HONOR STUDENTS TAKE PART IN EXERCISES

The honor students participating in the Centre Hall-Potter high school commencement program last evening were Miss Lois Homan, who wrote the class poem and presented the motto; Dean Reish, salutatorian; Miss Emelene Ross, valedictorian; and Miss Betty Runkle, who presented the class flower.

Ten boys and twelve girls were presented diplomas, by Lewis R. Lehart, assistant county superintendent.

Others on the class roll are: Misses Doris Bloom, Agnes Delaney, Rosella Homan, Evelyn Miller, Adeline McClenahan, Gayle Palmer, Martha Rimmey, Alice Slack and Jean Smith; Robert Gerhart, Mark Jordan, Ernest Lansberry, Dean Neff, James Rimmey, Robert Rimmey, Kenneth Runkle, Paul Smith and Vincent Treaster.

Although none of this group expects to enter college, Misses Emelene Ross and Betty Runkle plan to take business courses and Miss Alice Slack, expects to study beauty culture.

REV. C. C. OTTO DELIVERS SCHOOL BACCALAUREATE

"Facing Life" was the theme of the baccalaureate sermon preached in the local Reformed church Sunday evening by the Rev. Clarence C. Otto, to the Centre Hall-Potter class of 1941.

The faculty and student body occupied the entire middle section of the church and the procession was led by J. P. Wetzel, principal, in academic cap, gown and Master of Education hood. Other members of the faculty also wore cap and gown and the senior class wore the traditional gray garb for secondary school graduates. Miss Mary Delaney and Albert Dutrow marshalled the procession.

The organist, Miss Helen Odenkirk, played "Cradle Song" by Brahms as a prelude and "Allegro Con Moto" by Sheppard as a postlude. "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" by Liddle, was sung as an anthem by the choir.

The Rev. W. K. Hosterman assisted the Rev. Mr. Otto with the service.

What Every Woman Should KNOW ABOUT COFFEE!

Coffee must start right. So, A&P keeps its own experts in South America to get the finest crops. Then, as tastes differ, A&P offers you three distinctive flavor blends that remain deliciously uniform.

Roasting brings out the flavor in coffee. A&P's own exclusive flavor-control roasting ovens bring each roast to the peak of flavor. Freshness is essential to good coffee . . . so A&P Coffee is sold only in the freshly roasted bean.

Finally, for full flavor have your coffee ground correctly for your type of coffee pot. Tell the A&P clerk the kind of pot you use and your coffee will be Custom Ground to bring out all the magnificent flavor.
