

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, June 15 are as follows: Sunday School 9:30; Children's Day services 7:30.

Cheerful Helpers Class will meet at the home of June Yearick on Friday evening, June 13.

There will be a demonstration in the pruning of the shrubbery on the lawn of the Reformed church on June 13, by Professor Bancy.

The Boy Scouts wish to take this time in thanking the people for helping with the festival. It was a grand success.

Mrs. Anna Robb visited among friends in Howard, several days the past week.

Dick McCrea, John Weber, and Rebecca spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ulmer and Kathryn McCrea in Narbeth returning home Monday.

Earl Beightol of Howard, was a Saturday evening supper guest at the home of his sister Mrs. Robert Conaway and family, other callers were Louise Beightol, Maxine Long and Hazel Daughenbaugh of Howard.

Mrs. Anna Robb, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley and sons Arthur, Roy and Fred were Sunday dinner guests at the Irvin Albright home near Salona.

Mrs. C. E. Aley attended Children's Day services at Centre Hall Sunday evening.

Mrs. Walter Daley of Altoona spent the weekend at the home of her brother Deimer Ertley and family.

Mr. Elmer Swope and son George spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Monks and family of Cedar Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dixon and son Donald, of Lock Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon of Flemington, spent Sunday evening with their mother Mrs. Estella Dixon.

Mr. A. A. Garrett and children, spent Sunday at the Newton Weaver home of State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley called at the E. R. Bartley home Wednesday evening.

Miss Becky Bartley spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Neff of Booths Corner also visited Kay McCrea on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mabus of Hecla Park, Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer daughter Nancy and son Ronald of Centre Hall spent Saturday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

STATE COLLEGE

Mr. and Mrs. La Vern Krall and sons of South Gill Street, left Sunday for a visit with Mr. Krall's parents in York.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. White of South Allen street, have as their guest their son Jack, a graduate student at Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wagner of West Foster avenue, spent Thursday in Hazelton.

Beatrice Hagen of East Nittany avenue, left Friday for Ellenswood, Kansas, where she will spend several weeks visiting with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Holmes of West College avenue, have as their guest Mrs. Ella Holmes of Alexandria.

Lt. and Mrs. Jack Weske and daughters of West Nittany avenue, left Sunday for Fort Meade, Maryland, where Lt. Weske will be stationed for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Duncan of West Fairmount avenue, had as their weekend guests their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Duncan and son of Scotch Plains, New Jersey and their son Donald of Schenectady, New York.

Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Nieman of Adams avenue, spent Sunday in Sharon where they visited with the former's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rogers of West Hamilton avenue, had as their weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beck and Mr. and Mrs. Clark, all of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Samans of East Park avenue, spent the weekend with relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Blair of Hamilton avenue, had as their weekend guest their son Robert of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Blanchet of the Glenland Apartments have as their weekend guests their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blanchet, Jr., and their son of Philadelphia.

Florence Marquardt, a teacher in Northfield, New Jersey is spending the summer vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt at their home on Hamilton avenue.

Mrs. Mary Hillman of West College Avenue, spent the weekend visiting with her parents in Delmont.

Mrs. Edna Long of East College avenue, is a patient in the Phillipsburg Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Olevine of North Holmes street, had as their weekend guests their son James of Philadelphia.

Rev. and Mrs. John Harkins of South Atherton street, spent the weekend in Selinsgrove.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lonerberger of East Hamilton avenue, had as their weekend guests, their daughter Rose Eva of Camden, N. J.

Margaret, Flynn of Holmes street, spent the weekend in Milesburg.

Rilla Keller, Ethel Herman and Gladys Huling spent the weekend in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henszey of Hamilton avenue had as their weekend guest, Mrs. Grace Reed of Los Angeles, Calif.

It may be true that nobody will attack the United States but we shudder to think what would happen to New York's skyscrapers if a few 2,000-pound bombs happen to drop in their midst.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Ertley and Mrs. Walter Daley attended the 20th annual Corman reunion at Hecla Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vonada and family spent Sunday afternoon at the home of his mother, Mrs. Emma Vonada at Howard who is improving slowly.

Miss Virginia Young of Hublersburg, and Mr. Willard Myers, of Lemar, called at the home of C. E. Aley Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Otis Fulton of Clearfield, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children Dicky and Elsie Jane and Pete Dolan attended the funeral of Mrs. Annie Bridge at State College, Saturday.

