

REBERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Hubler, of Wilkinsburg, visited the former's mother, Mrs. Ada Hubler the past weekend. Miss Margaret Grubb underwent an appendectomy at the Centre County Hospital, last Friday. Miss Dorothy Arbogast of Philadelphia, was a guest of her friend Mark Lambert, the past weekend. Adam Reish had the misfortune of breaking his ankle last Wednesday, while working on the Fetteroff lumber job his foot was caught by a rolling log. He was taken to the Lock Haven hospital, where the leg was placed in a cast and was brought home several days later. Mrs. Minnie Musser of Aaronsburg, is employed at the Paul Brown home. Mrs. Brown and infant son, Edward Eugene, returned from the Centre County Hospital, Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker of Aaronsburg, visited the former's grandmother, Mrs. Elmeda Miller several days last week. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Blair returned from a two weeks visit to Florida last Wednesday. Mrs. Della Mack and daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mark and son of Loganton, called on the former's sister, Mrs. Savilla Stitzer Sunday. The Rebekah lodge gave a farewell party for Mrs. Paul Cummings on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Winters. The Cummings family expect to move to Williamsport in the near future. The local Y. P. M. C. and members of the Millheim Y. P. M. C. were entertained at the William Tarbert home on Friday evening. The meeting was in charge of the President, Mark Lambert. Special features on the program were a playlet by Betty Gentzel and Doris Mallory; a trumpet solo by William Tarbert, Jr. and study of the text book, "Stand By China," followed by prayer by Mrs. Houseal. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Houseal, Misses Esther Breen, Helen Rishel and Betty Auman of Millheim; Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock, Mark Lambert, Ned and Gordon Hosterman, William Tarbert Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breen, Misses Betty and Phyllis Page, Betty Gentzel, Doris Mallory, Maybelle Breen and Pauline Auman. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bierly and Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Bierly returned last Thursday from a pleasure trip to Florida. Among local people who attended the Farm Show at Harrisburg, last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Estelle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Esterline, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Esterline, Mr. Russell Grazer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bierly, Mrs. W. F. Bierly, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wert and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hosterman. Eldon Ilgen who has been employed in Baltimore, Md., is home at this writing. Miss Mary Louise Kelly, who has been employed at Wanamaker's in Philadelphia, returned home last week for an indefinite visit. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wert, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wert, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Esterline, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Esterline, Miss Miriam Zerby, Mr. Roland Esterline, Mrs. Annie Stover, and Mrs. R. W. Mayer, were entertained at Madisonburg last Friday evening by Mrs. Pearl Hackman and Miss Mabel Vonada at the latter's home. Sunday guests at the C. M. Bierly home were: Mr. and Mrs. John Gray and Paul Bierly of State College; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bierly of Millheim; Mr. Woodrow Bierly of Harrisburg; Mr. Charles Kreamer, of York; Miss Elaine Prosser of Atlantic City and Mr. Eugene Bierly, formerly of Philadelphia, but now transferred to Bridgeville. The Millheim Fire Company was called to Smulson on Friday because of an overheated stove pipe, in the Emery Greenoble home. Mrs. Ada Bierly and Mrs. Harvey Brungart of Millburg, were Thursday visitors in Rebersburg and were supper guests at the H. H. Royer home. Mr. and Mrs. John Heckman and Miss Martha Boal of Centre Hall, visited Mrs. Elsie Auman on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winters of Milroy, were at the Harry Boone home on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg motored to Allentown on Saturday where they are guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Zacharias. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cummings of Williamsport, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cummings of Lock Haven spent the weekend at the A. G. Cummings home. Mr. Kenneth Breen and Mr. Carlos Tyson, both employed by Bethlehem Steel Co., of Steelton, visited their respective homes Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hackenberg visited in Muncy on Thursday. Dr. K. A. Lay was confined to his home the past weekend due to the la grippe. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Wise and family of Spring Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gephart and son, Gerald, of Greenburg were Sunday dinner guests at the John Brungart home. Sunday dinner guests at the Adam Reish home were Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Gephart and daughter, Donna, of Aaronsburg.

