

LOCALS

—Mrs. Ralph Helster and two children, the Mrs. E. Howard Ring, apartments, East Wood Street, are spending two weeks with relatives in Tanama.

—Squire A. A. Fletcher and his cousin, Ellis Fletcher, both well known residents of Toward, were callers at this office Tuesday morning while in Bellefonte on a business mission.

—Mrs. David Foster and young son, Robert, of Denton, Md., are spending two weeks in Bellefonte with Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson and family at their home on North Spring Street.

—The Bellefonte Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Mensch, North Allegheny Street, at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, March 11. The program will include a lecture and demonstration on insect control.

—Mrs. John Mulfinger, of Pleasant Gap, who has been ill for several months, was taken to the hospital in the afternoon, Thursday, in the Widows' ambulance. Mrs. Mulfinger is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Poorman, of Pleasant Gap.

—Attorney John G. Love and Mahlon K. Robb, attorney and president, respectively, of the Bellefonte Building Corporation, were in Harrisburg last Thursday on a business mission in connection with the financing of Bellefonte's proposed new $400,000 high school building.

—Miss Erma Stevenson, Mr. Frank Stevenson, of Wadde, and their sisters, Mrs. Collins Shoemaker of Bellefonte, and Miss Sara Stevenson of Washington, D. C., and their niece Miss Anne Keller of Pittsburgh are leaving this Thursday for a two week stay in Florida.

—Widows of veterans who wish headstones through the help of the service officer for the Bellefonte district are asked to get in touch with William W. Hampton, of Bellefonte. Funds are available for stones for veterans of forces mobilized during the Civil, Spanish American and World Wars. Mr. Hampton may be reached by telephone by calling 153.

—Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Leamer and son have made tentative arrangements to erect a new addition to the James C. Furst apartments on East Linn Street, about April 1, to move into the Harry F. Jones apartment building which is now undergoing extensive remodeling. Both apartments in the Furst building will be vacant at that time, the other one having been vacated recently.

—The R. K. Owens Electric Store has been named Kelvinator dealer for this district and Mr. Owens yesterday announced that 1941 models will be on display Friday and Saturday of this week. For the convenience of the public the store will remain open until 9 o'clock tomorrow (Friday) night. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to call and inspect the display.

—Among real estate transfers recorded in the offices of Recorder Leamer Wooding this week was a transaction whereby Jack Wilkinson, of North Spring Street, purchased from James B. Craig a building lot on the north side of East Curtin Street, opposite the home recently built by the Morris brothers. Mr. Wilkinson expects to build a home on the site but his plans are indefinite.

—Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rutter, of Willowbank Street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, an eight-pound son, at the Centre County Hospital at 1:20 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The youngster has been named John Charles, and both he and Mrs. Rutter are reported to be getting along nicely. Mr. Rutter is in charge of the meat department at the Shaffer Store on West High Street.

—Mrs. S. E. Showers, of North Spring Street, has announced the engagement of her granddaughter, Janet Evelyn Woomer, of Bellefonte, to John Hastings Richards, of New York City and Stroudsburg. Miss Woomer was graduated from the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1937 and received honors in her class. She now is a student at Penn State where she is majoring in library work in the liberal arts course. She will be a member of the graduating class there in June. Mr. Richards, a son of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Richards, Sr., is a graduate of a college in Connecticut and will be graduated in June from Penn State, where he is a student in the school of agriculture. No date has been set for the wedding.

—Our mailing list was corrected this past week and all subscriptions received up to and including March 1st, have been credited. Owing to the unusually large number of paid subscriptions received, it is possible that some errors have occurred in the correction of our mailing list and we ask all persons who paid during February to check the pink label on their paper and advise us at once if proper credit has not been received. There are still some subscribers who are in arrears that have not responded to our statement, recently mailed them.

—Mrs. W. F. Peters, of Millsburg, quietly celebrated her 88th birthday anniversary, Monday, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Walker, in Millsburg, where she and Mr. Peters have been residing for some time. Mrs. Peters is although virtually blind for the past twenty years or more, enjoys excellent health. Mr. Peters, who is 89 years old last February 2, and who has not been so well in recent months, is the oldest living citizen in Millsburg. The aged couple, who in November this year will observe their 67th wedding anniversary, are among the oldest married couples, if not the oldest in Centre County.

—Henry Gross, employe of Titan Metal Company, was confined to his apartment on South Spring street for several days last week because of an attack of intestinal influenza.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon A. Hoffman, of North Allegheny street, spent the weekend in Culver, Cambria county, as guests of Mrs. Hoffman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Jack.

—Charles Fetzer, of the I. O. O. F. apartments, West High street, went to Clearfield, Saturday, to resume his former position as a telegraph operator for the New York Central Railroad.

