

OBITUARY

THOMAS JENNINGS
Thomas Jennings, former resident of Bellefonte, died recently at his home in Huntingdon, W. Va., according to belated word received by friends here. Mr. Jennings, aged 75 years, was a brother-in-law of Mrs. J. Mitchell Cunningham, of S. Potter street, Bellefonte, and was employed as a glass blower by the Bellefonte Glass Works until that industry was abandoned some 35 years ago. His wife, the former Elizabeth Gross, of Bellefonte, passed away about three years ago. Interment was made at Huntingdon, W. Va.

ARTHUR P. ALBRIGHT
Arthur Packer Albright, 71, Mill Hill barber, died Wednesday afternoon, at the Lock Haven Hospital after an illness of four weeks. He was admitted to the hospital Monday as a medical patient. Funeral services were held at the late residence Sunday at 2 p. m. with the Rev. Ezra L. Parks officiating. Burial was made in Cedar Hill cemetery. Born in Tyler, Va., Mr. Albright had resided for 22 years in Mill Hill where he conducted a barber shop with his son, Chester A. Albright. He had for many years been a member of the Loganton Evangelical Church, but while in Mill Hill had attended the Methodist Church. Surviving him are his wife, Carrie J., one son, Chester A., and one daughter, Mrs. Alrie B. Inman of Syracuse, N. Y.; two brothers and a sister, Edward C. Albright, Millheim, Robert E., Mill Hill, and Mrs. Mabel V. Hess, Pine, and six grandchildren.

MRS. WILLIAM H. POWERS
Mrs. Mary Susan Powers, wife of William H. Powers, died at her home on Chestnut street, Lock Haven, at 3:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning, November 20, 1940, after several years' illness. A native of Centre county, she had gone to Mill Hill at the age of nine years, residing there ever since. She was a member of the Methodist church for many years. In addition to her husband, with whom she married the completion of 58 years of married life last October 5, Mrs. Powers is survived by two sons and four daughters: John L., Mill Hill; Horace L., Phillipsburg, N. J.; Margaret Butler, at home; Mrs. Harry H. Yeager and Mrs. P. Edward Trewhathan, Templeton; and Mrs. Cloyd O. Derickson, Mill Hill. There are also seven grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the Powers home Saturday afternoon in charge of the Rev. Ezra L. Parks, and burial was made in the Cedar Hill cemetery.

ISRAEL C. SPAYD
Israel C. Spayd passed away at his home near Centre Hall at 10:30 o'clock last Thursday night, November 21, 1940, after an illness with a complication of diseases incident to advanced age. He was a son of George and Mary Tearnick Spayd and was born in Gregg township on October 12, 1860, making his age at time of death 81 years, 1 month and 9 days. Surviving are his wife; the former Lena Ream; two children: Mrs. Stella Feltenberger, of Spring Mills, and Paul Spayd, of Centre Hall; 7 grandchildren, and these sisters: Mrs. Sarah Orndorf, Lock Haven; Mrs. Savilla Stitzer, Hebersburg; Mrs. Annie Ream, Boalsburg, and Mrs. Della Mark, of Loganton. He was a member of the Farmers Mills Reformed church. On May 19, this year, Mr. and Mrs. Spayd celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Funeral services were held Monday morning at the late home, with the Rev. D. R. Keener, of Centre Hall officiating. Interment was made in the Farmers Mills cemetery.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Peck, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: John, William and Charles Dugan, all of Altoona; Edward Dugan, of Pike street, Bellefonte, and Mrs. B'nai Brith in Meeting Here (Continued from page one)

MRS. ALBERT GARBRICK
Mrs. Matilda T. Garbrick of Shingletown, wife of Albert Garbrick, died in the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte, at 1 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon, November 20, 1940, as the result of shock from a fall last week when she broke her hip. She was 58 years and 5 months old at the time of her death. Mrs. Garbrick was born June 20, 1882 at Lemont, a daughter of George and Ellen Boal Jordan, deceased. She was married to

MRS. JOHN GARDNER
Funeral services were held in Johnsonburg Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. John Gardner, 79, who died at her home there Monday, Nov. 18, 1940, after a lengthy illness. She was a former resident of Mill Hill and Lock Haven. The body was brought to Centre county for short services at the grave in the Christian cemetery at Blanchard. Mrs. Gardner is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. James Hines, of Ridgway, and one son, Frank, of Salamanca, N. Y.

