

CENTRE HALL AND VICINITY

PTA NETS NEARLY $75 FOR BAND UNIFORM FUND

The Parent-Teachers Association netted nearly seventy-five dollars for the band uniform fund at the indoor carnival held in the school gymnasium Friday evening, according to Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, chairman.

Russell Bohn in showman's garb was master of ceremonies of the program which opened with a band concert.

The civic organizations which sponsored a stunt were the Woman's Club, responsible for the "Chariot Race" a la top scooters, and the Music Club presenting "A Tricycle Built for Two" and an egg-throwing stunt.

Other adult performers were David I. Graybill, magician, who tied William Reese securely in a bag, yet effected his escape without untying the rope; the Farmers Quartet, composed of Reuben S. Rieker, Donald Miller, Paul M. Fetterolf and Jack Riegel, with Donal Shupe directing in high topper and tails; and Ernest Wagner, trainer of the mathematical horse, Memphis, which had no trouble counting Miss Hoover's birthdays but could not count a single handsome man in the audience.

Mrs. Thomas Williams directed two groups of grade school girls in amusing folk dances including Looey Loo and The Farmer in the Dell.

Among the side shows were The Magic Pill, For Men Only, For Women Only, The Green Pig, and a picture gallery.

The refreshment committee sold "hot dogs," ice cream, and soft drinks, grossing about twenty-five dollars.