—J. Ralph Strayer, of York, has assumed the duties of his new position here as manager of the local Kalamazoo store. He replaces Clyde W. House, of North Spring street, who has been transferred to the Coatesville store.

—Mrs. Eva Simpson, of Bellefonte, who has been spending the winter with Emma Midam, of Pine Glen, spent the weekend here at the State College. Mrs. Simpson expects to reopen her home on East Burrows street about April 1.

—Bellefonte friends received word of the death last Wednesday of the mother of Miss Mary Wolka, former instructor of physical education in the Bellefonte schools, but now teaching in the Western Woods school at home in DuBois.

—Bobby and Billy Woodring, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodring, of East Howard street, and their cousin, LeRoy Loy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Loy, of East Lamb street, spent the weekend in Altoona with their grandmother, Mrs. Ina Loy.

—Mrs. Richard Hall, of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived in Bellefonte, Sunday, for a visit with her father, William J. Brouse, Mrs. Brouse and the family at their home on South Thomas street. Mrs. Hall is the former Carolyn Brouse, of Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Monsel, of East High street, were both victims of the "flu" for several weeks, and while Mrs. Monsel is able to be about again, her husband is still confined to the house where for a time he was under the care of an experienced nurse.

—John H. Conaghan, of the Library apartments, ticket agent at the local Pennsylvania Railroad passenger station, departed Sunday for a brief visit with relatives in New York City before leaving for Florida where he will spend most of this month in St. Petersburg.

—Thomas B. Quick, aged 24, and Franklin S. Heaton, aged 24, both of Bellefonte, last Wednesday arrived at the Altoona recruiting station for three years' service in the U. S. Army. They have been assigned to the 48th Signal Platoon, Ponce, Puerto Rico. Quick is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Quick and Heaton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch A. Heaton, all of Millsburg.

—David E. Washburn, chief chemist of the American Lime & Stone Company, went to Washington, Sunday, to attend a meeting of the National Testing Materials Association, in session there this week. Saturday Mrs. Washburn entertained at a family dinner in honor of her husband's birthday. Guests included Mrs. Washburn's mother, Mrs. Annie Keller, of Madenburger, the latter's daughter, Jane Keller, Charles Keller and his wife and three children, Katherine, David and Eleanor.

—Mrs. Paul M. Corman, of North Allegheny street, was called to Duquesne during the weekend because of an accident in which her brother, Robert Newmeyer, was seriously injured. She suffered severe burns about the face and head in an explosion at the Duquesne steel mill last Thursday morning. For a time it was feared that he could not survive, but latest reports are to the effect that his condition is slowly improving. While in Duquesne Mrs. Corman is with her mother, Mrs. Flora Newmeyer, of that city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Claster and young daughter moved Wednesday last week from the second-floor apartment of the Hart home on North Spring street, to their new home on East Linn street. Mrs. Claster's brother from Middletown, was here to aid in the moving.

—The Rev. J. C. Crowell, of Altoona, has been sent to Bellefonte to take Robert Hood's place in the Dean Phillips Auto Store on South Allegheny street. Mr. Hood has been transferred to the Potteville store and Mrs. Hood and their son will join him there in the near future.

—This office had the pleasure on Monday of greeting the Rev. Robert H. Thomas, Sr., of Bellefonte's new Episcopal church rector who arrived here from Waynesboro last week to conduct his first services on Sunday. During the course of his brief visit we found the Rev. Mr. Thomas to be a man of such social qualities that should quickly win favor among our people. The rector, Mrs. Thomas and their son are now comfortably located in the church rectory on West Lamp street, where they are receiving calls from parishioners.

—Among those from a distance who were here Tuesday for the funeral of E. Beach Schreffler, of East McKeesport, native of Zion, were: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pate and daughter Alice May, of East McKeesport, with whom the deceased resided; Robert Schreffler, of Chicago, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Decker, of Stroudsburg. All were guests during their stay here of Miss Joanna Decker, at her home on North Spring street. Miss Decker was a first cousin of the late Mr. Schreffler. Interment was made in the Zion cemetery.

—Lee H. Walker, son of the late W. Miles Walker, who has been at the Walker home on East Linn street for the past year, has accepted a position with the J. G. White Construction Co. of New York City. On March 13th he will sail from New York to Port Au Prince on the island of Haiti in the West Indies Islands, where he will have charge of a prearranged construction project which the J. G. White Company have been building for some time. Mr. Walker, who is a construction engineer, has spent many years in the West Indies and is thoroughly familiar with the climate. The job is expected to be completed sometime in October of this year.

—Byron Blackford and Dr. McHenry and Mac MacDonald, of Harrisburg, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnstonbaugh, of Axemans, on Sunday.

—A general alarm was sounded about 7 o'clock Friday night when a fire at the Harry Tierney home on West Curtin street, caught fire. Firemen stood by while the fire burned out. No damage resulted.

