Mrs. Charles Brachbill, who has been in Philadelphia consulting specialists and who had expected to return to her home on North Spring Street last weekend, has changed her plans and will remain in Philadelphia indefinitely.

Alex Etergakis, Willis Gelstinger and William W. Hampton, all of Bellefonte, and Leonard Glenn, of Milesburg, attended an American Legion meeting in Harrisburg, Saturday. Mr. Stergiak is commander of Brooks-Doak Post, Bellefonte.

Bellefonte fire companies answered an alarm at the Heverly building, North Allegheny street, about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon when the fire of the building, caught fire. Leaves on the roof burned, and slight damage resulted to woodwork on the porch of Mrs. J. O. Heverly's apartment.

Mrs. Ruth Meriz, of Scranton, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Widdowson, at their home on North Allegheny Street, having come here with Mrs. Widdowson when the latter terminated two weeks of duty as a juror in Federal Court at Scranton.

Don't plan to end Thanksgiving Day like any ordinary day? How about topping off the exciting football game and the big turkey dinner by attending the B. H. S. Alumni dance in the Spring street school gymnasium. Prices have been reduced to 20 cents a person. The dance will continue from 9 to 1 o'clock, and Sheekley's orchestra will furnish the music. Proceeds will go to the Scholarship Fund.

A unique Christmas tree is on display at the DeHaas Electric store on North Allegheny Street. The display consists of a Christmas tree the trimmings of which consist of numerous small white envelopes. In each envelope is an order for a Christmas present for someone.

Since additional orders are being received constantly by Christmas time it may be difficult to find the tree under the weight of envelopes.

The Saturday night entertainments being held each week by A&P store room on the Diamond are rapidly growing in popularity. Firemen extend a cordial invitation to the public to visit the room this Saturday night and take part in the festivities. Proceeds from the event are being turned over to the fund to defray expenses of the Firemen's Convention to be held here next year.

The marching unit of the Undine Fire Company are Miss Martha Ann Bloomquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bloomquist, of East Bishop Street, and Miss Eleanor Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forsburg, also of East Bishop Street. The two high school girls are near drum major in the marching unit, and they add a new sparkle to that well known organization.

Fire believed to have caused by a short circuit in the wiring of an oil burner in the basement of the Chemical Lime Company office building on North Water Street, about 7 o'clock Monday morning resulted in considerable damage to the oil burner and to the steps leading to the furnace room. The offices were closed the remainder of the morning while the building was being cleared of smoke. Work resumed in the afternoon when a supply of oil heaters was secured to furnish heat until repairs to the furnace were completed.

D. Geiss Wagner, well known resident of Centre Hall was in Bellefonte Monday attending to some business matters. Mr. Wagner's daughter, Mrs. Tessie McClellan, with whom he resided at Centre Hall passed away November 3 and as a consequence Mr. Wagner will sell his household goods at public sale this Saturday afternoon and will go to Washington, D. C. next week to make his home with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Long. Although he is 81 years of age Mr. Wagner is hale and hearty. He has been a resident of the Centre Hall area for the past 25 years and for 22 years prior to that time farmed in Illinois.

Earl B. Kepler and family and Mr. Kepler's mother, Mrs. J. F. Kepler, of Rumlville, returned Monday from Hyde Park, N. Y., where they were guests of relatives and friends while attending the funeral of Mrs. Ada Stone, sister of Mrs. J. F. Kepler. Mrs. Stone was born in Centre county 62 years ago and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shank, of Mt. Eagle. Her father was a Civil War veteran. Surviving are six children and these sons and brothers, in addition to Mrs. Kepler: Mrs. John Whitehead, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Fern Minnemyer, Tyrone; Charles Shank, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Thomas Shank, Mt. Eagle; Amos Shank, Phillipsburg, and Lloyd Shank, of Salona.

Mr. Earl Smeltzer, of State College, R. D. called at our office Monday to arrange for the advertising of his farm sale next March.

The many friends of Willis Romig will be sorry to learn that he has been confined to his home on East Bishop Street for several weeks, on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Widdowson, of North Allegheny Street, motored to Harrisburg yesterday morning to attend a two-day morticians' clinic held there yesterday and today.

The postoffice at Clintondale, Clinton county, has been discontinued and patrons residing in that community will be served through Mill Hall postoffice on rural delivery.

A year's subscription to the Centre Democrat is an ideal Christmas gift for the out of town member of the family or relatives. It will be appreciated every week of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cain, of Willowbank Street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son, her first child in the family, at the Centre County Hospital, Monday night. Mrs. Cain is the former Miss Nellie Jodon, of Bellefonte.

Clement H. Gramley, of Rebersburg, former Centre County auditor, and one of his infrequent visitors to Bellefonte, yesterday, Mr. Gramley has been summoned to serve as a juror in the U. S. District Court in Harrisburg, December 2.

Gilbert F. Noll, well known Bellefonte painter and paper hanger, is reported to be critically ill at his home in Pleasant Gap, where he is suffering from pneumonia and complications. Mr. Noll became ill about a week ago and up to this time has failed to respond to treatment.

The Rev. Father J. W. Palfy, of Clarence, was in Bellefonte Monday, for the first time in nearly two months, his long absence being caused by an illness which had confined him to bed much of the time. He is now recuperating rapidly from the illness which was diagnosed as a severe attack of arthritis.

