

CENTRE HALL AND VICINITY

CAPT. WILLIAM REIBER GOES TO FORT LEE

Capt. William D. Reiber, who was instructor in the R. O. T. C. medical unit in Syracuse, N. Y., spent several days last week with his mother, Mrs. Della Reiber, and brother, George Reiber, in York before taking up a "refresher course" at Carlisle Barracks.

ATTEND FUNERAL OF FORMER COUNTY RESIDENT

A number of local persons attended the funeral Thursday of Jacob R. Bible in Spring City near Phoenixville.

Mr. Bible, seventy-seven years of age, at his death was a resident of Pottery Mills thirty-four years ago.

These persons from this vicinity attended the burial: Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Bradford, Mrs. Lee Confer, Mr. and Mrs. John Martz, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hennigh.

Sunday guests at the George Shamer home were Mrs. T. L. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rinehart, of State College, besides Mrs. Ada Baughn of Altoona, who is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Shamer.

Mrs. Anna Bartholomew and family had a birthday dinner Saturday noon in honor of Miss Jean Bartholomew and E. L. Bartholomew from Altoona. Other guests were Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew, Mr. and Mrs. Clara Reesman of Camden, N. J., and Mrs. Edna Noll of Pleasant Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bender, daughter Joanne and son Lawrence of State College visited friends in Centre Hall Sunday evening. Another son, Paul, returned after Christmas to Camp Meade at Jessup, Maryland, where he is employed as a carpenter's assistant.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keller and daughter Janet Lee from Laurel, Delaware, are spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Keller.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Crockett of Wilkes Barre, parents of Mrs. George Vogt have been spending the holidays here with Mr. and Mrs. Vogt and family. William Shop was also a guest at the Vogt home on Christmas day.

One of the largest family dinners of the season was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miller on Christmas day. These guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Franz, sons Robert, Kenneth, Donald and daughter Bernice, Miss Lola Arney, Mrs. Anna Frazer, Miss Ida Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lee of Spring Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Daup, William Daup, Miriam Frazer, Daniel Daup, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Miller.

Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Whiteman were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shook and child, of Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Watson, of Millheim and Miss Edna Jackson of State College were guests on Christmas of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Boggs returned to Hermon Sunday after spending the holidays with relatives here. Bruce Rowe, a brother of Mrs. Boggs from Newark, N. J., spent the weekend here. They were entertained at a family dinner at the J. William Bradford home Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Boozer entertained the family group Christmas.

The Men's Bible Class of the Lutheran church elected these officers Sunday: President, J. E. Riehl, vice-president, E. E. Zettle; secretary, V. A. Auman; and treasurer, P. H. Luse; R. S. Jamison is the teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Spzyk and family entertained these guests to Christmas dinner: Mr. and Mrs. John Donelson, Mrs. W. L. Wilson and son Warren, of Marklesburg; Vinton McOlellan, of Gettysburg; Edward Mandel of State College; Mr. and Mrs. John Spzyk of York; Fred Spzyk of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sienker of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. William Spzyk and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wer, Jr., and daughter Joanne.

106 ATTEND ANNUAL ALUMNI XMAS BANQUET

The annual Alumni Christmas banquet, the largest one in many years, was held Friday night in the newly furnished room of the Centre Hall-Pottery high school at six-thirty o'clock.

One hundred six alumni and guests attended the banquet of which Clay Reesman of Camden, New Jersey, was the principal speaker. Mr. Reesman finished school here in 1901 and has been away much of the time since but, as he affirmed, still considers this "home." His address was a plea for a keener appreciation of the privileges of American citizenship.

Others appearing on the program were Eugene Burkholder, president and master of ceremonies, J. F. Wetzel, principal, other officers of the association, William Weaver, Donald Shope, who sang several numbers, and others called on at the principal's request.

William Weaver showed two reels of film taken when the school ground was landscaped. The banquet of which Donald Coldron was general chairman, was served by the Ladies Bible Class of the Reformed church.

At the business meeting which preceded the dancing, the group decided to buy a piano for the high school as the major project of the new year.

Officers elected for 1941 are: president, Eugene Burkholder; vice president, Donald Coldron; secretary, Paul Petteroff; treasurer, Mrs. Roy Jamison, and new members of the executive board Mrs. F. P. Geary and Reuben S. Rickert.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben S. Rickert spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. George Sweeney and family. Miss Gloria Brooks and Miss Betty Lou Sweeney went by bus to Pittsburgh, Thursday where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Irwin, a guest of Miss Brooks. They returned home Sunday.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. David I. Graybill on Christmas day were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Graybill of Paxtonville, Mrs. Frank Crozier of Lewisville, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman E. Good and children, Sherman Jr. and Joan, of Wisconsin, and Mrs. Virginia Lousden of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wetzel entertained Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradford and children Paul, Jr., and Donna, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wetzel and daughter Shirley at Christmas dinner.