—Miss Mary Swartz, of the Rogers apartment, who has been taking care of her mother, Mrs. H. W. Robert, of Snow Shoe, since the latter's illness in January, spent the weekend in Bellefonte looking after some business matters.

—Reports from Camp Shelby, Mississippi, that the effect that Pvt. James Hoffer, son of Mrs. G. Earle Hoffer of Bellefonte, has been assigned to take a secretarial course at Hattiesburg, Miss., in preparation for the office of troop clerk.

—Bellefonte lodge, I. O. O. F., will hold an open house at the lodge rooms on High street, just off the Diamond, beginning at 8 o'clock this Thursday night. There will be refreshments and entertainment and all I. O. O. F. members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

—According to a postcard from Palatka, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Lyons and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Smith, all of Bellefonte, joined the Ravine Garden Club at Palatka, Florida, last week. The Bellefonte group returned home Saturday after a several weeks' motor trip through the south.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Summers, of Pleasant Gap, recently purchased the Beatty, of East Curtin street, Bellefonte, motored to Germantown Sunday, to spend the day with their respective daughters, Miss Dora Summers and Miss Clara Beatty, who are in training in the Nurses' School of the Germantown Hospital.

—Former County Treasurer Raymond N. Brooks, of East Curtin street, who recently purchased the Grauer home on East Linn street, is having the building remodeled into four apartments which will be ready for occupancy in the near future. There will be an apartment on each of the three floors of the building, and the fourth will be located in an addition being built at the rear.

—Mrs. Edna Dean, widow of the late Dell Douglas Dean, and her son, David, moved Monday from North Allegheny street to one of the third-floor apartments in the Orvis apartment building at the corner of Curtin and Allegheny streets, vacated some time ago by Mr. and Mrs. Dean. Mrs. Dean will now reside in the new apartment on East Linn street. Mr. Dean will continue to reside in the 48th Signal Platoon, Ponce, Puerto Rico. Quick is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Quick and Heaton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch A. Heaton, all of Millsburg.

—David E. Washburn, chief chemist of the American Lime & Stone Company, went to Washington, Sunday, to attend a meeting of the National Testing Materials Association, in session there this week. Saturday Mrs. Washburn entertained at a family dinner in honor of her husband's birthday. Guests included Mrs. Washburn's mother, Mrs. Annie Keller, of Madenburger, the latter's daughter, Jane Keller, Charles Keller and his wife and three children, Katherine, David and Eleanor.

—Mrs. Paul M. Corman, of North Allegheny street, was called to Duquesne during the weekend because of an accident in which her brother, Robert Newmeyer, was seriously injured. She suffered severe burns about the face and head in an explosion at the Duquesne steel mill last Thursday morning. For a time it was feared that he could not survive, but latest reports are to the effect that his condition is slowly improving. While in Duquesne Mrs. Corman is with her mother, Mrs. Flora Newmeyer, of that city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Claster and young daughter moved Wednesday last week from the second-floor apartment of the Hart home on North Spring street, to their new home on East Linn street. Mrs. Claster's brother from Middletown, was here to aid in the moving.

—The Rev. J. C. Crowell, of Altoona, has been sent to Bellefonte to take Robert Hood's place in the Dean Phillips Auto Store on South Allegheny street. Mr. Hood has been transferred to the Potteville store and Mrs. Hood and their son will join him there in the near future.

—This office had the pleasure on Monday of greeting the Rev. Robert H. Thomas, Sr., of Bellefonte's new Episcopal church rector who arrived here from Waynesboro last week to conduct his first services on Sunday. During the course of his brief visit we found the Rev. Mr. Thomas to be a man of such social qualities that should quickly win favor among our people. The rector, Mrs. Thomas and their son are now comfortably located in the church rectory on West Lamp street, where they are receiving calls from parishioners.

—Among those from a distance who were here Tuesday for the funeral of E. Beach Schreffler, of East McKeesport, native of Zion, were: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pate and daughter Alice May, of East McKeesport, with whom the deceased resided; Robert Schreffler, of Chicago, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Decker, of Stroudsburg. All were guests during their stay here of Miss Joanna Decker, at her home on North Spring street. Miss Decker was a first cousin of the late Mr. Schreffler. Interment was made in the Zion cemetery.

—Lee H. Walker, son of the late W. Miles Walker, who has been at the Walker home on East Linn street for the past year, has accepted a position with the J. G. White Construction Co. of New York City. On March 13th he will sail from New York to Port Au Prince on the island of Haiti in the West Indies Islands, where he will have charge of a prearranged construction project which the J. G. White Company have been building for some time. Mr. Walker, who is a construction engineer, has spent many years in the West Indies and is thoroughly familiar with the climate. The job is expected to be completed sometime in October of this year.

