OBITUARY

MISS JENNIE S. FISHER

Miss Jennie S. Fisher, lifelong resident of Unionville, died at the ship on August 23, 1858, making her R. T. age at time of death 82 years, 2 months and 16 days. She is survived a sister, Mrs. Cora McMinn, of DuBois. Another sister, Lucretia Way, of State College, passed away on October 30, 1940. Miss Fisher was a member of the Friends church. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Wetzler Memorial Chapel, Milesburg, with the Rev. Howard E. Oakwood, of the Milesburg Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment was made in the Oak Ridge cemetery near Unionville.

RICHARD EUGENE STOVER

Richard Eugene Stover, aged 14. of Millheim, succumbed at 3:30 o'clock last Thursday afternoon, November 7, 1940, while enroute to the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte, in an ambulance. He became ill Sunday of last week and death attributed to a ruptured appendix, came while the ambulance He was a son of Robert and Estel- at New Castle. la Keen Beck Stover and was born on April 6. 1926, making his age at time of death 14 years, 7 months and 1 day. He is survived by his parents and these half-brothers and half-sisters: Dean Bennett, of Millheim; and Russell, Betty and newspaper carrier in Millheim.

MRS. ANNA D. STEELE.

Mrs Anna Drucilla Steele, Tyrone, died at her home in Tyrone, Thursday night, November 7, 1940, at 11:20 o'clock. Mrs. Steele was born at Bellefonte. November 16, 1868, a daughter of George and Ellen (Brown) Meese. On September 18, 1888, at Bellefonte, she was united in marriage with Zachius Steele, who passed away a few years ago. Surviving are three sons and three daughters: Roy B. Steele of Cleveland, O., Z. E. Steele, Jr., Mich.; Harry E. Steele of Tyrone, was made in the Treziyulny ceme- oven, and it will not fall. The rea-Mrs. George Campbell of Aliquippa, tery, Milesburg.

Social Security Agent to be Here

monthly wages of the wage earner in accordance with the provisions relied on." he said. of the law. An insured status is acamount of employment and wages rard's fort, they suffer no moles- ish. on a job covered by the Social Se- tation. curity Act.

ance in filing claims may be obtained by calling upon the representative in Bellefonte or by communicating with the Communicating with th municating with the Williamsport

Anniversary of Indian Massacre garden tools, $50.

(Continued from page one)

and can feel to some extent was believed by the Pennsylvania Inpain if stepped upon, has been ex- $500 coverage. pressed to this writer by old Cornplanter Indians on several occa-

Dr. J. W. Betz. who, as previously mentioned in this column was the oldest practising veterinary surgeon in Pennsylvania until his death in Lebanon county in his ninetieth year and who told this writer the best legend he had in all of 1940. said that originally Indian burial of briars, vines, stakes and rocks out a woman legislator.

Mrs. Leda Richards of Philadelphia: vou do? Shepherd and Enoch Pratt Hospi- Mary Grubb of Lock Haven; Mrs. forbidden by social usage? tal at Towson, Md., at 6 o'clock Sat- Esther Johnson of Philadelphia, urday morning, November 9, 1940, Mrs. Clare Kennan of Johnstown finished eating place his napkin on company of others? after a lingering illness. She had and Mrs. Blanche Hockenberry, of been a patient at the hospital for Pleasant Gap. She was a member a year. Miss Fisher was a daughter of the Presbyterian church, of the of William P. and Esther Wilson Lady Viola Rebekah lodge and of Fisher and was born in Union town- the Ladies' auxiliary of the B. of

FREDERICK MICHAEL SEEGER.

of Tyrone, late of New Castle, died to chat for a minute, should the at his home Wednesday night, No- young woman rise? vember 6, 1940, following an illness which had invalided him for over ten years. Mr. Seeger was born at Tyrone, a son of Christian and Annie (Theurer) Seeger. About 40 1. Take it up with the post office | name only, but the note should say, riage with Lina Larrimer at Al- Thank your friend and say nothing etc. toona. Members of the family in- about the damage. clude the wife and eight children. one of whom is Gerald Seeger, of Port Matilda. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and three sisters. Mr. Seeger was a member of the German Lutheran church of Tyrone. He followed the trade of baker, until incapacitated by illness, ed hers there. Funeral services were held at the 4. Yes, it is a fault that should home in New Castle on Saturday be corrected. The old proverb says, was passing through Centre Hall. afternoon and interment was made "A wise man reflects before he

