

JACKSONVILLE

Church services as follows: Sunday school, 9:30. Children's Day services will be held in the Reformed church on June 15.

Mrs. Jacob Weaver, Mrs. James Carner and daughters Barbara and Phyllis of Hubersburg, called at the E. R. Bartley home on Wednesday morning.

Raymond Conner and granddaughter Shirley Ann, Russell, of Niagara Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Harter of Lower Merion, spent Thursday evening at the home of Charles Harter and family.

Visitors at the George Dolan home on Sunday afternoon were D. A. McDowell of Axemann, and John Thomas Delaney of Centre Hall.

Miss Eleanor Moore and Miss Marjorie Painter of Howard, were Friday afternoon callers at the Noll home.

Mrs. Anna Robb, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley called at the Albert Thompson home below Nittany on Friday afternoon.

Matthew Conaway was a caller at the home of his brother, Robert Conaway and family on Thursday evening.

Ellsworth Conaway, Gertrude Sheasley and daughter Shirley, motored here and was accompanied to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Eilers and son where they were Sunday dinner guests.

They all attended the memorial services held at the Fairview cemetery; motoring to the home of Mrs. Fred Kessling where they were supper guests.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Mark and mother, Mrs. Catherine Mark, of Altoona, called at the E. R. Bartley home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swope, Arlene Swope and Mrs. James Lucas were Thursday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoy and Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Hoy of Upper Merion.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ulmer spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. William Dixon who is not in very good health, and taking Kathryn McCrea with them, who is going to take up a course in school in Philadelphia.

Sunday visitors at the D. P. Ertley home were Mr. and Mrs. Scott Mulholland and daughter Lulu, of Wellwood, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strunk and daughter Hope, of State College, and Frank Strunk and Miss Helen Kephart, all of State College.

The Boy Scout troop here in Jacksonville have decided to try something slightly unusual. They are planning an early festival with usual festivities. The Junior American Legion Band from Bellefonte will furnish music, June 7th is the date set. Will you help the boys by making the endeavor successful by bringing everyone in the family plus two or three of your neighbors along? Make June 7th the date for doing your good turn for others.

Zimmerman and daughter Janie, of Lamar, were Sunday callers at the Ed. Dorman home.

Mrs. Nannie Valentine returned to Wellwood Saturday, after attending the funeral of Harvey Lutz.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Fritz spent Sunday with Mrs. Gentzel.

Mrs. Glenn Rodgers and family of Nittany, and Norman Stover of Saladasburg, were Sunday evening callers at the Nevin Stover home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lutz have returned to their home in Pittsburgh after being here for the funeral of Mr. Lutz's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walizer and children Jean and Elery, were Sunday afternoon callers of Mrs. Nancy Clark at Salona.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Orr and children Donald, Anna Mae and Richard, were Sunday evening callers at Mr. Orr's home in Hubersburg.

Memorial Day services will be held at the Snydertown cemetery Sunday, June 1, beginning at 10 a. m. (EST). Good speakers and music will be included in the program.

Attendance seemed a little better at Sunday school on Sunday, as we had 41 present. You are invited back again and bring others with you.

Don't forget the young people's rally to be held in the B. H. church this Friday, May 30. Services at 2 p. m. and 7 p. m. (EST). Everybody welcome to both services. We know you will enjoy the special singing and the messages both afternoon and evening.

Some folks had enough interest in the cemetery and church yard to come out last Wednesday and help clean them up. Both places look a lot neater and cleaner since being raked and cleaned up.

Mrs. Andrew Irvin and children took supper with Rachel Resides last Wednesday evening and stayed for church that night.

STATE COLLEGE

Mrs. Joseph Ammerman returned to her home on West College avenue Saturday having visited her daughter Madeline.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Popp of Adams avenue, had as their guests on Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Anna Dickraeger, and daughter of Irwin.

L. E. Parks of West College Avenue, spent the weekend visiting with relatives in Norristown.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stoddard of North Holmes street, have as their guests the latter's mother, Mrs. J. B. Benson of St. Mary's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Reist of North Allen Street had as their recent guests Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cramer of Mt. Lebanon.

Ronald Book of South Allen Street, is visiting with his grandparents in Lancaster.

Mrs. Harry Sauters, Mrs. H. D. Meek, Mrs. Howard Musser, and Mrs. Harry Koch spent Friday visiting friends and relatives in Lewistown.

Mrs. J. Z. North of West Beaver Avenue, spent the weekend in Edinboro.

Mrs. H. R. Glenn and son of South Pa-terson Street are left Saturday for Beaufort, South Carolina, where they will spend the summer with Dr. Glenn, who is stationed there.