—Mrs. Ralph Helster and two children, the Mrs. E. Howard Ring, apartments, East Wood Street, are spending two weeks with relatives in Tanama.

—Squire A. A. Fletcher and his cousin, Ellis Fletcher, both well known residents of Toward, were callers at this office Tuesday morning while in Bellefonte on a business mission.

—Mrs. David Foster and young son, Robert, of Denton, Md., are spending two weeks in Bellefonte with Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson and family at their home on North Spring Street.

—The Bellefonte Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Mensch, North Allegheny Street, at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, March 11. The program will include a lecture and demonstration on insect control.

—Mrs. John Mulfinger, of Pleasant Gap, who has been ill for several months, was taken to the hospital in the afternoon, Thursday, in the Widows' ambulance. Mrs. Mulfinger is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Poorman, of Pleasant Gap.

—Attorney John G. Love and Mahlon K. Robb, attorney and president, respectively, of the Bellefonte Building Corporation, were in Harrisburg last Thursday on a business mission in connection with the financing of Bellefonte's proposed new $400,000 high school building.

—Miss Erma Stevenson, Mr. Frank Stevenson, of Wadde, and their sisters, Mrs. Collins Shoemaker of Bellefonte, and Miss Sara Stevenson of Washington, D. C., and their niece Miss Anne Keller of Pittsburgh are leaving this Thursday for a two week stay in Florida.

—Widows of veterans who wish headstones through the help of the service officer for the Bellefonte district are asked to get in touch with William W. Hampton, of Bellefonte. Funds are available for stones for veterans of forces mobilized during the Civil, Spanish American and World Wars. Mr. Hampton may be reached by telephone by calling 153.

—Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Leamer and son have made tentative arrangements to erect a new addition to the James C. Furst apartments on East Linn Street, about April 1, to move into the Harry F. Jones apartment building which is now undergoing extensive remodeling. Both apartments in the Furst building will be vacant at that time, the other one having been vacated recently.

—The R. K. Owens Electric Store has been named Kelvinator dealer for this district and Mr. Owens yesterday announced that 1941 models will be on display Friday and Saturday of this week. For the convenience of the public the store will remain open until 9 o'clock tomorrow (Friday) night. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to call and inspect the display.

—Among real estate transfers recorded in the offices of Recorder Leamer Wooding this week was a transaction whereby Jack Wilkinson, of North Spring Street, purchased from James B. Craig a building lot on the north side of East Curtin Street, opposite the home recently built by the Morris brothers. Mr. Wilkinson expects to build a home on the site but his plans are indefinite.

—Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rutter, of Willowbank Street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, an eight-pound son, at the Centre County Hospital at 1:20 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The youngster has been named John Charles, and both he and Mrs. Rutter are reported to be getting along nicely. Mr. Rutter is in charge of the meat department at the Shaffer Store on West High Street.

—Mrs. S. E. Showers, of North Spring Street, has announced the engagement of her granddaughter, Janet Evelyn Woomer, of Bellefonte, to John Hastings Richards, of New York City and Stroudsburg. Miss Woomer was graduated from the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1937 and received honors in her class. She now is a student at Penn State where she is majoring in library work in the liberal arts course. She will be a member of the graduating class there in June. Mr. Richards, a son of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Richards, Sr., is a graduate of a college in Connecticut and will be graduated in June from Penn State, where he is a student in the school of agriculture. No date has been set for the wedding.

—Our mailing list was corrected this past week and all subscriptions received up to and including March 1st, have been credited. Owing to the unusually large number of paid subscriptions received, it is possible that some errors have occurred in the correction of our mailing list and we ask all persons who paid during February to check the pink label on their paper and advise us at once if proper credit has not been received. There are still some subscribers who are in arrears that have not responded to our statement, recently mailed them.

—Mrs. W. F. Peters, of Millsburg, quietly celebrated her 88th birthday anniversary, Monday, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Walker, in Millsburg, where she and Mr. Peters have been residing for some time. Mrs. Peters is although virtually blind for the past twenty years or more, enjoys excellent health. Mr. Peters, who is 89 years old last February 2, and who has not been so well in recent months, is the oldest living citizen in Millsburg. The aged couple, who in November this year will observe their 67th wedding anniversary, are among the oldest married couples, if not the oldest in Centre County.

—Mrs. Ralph Helster and two children, the Mrs. E. Howard Ring, apartments, East Wood Street, are spending two weeks with relatives in Tanama.

—Squire A. A. Fletcher and his cousin, Ellis Fletcher, both well known residents of Toward, were callers at this office Tuesday morning while in Bellefonte on a business mission.

—Mrs. David Foster and young son, Robert, of Denton, Md., are spending two weeks in Bellefonte with Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson and family at their home on North Spring Street.

