SCHOOL OPERETTA TO BE PRESENTED FRIDAY NIGHT

With a cast of more than fifty students, the Centre Hall-Potter high school will present the operetta "Ask the Professor" by Clark and Lee in the school auditorium tomorrow night at eight o'clock. This performance is being directed by Calm as the Night... Donald Shope, who is in charge of the music and dancing, and Charles Slonaker, dramatics coach,

The scene of the operetta is the fashionable girls' school where Emily Lee and June, played by Betty Runkle and Patricia Boozer, are students. The plot follows an argument on heredity between June's brother John. Ernest Frank and Prof. Breakeasy, Mark Jordan. To prove that heredily is all "bunk" John arranges to send Joyce Bradford, cast as Maryida O'Neal, daughter of the school laundress, to the girls' school with the same chance to make good that the wealthier young women enjoy.