SIDNEY C. SLIKER

Sidney C. Sliker, of Detroit, Mich., former well known resident of Milesburg ,died suddenly about noon Friday, November 8, 1940, at his home in Detroit shortly after he Charlotte Beck, of Aaronsburg. Fu- had returned there from attending neral services were held on Monday the funeral of his brother-in-law afternoon at the home of his grand- Cameron McKinley, in Bellefonte parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keen. He was found dead in the kitchen at Millheim, with the Rev. G. A. of his home by his son, Sidney, Jr. Fred Griesing officiating. Inter- and death was attributed to a stroke. ment was made in the Fairview Mr. Slicker, who had been in poor cemetery, Millheim. Richard for health for some time, suffered a be renewed as follows: Dissolve 4 sometime had been employed as a stroke several years ago. He was a son of James and Laura Confer Sliker and was born at Milesburg on June 14, 1902, making his age at time of death 38 years, 4 months wife, the former Gladys McKinley; two sons, Daniel and Sidney, Jr., and the following brothers and sisters: John and Mrs. Harry Aikens, of Altoona; Taylor, of Rochester, N. the cracks of "crazy" paving. When of Detroit, Mich.; Blair and Ross, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Mrs. George Newman, of Milesburg, Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at the Wetzler Memorial Chapel at Milesburg, with the Rev. Mrs. Harry Colestock of Detroit, H. O. Kline officiating. Interment the table before putting it into the

to keep anyone from walking over

(Continued from page one)

who must have an insured status views on such subjects are to be certain minimum bly's remains still rest at old Gar-

Goods Destroyed

(Continued from page one)

Ferd C. Lucas, estimated at $1,000, and a small amount of Mr. Lucas' The total loss is from $5,500 to of the Christmas stocks. The loss is partly covered by in-surance. The Shadle building, the mia? Tularemia is a serious tickdians. That it was considered evil not insured. The Lucas building was persons who handle rabbits. The taken an unexpected twist, was pro- ty. California, first showed this disvision of a well-appointed spacious ease to mankind. The name tullounge for women legislators, on the main capitol building.

Election Twists Upset Program

(Continued from page one)

The 1941 session will be the first grounds were not hard to find, as in Pennsylvania's history since they kept them fenced with tangles adoption of women's suffrage with-

When obliged to borrow money to meet expenses, be certain, through investigation, that your money is loaned by a reputable and approved organization. For seventy-five years, we have been meeting the needs of those who have a need for money. Our reputation

Personal loans and commercial loans for any worthwhile purpose made on signature as well as on Inquire of our loan plans now.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK BELLEFONTE, PA.

Member of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Modern Etiquette

mail, and it arrives in a badly

the table?

son in company to be impulsive in what he says, always "speaking his mind" as he calls it without considering its effect?

5. When a young woman is Frederick Michael Seeger, for seated at the table of a public dinmany years a well known resident ing room and another woman stops

7. When a bride is writing notes righted in 1937." Copywrit is the do not know her husband, should book was copyright in 1937."

8. Shouldn't one endeavor to 3. When should a guest who has conceal "hurt feelings" when in the > 9. What are the fashionable call-10. Would five cents be sufficient

12. When a girl is sitting in a theatre next to a man who annoys her should she call an usher?

Answers to Modern Etiquette

am sure," or any other extravagant tion is resented. phrase. "How do you do" is the accepted form.

3. Not until his hostess has placspeaks, and then reflects on what he has uttered."

stops is elderly.

years ago, he was united in mar- at once and try to get it replaced. "Howard and I deeply appreciate.

8. Yes, And one should strive 2. "Pleased to meet you," "De- to overcome sensitiveness, when lighted to know you," "Charmed, I every little tactless remark or ac-wise, it is better not to give any.

11. The hostess should arrange 5. Not unless the woman who water and display them prominent-formal close, used in business. the easiest way is to change her

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Renewing Blackboards

ounces glue in 11/2 pints hot water. Add 3 ounces flour of emery and enough lamp black to color. Stir until smooth and apply with the end and 24 days. He is survived by his of a roll of woolen goods. For best results, apply three coats of the above.