—The Bellefonte Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Mensch, North Allegheny Street, at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, March 11. The program will include a lecture and demonstration on insect control.

—Mrs. John Mulfinger, of Pleasant Gap, who has been ill for several months, was taken to the hospital in the afternoon, Thursday, in the Widows' ambulance. Mrs. Mulfinger is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Poorman, of Pleasant Gap.

—Attorney John G. Love and Mahlon K. Robb, attorney and president, respectively, of the Bellefonte Building Corporation, were in Harrisburg last Thursday on a business mission in connection with the financing of Bellefonte's proposed new $400,000 high school building.

—Miss Erma Stevenson, Mr. Frank Stevenson, of Wadde, and their sisters, Mrs. Collins Shoemaker of Bellefonte, and Miss Sara Stevenson of Washington, D. C., and their niece Miss Anne Keller of Pittsburgh are leaving this Thursday for a two week stay in Florida.

—Widows of veterans who wish headstones through the help of the service officer for the Bellefonte district are asked to get in touch with William W. Hampton, of Bellefonte. Funds are available for stones for veterans of forces mobilized during the Civil, Spanish American and World Wars. Mr. Hampton may be reached by telephone by calling 153.

—Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Leamer and son have made tentative arrangements to erect a new addition to the James C. Furst apartments on East Linn Street, about April 1, to move into the Harry F. Jones apartment building which is now undergoing extensive remodeling. Both apartments in the Furst building will be vacant at that time, the other one having been vacated recently.

—The R. K. Owens Electric Store has been named Kelvinator dealer for this district and Mr. Owens yesterday announced that 1941 models will be on display Friday and Saturday of this week. For the convenience of the public the store will remain open until 9 o'clock tomorrow (Friday) night. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to call and inspect the display.

—Among real estate transfers recorded in the offices of Recorder Leamer Wooding this week was a transaction whereby Jack Wilkinson, of North Spring Street, purchased from James B. Craig a building lot on the north side of East Curtin Street, opposite the home recently built by the Morris brothers. Mr. Wilkinson expects to build a home on the site but his plans are indefinite.

—Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rutter, of Willowbank Street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, an eight-pound son, at the Centre County Hospital at 1:20 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The youngster has been named John Charles, and both he and Mrs. Rutter are reported to be getting along nicely. Mr. Rutter is in charge of the meat department at the Shaffer Store on West High Street.

—Mrs. S. E. Showers, of North Spring Street, has announced the engagement of her granddaughter, Janet Evelyn Woomer, of Bellefonte, to John Hastings Richards, of New York City and Stroudsburg. Miss Woomer was graduated from the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1937 and received honors in her class. She now is a student at Penn State where she is majoring in library work in the liberal arts course. She will be a member of the graduating class there in June. Mr. Richards, a son of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Richards, Sr., is a graduate of a college in Connecticut and will be graduated in June from Penn State, where he is a student in the school of agriculture. No date has been set for the wedding.

—Our mailing list was corrected this past week and all subscriptions received up to and including March 1st, have been credited. Owing to the unusually large number of paid subscriptions received, it is possible that some errors have occurred in the correction of our mailing list and we ask all persons who paid during February to check the pink label on their paper and advise us at once if proper credit has not been received. There are still some subscribers who are in arrears that have not responded to our statement, recently mailed them.

—Mrs. W. F. Peters, of Millsburg, quietly celebrated her 88th birthday anniversary, Monday, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Walker, in Millsburg, where she and Mr. Peters have been residing for some time. Mrs. Peters is although virtually blind for the past twenty years or more, enjoys excellent health. Mr. Peters, who is 89 years old last February 2, and who has not been so well in recent months, is the oldest living citizen in Millsburg. The aged couple, who in November this year will observe their 67th wedding anniversary, are among the oldest married couples, if not the oldest in Centre County.

—Mrs. Ralph Helster and two children, the Mrs. E. Howard Ring, apartments, East Wood Street, are spending two weeks with relatives in Tanama.

—Squire A. A. Fletcher and his cousin, Ellis Fletcher, both well known residents of Toward, were callers at this office Tuesday morning while in Bellefonte on a business mission.

—Mrs. David Foster and young son, Robert, of Denton, Md., are spending two weeks in Bellefonte with Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson and family at their home on North Spring Street.

—The Bellefonte Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Mensch, North Allegheny Street, at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, March 11. The program will include a lecture and demonstration on insect control.

—Mrs. John Mulfinger, of Pleasant Gap, who has been ill for several months, was taken to the hospital in the afternoon, Thursday, in the Widows' ambulance. Mrs. Mulfinger is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Poorman, of Pleasant Gap.

—Attorney John G. Love and Mahlon K. Robb, attorney and president, respectively, of the Bellefonte Building Corporation, were in Harrisburg last Thursday on a business mission in connection with the financing of Bellefonte's proposed new $400,000 high school building.

