MRS. AMANDA RHOADS

Mrs. Amanda Rhoads, widow of the late Adam Rhoads, died at the home of her son, John R. Rhoads, at Orviston, at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, November 28, 1940, after a six months' illness. She was 71 years of age. Surviving are these children: John and Mrs. Maude Emminger, of Orviston; Edward and Mrs. Mabel Harshbarger, of Elmira, N. Y.; Mrs. Pam Edmiston, of Pittsburgh; and Fred, of Pleasant Gap. Also surviving is a sister, Mrs. Sadie Kelley, of Punksawney, Mrs. Rhoads was a member of the Lemont Methodist church. Funeral services were held Sunday at the Neff Funeral Home, Howard, followed by services at the Houserville Methodist church, with Rev. Robert DeBier officiating. Interment was made in the Houserville cemetery.

SIDNEY DORSEY MILLER

Sidney Dorsey Miller, a native of Huntington Furnace, died at his home, 232 East Nittany avenue, State College, at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, November 30, 1940, following a year's illness with chronic myocarditis. Mr. Miller was a son of James and Jennie (Patterson) Miller and was born at Huntington Furnace, Huntington county, on January 25, 1888. He had been a resident of State College for two months. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Jennie Miller, and a sister, Mrs. Nellie McWilliams, of State College. He was a member of the Free and Accepted Masons of Salt Lake City, Utah, and of the El Kalah Shrine of Salt Lake City. Prior to his illness he was employed as a yardmaster with the Union Pacific Railway at Salt Lake City. Funeral services were held at the Miller home at Franklinville, Spruce Creek Valley, Tuesday morning, December 3, 1940, at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Albertus Groendyk, pastor of the Spruce Creek Valley Presbyterian church, officiated. Interment was made in the Franklinville cemetery.

GRACE VIOLA HOWARD

Grace Viola Howard, aged 4 years, daughter of Kenneth and Isabella Fogelman Howard, died at the family home near Rockview penitentiary in College township at 6:15 o'clock Tuesday morning, December 3, 1940, after a lingering illness. She is survived by her parents and two half-brothers, Walter and Clarence, both at home. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this Thursday afternoon at the Wetzel Memorial Chapel, Milesburg, with the Rev. M. P. Kerstetter officiating. Interment will be made in the Meyer cemetery, Buffalo Run Valley.

MRS. ELIZABETH RISHEL

Mrs. Elizabeth Rishel, widow of the late Calvin Rishel, died at her home in Madisonburg at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, November 30, 1940, after an illness with dropsy. Mrs. Rishel was a daughter of Harvey and Lydia Meese Miller and was born in Madisonburg on December 18, 1868, making her age at time of death, 71 years, 11 months and 12 days. She was united in marriage with Calvin Rishel in 1890. The sole survivors are two brothers, Harry Miller, of Madisonburg, and Charles Miller, of Rebersburg, one child having died some years ago. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the home, and were continued in the Madisonburg Reformed church, with the Rev. Mr. Denbeaux, pastor of the church, officiating. Interment was made in the Reformed cemetery, Madisonburg.

MRS. SAMUEL A. ROBISON

Mrs. Nellie E. Robison, 48, wife of Samuel A. Robison, 212 Allegheny street, Jersey shore, died at 5:07 a. m. Tuesday, November 12, 1940, in the Williamsport Hospital where she had been a patient since the day before. She became ill Saturday evening while at work in the confectionery store operated by her husband and herself but had been in failing health for the past year. Mrs. Robison was born in Curwensville and had been a resident of Jersey Shore for eight years. She was a member of the B. P. O. E. Auxiliary, First Methodist church, Business and Professional Women's Club, and Viola Mae Rebekah Lodge. Survivors, in addition to her husband, are the following brothers and sisters: Charles Hooven, Philadelphia; Mrs. A. C. Stear, Salamanca, N. Y.; Mrs. R. E. Ray, Clearfield; Mrs. Margaret Barr, Harrisburg. Several nieces and nephews also survive. Funeral services were conducted at the Rechner Funeral Home, with the Rev. John F. Stamm, First Methodist pastor officiating. Burial was made in the Curwensville cemetery. Mrs. Robison was a former resident of Snow Shoe and Unionville, where her husband was employed by the P. R. R. as an operator.

