YOUTHFUL POETS

The following poetic contributions are the work of eighth grade students of the Bishop street school:

SUCCESS. (By Carolyn Bottorf, Grade 8-2) I hold no dream of fortune vast; Nor seek undying fame, I do not ask when life is past, That many know my name. I may not own the skill to rise, To glory's topmost height, Nor win a place among the wise, But I can keep the right. And I can live my life on earth Contented to the end. If but a few shall know my worth And proudly call me friend.

THE OLD SOLDIER (By James Wise, Grade 8-2) He was just a soldier old and gray, And many a man he had to slay, Some were young, some were old, If he wanted to live, he had to be bold. He was terribly sick, and getting worse, Beside his cot was a Red Cross nurse. He was badly wounded and almost dead, For there was a bullet hole in his head. He was found the next morning, Cold and dead, And a small marble stone was placed at his head. This small helped to make us free, So that's why we love him, don't you see?

SEASONS. (By Bob Woodring, Grade 8-2) I like the golden Summer, And I like the fall so gay, I like the winter too, so bright, But I wish the Spring could stay. And that's the tale of seasons, Of Summer, Winter, and Fall, But there are so many reasons Why I like Spring best of all.

MARCH (By Mildred Hockman, Grade 8-2) Now the snows have melted And dreary winter's gone, Flowers such as violets, Sprinkle o'er the lawn, Daffodils and tulips, Make everything seem gay, While leaf buds open on the trees, Seem more green each day. But don't let sunshine fool you, For March has tricks of old, It's loud winds still may bluster In days of rain and cold.

"RELIJUS" (By Lois Love) Perhaps I ain't religus, But when I say a prayer, I got a feel inside er me That God is always there. Perhaps I don't exactly Know fancy words to say, But I'm sure God understands When I jest try to pray.

I DON'T KNOW. (By Thomas Fromm, Grade 8-2) Fella driving his old car, Touring the country near and far, What'll he do, where's he go? He's like me, he don't know. A hobo hops a mile long freight, To carry him to some far state, 'All the time he's on the go. Just? what for? I don't know.

THE PRIMITIVE MAN (By Gerald Waite, Grade 8-2) The primitive man, about the fall of year, Would go a-hunting with his long, sharp spear, He would roam afar, over field and wood, Catching whatever game he could. He killed the animals fercest and wild, As easy as if they were a child, He would take them home, and cook them well, And say, "Yum Yum, doesn't that taste swell."

MY POP'S MACHINE (By Tom Davis, Grade 8-2) My pop has got a bright new car, He calls it his machine, He puts his foot on the accelerator, That feeds the gasoline, He drives it up and down the street, And over hill and dale; But he had better watch himself Or he'll be put in jail. He hit fifty miles an hour And that is pretty fast; But he had better watch himself Or he'll run out of gas. It costs him lots to run it, But I don't give a heck, 'Why should I be worried, It's him who writes the check.

"MY TELEPHONE HELPS US MANY DIFFERENT WAYS" -SAYS FRUIT AND DAIRY FARMER

"Here are a few of the ways our telephone saves me time and money. The other day it saved me a trip when I needed several valves and gaskets for my tractor. A few weeks ago I needed a good man. I called him at noon 50 miles away. He was here that same evening. Recently my daughter was ill and we used the telephone to keep in touch with the doctor. The telephone gives us help in sickness that can't be reckoned in dollars and cents."