Miss Martha Speer, Superintendent of Columbia Hospital, Wilkes-Barre, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Geary from Tuesday until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hosterman were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Johnson at their home in Bellefonte last Sunday.

Muth Bailey from Washington, D. C., spent the Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bailey.

A family dinner at the William Colyer home on Christmas included Mr. and Mrs. Russell Colyer from Williamsport, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Colyer and son from Lewisville.

Mr. and Mrs. David I. Graybill attended the funeral of Mr. Graybill's aunt, Mrs. Winny H. Graybill in Harrisburg Thursday.

Alfred Reish, a draftsman at the U. S. Navy Yard in Philadelphia, spent Christmas week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frank and son spent the weekend with relatives and friends in Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. William McCormick and son, John from Reading, spent the Christmas vacation with relatives in this vicinity.

MEETING NEEDS OF TODAY THEME OF WEEK OF PRAYER

The local ministerium announces the theme "Meeting Needs of Today" for the annual Week of Prayer services beginning Monday, January 6 in the Evangelical church. Similar series will be held at the same time in the Spring Mills Methodist church.

The program for the Centre Hall services follows: Monday, The Need of Concentrating Material Resources, the Rev. W. S. Glenn; Tuesday, The Need of Manifesting God's Presence, the Rev. W. K. Hosterman; Wednesday, The Need of Spiritualizing Ambitions, the Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick; Thursday, The Need of Poised Living, Today, the Rev. C. C. Otto; Friday, The Need of Meeting the Challenge of Tomorrow, the Rev. D. R. Keener.

The Spring Mills schedule follows with each minister using the topics previously mentioned: Monday—the Rev. W. K. Hosterman; Tuesday—The Rev. W. S. Glenn; Wednesday—The Rev. D. R. Keener; Thursday—The Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick; Friday—The Rev. C. C. Otto.

CHURCH SERVICES

Evangelical, The Rev. W. K. Hosterman, pastor; Tusseyville, Church service 11:30, Sunday School 9:30; Centre Hall, Sunday School 9:30; Church service 10:30; Locust Grove; Sunday School 9:30; Church service 7:30.

Lutheran, The Rev. C. C. Otto, pastor. Centre Hall: Sunday School 9:30, Church service 7:30; Farmers Mills: Sunday School 9:30, Communion 10:30; Georges Valley: Communion 9:00, Sunday School 10:00.

Methodist, The Rev. W. S. Glenn, pastor. Centre Hall: Church service 9:30, Sunday School 10:30; Spruce own: Sunday School 9:30, Church service 10:45; Spring Mills: Sunday School 9:30, Church service 7:30.

Presbyterian, The Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, pastor. Lemont: Sunday School 9:00, Church service 10:15; 11:00; Pine Grove: Sunday School 9:30, Church service 7:30; Centre Hall: Church service 9:30, Sunday School 10:30.

Reformed, The Rev. D. R. Keener, pastor. Centre Hall: Sunday School 9:00, Church service 10:00; Tusseyville: Sunday School 1:30, Church service 2:30.

Miss Margaret Jacobs entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clay Reesman to dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Geary entertained these guests to dinner Thursday evening: Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Smith, Miss Veina Chambers, and Swengel Smith from Bellefonte; Miss Martha Speer from Lewisville; Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Jamison and daughter Catherine.

Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk and daughter, Miss Helen Odenkirk entertained these dinner guests Saturday: Mr. and Mrs. Abner Alexander and daughter, Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradford, Jack Kirkpatrick, Joe Myers from Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. William P. Campbell.

Mrs. George Benner has spent the last ten days in Tyrone caring for her sister, Miss Elizabeth Eberta, whose death occurred Saturday.

Mrs. Lovan Smith spent Christmas in State College with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Yearick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Campbell spent Christmas day with Mr. Campbell's mother, Mrs. Robert Campbell, in State College.

Jack Riegel visited his cousin, Jack Taylor, in Salona during part of the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Smith and children, Barbara and Larry, from Pleasant Gap and Edward Vogt Jr. had Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vogt.