Added Beauty Try scattering portulaca seed in Y.; Mrs. Oliver Willkie and Charles, it comes up in the spring it will add beauty to the paving. It will not germinate until the weather is Baking Cake > son for this is that it causes all the air bubbles to come to the top and break. Stains on Furniture

One hopes that if Elizabeth Cor- then wipe off carefully with a soft

$450; heavy damage to a barn of $6.500, depending on the inventory car and the household goods were borne diseases when transmitted to to walk over the graves of warriors fully covered. On the huge supply slain in battle, as they experienced of Christmas goods, there was only is above questioning.

Borrow From A Bank

collateral and mortgages.

1. When you have received a val- | 6. Is "Yours very truly" an apuable gift from a friend, sent by propriate close for a friendly letter? damaged condition, what should of thanks for gifts to friends who correct past tense form. Say, "The nine grandchildren and one great- 2. What are a few acknowledge- the notes be signed with both grandchild; also four sisters, Mrs. ments of an introduction that are names?

4. Isn't it a mistake for a per- ing hours for the alternoon?

tip for a fifty-cent meal? 11. What should a hostess do ter than she "can do it." when a caller brings her a box of

6. No. "Yours very truly" is a 12. She has this privilege but 7. The signature may be her seat.

10. No. Ten per cent is all right when the amount is more than a dollar, but ten cents is considered the minimum tip for a meal. Other-

the flowers immediately in a vase of

Give the cake a few bumps on

"Now the graveyard near my Mix a tablespoon of powdered home at Belle Grove has been haul- pumice with enough linseed oil to ed over and tramped on so often the make a thin paste, and you will Indians buried there must have have a mixture which is excellent white water from furniture. Rub this mixture on the spots until they disappear; cloth dampened with furniture pol-

tailed deer, 2,250 black bears, and YOUR HEALTH

From the Educational Committee of the Board of Trustees of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, of which the Centre County Medical Society is a component first tick-bearing rabbits were imported into Pennsylvania in 1928. who handle them, dead or alive, skinned or otherwise. Last year, eight Pennsylvanians died as a result of tularemia.

Ground squirrels in Tulare Counaremia, from Tulare County. The disease has moved eastward. Baltimore, Maryland, had a siege of 1 last year. The Director of Health in Baltimore introduced and had an ordinance passed prohibiting the importation into Baltimore of wild rabbits or wild hares, either dead or

Last week, Pittsburgh's Director of Health introduced a similar ordinance to his City Council.

The germ or tularemia passes from the infected rabbit to a person through direct contact. Handling, skinning, cleaning or preparing a diseased rabbit for food without using rubber gloves is extremely dangerous. Tularemia, difficult to diagnose in man, soon involves lymphatic glands, liver, spleen and lungs, the latter often resulting in pneumonia which frequently proves Tularemia can be Housewives, butchers, hunters, whoever handles rabbits-should wear rubber gloves and should carefully wash the gloves with soap and hot water before removing them. When thoroughly cooked, the meat of even the infected rabbit becomes safe to eat. Wear rubber gloves-cook rabbits thoroughly

Hassenpfeffer is mighty good—but prepare and cook the rabbit content with care. DO YOU KNOW

Pennsylvania ranks second among the states for the number of big game animals within its borders having 827,300. Michigan leads with 839,800. The total big game animals in the United States total more than 5,800,000, with 3,578,000 white-tailed deer as leading animal. Pennsylvania has 825.000 white-hree thicknesses of paraffin paper, sprinkled on the earth.

BHS Alumni To Hold Thanksgiving Dance

Thanksgiving night. The disease spreads, not only to tion to have as guests at the dance to the United States as a source of other wild rabbits, but to humans both the victorious and the defeat-

B. H. S. are urged to remember this date since it offers you a good time as well as an opportunity to help swell the scholarship fund. Sheckler's orchestra will play. Dancing tance and Hitler today faces a long 9 to 1 o'clock; tickets 25c per person, 40c a couple

-The family's newspaper.

FARM

Liberal Trade

M. Harold Betz HOWARD, PA.

of clear varnish, they will stand much straighter in their holders and can be wiped off and kept clean more easily. Rattling Windows paraffin prevents moisture from

If the candles are given a coat penetrating to the fissue paper.