MRS. THOMAS MOORE

Mrs. Sallie Dawson Moore, wife of Thomas Moore, Philadelphia, and a native of Bellefonte, passed away at her home in Philadelphia at 6:30 o'clock Monday night, December 2, 1940, death being attributed directly to a stroke she suffered Saturday. Mrs. Moore, a sister of the late Mrs. T. Clayton Brown, of Bellefonte, had been in ill health since about four years ago when she suffered injuries in an automobile accident. A year ago she fractured a hip in a fall at her home. Mrs. Moore was a daughter of William and Marilla Hamilton Dawson and was born in Bellefonte 71 years ago. About 50 years ago she was united in marriage with Thomas Moore, then a partner of the late F. P. Blair in the jewelry business here. About 40 years ago the Moores moved to Philadelphia where they have since resided. Prior to the death of her sister, Mrs. T. Clayton Brown, Mrs. Moore spent several months each year in Bellefonte. Surviving are her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Helen M. Dahl, of Philadelphia; two grandsons, Walter and Thomas Dahl, of Philadelphia; a nephew, Harry Dawson, of Pleasant Gap; and these cousins, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mrs. John Copely and Dr. Richard P. Hall, all of Bellefonte. Mrs. Moore was a member of the Reformed church. The remains will be brought to Bellefonte by rail this Thursday morning and will be taken to the Widows' Funeral Home, North Allegheny street, where funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. with the Rev. C. Nevin Stamm, pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

DANIEL KLINGER

Daniel Klinger, well known retired farmer of Potter township, died at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, December 3, 1940, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. N. Condo, in Altoona, where he had gone for a visit two weeks earlier. Death came suddenly and unexpectedly and was attributed to a heart attack and complications. Mr. Klinger was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Klinger and was born in Centre County on August 17, 1861, making his age at time of death 79 years, 3 months, and 16 days. His wife, Annie, passed away a year ago. Surviving are these children, in addition to Mrs. Condo: Herbert, of Tusseyville; Robert, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Charles Crust, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Florence McClellan, of State College. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon at the Charles Crust home in Centre Hall, with the Rev. D. R. Keener, officiating. Interment will be made in the Shiloh cemetery.

MRS. CARRIE M. SHOWERS

Mrs. Carrie M. Showers died Tuesday afternoon, December 3, 1940, at her apartment in the Little Bush Arcade, West High Street, Bellefonte, after an illness of three weeks. She was a person of very fine character, a devout life-long member of the Presbyterian church and an experienced practical nurse, as was her mother before her. Mrs. Showers was a daughter of Mary Jane Perrie and George Pratt, who came from Wales. She was born August 25, 1860, making her age at time of death 80 years, 3 months and 8 days. About 60 years ago she was married to Daniel Showers, a railroad engineer, who died ten years later. They had one daughter, Gertrude, Mrs. James Fox, who died leaving a son Henry Showers, now living in California. Mrs. Showers had many friends who will miss her. Funeral services will be held this Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Widows' Funeral Home, North Allegheny Street, Bellefonte, with the Rev. G. E. Housholder, pastor of the United Brethren church officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery here.

WILLIAM SAMUEL MAIZE
William Samuel Maize died at his home near Spring Mills at 6:45 o'clock Wednesday morning, November 27, 1940, after an illness with a complication of diseases incident to advanced years. A son of John and Anna Maize, he was born at New Berlin, Union county, on January 5, 1850, making his age at time of death 90 years, 10 months and 22 days. On September 14, 1875 he was united in marriage with Sarah E. Stoner, who died seven years ago. Surviving are these children: Mrs. Lizzie LaFlame and Mrs. Guernsey Boob, of near Spring Mills, and Mrs. Samuel Ulrich, of Cleveland, Ohio. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Neff Funeral Home, Millheim, with the Rev. H. A. Houseal, pastor of the Evangelical church, officiating. Interment was made in the Millheim cemetery.