—Miss Erma Stevenson, Mr. Frank Stevenson, of Wadde, and their sisters, Mrs. Collins Shoemaker of Bellefonte, and Miss Sara Stevenson of Washington, D. C., and their niece Miss Anne Keller of Pittsburgh are leaving this Thursday for a two week stay in Florida.

—Widows of veterans who wish headstones through the help of the service officer for the Bellefonte district are asked to get in touch with William W. Hampton, of Bellefonte. Funds are available for stones for veterans of forces mobilized during the Civil, Spanish American and World Wars. Mr. Hampton may be reached by telephone by calling 153.

—Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Leamer and son have made tentative arrangements to erect a new addition to the James C. Furst apartments on East Linn Street, about April 1, to move into the Harry F. Jones apartment building which is now undergoing extensive remodeling. Both apartments in the Furst building will be vacant at that time, the other one having been vacated recently.

—The R. K. Owens Electric Store has been named Kelvinator dealer for this district and Mr. Owens yesterday announced that 1941 models will be on display Friday and Saturday of this week. For the convenience of the public the store will remain open until 9 o'clock tomorrow (Friday) night. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to call and inspect the display.

—Among real estate transfers recorded in the offices of Recorder Leamer Wooding this week was a transaction whereby Jack Wilkinson, of North Spring Street, purchased from James B. Craig a building lot on the north side of East Curtin Street, opposite the home recently built by the Morris brothers. Mr. Wilkinson expects to build a home on the site but his plans are indefinite.

—Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rutter, of Willowbank Street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, an eight-pound son, at the Centre County Hospital at 1:20 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The youngster has been named John Charles, and both he and Mrs. Rutter are reported to be getting along nicely. Mr. Rutter is in charge of the meat department at the Shaffer Store on West High Street.

—Mrs. S. E. Showers, of North Spring Street, has announced the engagement of her granddaughter, Janet Evelyn Woomer, of Bellefonte, to John Hastings Richards, of New York City and Stroudsburg. Miss Woomer was graduated from the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1937 and received honors in her class. She now is a student at Penn State where she is majoring in library work in the liberal arts course. She will be a member of the graduating class there in June. Mr. Richards, a son of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Richards, Sr., is a graduate of a college in Connecticut and will be graduated in June from Penn State, where he is a student in the school of agriculture. No date has been set for the wedding.

—Our mailing list was corrected this past week and all subscriptions received up to and including March 1st, have been credited. Owing to the unusually large number of paid subscriptions received, it is possible that some errors have occurred in the correction of our mailing list and we ask all persons who paid during February to check the pink label on their paper and advise us at once if proper credit has not been received. There are still some subscribers who are in arrears that have not responded to our statement, recently mailed them.

—Mrs. W. F. Peters, of Millsburg, quietly celebrated her 88th birthday anniversary, Monday, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Walker, in Millsburg, where she and Mr. Peters have been residing for some time. Mrs. Peters is although virtually blind for the past twenty years or more, enjoys excellent health. Mr. Peters, who is 89 years old last February 2, and who has not been so well in recent months, is the oldest living citizen in Millsburg. The aged couple, who in November this year will observe their 67th wedding anniversary, are among the oldest married couples, if not the oldest in Centre County.

—Mrs. Ralph Helster and two children, the Mrs. E. Howard Ring, apartments, East Wood Street, are spending two weeks with relatives in Tanama.

—Squire A. A. Fletcher and his cousin, Ellis Fletcher, both well known residents of Toward, were callers at this office Tuesday morning while in Bellefonte on a business mission.

—Mrs. David Foster and young son, Robert, of Denton, Md., are spending two weeks in Bellefonte with Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson and family at their home on North Spring Street.

—The Bellefonte Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Mensch, North Allegheny Street, at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, March 11. The program will include a lecture and demonstration on insect control.

—Mrs. John Mulfinger, of Pleasant Gap, who has been ill for several months, was taken to the hospital in the afternoon, Thursday, in the Widows' ambulance. Mrs. Mulfinger is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Poorman, of Pleasant Gap.

—Attorney John G. Love and Mahlon K. Robb, attorney and president, respectively, of the Bellefonte Building Corporation, were in Harrisburg last Thursday on a business mission in connection with the financing of Bellefonte's proposed new $400,000 high school building.

—Miss Erma Stevenson, Mr. Frank Stevenson, of Wadde, and their sisters, Mrs. Collins Shoemaker of Bellefonte, and Miss Sara Stevenson of Washington, D. C., and their niece Miss Anne Keller of Pittsburgh are leaving this Thursday for a two week stay in Florida.

