service in the opener, according to James A. Myers, coach: Robert Rimmer, Gilbert Ralston, Nevin Rimmer, Melvin Dutrow, Ernest Frank, John Rimmer, Marlin Fye, Donald Brouse, and Lynn Miller.

Coach Myers said, "The 1940-41 squad is one of the largest we have ever had in numbers and the smallest in physical stature. They are green and inexperienced. There are no left-overs from last year, so we will have to build from the ground up. The squad will be reduced to 14 or 15 this week. Eleven will make the trips."

Besides the ten already mentioned Coach Myers considers these players possible material: Kenneth Runkle, Bruce Moyer, Dean Neff, Larry Bolter, William Reese, Ardell Gross, Robert Ross, Jack Garbrick, and James Gerrhart.

"We are not looking for anything this year but are pointing for the 1941 and 1942 when he hope to have 'something on the ball' On the whole, prospects are not good, but we are assured of a scrappy, if not experienced team," Coach Myers concluded.

CLASS TO PRESENT PLAY

The senior class of the Centre Hall-Potter high school will present the famous laugh-making Royalty Play, "Melodrama in Nan-ki-poo" the evening of February 7, in the High School Auditorium.

The cast of characters selected by the school's dramatic teacher, Charles Sionaker, is as follows: Marjorie Landis, a small town girl in search of a movie career, played by Peg McCrehan; Mr. Landis, her father, James Rimmer; Mrs. Landis, Marjorie's stage-struck mother, Lois Homan; Aunt Mary, Mrs. Landis' Shakespeare-quoting sister, Rosella Homan; Helen Stevens, Marjorie's best friend, Martha Rimmer; Jimmie Barlow, in love with Marjorie, Mark Jordan; Jack Dixon, Jimmie's best friend, Kenneth Runkle; Horace Bilgewater Dillingham, small town genius, Dean Reish; Miss Kelly, the smooth talent discoverer, Betty Runkle; Von Bladen, pseudo-motion picture director, Paul Smith; and the hard boiled government man who is looking for the confidence artists, Burke, is played by James Gergart.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS X-MAS SUPPER AND PARTY

The Centre Hall Woman's Club met in the high school auditorium Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock for the annual Christmas buffet supper and party. Forty-eight persons were present.

This committee was in charge of the party: Mrs. Fred Homan, Mrs. C. H. Homan, Mrs. F. M. Fisher, Mrs. Henry Kimbrell, and Mrs. W. Kerlin.

After supper a play, "The Silver Swan," was presented under the direction of Mrs. George Sweeney. Mrs. George Lutz played the role of Mrs. Blake; Mrs. Reuben S. Rickett played Carol Blake, the daughter; and Miss Ida Frazier was Miss Sylvia Van Fleet.

Group singing of Christmas carols and the exchange of gifts followed the play. The donations of toys, food, and clothing for the Christmas gifts to the poor are under the supervision of Mrs. A. L. Emery and her committee.

CAROL SING FRIDAY NIGHT

A group of local singers, under the direction of Donald Shope, will present a program of Christmas music over the Bellefonte public address system from 7-8 o'clock Friday evening.

The Rev. C. C. Otto will give a short address as a part of this hour's program.

Among the numbers to be sung by the chorus are: "A Great and Mighty Wonder" by John Haller; "With Gaudes Bright" by Charles Black; "While Joseph Slept" by Ralph Marryatt; and "Bring a Torch, Jeanette, Isabelle," an old French carol.

SPECIAL LUTHERAN SERVICE

"The Spirit of Christianity," an allegorical Christmas program, will be presented at the Lutheran candlelight service December 24 at 11:00 o'clock p. m.

These will play leading roles: Jack Riegel as the Spirit of Christianity; William H. Kerlin, known as Miss Louise Smeltzer, Faith; and Mrs. Kenneth Runkle, Love.

Others who will participate are: Chester Grove, Mrs. Ray Mark, Miss Inez Luse, Miss Bertha Sharer, and Harvey Plink.

The congregation will join in carol singing at the close of the program.

CHRISTMAS SERVICE AT REFORMED CHURCH

The Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church of Centre Hall, will present its annual White candle Christmas service on Sunday night, Dec. 22 at 7:30 o'clock. The service is based on Henry Van Dyke's story "The Other Wiseman." The music will consist of Russian, German, Finnish and English carols, and will be sung antiphonally by two choirs.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

We are sorry to learn of the death of Joseph A. Alexander, late of Union Township, who passed away the latter part of last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lucas of Union Township. Funeral services were conducted from his home on Monday afternoon and interment in the Oak Ridge cemetery. We herewith extend most sincere sympathies to the bereaved family and friends at this time.

A group of folks from here accompanied by some from Union Township, State College, Julian and Bellefonte, made up the hours program of Christmas Music in Bellefonte on Monday evening over the loud speakers which are placed in various sections of the town. The program originated in the Lutheran church and was a decided success. There were about 25 or 30 voices which helped make the program a success.

A little bit of Christmas Spirit is cropping out here and there in the community. Santa Claus is busy filling up his sack and wrapping gifts and getting things in readiness for the final day, which is next Wednesday. We hope all the little folks, and big ones too, will receive lots of gifts and, it is the wish of the writer of this column, that all our readers will have a very, very