Rattling windows can be stopped by having them weatherstripped, or removing the stop or molding that holds the sash in place and resetting it closer to the sash. Weatherstripping would be the better way, as it accomplishes a saving in fuel, as well as stopping the rattle.

Soda Ink If one wishes to make notes or alterations on blueprints, or autographs, or memos on snapshots, tip a pen into a solution of ordinary bicarbonate of soda, and the result will be gratifying. Walnut Stains on the Hands Walnut stains, also peach and other fruit stains, can be removed

Watering Plants

Do not water plants or seeds when the surface of the soil looks damp There is danger of rotting seeds and young plants. For seeds, a whisk Why not decorate the unsightly broom should be dipped into a pail flower pots? Cover with two or of water and then the water lightly

The dance committee of the Alumni Association of the Bellefonte High school is completing plans for its annual football dance to be held in the Spring street school on

It is customary for the associa-All friends and graduates of the

McCormick-Deering

SALES AND SERVICE

ALLOWANCE FOR OLD MACHINERY

······

PHONE 2731

THE WAR IN kans and an attack upon the Brit- lieving the condition. He never EUROPE ish at Gibraltar may be expected in time. Naturally, Spain, dependent There are many indications that upon imports for food, does not Germany has redoubled her efforts | want to starve this Winter and will to reverse the blockade against the dislike incurring the rigors of the British, hoping with commerce blockade that the British will en-

Lessons In English

Do not say," They did an extra omnipotent power."-Sir T. More.

Cauliflower. Pronounce the au mark." "It is a trite subject."

not as in of.

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "The book was copy-

Do not say, "I was born and raised in the country." Say, "I was born and reared in the country."

Raised is correct when applied to age." Say, "He died at an advanc-

Do not say, "I can do it better than her." Say. "I can do it bet-

Do not say, "The books each cost

a dollar apiece" Say, "The books

cost a dollar each," or, "The books

good job." Say, "They did an un-

Words Often Misp: onounced

tat, first and third a's as in ate, second a as in ask unstressed, accent

Paraffin. Pronounce the ar as in Padre (a monk or priest), Pro-pronunciation is padra, second a

at, i as in fin, accent first syllable.

as in haul, not as o'in college,

Tete-a-lete. Pronuonce tat-a-

Do not say, "He died at an old lower animals and plants.

cost a dollar apiece.'

first and last syllables.

as in ate unstressed.

accent third syllable.

fight a vicious war.

en activities.

losses will hamper the British.

U. S. Law Weakens England

called "neutrality" regulation compels the use of British ships it is

U. S. Bolsters the British any British bitterness towards the United States on account of this law. When the present struggle began our laws were revised purposely to permit the sale of war materials to the Allied nations. The government of the United States has cooperated effectively with the British purchasing commission in arranging the production of sup-armament program, important as it s, has not been allowed to restrict the prompt dispatch of British ship-

As the war goes on, the contribution of America industry becomes more vital to British success. With and other supplies, the British look supply that will guarantee produc-

Time-Table Disarranged,

dans have been rearranged. The recent Hitler conferences in France,

Spain and Italy have been neces sary because the war must enter a new phase, involving a prolonged

Struggle Against Blockade,

designed as the fatal blow to British power in Africa, has bogged before the desert and British resis tance. Control of the Mediterranean, now securely in British hands, prevents free transport of men and materials from Italy to Africa, thus confining Axis military

This seems to explain the Italian drive against Greece, which has been badly hampered by stern

Greek resistance. By occupying

Greece the Axis seeks to move southward into the Mediterranean, establishing new bases from which to launch an offensive against the British fleet and its bases. While the Italians will probably be able to overcome the Greeks the burden of demonstrating this is naw on the invaders; the Greeks have shown

Axis Fears Strangulation.

Extension of the Axis drive to in-power to the European continent.

The Italian invasion of Egypt,

exertion before posible victory.

British plants out of existence.

tion, even if German planes bomb

mense orders for planes, tanks

There is little basis, however, for an aid to Germany.

usually good job."

ed age.

Soft. Pronounce the o as in dog.

Words Often Misspelled

Right (correct); rite (ceremony);

write (to inscribe); wright (a workman). Load (a burden); lode

(ore deposit); Hypnotize, ze, hypnotism, sm. Benjamin; in, not ine.

