CLARENCE

Mrs. Raymond Snyder and children of Clearfield, spent the last weekend of March at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wagner's home. The Snyder family remained here to attend the 10th grade at Snow Shoe. The Snyder expect to take up residence in the Twp. shortly.

The baked ham supper sponsored by the Presbyterians at Moshannon the 29th, was well patronized and highly commended. Two features that justify repetition of a good thing and at the same time laud Gillelland women as superb cooks. To verify this statement we recall a few old maids or should we say bachelorettes at Moshannon!

Mr. Robert Shive and wife called on the former's mother, Monday evening Mrs. E. A. Shive whose ill health has been noted previously herein, continues about the same.

Mr. Cyril Drapcho who is stationed at Ft. Meade in Md., spent a recent weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emro Drapcho.

All persons seeking baptism come to the M. E. church Sunday the 13th. The ceremony will be instituted as is the annual Easter Sabbath custom.

Alvie Paskovich has finished a course in electrical welding and is now on the payroll at Pipers Aircraft Corporation in Lock Haven.

Sunday supper guests at the Brumard apartment recently were Miss Pauline Hamilton of Bellwood and Miss Theima Rittenhouse of Altoona, two of Blair counties prominent career women.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Danko are the happy parents of a new daughter who is to be christened Joan Barbara.

A delegation of Union men called at 4th grade Thursday to threaten the teacher of dismissal for keeping candy on the shelf—a sweet story, ha!

Miss Myra Peters teacher of Poormanade spent the past week-end with home folks at Beech Creek.

Mr. Joe Bugosh local twp. road supervisor was directing some much needed repair work recently on Pancoke pike.

Eighth grade took a one day vacation Thursday, while Miss Keek accompanied the Krones to Niagara Falls where they attended the funeral of her niece there.

Mr. Walt Cooper and family from Pittsburgh are spending some time at the Harry Gunsalus home. Mrs. Cooper will be remembered as the former Florence Gunsalus.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kelley and daughter of Phillipsburg, spent a recent Sabbath with relatives, the Joe Morgan family.

Is this an announcement? Miss Louise Heaton is to be married Easter. We don't know who the man is tho. Sorry!

Mr. Lawrence Daugherty won $5.00 Binging at Snow Shoe last Thursday. We understand it to be used to purchase some new head gear for Easter, ha!

Among others Miss Marjorie Stephens recently acquired a new holiday permanent. It's very noticeable that the McGowan Beauty Salon is experiencing an up trend in pre-Easter business.

Mission school sponsored by St. Michaels during the past week was well attended at all sessions.

Teachers of the twp. met for their last instructions for the term Thursday, in P. O. Peterson's system of penmanship. Several members abided.

Clarence school will observe Good Friday as a one day Easter holiday.

April 1st parade, etc. under the U. M. W. A. leadership was somewhat more brief than on former occasions. More than 350 pupils of Clarence schools participated.

Mr. Harry Shive and family of Snow Shoe visited Sunday at the McGowan and Shive homes here.

Jo Ann Drapcho made her usual Sunday call on her friend, Janie McGowan.

Miss Dolly Muirhead has quit work at State College to accept a job at home in the Clarence Hosiery mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Doris Olanisider of Clearfield, and Mr. and Mrs. David Chambers of Bellefonte, spent the weekend at the Goodyear home.

Miss Trivia Moore of Snow Shoe, visited her friend Miss Jeanette Muirhead, Sunday p. m.

WOODWARD

Mr. and Mrs. Nail from Union County moved on the former Charlie Stover farm recently and a family by the name of Mr. and Mrs. Lohr occupied the M. O. Stover farm vacated by Harry Warnz. Harry Warnz moved in the former William Wolf Fiedler Store property which he purchased some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Weber vacated the former Ambrose Haines farm and moved in the former Alameda Vonada residence in town last week.

M. O. Stover spent a few hours last Wednesday at the R. E. Musser residence. We're glad to notice the improvement in his health since the operation at Bellefonte hospital several weeks ago.

We're informed that Steward Benner will occupy the new Ranger residence in the lower Woodward Narrows in the near future.

Well, Saturday was indeed an ugly day for the Thomas Motz sale. However, there were plenty of buyers present and the sale was well attended for all of the inclement weather. The 49 acre virgin timber tract in Pine Creek Hollow was knocked off at $8150. to the Meyer Lumber Co. The residence was bid up to $1400 but was not sold. Other articles brought fair prices.

The Woodward Consolidated Schools were escorted by their teachers to the Municipal theatre at Millheim to see the play entitled "Gone With the Wind." This was just another way to induce the youngsters to spend their much home needed money at the movies.

On Saturday this locality had a rainfall of nearly two inches. The north sides of the mountains still have abundance of snow on them. No wonder the morning readings of the mercury were as low as 28 degrees above zero.

Very few of our town folks were able to do any gardening of any account, the soil being too wet.

Luther Wagner was home over the weekend to visit his wife and daughter. Mr. Wagner is employed at Baltimore. Rumor has it that the family may move to that city in the near future.

A number of our young men were to Bellefonte on Saturday to sign up for continued NYA work.