ALBERT NUMBERS

Albert Numbers, husband of Lillian Walker Numbers, of Trenton, N. J., prominent Ewing township resident and one of the organizers of the former Globe Rubber Tire Company, died suddenly Saturday morning from a heart attack in the office of a Trenton physician. Mr. Numbers was driving his automobile in the vicinity of the city reservoir when he felt ill. He pulled his machine in to the curb and flagged a passing truck to take him to the office of a physician. Almost immediately after entering the office, Mr. Numbers slumped into a chair and died before aid could be administered. A broker for the Standard Sales Company, Mr. Numbers was for years a member of the late Mayor Donnelly's Citizens' Committee and was active in social welfare projects in Trenton. He was at one time manager and later superintendent of the former Thermold Rubber Company and was associated with a number of years with the tire industry. In 1931 he was a Republican candidate in the May primary for Ewing Township Committee. He was a member of Trenton Lodge No. 5, B. P. O. E., and the First Presbyterian church. Besides his widow daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Miles Walker of Bellefonte, survivors are two sisters, Miss Ruth Numbers and Mrs. Claud W. Decker, and his mother, Mrs. Lillie Numbers, all of Woodbridge, N. J. The funeral was held from the late residence Tuesday morning.

Women of the Moose Initiate New Class

The Bellefonte Chapter, Women of the Moose, held a chapter night program at the Moose home Monday night of last week with Miss Mary Quick, library chairman, in charge.

Guest speakers for the evening were Miss Ethel Dale, Goucher College graduate, Mrs. Robert M. Beach, president of the Centre County Library and Historical Association, and Mrs. Grace Haupt, associate dean of the Academy of Friendship, all of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Freda Clinger of Lewistown, grand dean of the Academy of Friendship. William W. Litke, governor of the Bellefonte Moose Lodge, also spoke. All spoke on the subject of "Books."

The following candidates were initiated into the organization in honor of Mrs. Clinger: Florence Weaver, Elmira Goodhart, Ida Kerstetter, Ida Brayley, Emily C. Daily, Anna B. Snyder, Gertrude Young, Mary Brown, Erma Rightmower, Christian Yohn, Blanche Peters and Martha Gunasillus.

Music and novelty acts were presented by Theodore Seitz and Robert Gill. Members decided to send books and scrapbooks to the Mooseheart home at Mooseheart, Ind.

Mrs. Clinger had on display four pieces of silk manufactured by the Viscose Company of Lewistown, which were brought by Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania, founder of the Moose Lodge. Dresses will be made from the materials for each of the senator's four daughters.

WHY THE SMILE, LADY?

WE HAD TENDERAY BEEF FOR DINNER

You see, I wouldn't be a woman if I weren't a softie about compliments. And did I get compliments last night—did I! It all started with that steak. My husband put the first juicy chunk in his mouth, chewed, looked surprised, chewed some more, then let out a whoop of delight.

IT'S THAT GOOD, EH?

GOOD? IT'S SENSATIONAL!

For the first time in months he thought to kiss me before he lit his pipe. Then instead of hiding behind his paper, he asked me all about Tenderay and was it expensive. When I told him how little it costs, and everything, he said, "What a wife! You deserve a reward. Let's go to a movie."

TELLING YOUR FRIENDS?

AM I? LISTEN—BZZ-BZZI

The back fences in our neighborhood have been busier than a telegraph office. I tell my neighbors. They try Tenderay, and tell their neighbors. Everybody says it's wonderful. You will, too. Why don't you try some tonight? Get any cut—from chuck to porterhouse—all cuts of Tenderay beef are tender every time.