Ax, or axe (singular); axes (plural)

Maze (intricate network of paths);

Word Study

maize (Indian corn).

day. Words for this lesson:

raiders and airplane attacks to cut force if France joins Hitler. off the vital flow of ocean-borne moving in order to live, much less ber that, only a few months ago, find your reason difficult to Submarine activity has been in- warfare in this area from which in newspapers' have undoubtedly lost much tonn- must be some pressure for oil from GOOD FOR GRASS: age. This does not, as yet, serious- the Near East or else a compelling age. This does not, as yet, serious desire to seek a decision in the informed Council that he's more ly threaten adverse effects, but pro-longed over a long period shipping struggle by inflicting a decisive de-bothered by smoke from railroad feat upon Great Britain. Let's keep in mind, however, the primary conclusion that Germany never been any complaint yet that The British have the use of many and Italy must destroy British sea- Bellefonters had to sweep smoke Nodwegian vessels, as well as those power if they are to win the war by off their sidewalks with a broom of other nations, but in this war, strength of arms. If Britain morunlike the last, merchant vessels ale holds and the Navy controls the of the United States are prohibit- waters around Europe the eventual regulation of the American repub- the event is long deferred.

Take Live Wildcat

lie increases the tonnage that the British need to maintain their pres-During he former World War the and his brother, Charles Cross, of and got the item. "Never knew they United States not only sold material Hammersley Fork, killed two grouse had them here," he commented. His to the Allied nations but American while hunting last week. They also yarn is just another reason why you ships transported the purchases. captured alive, a large wildcat owe it to yourself to give your local Today, the British can buy what- which it is understood, will be pre- stores the first chance to supply ever they can pay cash for in this sented to the Pittsburgh zoo. In the your needs. ever they can pay cash for in this afternoon Mr. Cross and M. A. Si- ARMISTICE DAY: and transport the goods in British curanza shot a large turkey.

> you can bet your life somebody is we as a nation are trying to pr giving intelligent direction to its

We may talk about hard times. nsofar as making enough money is concerned, but we seldom stop spending our cash for non-essen-

Don't Be Tortured

With Your Feet

Don't let sore, aching, tender feet plies for the British. Our own re- make you "grouchyy and ill temper-Wash them with San-Cura Medicated Soap and then rub in well soothing, cooling, healing San-Cura Ointment when you retire tonight The soreness and aching disap pear and you'll feel like dancing for joy tomorrow. Antiseptic San-Cura 35c and 60c, Soap 25c, At all Drug-

> PARRISH DRUG STORE. UNKLE HANK SEZ

We of the WOODRING FLORAL GARDENS will do everything in our power to make your shopping in our floral shop pleasant. We carry a full, complete stock of seasonable plants and flowers we are prepared to serve you with proper flowers for any occasion and we do so with a smile and appreciate your business.

Diemer L. Bathurst INSURANCE SERVICES MT. EAGLE, PA. P. O. Howard, Pa.

COMPENSATION

AUTOMOBILE & FIRE INSURANCE

their stuff in the early stages of the ED L. KEICHLINE BELLEFONTE Temple Court

Health and Beauty

THE SLAUGHTER OF THE INNOCENT.

'What shall I write about this week?" inquired the writer of a group of doctors and nurses "Write about the dangers of leaving lye within reach of children, responded a physician,

"The cases that are brought into this hospital, of little children who "Use a word three times and it is are the victims of lye are appalling. yours." Let us increase our vocab- Some careless mother or servant ulary by mastering one word each leaves this deadly stuff within reach of small hands that seize OMNIPOTENT; unlimited in upon it and immediately try to drink it. Those who swallow some power. (Accent follows the p). of it are burned and seared as "God's will and pleasure and his though they had taken a dose of carbolic acid. To some of the vic-MALEVOLENT; wishing evil; tims death comes as a mericful rearising from, or indicative of, ill lease. We succeed in saving the will. (Pronounce ma-lev-o-lent, ac- lives of others, but at what a fearcent second syllable). "He went ful cost Concentrated lye burns about it with a malevolent ingenu- and sears the mucous membrances of the lips, the mouth, the gullet TRITE; used until so common as the stomach or any other memo have lost novelty and interest; brane that it touches.