REBERSBURG

Dr. George Weber of Waldorf, Md., visited at the homes of his uncles, Mrs. Mary M. Abbott and Mrs. Sara Kelly, the past weekend. His uncle, Mr. R. W. Meyer, accompanied him to Washington, D. C., where he will visit his sister, Mrs. Heurtat Weber, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross Mark of Lack Haven were recent dinner guests at the A. E. Limbert home.

Charles Hosterman, a private in the army air corps located at Langley Field, Virginia, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hosterman, several days last week, returning to Virginia Christmas Day.

Miss Doria Meyer, who is in training at the West Penn Hospital at East Liberty, spent her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meyer. Other Christmas dinner guests at the Meyer home were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and family and Mr. and Mrs. Hyle Wolf and family of Aaronsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Schade and daughter, Peggy, of Greenbarr and Woodrow Meyer of Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gramley were Christmas Day guests with their son, Charles, and family of Flemington.

Mrs. Ruth Probst of State College visited her aunt, Mrs. T. J. Ocker, the past week.

Messrs. L. M. Meek of Bellefonte, Roy Brungart, Donald Wolfe and Paul Cummings of town motored to Fort Meade, Maryland, on Sunday where they hope to secure employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and daughters, Barbara and Catherine, of Millinburg, Mr. Bartley and Mrs. Bingham of White Springs were Christmas dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Ella Diehl and Miss Emma Sholl. Sunday guests at the same home were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bender and children, Lawrence and Joan, of State College.

Dr. Palmer Weaver of State College and family were Christmas dinner guests with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver. Sr. Their son, Professor Harry Weaver and wife of New Kensington visited the parental home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cummings of Lock Haven spent Christmas Day with her former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cummings. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cummings of Williamsport were Christmas eve callers with their parents.

Mrs. Elizabeth Weaver of State College called on friends in town on Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Dale Kohr visited the latter's parents at Hummelstown several days last week, including Christmas.

Mr. Clarence Strayer of Madisonburg, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Confer of Harrisburg and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Strayer of Lock Haven were dinner guests at the S. G. Ziegler home last Sunday.

Mr. Kenneth Haines attended the funeral of the Secretary of the Anville Fire Insurance Company at Anville on Sunday. The day following was spent in Harrisburg.

Jerry Miller of State College is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Anna Miller, in Harrisburg.

REBERSBURG

Dr. George Weber of Waldorf, Md., visited at the homes of his uncles, Mrs. Mary M. Abbott and Mrs. Sara Kelly, the past weekend. His uncle, Mr. R. W. Meyer, accompanied him to Washington, D. C., where he will visit his sister, Mrs. Heurtat Weber, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross Mark of Lack Haven were recent dinner guests at the A. E. Limbert home.

Charles Hosterman, a private in the army air corps located at Langley Field, Virginia, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hosterman, several days last week, returning to Virginia Christmas Day.

Miss Doria Meyer, who is in training at the West Penn Hospital at East Liberty, spent her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meyer. Other Christmas dinner guests at the Meyer home were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and family and Mr. and Mrs. Hyle Wolf and family of Aaronsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Schade and daughter, Peggy, of Greenbarr and Woodrow Meyer of Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gramley were Christmas Day guests with their son, Charles, and family of Flemington.

Mrs. Ruth Probst of State College visited her aunt, Mrs. T. J. Ocker, the past week.

Messrs. L. M. Meek of Bellefonte, Roy Brungart, Donald Wolfe and Paul Cummings of town motored to Fort Meade, Maryland, on Sunday where they hope to secure employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and daughters, Barbara and Catherine, of Millinburg, Mr. Bartley and Mrs. Bingham of White Springs were Christmas dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Ella Diehl and Miss Emma Sholl. Sunday guests at the same home were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bender and children, Lawrence and Joan, of State College.

Dr. Palmer Weaver of State College and family were Christmas dinner guests with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver. Sr. Their son, Professor Harry Weaver and wife of New Kensington visited the parental home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cummings of Lock Haven spent Christmas Day with her former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cummings. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cummings of Williamsport were Christmas eve callers with their parents.

Mrs. Elizabeth Weaver of State College called on friends in town on Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Dale Kohr visited the latter's parents at Hummelstown several days last week, including Christmas.

Mr. Clarence Strayer of Madisonburg, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Confer of Harrisburg and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Strayer of Lock Haven were dinner guests at the S. G. Ziegler home last Sunday.

Mr. Kenneth Haines attended the funeral of the Secretary of the Anville Fire Insurance Company at Anville on Sunday. The day following was spent in Harrisburg.