WILLIAM DICK
William Dick, a half-brother of Mrs. Rosie Martin of Port Matilda, was found dead in an apartment building in which he was painting at Roaring Spring, Blair county, Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 19, 1940. A resident of Roaring Spring, Mr. Dick died while at work, of a heart attack. When he did not return home at 5:30 o'clock friends went to the building where he was painting and found him inside, dead. Mr. Dick was formerly in the garage business but retired four years ago because of a heart ailment. Members of the family include his wife, two children and a number of brothers and half-brothers and sisters.

A. FREDERICK BEYER
A. Frederick Beyer, Sr., a lifelong resident of Tyrone and long identified with the planing mill and lumber business in Tyrone, died suddenly at his home in that place on Tuesday morning, November 19, 1940, following a stroke of apoplexy. Aaron Frederick Beyer was a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Beyer and was born in Tyrone on March 19, 1873. He is survived by his wife, Vera M. (Miller) Beyer and these sons: A. Frederick Beyer, Jr., Chicago, Ill.; S. John Beyer and Robert K. Beyer, State College; Sanford F. Beyer, Langley Field Va.; also one brother, Charles Beyer, Florida, and two sisters, Mrs. Grace Waring and Mrs. James Crawford, California. He was a member of the Columbia Avenue Methodist church, Tyrone.

PAUL HARTER
Paul Harter, 45, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Harter, former residents of Susar Valley, who were killed in an automobile accident at Mill Hill, which also took the life of their daughter, Helen, twenty years ago, died at a Philadelphia hospital Wednesday, November 20, 1940. He too was a victim of an automobile, having been struck by a car Sunday as he crossed a street in Philadelphia, where he resided. Mr. Harter never regained consciousness between the time of his accident and the moment of his death. The body was brought to Loganton for funeral services and burial made in Hillside cemetery, Lock Haven. Mr. Harter was a resident of the Centre county school there until the fire of 1918 destroyed the family home and the Harters moved to Lock Haven, establishing their home on West Main street. The tragic death of Mr. Harter's parents and sister when their car was struck by a train, wiped out all of the family except Mr. Harter and his surviving sister, Mrs. P. D. Rothmel, of Prospect, Park, Philadelphia.

MRS. ALBERT GARBRICK
Mrs. Matilda T. Garbrick of Shingletown, wife of Albert Garbrick, died in the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte, at 1 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon, November 20, 1940, as the result of shock from a fall last week when she broke her hip. She was 58 years and 5 months old at the time of her death. Mrs. Garbrick was born June 20, 1882 at Lemont, a daughter of George and Ellen Boal Jordan, deceased. She was married to

MRS. SARAH SEYLER
Mrs. Sarah Seyler, Port Matilda, died Monday, November 25, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John McCormick. Mrs. Seyler suffered a stroke 12 years ago and had been bedfast since. She was born at Snow Shoe, a daughter of Evans and Susan (Wells) Casher. Her husband, Reuben Seyler, died several years ago. Members of the family include two daughters, Mrs. John Thomas of Port Matilda, and Mrs. Christine Houser, of Orange, N. J., and seven grandchildren. She had nine brothers and sisters. Mrs. Seyler was a member of the Presbyterian church. Burial was made in the Askey cemetery at Moshannon, with the Rev. Mr. Oakwood of Milledgeburg and the Rev. Mr. Curry of Moshannon, conducting the services.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

JAMES BRUCE MCCORMICK
James Bruce McCormick, of Sunbury, native of Spring Mills, died suddenly while at work in Sunbury on Thursday, November 14, 1940. He had been an employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad for 29 years. Mr. McCormick was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCormick and was born at Spring Mills 52 years ago. Surviving are his wife, the former Carrie Orman, of Spring Mills, and a sister, Cora Gentzel, of Boalsburg. Funeral services were held at Sunbury on November 16, followed by interment in the Spring Mills cemetery.