hackneyed; stale. (Pronounce the i | If the child does not die after as in trible.) "That was a trite re- swallowing a small portion of lye, the mouth and esophagus (gullet) DERELICTION; failure in duty, are raw and sore for months. The (Pronounce der-e-lik-shun, accen; scarred tissue draws up the gullet nounce pa-dri, a as in ah, i as in third syllable). "A total dereliction so that the child cannot swallow it, accent first syllable. Italian of military duties."-Sir W. Scott. food, or experiences such difficulty INSOLUBLE: not to be solved or that instruments have to be pushed at frequent intervals down to diexplained. (Pronounce in-sol-u-b'l. Medieval. Pronounce me-di-e- o as in of, accent second syllable). late the tube that leads from the val. both e's as in me, i as in did, "These are the insoluble riddles of mouth into the stomach, in order to permit the passage of food. This process is most aganizing to the shild and trying to the physician. clude German activity in the Bal- He does not always succeed in re-

GET ROUGH RANDOM NOTES

(Continued from page one)

are a camera fan, you will some-To understand the Axis position day run across a picture that you then with crepe tissue paper. The traffic that the British must keep in the Balkans one should remem- just won't want to take, and you'll the Germans were anxious to avoid on paper. That reason also figures tensified and while no complete in-formation is available the British Berlin extends the conflict there horror.

A lime company official last week

TRY IT: We met a Beliefonte man the ed from belligeren; waters. This defeat of the Axis is certain, even it other day who told us that after he'd been to every town and city in a 50-mile radius to purchase ar item he wanted, someone told him State Fish Warden George Cross to try a Bellefonte store. He did,

No business pushes itself; when- doesn't seem to mean much ever you see a business growing, more. It seems a little as thou tend things are the same as th were on the first clorious Armistic Day. It is hard to imagine that Peace is here to stay, with gung booming in Europe and Asia and with the black cloud of war growing greater, and nearer. We hope we miss World War No. 2, and that Armistice Day as we have known it will regain its prestige and will assume a deeper and more accurate meaning in our national life

"Every year we raise about 5,000 turkeys for the wholesale and retail markets, and more than 90% of them are sold by telephone. To handle this many turkeys by the old-fashioned method of just hauling them to town would be out of the question."

IT PAYS to have a telephone does if the burns are too extensive and deep, Avoid the use of lye if possible.

It certainly is very harmful to clothing, because it actually destroys the fabrics. It should never be necessary to use it upon floors, for gold dust will answer the same purpose.

If you have little children, keep it off your premises. You will then take no chances of having a careless servant leaving it within reach of little hands that grasp every object that they see. The doctor said, "People are so terribly afraid of hydrophobia, That is not a common condition, but the number of children that are sacrificed to lye are distressingly and amazingly numerous. Please heed the warning.

G. F. NOLL

WALL PAPER Painting and

Paper Hanging

PHONE 14-W

Bellefonte, Pa.

WHEN WINDS

A Windstorm Policy Protects You From Financial Loss. See

John F. Gray & Son General Insurance

Phone 497-J Bellefonie, Pa.

KELVINATORS PHILCO RADIOS

> Phone 9599-R-1 PLEASANT GAP, PA. ABC and VOSS

> > WASHERS

BENDIX HOME LAUNDRY

ELECTRIC STOVES

MELROY'S

C. Y. WAGNER

& COMPANY

WAGNER'S

Quality Flour A Hard Wheat Pat Flour WAGNER'S

Our Best Flour

50-50 Blend

WAGNER'S Very Best Flour Winter Wheat

Wagner's 32% Dairy Feed Wagner's 20% Dairy Feed Wagner's Horse Feed

Wagner's Pig Meal

Wagner's Egg Mash

Wagner's Chick Starter and Grower. Wagner's Turkey Starter

Wagner's Scratch Feed Wagner's Chick Feed

and Grower.

All kinds of high protein feeds for mixing with your own feed.

Dealers in All Kinds of Grains

Wagner's Medium Scratch

Rydes Cream Calf Meal

Eshelman's Dog Feed

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Used Truck Headquarters DECKER MOTOR CO. SOUTH SPRING STREET BELLEFONTE, PA. PHONE 674