Delay became a dangerous thing and the crowd became larger outside the borough bastile indignation, and when it couldn't be the tires. Finally one of the stucrowd and windows of the office be came targets of some well-aimed missiles, including snow and ice. One was broken

State police appeared on the scene and what transpired within the office of the chief is of little consequence except that the young man was released but will be required to Jace a hearing, the exact below Rockspring charge not being known. It is expected that some others will also be in the line-up when the hearing opens, not including a crowd that wants to see the thing to a finish.

And the firemen were in on it, too -making it quite a community affair. Members of the Citizens Fire company were called to help end the celebration and started to pour water on the biazing fire. The water might have just been oil on the flery tempers of the participants and the firemen became targets for burning embers and hunks of snow

The firemen, maybe just to make the picture perfect, turned the water on the crewd and that didn t help a little bit This part of the drama passed out of the picture when the chief of police took the tear gas bomb retainer in tow and started for the borough building That was a relief to the firemen. Accusations and all kinds of statements have since been flying back and forth and not a few folk are nursing diversified bumps and bruises as well as hurt feelings.