—Widows of veterans who wish headstones through the help of the service officer for the Bellefonte district are asked to get in touch with William W. Hampton, of Bellefonte. Funds are available for stones for veterans of forces mobilized during the Civil, Spanish American and World Wars. Mr. Hampton may be reached by telephone by calling 153.

—Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Leamer and son have made tentative arrangements to erect a new addition to the James C. Furst apartments on East Linn Street, about April 1, to move into the Harry F. Jones apartment building which is now undergoing extensive remodeling. Both apartments in the Furst building will be vacant at that time, the other one having been vacated recently.

—The R. K. Owens Electric Store has been named Kelvinator dealer for this district and Mr. Owens yesterday announced that 1941 models will be on display Friday and Saturday of this week. For the convenience of the public the store will remain open until 9 o'clock tomorrow (Friday) night. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to call and inspect the display.

—Among real estate transfers recorded in the offices of Recorder Leamer Wooding this week was a transaction whereby Jack Wilkinson, of North Spring Street, purchased from James B. Craig a building lot on the north side of East Curtin Street, opposite the home recently built by the Morris brothers. Mr. Wilkinson expects to build a home on the site but his plans are indefinite.

—Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rutter, of Willowbank Street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, an eight-pound son, at the Centre County Hospital at 1:20 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The youngster has been named John Charles, and both he and Mrs. Rutter are reported to be getting along nicely. Mr. Rutter is in charge of the meat department at the Shaffer Store on West High Street.

—Mrs. S. E. Showers, of North Spring Street, has announced the engagement of her granddaughter, Janet Evelyn Woomer, of Bellefonte, to John Hastings Richards, of New York City and Stroudsburg. Miss Woomer was graduated from the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1937 and received honors in her class. She now is a student at Penn State where she is majoring in library work in the liberal arts course. She will be a member of the graduating class there in June. Mr. Richards, a son of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Richards, Sr., is a graduate of a college in Connecticut and will be graduated in June from Penn State, where he is a student in the school of agriculture. No date has been set for the wedding.

—Our mailing list was corrected this past week and all subscriptions received up to and including March 1st, have been credited. Owing to the unusually large number of paid subscriptions received, it is possible that some errors have occurred in the correction of our mailing list and we ask all persons who paid during February to check the pink label on their paper and advise us at once if proper credit has not been received. There are still some subscribers who are in arrears that have not responded to our statement, recently mailed them.

—Mrs. W. F. Peters, of Millsburg, quietly celebrated her 88th birthday anniversary, Monday, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Walker, in Millsburg, where she and Mr. Peters have been residing for some time. Mrs. Peters is although virtually blind for the past twenty years or more, enjoys excellent health. Mr. Peters, who is 89 years old last February 2, and who has not been so well in recent months, is the oldest living citizen in Millsburg. The aged couple, who in November this year will observe their 67th wedding anniversary, are among the oldest married couples, if not the oldest in Centre County.

—Mrs. Ralph Helster and two children, the Mrs. E. Howard Ring, apartments, East Wood Street, are spending two weeks with relatives in Tanama.

—Squire A. A. Fletcher and his cousin, Ellis Fletcher, both well known residents of Toward, were callers at this office Tuesday morning while in Bellefonte on a business mission.

—Mrs. David Foster and young son, Robert, of Denton, Md., are spending two weeks in Bellefonte with Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson and family at their home on North Spring Street.

—The Bellefonte Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Mensch, North Allegheny Street, at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, March 11. The program will include a lecture and demonstration on insect control.

—Mrs. John Mulfinger, of Pleasant Gap, who has been ill for several months, was taken to the hospital in the afternoon, Thursday, in the Widows' ambulance. Mrs. Mulfinger is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Poorman, of Pleasant Gap.

—Attorney John G. Love and Mahlon K. Robb, attorney and president, respectively, of the Bellefonte Building Corporation, were in Harrisburg last Thursday on a business mission in connection with the financing of Bellefonte's proposed new $400,000 high school building.

—Miss Erma Stevenson, Mr. Frank Stevenson, of Wadde, and their sisters, Mrs. Collins Shoemaker of Bellefonte, and Miss Sara Stevenson of Washington, D. C., and their niece Miss Anne Keller of Pittsburgh are leaving this Thursday for a two week stay in Florida.

—Widows of veterans who wish headstones through the help of the service officer for the Bellefonte district are asked to get in touch with William W. Hampton, of Bellefonte. Funds are available for stones for veterans of forces mobilized during the Civil, Spanish American and World Wars. Mr. Hampton may be reached by telephone by calling 153.

—Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Leamer and son have made tentative arrangements to erect a new addition to the James C. Furst apartments on East Linn Street, about April 1, to move into the Harry F. Jones apartment building which is now undergoing extensive remodeling. Both apartments in the Furst building will be vacant at that time, the other one having been vacated recently.