Mrs. J. J. Rubin of East Fairmount Avenue accompanied by her mother left Saturday for Philadelphia, where they will visit with relatives.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rand of West Hamilton Avenue, had as her guest on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Theodora Tresler and family of Williamsport.

Elsie Kresge of Nittany Avenue, had as her weekend guest Florence Derby of Greensburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Meas of South Pugh Street spent the weekend in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hileman of South Pugh Street had as their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. Stone of East Lansing, Mich., and Mrs. Mary Rice Morrow of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Behrer of North Burrows Street, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krapp and daughter of Hillcrest Avenue spent Sunday in Wilkes Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parsons of Heister street had as their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Parsons and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Kistler all of Jonestown.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Whitmore of East Hamilton Avenue, had as their weekend guest, their son Harry of Warren, Ohio.

Walter Parsons, Jr. of Heister Street, spent Monday in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wierman of Wordland Drive, had as their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pare, Jr., and Mrs. Pearce Johnson all of Monesono.

Mrs. E. M. Craighead of Harrisburg, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Cryder of East Foster Avenue.

Miss Alice Weber and brother, Edward of Huntingdon, visited Saturday with their aunt, Miss Anna Weber.

Jacob Meyer has returned to her home after spending some time at the Lee Brooks home at Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lewis spent several days recently with the former's parents at Paoli.

Commencement services will be held in the Lutheran church, Thursday evening, May 29th. The following are members of the graduating class: June Bradford, Eleene Lucas, Winton Callahan, James Horner, James Keller, Wayne Keller, Lee Osman, John Smith, Donald S'over, Kenneth Tennis and Dean Wert.

Mr. Emma Brouse is spending some time at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brouse, at Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dale and son Jack, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the Luther Dale home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown spent the weekend with friends and relatives in Virginia, on their return trip they were accompanied by their former mother, who will spend some time at their home.

MOSHANNON

There were 67 present at Methodist Sunday School, May 25th. Sermon by Rev. C. M. Hammond, preceding Sunday School.

Visitors in our Sunday School were: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Winslow, son LeRoy and nephew LeRoy Masden, of Blanchard. They were enroute to Curwensville to visit their daughter.

Delmar and Frank Yeager, who are stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss. are home on a ten day furlough. They arrived home Sunday 25th of May.

Quite a number of our people attended the baccalaureate service for Snow Shoe High School, held in the Methodist Church, Sunday evening, May 25th, 1941. The sermon, "The Victory," by C. Mitchell Hammond, of Snow Shoe Methodist Church, was very interesting and instructive.

The C. B. C. class of the Methodist Church held their monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. Hamer Quick, those present were: Bertha Berger, Freda Schmoke, Virginia Wagner, Rose Yeager, Loreta Berger, Annie Norton, Virgie Quick, Jean Schmoke, Sarah Fye, Frances Watson, Bertha Hazard and Edith Fye. After the business meeting, lunch was served and "Happy Birthday to You" was sung for Mrs. Carl Schmoke, this week being her birthday. She received many nice gifts and wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Frank Leeder has returned home after working a week in Milesburg.

Mrs. Anna Lewis, of Tyrone, is spending the week at the home of her son LeRoy.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fye were: Mr. and Mrs. Shattou, and son of Williamsport, and friends from Johnstown.

Visitors at the Lewis Camp over the weekend were: Miss Emma Miller, R. N., of Danville; Miss Hazel Lewis, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mulholland, sons Edward and David, and Mrs. Anna Lewis, of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mulholland, and granddaughter Alberta, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Clair Lewis, Donald and Ann, and Mickey McMichael of Williamsport; Mrs. Minnie Overdorf, Mrs. Paul Overdorf and daughter Carol, of Jersey Shore; Mr. John Bowes, Pine Glen; Mr. Leroy Lewis and Hope of Moshannon.

Mr. Lloyd Berger, Victor and Carl motored from Niagara Falls on Saturday. Lloyd and Victor returned to Niagara on Monday.

Mr. Mac Fitzsimmons' two brothers of Roulette, visited him over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallagher and two children of Bellefonte spent Sunday with relatives here.

Dorothy Berger visited last week in Monument at the home of her uncle, Mr. Herman Berger.

Betty Pierce of Kyrletown is spending this week with her cousin, Gladys Fye.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poletto and daughter Hazel and Mr. Poletto's brother John, of Renovo, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Catherine Lucas who has been visiting in Renovo for some time accompanied them to her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Ruen and daughter June, of Long Island, N. Y., called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Watson Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flaharty of Clearfield, and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Williams from Ohio, called on Miss Amanda Lucas Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. Dan Breaier, son and daughter, of Altoona.

