SACRED CONCERT GIVEN BY THE FOLK SINGERS

A sacred concert will be presented by "The Folk Singers," an A Cappella Chorus, from Turbotville, Pa., in the Evangelical church, Bellefonte, on Sunday evening, December 1st at 8 o'clock. The chorus consists of twenty-four young ladies and men under the leadership of Mr. Alfred Fryer, a talented young musician. The voices were selected from a large group who tried out for places in the chorus, and are all trained singers.

This will be a rare treat for the lovers of good music.

Mr. Irving A. Berndt, Jr., Program Director of Radio Station WRAK, Inc., Williamsport, Pa., says, "This Station has presented programs by the Folk Singers of Turbotville several times in the past months. We have found their performances to be of a high calibre musically, and interesting to listen to.

The following program will be presented:

Part I. Commit Thy Ways, Come, Dearest Lord, Bach; Nunc Dimittis, Arkhangelsky; Call to Remembrance, Farrant.

Part II. Heaven, So's I Can Write My Name, Spirituals by Noble Cain; Heart Divine, Dvorak; All Through the Night, by Noble Cain; Finlandia, by Sibelius; Meditation, by Brahms.

Part III. Spring Bursts Today, by Thompson; The Knight of Bethlehem, by Bormsheim; Now the Day is Over, Barnby.

LETTERS to the Editor

Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 25, '40. The Centre Democrat, Bellefonte, Pa. Gentlemen:

Under your Random Items the reference to Council is well taken only you did not go far enough, so keep it at.

That our council is obsessed with the plague of passing more and more ordinances and regulations and enforcing only a few is the bare truth.

If you want to know whether the snow shoveling ordinance is enforced, just take a walk from the center of town in any direction about two or three days after a snowfall and be convinced that it is entirely voluntary with the property owner.

For several years, our street committee has had parking spaces painted on our main streets, which is a good idea but if you can find every car inside the lines, on Allegheny street alone, on any evening, you have seen more than the writer who is down town every evening and has observed this condition and has yet to see this enforced. Often violations are less than a stone's throw from our famous Police Car where our aleuths are comfortably seated (watching traffic).

E. CURTIN STREET READER.

THANKSGIVING

The Indians set aside a day Without any games or pranks, And not any work of any kind, Just to pray and give thanks.

They filled their tables with lots of good food

At the best and plentiful season; They had a good time but didn't forget The main and important reason.

They wanted to give thanks to God above For helping when they would fail; They wanted to show that they were grateful.

Of course, to Him above all, So let's don't forget what this day is for.

Through all the coming years, We do have Him through all our joys, And all our sorrows and tears.

—Mildred White.
