depart-Waynesboro, R. F. D.; Hyner, Rements of the Exposition close No- novo. Westport, Masten. Waterville, vember 1, a complete tally will not Sinnamahoning, Cross Fork, Galebe available until later in the month ton, Cedar Run, LePorte, Ridgeway, after the final date for accepting Laquin, Blain, Milroy, Clearfield, entries for the carlot livestock con- Philipsburg, Farrandsville, Elimstests, November 23. The latter com- port, Cameron. Greentown, R. F. prise the largest annual showing of D.; Austin. Asaph, Slickville, Wayprime market animals in the world. nesboro, Sligo, Glen Rock, Lancas-The listing for the purebred class- | ter, Homer City, Sunbury, Burgetts-

es of cattle, sheep, swine, and draft town, Birdsboro, Rockwood, White horses, as well as individual animals | Haven and Pavia. Mr. Sloan has been engaged to for the fat stock classes, filed by prospective exhibitors up to the Freedom is a gift from the past November 1st deadline, has been so but it is not at all certain that it heavy that the management feels will be a legacy to the future. confident the 1940 Exposition will view in connection with the Clinton be one of the largest on record. County Art Exhibit, Nov. 13 to 17. A total of approximately $100,000 will be paid in cash prizes at this Members of the Centre County year's show.

Nearly all of the railroads servng Chicago have notified the Exposition management that round rip fare reductions have been granted from many points along heir lines to Chicago during the first week of December. In many instances the fares will be the lowest ever established for this event.

Student Killed at Clearfield

Struck down and run over by a skidding truck as she was walking Krenan, who was walking with her,

-Shop the Classified columns.

Mr. Haupt, flagman of the work terrific force, breaking the steam train, was caught in the wreck and pipes and endangering the lives of instantly killed. Jesse Snyder, a the engineers and firemen. En- brakeman on the extra freight 1902 in the vicinity of what was gineman Austin of the work train train, was thrown in the way of es-known as the Red Barn about two was badly cut and bruised about the caping steam and terribly acalded ity formally all establish a chapter.

was badly cut and bruised about the caping steam and terribly scalded. ity formally will establish a chapter face and body in addition to a dis- He died a short time after the acci- at Bucknell University. Nov. 7. Dr. On the morning of the tragic located collarbone. He was also dent, event, the Tyrone work train. pilot- scalded on one side by escaping Mr. Haupt was a native of Belle- Lewisburg, is national secretary of ed by Engineman Austin, was on its steam. Engineman Sauserman of fonte and was about 39 years and the fraternity.

Phi Beta for Buckneil

Phi Beta Kappa, whose key testalion of Behind the

Lines Fighters

William A. Shimer, faculty dean of

Educator, Known In County, Dies

> Began Early Teaching Career in Centre Hall Public Schools

Dr. William C. Bartol, professor proached the politico: "Say, I don't emeritus of mathematics and astro- have any money to get shells to hunt nomy and historian at Bucknell with Could you help me out with University, died in Geisinger Mem- that?" orial hospital Thursday, October 31, into his pocket, made rumbling 1940, at the age of 93. He was ad- noises in his throat, peeled off a mitted to the hospital last Friday, couple of bucks from a roll and askill of pneumonia and a heart con- ed: "Now, are you sure you have a dition

He matriculated there as a stu- JANITOR:

dent after early schooling at his One of the best-kept furnace native Huntingdon and returned in rooms in Bellefonte is in the Logan 1881 as an instructor and later his- Fire House, East Howard street. Any Until a few days ago, he had been know how difficult it is to keep a preparation for Bucknell's centen- your hand over the top of the furnial in 1946 only one game in four years. After is always spotless. he was graduated in 1872 he taught war must be single, between 21 and field, Pa., Limerock Conn., and 32 years old, weigh not more than Union Grove, Wis. 185 pounds and must be free of Until his retirement as professor good looking.

head of the university mathematics department. He also was director of the observatory a building which

The volunteers will combine with held the first number drawn in the a small experimental platoon already in service at Fort Benning,

You can usually get in touch with Battalion. At least one other such an individual if you are ready to battalion is contemplated, Secretary

Some thirty-four parachute of-There are individuals in the world ficers will be required for the first

(Continued on page five)

In his undergraduate days, Doc- the Logan House boller room withtor Bartol was captain of Bucknell's out finding a trace of dust. The school in Centre Hall and Mans- NOTE TO MAYOR:

a $1 fine once in a while for overtime parking, but we do hate like have borough bigwigs comment; "You're a sap, no one else pays." How about a refund?