HARRY ELLENBERGER
Harry Ellenberger, of Linden Hall, died at 10 a. m. Saturday, November 23, 1940, of a heart attack suffered while attending to his work on the farm. He was 68 years, 9 months and 5 days old at the time of his death. Mr. Ellenberger was born on February 18, 1872, in Hall Moon township, Centre county, a son of Samuel and Jane Ross Ellenberger. On April 3, 1912, he was united in marriage with Blanche Griffin, who survives with one son, John, at home. Mrs. Anna Seigle and Mrs. Clara Griffin, of Stormstown, are surviving sisters. Funeral services were held at the Ellenberger home in Linden Hall Tuesday afternoon with Rev. L. J. Kauffman officiating. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

WILLIAM MCCLANAHAN
William McClanahan, well known former Centre Hall grain dealer, passed away at his home in that community at 5:45 o'clock Friday morning, November 22, 1940, from the effects of a heart attack suffered about a week before. He was a son of James McClanahan and Mary Bross McClanahan and was born in Potter township on Feb. 27, making his age at time of death 72 years, 8 months and 7 days. He is survived by his wife, the former Elsie Stover; two sons, Robert, of Centre Hall, and Philip, at home; three grandchildren, and two daughters, Miss Sara McClanahan, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Carl Daniels, of Mansfield Depot, Conn.; and Charles, John, Harry, and Clymer McClanahan, all of Centre Hall. He was a member of the Centre Hall Lutheran church; the Sunday school and the Centre Hall Masonic lodge. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at the Centre Hall Lutheran church, with the Rev. Clarence Otto officiating. Interment was made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

MRS. NETTIE WELCH
Mrs. Nettie Welch, widow of the Rev. J. H. Welch, died Saturday, Nov. 23, 1940, at her cottage at the Evangelical Home, Lewisburg. The Rev. Mr. Welch, Evangelical minister, was well known in Centre county. Mrs. Welch is survived by a son, Charles Kettle, New York City. Services were conducted at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the Evangelical Home, Lewisburg, with further services at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Grace Evangelical church, York, Pa.

JACOB B. TYSON
Jacob B. Tyson, a brother of Peter Tyson of Nittany, died Saturday morning, Nov. 23, 1940, at his home in Loganton, of complications following an extended illness. He was a lifelong resident of Sugar Valley, and had followed the vocations of farming and carpentry. Surviving are his wife, Emma, two sons and one daughter: Mrs. Cora Overdorf and Wilbur Tyson, of Pittsford, and J. R. Tyson of Loganton. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. Arthur E. Yeagy, Lutheran minister officiating. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery.

MRS. SARAH SEYLER
Mrs. Sarah Seyler, Port Matilda, died Monday, November 25, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John McCormick. Mrs. Seyler suffered a stroke 12 years ago and had been bedfast since. She was born at Snow Shoe, a daughter of Evans and Susan (Wells) Casher. Her husband, Reuben Seyler, died several years ago. Members of the family include two daughters, Mrs. John Thomas of Port Matilda, and Mrs. Christine Houser, of Orange, N. J., and seven grandchildren. She had nine brothers and sisters. Mrs. Seyler was a member of the Presbyterian church. Burial was made in the Askey cemetery at Moshannon, with the Rev. Mr. Oakwood of Milledgeburg and the Rev. Mr. Curry of Moshannon, conducting the services.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Peck, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: John, William and Charles Dugan, all of Altoona; Edward Dugan, of Pike street, Bellefonte, and Mrs.

WILLIAM MCCLANAHAN
William McClanahan, well known former Centre Hall grain dealer, passed away at his home in that community at 5:45 o'clock Friday morning, November 22, 1940, from the effects of a heart attack suffered about a week before. He was a son of James McClanahan and Mary Bross McClanahan and was born in Potter township on Feb. 27, making his age at time of death 72 years, 8 months and 7 days. He is survived by his wife, the former Elsie Stover; two sons, Robert, of Centre Hall, and Philip, at home; three grandchildren, and two daughters, Miss Sara McClanahan, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Carl Daniels, of Mansfield Depot, Conn.; and Charles, John, Harry, and Clymer McClanahan, all of Centre Hall. He was a member of the Centre Hall Lutheran church; the Sunday school and the Centre Hall Masonic lodge. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at the Centre Hall Lutheran church, with the Rev. Clarence Otto officiating. Interment was made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