Floyd Walker of Baltimore and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller and family spent Sunday at their parental home.

Mill Hall Girl Slightly Hurt Evelyn Bartley, Teachers College Training School pupil from Mill Hall, R. D., received brush burns when she was struck by a car operated by Charles W. Miller, of Lock Haven, at the college crossing Friday afternoon. The girl, who had been a passenger on the bus, got off at the college corner to get into her parents' car, which was parked across the street. The Miller automobile, which had been behind the bus, started to go around as the Bartley girl ran in front of the bus and into the path of the oncoming car.

Memorial Day services are in charge of the P. O. of A. Advent 9:30 EST. Treasury immediately following and Milesburg in the afternoon following Curtin services

The body of Mrs. Sarah Packer who passed away on Wednesday at the Church Home in Tyrone, was brought to the home of her nephew James C. Wense where funeral services were held Saturday. Interment was made in the Advent cemetery. Mrs. Packer is survived by several nieces and nephews besides Mr. Wense.

Mrs. William Keene had the misfortune to sprain her ankle Sunday. We expect to meet all our friends at the sale at the Orvis Petzer home Saturday. Mrs. Petzer is planning to go to Pittsburgh where her husband is employed as a carpenter.

It takes two things to blow down a tree, a heavy wind outside and decay inside. So it is with man. The winds of adversity may cause

There will be preaching service in the Evangelical church on Friday evening, June 6 at 8 o'clock, DST by Rev. E. I. Bower. All are welcome to worship with us.

Children's Day service will be held in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening, June 15th, at 8 o'clock (DST). The public in general are welcome to attend this service.

Thomas Summers of Lewistown, visited over the weekend with his brother and family Zack Summers, also with his sister and family, Mrs. Irwin Lucas.

The story of the small boy and the elephant, Ever old, but ever new. It will be seen in Bellefonte Monday, June 2, when the Mills Bros. Circus comes here for performances at 2 and 8 p. m.

MILESBURG

Mr. John Bryan, Miss Lydia Shope, Mrs. John Sholl, daughter of Mrs. John Sholl, daughter of Mrs. Hilda Haupt, took in the sights at Gettysburg on Thursday last week.

Mr. John Smith, son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wenrick of Snow Shoe spent Sunday in Lock Haven with the former's brother, George Smith and family.

Mr. Harry Kellerman suffered a stroke last week and has since been confined to his bed requiring constant attention. Mr. Kellerman had gone for a walk apparently in his usual health. Just after he returned home, he became ill. His friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Malcolm Hill stationed at Camp Shelby is spending a ten day furlough with his parents. Malcolm looks fine and says that Camp life is all right. But then a guy gets homesick once in a while, which we think is to their credit.

Among our sick is Mrs. F. T. Walker, who was taken to the Centre County Hospital Monday for treatment. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Ralph Edmiston and family in their bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert King and sons of Valley View, were dinner guests Sunday at the George Smith home. In the afternoon they took Mr. and Mrs. Smith to Lock Haven, called on Mrs. Anna Huff, visited the Dunnston cemetery and took in the sights at the airplane field.

Memorial Day services are in charge of the P. O. of A. Advent 9:30 EST. Treasury immediately following and Milesburg in the afternoon following Curtin services

The body of Mrs. Sarah Packer who passed away on Wednesday at the Church Home in Tyrone, was brought to the home of her nephew James C. Wense where funeral services were held Saturday. Interment was made in the Advent cemetery. Mrs. Packer is survived by several nieces and nephews besides Mr. Wense.

Mrs. William Keene had the misfortune to sprain her ankle Sunday. We expect to meet all our friends at the sale at the Orvis Petzer home Saturday. Mrs. Petzer is planning to go to Pittsburgh where her husband is employed as a carpenter.

It takes two things to blow down a tree, a heavy wind outside and decay inside. So it is with man. The winds of adversity may cause

There will be preaching service in the Evangelical church on Friday evening, June 6 at 8 o'clock, DST by Rev. E. I. Bower. All are welcome to worship with us.

Children's Day service will be held in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening, June 15th, at 8 o'clock (DST). The public in general are welcome to attend this service.

Thomas Summers of Lewistown, visited over the weekend with his brother and family Zack Summers, also with his sister and family, Mrs. Irwin Lucas.

Mrs. Russell Fisher and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Sue Fisher, motored to Hecla on Sunday, where they called at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zellers.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacIvaine of Downingtown, were visitors over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Robb and daughter of Detroit, Mich., visited several days of last week with her mother, Mrs. Maude Robb, also with his brother and wife, William Robb.