PINE GROVE MILLS

Mr. Daniel Frank motored to Washington, Sunday last to witness the inauguration exercises. He was accompanied by a couple of friends. Our highway boss Mr. Marshall Barto, is hugging his stove these winter days nursing severe attack of gripe. Banker and farmer D. S. Peterson was making locomotion with the aid of a cane the past week on account of some rheumatism, is better at this writing. Mr. Jacob D. Neidigh, veteran grain merchant, is reported seriously ill at his Pine Hall home. He was taken suddenly ill last week on a fox chase near his home farm. J. H. McCracken, J. Milo Campbell and N. E. Hess were among the notables from this section attending the Farm Show on Wednesday. Others were C. H. Myers and family were also seekers at show, C. H. Campbell, G. E. Harper, G. L. Corl and wife and Jr., Earl Johnston and family, Samuel M. Hess and C. T. Homan and wives, A. L. Albright, Ben Johnston, G. E. Fry, Carl Koerber and Paul Sunday. Harry Peters, purchased last week, a brand new Oliver Tractor, up-to-date, from the C. W. Behers agency at Graysville. The Lady Ferguson Rebekah Lodge will serve a roast chicken supper Feb. 5 in the I. O. O. F. hall from 5 to 10. A Bazaar will also be in order, all proceeds for I. O. O. F. Hall, 50 and 25c. per plate.

YARNELL

The Ladies Sunday School Class will meet at the home of Mrs. Anna Miller, Friday evening, Jan. 31. A variety supper will be the feature of the evening. All members are urged to attend if possible and bring a dime. They also have a quilt in at the home of Mrs. Virian Walker and will be glad to have all the help they can get on it. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown motored to Avia, last Sunday p. m. and on Monday attended the Farm Show at Harrisburg, with Mr. and Mrs. Budd Boyer. Charles Flax and family moved last week to Central City. He sold his place in Peizertown to a man from New Florence. Those who spent last Thursday quilting at the home of Mrs. Walter Knecht at Mill Hill, R. F. D. were: Mrs. Raymond Coakley, Mrs. Harry Shawley, Mrs. Claire Shawley, son Harold, Mrs. Homer Walker and Mrs. Toner Petzer. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shawley accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hipple of Bellefonte, to the Farm Show last Wednesday. Sunday School next Sunday 9:30; preaching service at 10:30. Fined For Contempt J. R. Hicks, defendant in a non-support suit, spoke out of turn in Bradford county court and called a witness who was testifying "a liar." He was promptly fined $5.00 for contempt, which he paid immediately. It was the first fine for contempt that Judge C. M. Culver ever ordered in his 15 years on the bench.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, Feb. 2 are as follows: Sunday School 9:30; Worship with sermon 10:45, and C. E. 6:45. Ladies Aide Society will hold their next monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. William Beightol on Saturday evening, Feb. 1. Please come prepared to participate in both the Valentine and question box. Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer and children Nancy and Ronald of Centre Hall, spent Tuesday evening at the C. E. Aley home. Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children Dicky, Elsie Jane and Keineth and Mary June Fry motored to State College on Sunday afternoon and called to see Mr. W. H. Kaufman who is bedfast in a critical condition, his many friends wish him a speedy recovery. Mrs. E. R. Bartley was a Wednesday caller at the Orvis Clark and Henry Vonada homes and a dinner guest at the Ira Haagen home. An ice cream party was held on Friday evening at the home of Mr. D. P. Ertley and family the following guests were present: Mrs. Sumner Noll and daughter Elsie Jane and son Dick, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Aley daughter Bette and son Leon, Kenneth Neidigh, Richard Vonada and Robert Conaway. At the Scout meeting on Monday night it was decided that all scouts from both patrols will meet at 1:00 o'clock Saturday, February 1. Will all those who can possibly be there be present? The leaders have a few surprises. On Thursday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dixon and son Ronald accompanied Mr. William Boone to March Creek to visit the latter's brother Mr. Wilson Boone who is in a serious condition. Mr. and Mrs. William Beightol and children Harry, Earl and Louise and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conaway and children Kathryn, Lucy, Lester and Harry were Sunday dinner guests at the John Dunkle home near Hecla, the chief attraction was in commemoration of the birthday of Louise Beightol. Mr. Harry Swope of Pittsburgh and Miss Virginia Fisher of Charleroi, spent last week with the former's father Mr. Elmer Swope. Dorothy Betz, who is employed in Lock Haven as a beautician, spent the weekend here at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley and children spent Wednesday of last week at the Farm Show and reported a fine time. A correction in last weeks items was that the Misses Barbara, Rebecca and Sara Shaffer's names were omitted in the list of persons who attended Miss Kathryn Conaway's birthday party. Mr. and Mrs. Clair Rossmann of Mill Hill, and Glen Confer of Beech Creek, visited at the John Deltz and Mrs. Florence Rossmann homes on Sunday. Harry Butler of Howard, and Ben Vonada, of Pine Creek, were Sunday guests at the Hubert Vonada home. Mr. J. J. Vonada a farmer in our vicinity for a number of years past, but now retired and living near Howard, suffered a stroke on Saturday and is in a very serious condition. Mr. Vonada has many friends here who wish him a speedy recovery. Mr. Newton Weaver of State College, spent Sunday afternoon at the A. A. Garrett home. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dolan of Millheim, spent Saturday afternoon with Mr. George Dolan and family. Sunday dinner guests at the James Shaffer home were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Emel and children Nancy and Clair of Howard R. D. No. 3, Mrs. Gertrude Sheasley and daughter Shirley and Mr. Ellsworth Conaway of Beech Creek. Other callers were Mr. Matthew Conaway of Flemington, Mrs. James Lucas and Budd Pike of this place. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Aley and daughter Bette and son Leon of this place and Mrs. Jack Mabius of Bellefonte were Sunday dinner guests at the John Schaeffer home of Centre Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dixon and children spent Sunday afternoon at the Millford Heaton home. Miss Arline Swope spent Saturday evening with her friends Barbara and Rebecca Shaffer. Miss Nora Weight called at the E. R. Bartley home Wednesday afternoon. Clair Beightol and Iva Berry of Lock Haven, were callers at the William Beightol home on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