MRS. SARAH SEYLER
Mrs. Sarah Seyler, Port Matilda, died Monday, November 25, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John McCormick. Mrs. Seyler suffered a stroke 12 years ago and had been bedfast since. She was born at Snow Shoe, a daughter of Evans and Susan (Wells) Casher. Her husband, Reuben Seyler, died several years ago. Members of the family include two daughters, Mrs. John Thomas of Port Matilda, and Mrs. Christine Houser, of Orange, N. J., and seven grandchildren. She had nine brothers and sisters. Mrs. Seyler was a member of the Presbyterian church. Burial was made in the Askey cemetery at Moshannon, with the Rev. Mr. Oakwood of Milledgeburg and the Rev. Mr. Curry of Moshannon, conducting the services.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Peck, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: John, William and Charles Dugan, all of Altoona; Edward Dugan, of Pike street, Bellefonte, and Mrs.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Peck, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: John, William and Charles Dugan, all of Altoona; Edward Dugan, of Pike street, Bellefonte, and Mrs.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Peck, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: John, William and Charles Dugan, all of Altoona; Edward Dugan, of Pike street, Bellefonte, and Mrs.

MRS. SARAH SEYLER
Mrs. Sarah Seyler, Port Matilda, died Monday, November 25, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John McCormick. Mrs. Seyler suffered a stroke 12 years ago and had been bedfast since. She was born at Snow Shoe, a daughter of Evans and Susan (Wells) Casher. Her husband, Reuben Seyler, died several years ago. Members of the family include two daughters, Mrs. John Thomas of Port Matilda, and Mrs. Christine Houser, of Orange, N. J., and seven grandchildren. She had nine brothers and sisters. Mrs. Seyler was a member of the Presbyterian church. Burial was made in the Askey cemetery at Moshannon, with the Rev. Mr. Oakwood of Milledgeburg and the Rev. Mr. Curry of Moshannon, conducting the services.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Peck, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: John, William and Charles Dugan, all of Altoona; Edward Dugan, of Pike street, Bellefonte, and Mrs.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Peck, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: John, William and Charles Dugan, all of Altoona; Edward Dugan, of Pike street, Bellefonte, and Mrs.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Peck, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: John, William and Charles Dugan, all of Altoona; Edward Dugan, of Pike street, Bellefonte, and Mrs.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Peck, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: John, William and Charles Dugan, all of Altoona; Edward Dugan, of Pike street, Bellefonte, and Mrs.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Peck, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also surviving are 7 grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: John, William and Charles Dugan, all of Altoona; Edward Dugan, of Pike street, Bellefonte, and Mrs.

WILLIAM L. STEELE, JR.
William L. Steele, Jr., well known Bellefonte architect and contractor died at his home at 245 East Howard street, Bellefonte, at 6:30 o'clock on Monday night, November 25, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. He had been bedfast for the past seven months. Mr. Steele was a son of William L. and Harriet J. Young Steele and was born in Bellefonte on October 18, 1881, making his age at time of death 59 years, 1 month, and 7 days. He was united in marriage with Dora Askey, who survives with one son, Robert F. Steele, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers and sisters: B. F. Steele, Jersey Shore; Mrs. C. O. Peterson, of Portland, Me.; John L. Steele and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, of Bellefonte; J. C. Steele and Mrs. Cecil B. Craig, both of Tyrone; J. H. Steele, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. P. Crider, of Lock Haven; David V. Steele, of Tyrone; and Mrs. A. C. Longee, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Steele was a member of the Evangelical church, and the I. O. O. F. and Encampment.

MRS. EMMA JANE DEITRICH
Mrs. Emma Jane Deitrich, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, widow of the late Benjamin F. Deitrich, passed away at her home here at 8:50 o'clock Saturday night, November 23, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although she had been in failing health for six years, her condition did not become serious until five weeks before her death. Mrs. Deitrich was a daughter of John and Susan Beck Dugan and was born near Penn's Cave, Gregg township, on March 9, 1873, making her age at time of death 67 years, 8 months and 14 days. Her husband, B. F. Deitrich, passed away on January 17, 1932. Surviving are ten sons and two daughters: Carl, at home; Clair J., of Bellefonte; Bertha, wife of C. F. Snyder, of Sunbury, and Mildred, wife of David T. Pe