Centre Lodge No. 133 I. O. O. F., Bellefonte, will entertain in the lodge social rooms this Thursday night in the form of a series of meetings for the purpose of interesting the young men of the community in the ideals of Odd Fellowship. Every member is urged to be present and to bring some young men who might be interested in the work of the lodge.

Frank Grove, well known Marion township farmer, and 6 staunch members of the Republican party visited this office Tuesday to discuss the penalty of getting the wrong way on the recent Presidential election. As a result of his visit the editorial office was blued with the smoke of an E. Producto which was all the more appreciated because it was some 14 days late.

Mrs. Daisy B. Henderson and Mrs. Emma K. Crossley spent the weekend in Pottsville at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dove. Mrs. Henderson was a guest of honor at a dinner given to the Grand Officers of the Order of the Eastern Star in Pennsylvania, Friday evening, November 15, and was guest speaker in the St. Clair Baptist Church, November 17. Her address was "The Harvest Time."

Cyrus Shope, of Howard, R. D. 2, who has the contract for furnishing and erecting some 150 Christmas trees along the curbs in the business district of Bellefonte, yesterday was cutting trees at the White nursery and hauling them to Bellefonte. The trees are being stored at the side of the Court House. Later in the season Mr. Shope will have trees for general sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Evander M. Gandy, Sr., of Bellefonte, celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary at a dinner Sunday at their home on West Lamb Street. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Gandy, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gandy, Jr., Mrs. Gandy, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell and daughters, Lorraine, Joyce and Gladys, and Mrs. Bertha Miller, all of Bellefonte; Mrs. W. J. Campbell, of Lewisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Walker, of State College. Mr. and Mrs. Gandy received numerous gifts.

Harold D. Cowher, of Bellefonte, president of the Central District Firemen's Association, among the speakers at a regular meeting of the Blair County Allied Firemen's Association at the Blazing Arrow Hook and Ladder hall in Tyrone, Monday night. Mr. Cowher thanked the group of over 300 firemen for their part in the 1940 convention held at Tyrone last week. He also presented a number of resolutions being made for the district convention here in 1941. Mr. Cowher introduced to the group the following Bellefonte firemen who had accompanied him to Tyrone: Paul Emerick, Frank Sloan, Guy Glenn, Arthur Boob, Charles Martin, "Bun" Beaver and Fred Love.

Postal officials report that there are on hand in the Bellefonte postoffice nearly 1000 letters to be mailed on the first flight of the new airmail pick-up service, which is scheduled to begin on Monday, December 2. A special cachet will be sent here by the Post Office Department for marking first-flight letters, and many of those sending letters to be mailed here have requested the signature of Postmaster George R. Meek on the envelopes. In one pick-up planes will be two men, one to pilot the ship and the other to take charge of receiving, sorting, and dispatching the mail. Since the flight from Bellefonte to State College, for example, takes only six minutes, the mail clerk in the plane no doubt will be kept extremely busy in opening the bag picked up at Bellefonte, sorting the mail, and placing the State College mail in the bag for delivery at the College. Bellefonte's pick-up site on the Brookerhoff farm just east of town along the Jackson's road is reported to be ideally located for the use of pick-up planes. It is on a slight knoll, which enables planes to approach the site with ease from either direction. Pick-ups are made while the plane is traveling from 90 to 110 miles an hour.

Mrs. Emma Deltrich, who has been ill at her home on East Bishop street for the past four weeks, last night was reported to be in serious condition. Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, of Sunbury, were expected here last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Solt and young son, Billy, of Akron, Ohio, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday for a week's visit with Mrs. Solt's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Toner and family at their home on North Allegheny Street. Mr. Solt, now employed as an electrician with the Goodyear Rubber Company, was a member of the old State Highway Patrol and was stationed in Bellefonte until seven years ago. Mrs. Solt is the former Catherine Lewis, of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Roy Wilkinson, chairman of the Bellefonte Tuberculosis Committee, reports that the coming Christmas Seal sale will be the 34th. In which voluntary workers have cooperated with state and local Tuberculosis Association to raise funds to combat the dread disease.

The seal this year are particularly bright and colorful and will add a distinctive decorative note to all Christmas mail. Mrs. Wilkinson said she pointed out that the purchase of Christmas Seals can not be considered a drain on the pocketbook since for more than thirty years they have helped to cut the death rate from tuberculosis.

Mrs. J. L. Tressel, of East Bishop street, severely cut about the eyes last Wednesday when she was struck by a pane of glass which fell from the Elder apartment in the Schow building, South Allegheny street, was taken to Philadelphia, Saturday, to undergo treatment by specialists at the Wills Eye Hospital. Mrs. Tressel, according to reports, was walking on the sidewalk when the pane of glass falling out as a window on the second floor of the building was closed, hurtled down and struck her on the crown of the head, above the right eye and about the right hand. Splinters of the glass entered both eyes, causing lacerations of both corneas. It is reported. The woman was taken to the office of a Bellefonte physician and later received treatment at State College. She further treatment was recommended, it was decided to take her to the home of her mother, Mrs. M. E. Conrad, in Philadelphia, where she could be near surgeons at the Wills Eye institution. Last week's accident was the third major one to befall Mrs. Tressel in less than a year's time. Last Thanksgiving while motoring in Philadelphia Mrs. Tressel's car was struck by another machine and she was in a hospital for two weeks. Last Easter, while walking through a Bellefonte store, Mrs. Tressel tripped over a small step-ladder and fell, suffering injuries which later required hospital treatment.