PLEASANT GAP

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore spent from Sunday until Wednesday evening in New York and Philadelphia. We are glad to see Paul Lego able to be about again as usual after being ill for over three months. Mrs. Forrest Benford was quite ill last week. Mrs. Henry Noll and Mrs. Ray Melroy motored to Harrisburg Thursday afternoon and returned home Saturday. Ray Melroy and Esther Noll accompanied them on the return trip. "Dick" Knofflinger was home from Harrisburg for the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Warren were guests Sunday at the Fred Healy home. Mrs. Ruth Crumlish and Mrs. Maude Herman entertained at the home of the former's home last Thursday afternoon. The proceeds to be used for President's Birthday Fund for Infants paralysis. Terry Noll spent Sunday afternoon with relatives at Millheim and Rebersburg. Mrs. William Tucker, Mrs. Roy Adams assisted by Mrs. Raiston Derr entertained a number of the senior ladies of our town at her home last Wednesday afternoon. Proceeds were given to the President's Birthday club. Edward Spicher was among the boys in the draft who left last week for Texas. We are glad to see George Gheen about again after being quite ill last week. Mrs. Leonard O'Donnell returned home Sunday from Philadelphia, where she had been quite ill in a hospital for a number of months. She is very much improved in health and is able to be about as usual. Her daughter Marjorie who had been visiting her grandmother at Jersey Shore returned home with her. Last Wednesday Mrs. Henry Noll accompanied Mrs. Ray Melroy to Williamsport where they attended a Philco and Bendis meeting. The new line in each is Tops. Mrs. Ray Noll gave a Benefit Bridge Party Wednesday evening and each member of the Bridge Club entertained at the home of Mrs. William Tucker Friday evening. Mrs. Blaine Brooks and Miss Lillian Foss were among the sick folks all last week but are improving. Elwood Brooks has been quite ill for the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Adams of McConnellsville but well known in this vicinity are receiving congratulations over the arrival of Dale Kenneth Jr., on the 19th, of this month.

Birthday Parties Scheduled Tonight

(Continued from Page 1) m., and admission will be 75 cents a person. Formal or informal dress will be in order, it was announced by William Seckinger, committee chairman. Centre Hall A benefit dance will be held in the Centre Hall-Potter Township High school auditorium, with Franklin Goodhart as chairman of the committee. Howard A number of Howard residents have opened their homes for benefit card parties. They are: bridge, Mrs. Malcolm Wagner, Mrs. J. N. Welkert; 500, Mrs. H. E. Butler, Mrs. Kline R. Wolf, Mrs. William Mapes; Chinese checkers, Mrs. Nelle Weber. Local chairmen in Howard are Mrs. W. K. McDowell and William Neff. A bingo party will be held by the women of the P. O. of A. in the P. O. S. of A. hall. Pleasant Gap Mrs. Hugh Crumlish, local chairman, will hold a benefit card party at her home. Port Matilda A benefit card party will be held at the home of the local chairman, Mrs. Mary K. Pringle. Milesburg Because of widespread illness, Milesburg will hold no celebration, but the Women's Club will present a check to the paralysis fund, according to an announcement by Miss Bessie Miles, president of the club. Pine Grove Mills Mrs. Maude Miller, local chairman, announced a benefit card party to be held at the I. O. O. F. hall. Rebersburg A benefit party, with Samuel Bierly in charge. Spring Mills Party in the Spring Mills school building, with arrangements in charge of Harry A. Corman.