MOSHANNON

There were 67 present at Methodist Sunday School, May 25th. Sermon by Rev. C. M. Hammond, preceding Sunday School.

Visitors in our Sunday School were: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Winslow, son LeRoy and nephew LeRoy Masden, of Blanchard. They were enroute to Curwensville to visit their daughter.

Delmar and Frank Yeager, who are stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss. are home on a ten day furlough. They arrived home Sunday 25th of May.

Quite a number of our people attended the baccalaureate service for Snow Shoe High School, held in the Methodist Church, Sunday evening, May 25th, 1941. The sermon, "The Victory," by C. Mitchell Hammond, of Snow Shoe Methodist Church, was very interesting and instructive.

The C. B. C. class of the Methodist Church held their monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. Hamer Quick, those present were: Bertha Berger, Freda Schmoke, Virginia Wagner, Rose Yeager, Loreta Berger, Annie Norton, Virgie Quick, Jean Schmoke, Sarah Fye, Frances Watson, Bertha Hazard and Edith Fye. After the business meeting, lunch was served and "Happy Birthday to You" was sung for Mrs. Carl Schmoke, this week being her birthday. She received many nice gifts and wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Frank Leeder has returned home after working a week in Milesburg.

Mrs. Anna Lewis, of Tyrone, is spending the week at the home of her son LeRoy.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fye were: Mr. and Mrs. Shattou, and son of Williamsport, and friends from Johnstown.

Visitors at the Lewis Camp over the weekend were: Miss Emma Miller, R. N., of Danville; Miss Hazel Lewis, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mulholland, sons Edward and David, and Mrs. Anna Lewis, of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mulholland, and granddaughter Alberta, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Clair Lewis, Donald and Ann, and Mickey McMichael of Williamsport; Mrs. Minnie Overdorf, Mrs. Paul Overdorf and daughter Carol, of Jersey Shore; Mr. John Bowes, Pine Glen; Mr. Leroy Lewis and Hope of Moshannon.

Mr. Lloyd Berger, Victor and Carl motored from Niagara Falls on Saturday. Lloyd and Victor returned to Niagara on Monday.

Mr. Mac Fitzsimmons' two brothers of Roulette, visited him over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallagher and two children of Bellefonte spent Sunday with relatives here.

Dorothy Berger visited last week in Monument at the home of her uncle, Mr. Herman Berger.

Betty Pierce of Kyrletown is spending this week with her cousin, Gladys Fye.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poletto and daughter Hazel and Mr. Poletto's brother John, of Renovo, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Catherine Lucas who has been visiting in Renovo for some time accompanied them to her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Ruen and daughter June, of Long Island, N. Y., called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Watson Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flaharty of Clearfield, and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Williams from Ohio, called on Miss Amanda Lucas Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. Dan Breaier, son and daughter, of Altoona.

Floyd Walker of Baltimore and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller and family spent Sunday at their parental home.

Mill Hall Girl Slightly Hurt Evelyn Bartley, Teachers College Training School pupil from Mill Hall, R. D., received brush burns when she was struck by a car operated by Charles W. Miller, of Lock Haven, at the college crossing Friday afternoon. The girl, who had been a passenger on the bus, got off at the college corner to get into her parents' car, which was parked across the street. The Miller automobile, which had been behind the bus, started to go around as the Bartley girl ran in front of the bus and into the path of the oncoming car.

Memorial Day services are in charge of the P. O. of A. Advent 9:30 EST. Treasury immediately following and Milesburg in the afternoon following Curtin services

The body of Mrs. Sarah Packer who passed away on Wednesday at the Church Home in Tyrone, was brought to the home of her nephew James C. Wense where funeral services were held Saturday. Interment was made in the Advent cemetery. Mrs. Packer is survived by several nieces and nephews besides Mr. Wense.

Mrs. William Keene had the misfortune to sprain her ankle Sunday. We expect to meet all our friends at the sale at the Orvis Petzer home Saturday. Mrs. Petzer is planning to go to Pittsburgh where her husband is employed as a carpenter.

It takes two things to blow down a tree, a heavy wind outside and decay inside. So it is with man. The winds of adversity may cause

There will be preaching service in the Evangelical church on Friday evening, June 6 at 8 o'clock, DST by Rev. E. I. Bower. All are welcome to worship with us.

Children's Day service will be held in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening, June 15th, at 8 o'clock (DST). The public in general are welcome to attend this service.

Thomas Summers of Lewistown, visited over the weekend with his brother and family Zack Summers, also with his sister and family, Mrs. Irwin Lucas.