Saturday evening callers at the James Shaffer home were Mrs. Homer Lese and son Earl and Miss Watson of Bellefonte, Mrs. William Shaffer daughter Kathryn and son Lee and lady friend, Miss Keen of Milesburg, Miss Edan Betty Spicer, and Fay Pike of Buffalo Run and Louise Beightol of Howard. Other callers during the week were Josephine Deltz, Mrs. Mary Deltz, Della Garbrick, Pearl Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conaway and family, Matthew Conaway of Flemington and Arline Swope.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bridge of Rochester, N. Y., are spending a few days with their cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and family.

Poster Shamp of Hublersburg, visited at the Winfield Deitz home Sunday.

Mrs. Richard Vonada, children Billy, Evelyn, Wava, Darline, and Margie spent Wednesday of last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Poorman and family of Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malone and grandson of Jersey Shore, were Sunday visitors at the home of Orin Fye and family.

Mrs. George Henry of Collingsdale and Betty Noll of State College, were callers at the Sumner Noll home Saturday p. m.

Miss Kathryn Fravel of Bellefonte, called at the C. E. Aley home Thursday evening.

Rebecca and Sarah Shaffer spent Friday with their cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shaffer of Lyontstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children Dicky and Elsie Jane were Sunday dinner guests at the home of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ripka of Pennsylvania Furnace. They were also supper guests of Mrs. Noll's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stover and family of Penna. Furnace.

ORVISTON

There were 134 present at Sunday School.

Mrs. Clair Butler has been confined to her bed since Friday suffering with a very bad case of tonsillitis, but is somewhat improved at this writing.

Those who visited Mrs. Clair Butler on Sunday were: Mrs. Relda Hickel and daughter were Beryl, Mrs. Annie Confer, Mrs. Deulah Condo, Rev. and Mrs. R. J. DeBoer of Monmouth.

Gerald Tomison, who has been in the CCC camp at Poe Valley, secured work at the Martin Aircraft plant in Middle River, Md., and left Sunday evening with John Daley to take up mechanical work there. We wish for him success as a Brud is a go-getter.

Miss Doris Daley who is employed in Johnsonburg, visited with her mother and sisters over the weekend.

Mrs. Mabel Shearer visited a couple days in Beech Creek the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Confer and family visited with relatives in Bellefonte and Mt. Eagle Sunday afternoon.

Jackie Furher and little Carl Confer spent the weekend with his mother at Gleasonston.

Ed. Chaplin, who has been in the camp at Wellbore, Virginia, is home visiting with his parents, for a short time.

Shirley Brickley spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Condo. Vonda Condo spent her vacation with relatives in Blanchard the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Confer spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dill Confer of Hunter's Run.

Miss Chattie Confer of Mt. Eagle visited with her brothers Bobby and Ben Confer on Sunday.

Renovo and Orviston played ball here on Saturday afternoon, Renovo losing to our boys 3-6.

A goodly number of our people attended the Evangelistic services which have been held in the Church of Christ at Romola for the past two weeks by Evangelist Rev. Rollins and wife. The meeting has been successful as quite a number took a stand for the Lord.

Mr. and Mrs. John Solt of Altoona, spent Tuesday with the Paul Tomison and David Confer families.

Use our Classified Ad columns.

SNYDERTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Haagen of Snyderstown, Dorothy M. Berry of Lock Haven and Cyrus W. Haagen of Snydertown took a trip to South Dakota, leaving here May 27, and returning home June 7. During the trip they visited relatives there and Miss Dorothy Berry became the bride of Cyrus Haagen in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

Relatives and friends calling at the W. W. Haagen home on Sunday to honor the new bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Haagen and as a farewell party for Cyrus Haagen who left for camp Monday, June 9 were: Mr. and Mrs. Francis Haagen and children Albert and Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peters and children LeRoy, Eleanor, Richard, Clair, Janet and Maxine of Beech Creek; Mr. and Mrs. William Poorman of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Alva Peters and children Russell, Anna Mae, and Nevin of Beech Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Flynn Haagen and son Johnny of Lemont; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Helmer and children Doris, and Charles of Beech Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dreese and son Donnie of Lemont; Harold Sylvester, Barbara, Harry, Dorothy Haagen of this place; Mr. and Mrs. Sadie Huffman and daughter, Mae, Mrs. Stanton Huffman and son Bobby of Jersey Shore; Mr. and Mrs. George Frosther and son Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bickle and children Joe, Meta, Perry, Jean, and Shuman all of Woollick; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Berry and children George, Mary, and Janet, of Lock Haven; Nadine Mayes of Avis; Mrs. Katie Dorman and Mrs. Anna Lutz of this place; Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Barker of Mill Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dickey and son Samuel, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowe and children, Richard and Doris of Beech Creek.

