BETTERS to the Editor

Editor Centre Democrat: Dear Sir—I would appreciate having you publish the following article taken from a recent issue of the "Pennsylvania Farmer."

CENTRE COUNTY FARMER. Wheat Marketing Quota. When we sit down and think of the liberties we have always enjoyed on the farm, when we think how loyal the farmer has been to his part without murmuring in every national emergency, we have confidence that if the American farmer is given a chance he will do his best in this great National crisis which confronts us.

I often think how little the people appreciate the agricultural gifts of their Creator. When I think how ungrateful we are to Him who gives, that we profanely plow, burn, slaughter and waste these blessings, and then turn around and borrow money to feed the poor, the lazy, the worthless, etc., is it any wonder we are approaching a crisis?

When I opened by mail today I found a form issued by the Agricultural Conservation Program and I was disgusted to find it was supposed to reduce my corn acreage from 45 to 17 acres, and with a lot of other hokey compiled by a bunch of political racketeers, which would bring tears to the eyes of the patriotic farmer.

Vote Coming. I have made it my business to inquire of many of my farmer friends as to their opinion of this program and find that 90 per cent of those who receive payments of lime and money consider it a political racket of no agricultural value, or a hand-out, and say, "I might as well have my share of this money which is being squandered as the other fellow." Fellow farmers, don't sell your liberties for a mess of pottage!

Now the farmers of this beautiful Cumberland county are to vote "Yes" or "No" to this marketing quota on May 31. If you vote "No" you will retain your liberties; if you vote "Yes" you become the vassal of a group of politicians, and the liberties which are once lost are seldom regained. True it is that we have a bunch of white collar farmers whose main business and work is done on the highway and who are shy of hard work who advocate the would-be virtues of this political racket; but they are interested only in the salary they receive and not in the good of the farming industry. Our government needs all
