Civil Court Disposes of Three Cases (Continued from page one) trespass involving the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and L. M. Hutchinson, of Mt. Union, a road contractor Hutchinson was alleged to have failed to protect a ditch properly during construction of the Centre Hall-Spring Mills road in August 1937. A fish hatchery truck operated by Willard Truckenmiller was alleged to have run into the open ditch.

A jury returned a verdict in favor of Contractor Hutchinson. Most of yesterday's session was devoted to the trial of the trespass action instituted by Sarah Jane Spiker, a minor, by Chester A. Spiker, her guardian, and Chester A. Spiker in his own right, vs. Laura C. Vogt. The jury retired about 5 o'clock to consider its verdict.

GUEST PREACHER

Dr. George Irving, (above) of Philadelphia, will be the guest preacher in the State College Presbyterian church this Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock. On Saturday evening he addresses a Fellowship banquet in the church for the Elders, Trustees, Deacons, and other church officers.

As director of the Department of Faith and Life, Presbyterian Board of Christian Education, Dr. George Irving majors in conducting two-day conferences where Presbyterian pastors consider the present situation of the church in the world today, and the gospel with which to meet it. Before assuming his position with the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education in 1937, Dr. George Irving had been for many years secretary of the National Council, Y. M. C. A. of America. In that capacity Dr. Irving, serving a continental-wide parish, became known in many cities, churches, and colleges of the United States and Canada, not only because of his unusual ability as a speaker, but also because of the results which followed his service.

Catholic Daughters Meet Here, Monday

A regular meeting of Court Patrick McArdle, Catholic Daughters of America of Bellefonte, was held Monday night in the court room on West High street with 20 members present. Grand regent, Miss Louise Carpeneto, presided.

In addition to routine business it was decided to hold a St. Patrick's Day card party in the room, March 17, at 8:15 p. m. Miss Alice Fox was chosen chairman of arrangements for the party at which prizes will be awarded and refreshments in keeping with the season will be served.

Mrs. Thomas O'Hara, chairman of the auditing committee, gave a report on a recent audit of the court books. A demonstration to which all women are invited will be held in the room this Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Miss Carpeneto thanked members who assisted with sewing and knitting for the Bellefonte Chapter Red Cross. The organization made the following articles: ten children's and girls' dresses, 5 operating wigs, 2 layettes, 2 sweaters and 4 scarfs.

Four Cars Damaged In Series of Crashes

Several cars were damaged within a two-hour period late Saturday afternoon on an icy stretch of highway between the Cleve Engart and Tibbins Zubler farms west of Spring Mills. According to unconfirmed reports, one car skidded off the road into a fence. Several other motorists stopped to aid. A short time later another car skidded into one of the parked machines owned by one of the men who was helping the driver of the first car.

Finally Charles Ripka, of Spring Mills, driving past the scene, lost control of his machine and it crashed into a telephone pole, breaking the pole in three sections. No one was injured.

Observe Golden Wedding Here

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hartman Guests at Family Gathering; Receive Gifts

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hartman, of Bellefonte, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on Willowbank street, Tuesday. P. B. Hartman of Bellefonte, and Sara Ellen Love of Tusseyville, were married in Boalsburg March 4, 1891, at the Lutheran parsonage by the Rev. W. A. Troaste.

After a brief wedding trip they went to housekeeping on the farm of Mr. Hartman's uncle, Edward Straub in Benner township, where he was employed. Two years later upon the death of Mrs. Straub they took over the farm and lived there until 21 years ago, when they moved to Bellefonte.

Mr. Hartman has been employed by the Federal Match Company in Bellefonte for the past 21 years. Mr. and Mrs. Hartman are enjoying fairly good health. They are the parents of six children: Edward, Oliver, Elizabeth and Mrs. Paul Blair, all of Bellefonte; J. Russell Hartman, of State College, and Luther Hartman, of Clyde, Ohio.

There are five grandchildren: James Hartman, Mrs. Carl Johnson, Lois Hartman, John Blair, Jr., and Kay Louise Hartman, of Clyde, Ohio, and one great-grandchild, Rose Ann Johnson.

In celebration of the event the family gathered at the home with baskets laden with food, and at 6 o'clock a delicious dinner was served.

Those present in addition to the family were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Tate and daughter, Tecla, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tressler, all of Bellefonte. Many others called during the day. Mr. and Mrs. Hartman received many greetings, gifts, and flowers.

During the noon hour Mr. Hartman was called into the office of the Federal Match plant, and in the presence of his fellow employees was presented with a large I. E. S. floor lamp—the gift of fellow workers. The presentation speech was made by William B. Troupe, in the absence of the latter's father, Calvin Troupe, superintendent of the plant.