—The R. K. Owens Electric Store has been named Kelvinator dealer for this district and Mr. Owens yesterday announced that 1941 models will be on display Friday and Saturday of this week. For the convenience of the public the store will remain open until 9 o'clock tomorrow (Friday) night. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to call and inspect the display.

—Among real estate transfers recorded in the offices of Recorder Leamer Wooding this week was a transaction whereby Jack Wilkinson, of North Spring Street, purchased from James B. Craig a building lot on the north side of East Curtin Street, opposite the home recently built by the Morris brothers. Mr. Wilkinson expects to build a home on the site but his plans are indefinite.

—Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rutter, of Willowbank Street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, an eight-pound son, at the Centre County Hospital at 1:20 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The youngster has been named John Charles, and both he and Mrs. Rutter are reported to be getting along nicely. Mr. Rutter is in charge of the meat department at the Shaffer Store on West High Street.

—Mrs. S. E. Showers, of North Spring Street, has announced the engagement of her granddaughter, Janet Evelyn Woomer, of Bellefonte, to John Hastings Richards, of New York City and Stroudsburg. Miss Woomer was graduated from the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1937 and received honors in her class. She now is a student at Penn State where she is majoring in library work in the liberal arts course. She will be a member of the graduating class there in June. Mr. Richards, a son of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Richards, Sr., is a graduate of a college in Connecticut and will be graduated in June from Penn State, where he is a student in the school of agriculture. No date has been set for the wedding.

—Our mailing list was corrected this past week and all subscriptions received up to and including March 1st, have been credited. Owing to the unusually large number of paid subscriptions received, it is possible that some errors have occurred in the correction of our mailing list and we ask all persons who paid during February to check the pink label on their paper and advise us at once if proper credit has not been received. There are still some subscribers who are in arrears that have not responded to our statement, recently mailed them.

—Mrs. W. F. Peters, of Millsburg, quietly celebrated her 88th birthday anniversary, Monday, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Walker, in Millsburg, where she and Mr. Peters have been residing for some time. Mrs. Peters is although virtually blind for the past twenty years or more, enjoys excellent health. Mr. Peters, who is 89 years old last February 2, and who has not been so well in recent months, is the oldest living citizen in Millsburg. The aged couple, who in November this year will observe their 67th wedding anniversary, are among the oldest married couples, if not the oldest in Centre County.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

30,000 People Read This Column

every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived, it is undeniably Centre County's Community Bargain Counter.

RATES—Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisement contains more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged.

REAL ESTATE—A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

KEYED ADS—All advertisements that request replies to be mailed to this office, must be complied with by those answering the advertisements. Please do not call at the office for information concerning such advertisements, as the publishers are not permitted to divulge the name of the advertiser.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat is entitled to a 25-word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

Card of Thanks

HACKENBERG—We take this means of thanking friends and neighbors for their loyal tributes and expressions of sympathy during the illness of Mrs. W. G. Hackenberg and Family, Residing, Pa.

Lost and Found

LOST—Girl's wallet, somewhere in Centre County. Contains $1.00, some change, and other items. Finder please return to Mrs. W. G. Hackenberg, 108 S. Linn Street, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 168-M.

Notice to Taxpayers

NOTICE—To the taxpayers of Potter Township all delinquent taxes prior to 1940 must be liquidated on or before April 15, 1941. All unpaid real estate taxes will be returned to the Commissioners May 1st, and all personal taxes on or before April 15, 1941. Please avoid embarrassment of having your delinquent taxes on or before above dates. This notice will give you ample time to arrange to liquidate all your delinquent taxes.

Help Wanted

WANTED—An experienced married farmer, phone Bellefonte 771-J-3.

WANTED—A boy for on a farm, fair wages, good home, R. P. Pank, Lamar, Pa. 101F.

WANTED—An experienced girl for general housework, Phone 129-J, Mrs. R. L. Capers, Bellefonte, Pa. 111.

WANTED—Man for Reelwick Route of 800 families. Write today. Mrs. W. G. Hackenberg, 108 S. Linn Street, Bellefonte, Pa. 110.

WANTED—Experienced farmer, married, must be sober and not afraid to work. Reasonable wages and good home. Write to Mrs. W. G. Hackenberg, 108 S. Linn Street, Bellefonte, Pa. 111.

WANTED—A man for farm work. I have for sale 2 large Holstein cows coming fresh, price right, farm near Pine Grove, Pa. Write to Mrs. W. G. Hackenberg, 108 S. Linn Street, Bellefonte, Pa. 110.

WANTED—A married man for large beef cattle farm, experienced teamster and tractor operator, horse, good electricity, 150 acres, fuel, and $35.00 a month, 15 miles west of Altoona, Va. F. B. Tate, Martinsburg, W. Va. 110.

WANTED—Large size