

Remembers Poor in Will
Dr. Augustus J. Brubaker, instructor in dentistry at Temple University dental college, Philadelphia, bequeathed his $5,000 estate to a half-brother, Donald L. Brubaker of Allona, with the provision it be used "to relieve the distress of the poor and needy." Dr. Brubaker was found dead in his automobile Nov. 14. His will was probated last week.

Purse Stolen From Woman

p. m. distributing blankets, and was on her way home when she heard someone walking in back of her. In one hand she carried a carry-all in which were her pocketbook, containing about $2 in cash, keys and papers.

As she neared the Scott Stover home, the carry-all was jerked from her hand, and a man ran north through an alley near the Stover home, toward East Lamb street.

Mrs. Miller reported the theft to police, and Chief of Police Harry Dukeman and Officer Ralph Eyer conducted an investigation, during the course of which Samuel Vondra, who had been unloading coal at the Lester Musser home on East Lamb street, reported that he had found the carry-all in the road near the home. The purse was not recovered.

Mrs. Miller reported that the thief wore a short wool jacket, was bare-headed and had dark hair.