A large racket was heard early Monday morning about 12:15 o'clock when a large number of friends serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Haagen at the home of Mr. Haagen's parents here in Snyderstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stover and Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Stover and son Donnie attended the Cole Bros. circus in Lock Haven, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Meyer and family of Wellbore, N. Y. visited over the weekend with Rev. and Mrs. Paul J. Keller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Walizer of Clintondale, were Wednesday evening supper guests at the Nevin Stover home.

Jean and Ellery Walizer spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. George Walizer and family in Mill Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Walizer spent Wednesday at the Harry Walizer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Fultz of Lebanon, were Sunday callers at the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Keller home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowe and family of Beech Creek, called Sunday at the Gust Fritz home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walizer spent Friday evening at the George Walizer home in Mill Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dorman spent Sunday at the Joe Lannen home in Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dorman and Mrs. Annie Lutz motored Saturday to Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Beck and son Edwood spent Sunday evening visiting Mr. and Mrs. Russell Keister and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bitner of Clintondale.

WOODWARD

The local Evangelical Ladies Aid held their monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kresmer on last Tuesday evening. All had an enjoyable social time together aside from the regular business routine of work.

More rain fell in this locality on Tuesday night and Wednesday forenoon than we've had for more than three weeks. Our fields looked as if there was scarcely any plants left before the rain. Some farmers said the corn was only half up. The hay crop will be about a little better than half. The strawberry crop is next to an entire failure due to the heavy frosts during May and the dry spell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sbeesley and Mr. and Mrs. Dress and child Russel Kessinger and Mrs. Carrie Fultz spent their Sunday at Hershey. They missed the excellent sermon of their pastor the Sunday School and the timely and important Memorial address of Prof. A. D. Gougler of Middleburg. Quite a few were present at the P. O. S. of A. Memorial service on Sunday afternoon and expressed their sentiments concerning the forcible address as being exactly in place. The time is here for our American people to take warning and act. Not one of our soldier boys should be sent across the Atlantic. Let's protect our own shores. The Barges East Centre County Band assisted in the parade and in a number of suitable selections that they played.

MADISONBURG

This locality was favored by a very nice rain Wednesday. It was needed very bad for there had been no rain for several weeks. The hay crop in this locality is believed to be a small one this year.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Russell Long and son Philip Dale, Mrs. Alva Duck and children Eleanor, Helen, and LeRoy, Curt Ligen, Freda Long and Jean Shultz motored to Rolling Green Park where they spent an enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shaffer from Coburn were Sunday visitors at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaffer.

Miss Josephine Beckenbaugh has visitors from Franklin County the past week.

The members of the Christian Endeavor are holding a monthly meeting this Thursday evening.

W. E. Shultz and family and Mrs. Minnie Miller spent Monday evening at Hartleton visiting Mrs. Julia Geiser who has been ill for several months.

Kenneth Royer and his friend who are employed in Baltimore, were to visit Kenneth's mother, Pearl Hackman over the weekend.

Clarence Miller lost a valuable mule and has now purchased a team of horses.

PLEASANT GAP

(From last week) Mr. Bruce Schreffler of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pate and daughter Alice May of East Meador, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Twit-keeper of Wilmerding and Miss Joy of Wilmerding spent Saturday calling on relatives and were dinner guests of the Wade Evey's that evening. The Twit-keepers making the Evey home their headquarters during their three day visit while the other folks were the guest of Miss Decker.

The Richard Westerfeld family left last week by automobile for a month's visit with relatives in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lorchner and Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Penewell of Pittsburgh were weekend guests at the Harry Spear home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Noll attended the Culbertson-Kniff wedding at Lock Haven Tuesday of last week.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Victor Vangundens who has not been enjoying good health for some time is reported much better.

Mrs. Henry Noll and Mrs. Ray Mezey made a business trip to Harrisburg Monday of last week returning home the following afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Eby and daughter June, spent Monday of last week in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Schreffler spent a few days' vacation in the New England States and before their return home spent some time with captain Bernard Henry and family, formerly of this place but who are now stationed near New York City.