REBERSBURG

Weekend visitors at the Calvin Weaver Sr., home were: Mr. Heckler and Mrs. S. I. Barges, of Millheim; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grenoble and Mrs. Grenoble's sister, of Spring Mills.

Mrs. Paul Bight and daughters, Yvonne and Geraldine, of Bellefonte, visited relatives in town this weekend.

Mrs. Fred Debeaux, is at present visiting in Chicago, where her mother is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Brunagrt received the announcement of a daughter, Jamie Louise, born to Mr. and Mrs. Randall Brunagrt of Covington, Va., the second daughter in the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver of Aaronsburg, spent Saturday evening at the C. M. Miller home.

Mr. Curtis Greeninger is at present employed by A. P. Stevens, contractor, State College.

On Wednesday morning, the Rev. Walter Herron, an Australian who has been a Missionary to Bolivia, entertained the weekend of town by flying his newly acquired airplane, soon to be used by him in South American Gospel work, over and around the home of his friends, the Doulys.

Mr. Herron procured his plane from the Piper Cub factory in Lock Haven. It will be the first to be employed by missionaries in South America.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward Royer were Sunday dinner guests at the E. H. Hosterman home.

Mrs. Eugene Beaver and son of Lemont, spent several days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Biery.

Mrs. C. H. Gramley spent a day with friends in Bellefonte recently. Sunday visitors at the Gramley home were, Mr. Bruce Harris and family of Clintondale.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waite of Delaware, called at the C. J. Weaver, Jr. home on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Waite will spend the summer at Loganton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Diehl and two children of Greensburg and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith of Millinburg, were Sunday guests at the Miss Emma Sholl and Mrs. Ella Diehl home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hackman and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Yearick were weekend visitors at the Oran Reish home in Stroudsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Day and three children of Lemont, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Guisewite and children of Aaronsburg and Mr. and Mrs. John Houseman and two children spent Sunday at Pine Creek Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Penstamaker of Clearfield, and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Williams from Ohio, called on Miss Amanda Lucas Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. Dan Breaier, son and daughter, of Altoona.

Floyd Walker of Baltimore and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller and family spent Sunday at their parental home.

Mill Hall Girl Slightly Hurt Evelyn Bartley, Teachers College Training School pupil from Mill Hall, R. D., received brush burns when she was struck by a car operated by Charles W. Miller, of Lock Haven, at the college crossing Friday afternoon. The girl, who had been a passenger on the bus, got off at the college corner to get into her parents' car, which was parked across the street. The Miller automobile, which had been behind the bus, started to go around as the Bartley girl ran in front of the bus and into the path of the oncoming car.

Memorial Day services are in charge of the P. O. of A. Advent 9:30 EST. Treasury immediately following and Milesburg in the afternoon following Curtin services

The body of Mrs. Sarah Packer who passed away on Wednesday at the Church Home in Tyrone, was brought to the home of her nephew James C. Wense where funeral services were held Saturday. Interment was made in the Advent cemetery. Mrs. Packer is survived by several nieces and nephews besides Mr. Wense.

Mrs. William Keene had the misfortune to sprain her ankle Sunday. We expect to meet all our friends at the sale at the Orvis Petzer home Saturday. Mrs. Petzer is planning to go to Pittsburgh where her husband is employed as a carpenter.

It takes two things to blow down a tree, a heavy wind outside and decay inside. So it is with man. The winds of adversity may cause

There will be preaching service in the Evangelical church on Friday evening, June 6 at 8 o'clock, DST by Rev. E. I. Bower. All are welcome to worship with us.

Children's Day service will be held in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening, June 15th, at 8 o'clock (DST). The public in general are welcome to attend this service.

Thomas Summers of Lewistown, visited over the weekend with his brother and family Zack Summers, also with his sister and family, Mrs. Irwin Lucas.

Mrs. Russell Fisher and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Sue Fisher, motored to Hecla on Sunday, where they called at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zellers.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacIvaine of Downingtown, were visitors over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Baker.

Advertisement for O. W. Houts Lumber Co. featuring a picture of a bird's nest with eggs and the text 'Springtime Is Nesting Time!'. The ad promotes a new type of paint called Pittsburg Paint, which is long-lasting and resistant to moisture and dirt. It includes contact information for the company in State College, PA.

Large advertisement for Memorial Day Highway Safety Principles. It features a starburst graphic and the text 'Memorial Day Highway Safety Principles'. The ad emphasizes the importance of safety, security, and service during Memorial Day. It lists principles such as observing traffic laws, driving carefully, and staying alert. It also mentions the Pennsylvania Highway Safety Council and provides contact information for its members, including Arthur H. James and William J. Hamilton, Jr.