Local Troopers Leave For Camp

(Continued from Page 1) er, James Mangino, Ernest Emel, Edward Green, Robert Pletcher, Bernard Yeager, Frank Yeager, G. Gates, Gilbert Page, Steve Kutches, George Emerick, Vincent Baney, George Darr, Donald Goodhart, William E. Bloom, Mike Coppick, Junior L. Rocky, George N. Colpetzer, Benjamin H. Elvers, Max H. Lose, Charles L. Anderson, Paul L. Gingham, Dean Benner, Donald L. Confer, James L. Confer, Norman J. Dugan, James P. Holt and Samuel L. Irvin. The remainder of the Battery is scheduled to depart from the Bellefonte passenger station at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. A total of 55 officers and men will be in this group, and in the train will be a flat car bearing the Battery's 15-ton 155mm gun. Officers will include Lt. Harry Symmons, Lt. William F. Cox and Lt. George P. Curtin. It was announced yesterday that Sgt. Boyd A. Yarnell's resignation from the Battery had been accepted owing to the fact that he had dependents. The 24-car train will be made up in Lock Haven and will carry a total of 24 officers and 553 men from Lock Haven, Clearfield and Altoona, in addition to the Bellefonte contingent, to Camp Shelby, being scheduled to arrive at the destination Monday morning, February 3, at 6:50 o'clock. The local battery will be escorted to the station by the American Legion and Auxiliary Junior band of Brook-Dell Post. Since the departure of the motorized equipment, Monday, the remaining members of the Battery have been marching to and from the army post East of Bellefonte for meals at the Cox restaurant, West High Street.

UNIONVILLE

(Continued from Page 2) Miss Margaret Lucas of State College spent Saturday evening at her home here. Mrs. Andrew Hall and two sons of Millersburg, Pa. spent the weekend visiting with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams of this place. Mrs. Robert Hall, who has been spending the greater part of the past months in and near Hollidaysburg, Pa., has now come home to stay for a time, with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hall. Mr. Harry Jones, a former employee of the West Penn. Power Company, has secured employment with the Titan Metal Company of Bellefonte, Pa. Awarded Medal Alfred Farrell, of Mansfield, Northern Pennsylvania Power Company line man, has been presented with the President's medal awarded for lifesaving. When Ernest Jones, of Tioga, was struck by lightning during a storm July 27, last, the

PRICE REDUCTIONS THAT INSURE QUICK SELLING

In other words money-saving opportunities that call for immediate action on the part of customers today. When dozens of lots of merchandise become so reduced in quantity, that alert stock-keeping requires that they be reduced in price. So when we announce a clearance of this kind, early shopping is advised.

OLD-FASHIONED BARGAIN PARTY

Table with 3 columns: Item, Reg. Price, Sale Price. Includes items like Children's Coats, Jersey Dresses, High-School Jackets, Rubberized Jackets, Fur-Trimmed Coats, Corduroy Jackets, Dress Skirts, Satin & Crepe Blouses, Reversible Coats, House Coats, Prints, Snow Suits, Ski-Pants, All Wool Boys' Knickers, Dress Shirts, Dresses, Asst. sizes.

LINTZ'S BELLEFONTE WALTER COHEN, Manager.

Mansfield line man who was driving along the road, noticed the unconscious man on the highway, and began artificial respiration, which was continued by physicians who arrived later. The promptness of Farrell's efforts saved the life of the Tioga man. Leg Broken But She Weds While gathering apple blossoms a few hours before her wedding, Miss Edna McNally, 19, of Middleboro, Mass., fell from the tree and suffered a broken leg. Despite the injury she was married on schedule to Philip Washburn, 18, of Newport, R. I. The farm problem is not even studied, much less understood, by the big shots of the big cities, including newspaper editors.

Truckers! Attention! Used TRUCK Sale! WE ARE FORCED TO MAKE BIG REDUCTIONS IN OUR USED TRUCK INVENTORY Real Bargains Are Available on All Types and Sizes of Used Trucks Pick-Ups : Panels : Dumps Express Trucks Over 20 to Choose From! Ask About Our Guarantee! DECKER MOTOR CO. USED TRUCK HEADQUARTERS South Spring Street Bellefonte, Pa.

1941 PHILCO February SPECIAL CELEBRATING THE 15 Millionth PHILCO $79.95 Free with a new Philco BEAUTIFUL ELECTRIC CLOCK COME IN...Let us make a record of your voice! Free with a new Philco BEAUTIFUL ELECTRIC CLOCK