Jerry Miller of State College is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Anna Miller, in Harrisburg.

REBERSBURG

Dr. George Weber of Waldorf, Md., visited at the homes of his uncles, Mrs. Mary M. Abbott and Mrs. Sara Kelly, the past weekend. His uncle, Mr. R. W. Meyer, accompanied him to Washington, D. C., where he will visit his sister, Mrs. Heurtat Weber, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross Mark of Lack Haven were recent dinner guests at the A. E. Limbert home.

Charles Hosterman, a private in the army air corps located at Langley Field, Virginia, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hosterman, several days last week, returning to Virginia Christmas Day.

Miss Doria Meyer, who is in training at the West Penn Hospital at East Liberty, spent her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meyer. Other Christmas dinner guests at the Meyer home were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and family and Mr. and Mrs. Hyle Wolf and family of Aaronsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Schade and daughter, Peggy, of Greenbarr and Woodrow Meyer of Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gramley were Christmas Day guests with their son, Charles, and family of Flemington.

Mrs. Ruth Probst of State College visited her aunt, Mrs. T. J. Ocker, the past week.

Messrs. L. M. Meek of Bellefonte, Roy Brungart, Donald Wolfe and Paul Cummings of town motored to Fort Meade, Maryland, on Sunday where they hope to secure employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and daughters, Barbara and Catherine, of Millinburg, Mr. Bartley and Mrs. Bingham of White Springs were Christmas dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Ella Diehl and Miss Emma Sholl. Sunday guests at the same home were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bender and children, Lawrence and Joan, of State College.

Dr. Palmer Weaver of State College and family were Christmas dinner guests with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver. Sr. Their son, Professor Harry Weaver and wife of New Kensington visited the parental home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cummings of Lock Haven spent Christmas Day with her former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cummings. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cummings of Williamsport were Christmas eve callers with their parents.

Mrs. Elizabeth Weaver of State College called on friends in town on Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Dale Kohr visited the latter's parents at Hummelstown several days last week, including Christmas.

Mr. Clarence Strayer of Madisonburg, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Confer of Harrisburg and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Strayer of Lock Haven were dinner guests at the S. G. Ziegler home last Sunday.

Mr. Kenneth Haines attended the funeral of the Secretary of the Anville Fire Insurance Company at Anville on Sunday. The day following was spent in Harrisburg.

Jerry Miller of State College is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Anna Miller, in Harrisburg.

PINE GROVE MILLS

And now it must be written 1941. Guy and Edwin Kocher, Robert Osman and Ralph Musser, who are employed at Camp Meade, Md., spent the Yuletide vacation at their respective homes here.

Mrs. Fred Homan of Pleasant Gap is assisting in the care of Mr. Elmer C. Musser, who is still under the care of Dr. Grover C. Glenn.

Fred Bottorf Tate of Richmond, Va., was holiday visitor with friends here and his mother Mrs. A. J. Tate of State College. Fred, a former Ferguson farmer is now supervisor of a large dairy and hog farm in the heart of Virginia.

Retired farmer Samuel I. Cori was a pleasant caller last Sunday with his brother and sister on West Main Street, J. C. Cori and Mrs. Maria Krebs.

Mr. W. L. Wehr veteran silo agent of Swineford, Snyder county, is circulating among our farmers this week checking his accounts before 1941. The genial agent reports sales of 61 new silos for the past season.

Miss Mary Gardner gave a Christmas party at her farm home Tuesday evening for her Sunday School class. Choice refreshments were served of ice cream, cake with plenty of Christmas candies.

Mr. George Newton Dreibeis recently submitted to tonsil operation in the Centre County Hospital and is back at his position in the State College creamery.

Farmer and butcher Roy Harter recently erected a large new slaughter house at his farm on the Branch and is now butchering the new way.

George P. Irwin is driving a new 1941 Buick sedan purchased last week from the Harpster Auto Co., of Warriors Mark.

Mr. Paul Smith of Towanda, Pa., was the past week holiday guest of Miss Mary Hazel Myers at her parental home near Meek's church.

Mrs. Charles Campbell and children spent a few days recently at her parental home Mrs. Bask of Warriors Mark.

Farmer Harry Struble, tenant of the well known Glasgow-Snyder farm in East Ferguson, was an important business caller in Pleasant Gap last Saturday.

Roy Barro last week sold his fine pine timber tract to Mr. Alfred Davis who is making extra saw lumber from it for his large orders in the East.