Photographer William Sager currently is delightedly showing to the fact that agriculture has a long friends a photo in a popular detective magazine. The photo, illustrating the story of a murder in Switznotes on a pad. Sager points out that the investigator is Lt. Donald

'KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES' - Exercise Hasn't Helped Eddie's Memory

GOSH! WISH I -- HADN'T -- PUFF WHEW! REDUCING BY EXERCISE IS TOUGH WORK!! I HOPE I'VE LOST SOME WEIGHT --- I MUST M-M-M- THIS NO MONE YEAH? DON'T THAT'LL TAKEN BE A DIME P-RUN - FASTER -- PUFF-PUF TH' SPOT -- GLUG E RUN THREE MILES -- HA BRE ON ME GLUG - GURGLE BISOTHER I'LL' O. FRY MINNON (@ by The Associated Newspape

Twelve Penn State fraternity The U.S. Army has asked for 412 members were fined $12 and $3 costs volunteers possessing "agility, intelurday, October 19, Burgess Wilbur form the first American parachute Two hundred enrollees will be as- F. Leitzell announced. The amount battalion. signed to each camp, with 6,400 of the fine was decided by a secret Promised extra pay and unusual men engaged in the improvement, ballot, cast by three students and chances for promotion, they will be selected from twenty-four regular torian. The 12 College students pleaded Army infantry regiments. No man guilty to the charges at a hearing drafted for a year's service need before Burgess Leitzell on October apply, it was said. Of the remaining 3,200 men. 1400 23. Representatives of the borough Stressing that there would be council and student government or- "extremely careful selection of perprojects, 1200 in national parks and ganizations were appointed on a sonnel," the War Department listcommittee that night to decide the ed these qualifications for the hazamount of the fine. Several of the ardous service.

shots pierced a window of a private Men volunteering to fight behind Grove Furnace, Richmond Furnace, home, it was disclosed at the hear- the lines of a foe in the event of

Strange Coincidence

bers Penalized For Shooting in Boro.

ber drawn at Washington, 158, is sufficient education to absorb readnow living in the same house near ily instruction in map reading, the Trutt school house, south of sketching, radio, use of explosives he planned and supervised. Winfield, where his uncle, Harry and other specialized subjects. Fetter, lived in 1917 when he also

World War lottery.

pay him money.

unable to agree with themselves.

James C. Sanders, Union County heart disease. They must have had man who held the first draft num- at least a year's Army service and

Ga., to form the 501st Parachute

Stimson has disclosed.

Camps to Operate Broken Windows U.S. To Form 'Chute Army

seemed in good spirits when she Karl will accept an invitation to go left. He had worked Tuesday but along, because we have it in mind to THOUGHTFUL:

> Here's a true ward-heeler story that's too good to pass up. A local politician was in a taproom cne. evening last week when a downand-outer approached him with a request for enough money to buy a hunting license. The request was granted. The evening wore on, and both the ward-heeler and the downand-outer got a bit in their cups. The down-and-outer again 80. The ward-heeler reached gun?'

of you who has fired a furnace working on historical research in furnace room clean. You can run nace, pipes, and other equipment in famous baseball team which lost floor, even in front of the furnace,

This corner doesn't mind paying emeritus in 1927, Doctor Bartol was the dickens upon paying a fine to

PHONEY PHOTO? Farmers should not lose sight of way to go to have real parity. Women still smile sweetly at men erland, shows an investigator sup-

(Continued on Page 5)

who, they know, think they are posedly at the crime scene, making

A campaign year turns loose an Wagner, communications officer for amazing amount of foolish talk. By POP MOMAND