The only members of the family who weren't present for the day's festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hartman and daughter, Kay Louise, of Clyde, Ohio, who were unable to make the trip at this time. Mr. and Mrs. Hartman are active members of the Evangelical church. Mrs. Hartman was 68 years old last November and Mr. Hartman is now 72 years of age. He works regularly. Mrs. Hartman has three sisters, Mrs. Charles Mayes, of Milton; Mrs. Charles Whitehill, of Oak Hill, and Mrs. W. W. Tate, of Bellefonte, while Mr. Hartman's closest relatives are a half-brother and a half-sister residing in Williamsport.

ancient vehicle of 1929 vintage and containing three men, hurdled the barricade. Flick fired three shots from a 16-gauge shotgun and shattered the rear window.

The car continued on Flick got in his car, and headed for Unionville to report the incident, when he picked up the two Ross men who were hitch-hiking along the road. They are said to be two of the three men in the old car. He took them to the home of his father, Ed Flick in Unionville, and held them there until police arrived.

State Police Henry S. Herman and Andrew Royko brought the two to jail, learned the identity of the third man, and arrested him late yesterday near Unionville. The old car, taken into custody, also was brought to Bellefonte.

The Sheriff's office reported that the several hundred pounds of wire in the rear seat is the property of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and had been piled along the Bald Eagle Branch by a crew of workmen now engaged in repairing the railroad telegraph wires in the valley.

Square Dance at Boalsburg The Boalsburg Fire company will hold a square dance at the Boal Camp, Boalsburg, on Tuesday evening, March 11, beginning at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 25 cents and the public is invited.

Wilksburg Couple Wedded 55 Years

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Melcher, of 897 Holland avenue, Wilksburg, celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary at their home on March 2, 1941.

Mr. and Mrs. Melcher were married by Rev. Mr. Agnew in the Methodist parsonage in Mifflensburg, March 2, 1886. They ate their wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Williams, near Martha Furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. Melcher went to Kansas for their wedding trip and spent several years near Harper, Kansas, where they were engaged in farming.

Returning to Pennsylvania they were engaged in the undertaking business at Ranney, Pa., for several years. Later they went to Pittsburgh and have been retired from active business for several years. They are still quite active and interested in civic and religious interests of their city, where they have a host of good friends.

Many beautiful flowers, some valuable presents and letters of congratulations were sent to them on their anniversary. A delicious turkey dinner was prepared and served by their daughters which was enjoyed by the honored couple and a few friends who came to enjoy the day with them.

Union Prayer Meeting

The union prayer meeting will be held at the home of Henry Gardner along the Jacksonville-Howard State road, on Sunday, March 9, at 2:30 p. m. Everybody is welcome.

BETTERS to the Editor DISLIKES PARKING METERS Dear Editor: I agree with the Bellefonte merchant about the parking meters. We quit visiting towns with parking meters unless it is absolutely necessary to do so. Paying a fine once just because we had no nickels available and going for change, caused the trouble. The U. S. Mail is still cheaper and not so disgusting. HOUSEWIFE WERE OVERWHELMED Pittsburgh, Pa. Gentlemen, Gentlemen, or whomsoever ye be, I will again return your pink slip with a small token of respect for your paper. It is the forty-ninth time I have committed the same act. Plan Bill To Keep Shrine (Continued from page one) 28th Division. The bill calls for appropriation of $25,000 for the shrine's upkeep for two years. William A. Miller of Harrisburg, chairman of the Division's Memorial Committee, said the monument begun fifteen years ago, was weedy-grown and "fallen into disrepair." The memorial, which has been supported entirely by the Division's Officers' Club, is located in a wooded section of a seventy-five acre tract. Part of the land was donated by the late Colonel Theodore Davis Boal, who was finance officer of the division during the World War. The State, which purchased some of the tract in 1931 as an armory site, granted acreage to the memorial. Officers of the 28th attending the council session were Charles Gallagher, National president; Wilkes-Barre; James E. Wright, vice-president; Harrisburg; John E. McEwee, vice-president; Chester; Earle Butler, vice-president; Scranton; Walter Haugherty, secretary-treasurer, Philadelphia; and Daniel J. C. O'Donnell, judge advocate, Phoenixville. DEMOLAY HOLDS FIRST MEETING AT COLLEGE Penn-Centre chapter, Order of DeMolay, held its regular meeting in the Masonic building, State College Friday night, marking the first meeting ever held in State College. It was done in order to create interest in the organization in and about State College. Eleven new candidates were accepted. Officers elected were: Francis Muser, State College, master counselor; Luther Stover, Bellefonte, senior counselor, and Dick Miller, State College, junior counselor.