Miss Sara Donley spent Christmas with her sister, Mrs. Dora McCormick at her home in Millheim.

Miss Nellie Stephens was last Thursday a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glenn in Lemont.

Rev. E. C. Martz motored up from his home in Durham, N. C., Tuesday last to spend Christmas season with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Martz. "Eddy" was the guest preacher Sunday evening in the Lutheran church and very ably filled the pulpit.

PINE GROVE MILLS

Mr. William Deiber of Penna. Furnace. The callithumpian band gave them a great start for New Year after the ceremony. The groom, a young farmer on the Prof. Paul Wright farm where they will reside. Congratulations.

The Misses Maude and Gertrude Miller were Sunday evening guests at the Arthur J. Burrell home on E. Main Street.

Claude H. Myers of the Farm Security Administration, Norrisstown, Pa., was here over the past week at his parental home, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Myers at Fairbrook.

Threshersman John W. Miller is baling a large quantity of extra fine alfalfa hay at the Mrs. Millie Kepler farm.

HOLTS HOLLOW

Holiday visitors at the Charles Poorman home were J. B. Poorman, of Johnstown; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Fowell, of Pleasant Gap; Ida, Edna, Russell and Vera Poorman of Dry Top; Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley and daughter, Frank, Marie and Anna Johnson, Gettrude and Arvilla Fetter.

Mrs. Edith Burd spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John Possinger at Coleville.

Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. Olive Rhoades and son were dinner guests at the Clyde Watson home in Milesburg on Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Johnson and daughter spent Christmas at the Mahlon Johnson home at Centre Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Johnson were recent visitors at the Johnson home.

Helen Brown spent Christmas with friends at Lyndstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Durd called at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Durd and family at Pleasant Gap, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Toward Durd and son, at Unionville at the John Possinger home at Coleville and also called on relatives at Hummel.

Jim Poorman of Johnstown, and Mrs. Faye and Betty Poorman and Marie Johnson were recent visitors at the Clyde Poorman home at Dry Top.

Mr. John Watson spent Monday through at the Walter Sweitzer home in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woomer, of Maryland, spent the holidays with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lucas and family, of Axemann; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox, of Milesburg, and John Emmert and friend, of Lock Haven, were Christmas visitors at the Charles Lucas home.

Municipal Millheim Show Time: 7:10 & 9 P. M. WEDNESDAY & THUR. (Jan. 1 and 2) The Knockout Comedy of the NEW YEAR! "Dreaming Out Loud" Lum and Abner—Stars of Radio FRIDAY & SATURDAY (Jan. 3 and 4) Myrna Loy, Melvyn Douglas, Bonita Granville—In "Third Finger Left Hand" If you don't get the biggest laugh of your life... see your doctor because there's something wrong with your funny bone. Latest News "HOME ON THE RANGE" MONDAY & TUESDAY (Jan. 6 and 7) Lew Ayers, Lionel Barrymore, Laraine Day—in "Dr. Kildare Goes Home" He's a full-fledged Doctor now... and his troubles are just beginning. Mickey Mouse Cartoon and News Events WISHING YOU ALL A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

THEY Both GET THROUGH... LET THE worst blizzard blow, let biting cold sweep down the milk still gets through... You can depend on Pyroil, too... to bring your motor through winter, safely... to give it added power and smoother operation throughout all freezing temperatures... Pyroil makes your motor easier to start. It saves the battery. And when oils and greases are "frozen" thick, its safeguards bearings, gears and pistons against metal-to-metal damage until these lubricants circulate properly. Keep your motor perfectly attuned this winter, with Pyroil. Keep it "sweet" running, fully protected and more economical in operation. Pyroil saves, actually, far more than its small cost. Always insist on Pyroil being added to each filling of gasoline, oil and grease. Manufactured and Guaranteed by Pyroil Company, W. V. Kidder, Pres., LaCrosse, Wisconsin, U.S.A. Frank L. Bumgardner Pyroil Distributor CLEARFIELD, PA. INSIST ON GENUINE PYROIL AT YOUR FAVORITE SERVICE STATION AND GARAGE—NOW ON SALE AT PAUL HOWARD'S SERVICE STATION BISHOP STREET—BELLEFONTE D. H. HEIM'S SERVICE STATION N. WATER STREET—BELLEFONTE COLLEGE HEIGHTS SERVICE STATION STATE COLLEGE CLARK MOTOR CO. STATE COLLEGE FUEL & SUPPLY CO. STATE COLLEGE O'BRIEN'S SERVICE STATION STATE COLLEGE