Miss Marjorie O'Donnell of State College spent Wednesday evening with Miss Beverly Corman, the latter having spent a few days at State College as a guest of Marjorie.

Earl Lego and Mrs. Burke of Philadelphia, were guests over Memorial Day of the Paul Lego's and Frank Barber.

Buddie Smeltzer, small son of Lee Smeltzer, has been quite ill for several weeks but is reported improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Noll and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Noll made a trip recently to Derry, Pa., to care for the grave of Mr. Noll's father, who is buried there, and before returning spent several days with relatives and friends at that place.

Mrs. "Ted" Harris motored to New Jersey last week where she and her father-in-law, Dr. Harris, of Snow Shoe, who accompanied her spent a few days with the latter's daughter Jane and husband, Jane accompanied them home for a short visit.

On Monday afternoon of last week Miss Janet Noll was hostess to a number of her small friends at her home from 3 to 5 p. m. It being the occasion of her eighth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Martz of Huntingdon, W. Va., were recent guests at the Wade Evey home.

We are sorry to note that the condition of Mrs. Lloyd Sampel, who has been very ill for several weeks with heart trouble, necessitated her being taken to the Centre County Hospital Sunday evening. We hope she may soon be restored to her former health.

Miss Margaret Ford spent last week with her daughter at her home at Unionville.

The Lutheran Loyal Workers met at the home of Mrs. Theodore Linkquist last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Noll spent Memorial Day at the camp of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shalicos on Pocomo Lake Preserve.

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Wasson of State College, were dinner guests of the Roy Bells Sunday of last week.

Miss Esther Chandler of Julian was a recent guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Houser.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Strunk were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Haney State College, Helen Harvey of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mincer and daughter Bernice, and Mrs. Hendricks, of Mill Hall.

The Walter Monys of Bellwood, spent a Sunday recently with Mr. and Mrs. John Mony of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Elmer Wilcox of Pittsburgh, spent a short time in our town Saturday of last week, having come at that time to care for the Millward cemetery lot.

Harvey Markle is building quite an addition to his concrete block plant.

Saturday of last week the Hublersburg Grange acted as host and served dinner to two hundred members at the local grange hall, and supper to about fifty members. Both Clinton and Blair counties were represented. The program was transacted at the morning session and Memorial services were held in the afternoon for the deceased members, while in the evening a play was given by Progress Grange and degrees conferred. The next regular meeting will be held June 6th at 8 o'clock, after which a cooking class will be open to the public. The grange ladies' Aid met Monday evening at the Malcolm Musser home. Tuesday evening they sponsored a show and dance at the local hall. The Hoosier Cornhuskers Jam-boree was the main event of the evening.

The Woman's Club met Tuesday evening, the last meeting they will have until September. The program was given over to the Garden Club, who had quite a number of novelties made from flowers and vegetables, beautiful bouquets and vases of flowers in unique arrangements as well as many other interesting items.

Sunday guests at the W. H. Noll home were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keller of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Peidman Hamilton and daughter Helen Louke, of Houtzdale, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Koche of State College.

Mrs. Helen Bitner of Centre Hall, was a recent guest at the home of her brother, A. H. Smith.

C. E. Cowdick and grandson, Charles, returned to their homes in Niagara Falls after spending Memorial Day with relatives here. Mrs. Cowdick who accompanied them here, remained for a longer visit. John Mullinger visited his wife, Sunday at the Cresson Sanitarium and found her so much improved in health she was able to go for a drive with him.

Harry Confer was here from Wilcox for a short visit with his daughter, Mrs. John Tressler.

The Harold O'Brian's entertained Mrs. O'Brian's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Albright and her brother, William, of Greensburg, over Memorial Day and Miss Louise Elson of Irwin and a friend Michael Flynn of New Kensington, over the weekend.

Miss Margaret Keller and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Krumrine attended the races at Washingtonville, Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bell of Wisconsin, spent a few days at the Ralston Derr home. Other guests at the Derr home last week were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wenhold, Mr. Wendhold, Sr., and Mrs. Gottschall, of Greenslane.

Bi-school opened Monday, June 2, with 89 students in attendance and under the direction of the following teachers: Mrs. Rea Florey, Mrs. I. N. Miller, Mrs. Robert Rhoads, Mr. John Shuey, Mrs. Roy Adams, Mrs. Ralston Derr, Mrs. Mary Giddie, Mrs. Fred Shaffer, Mrs. George Masarich, Jr., and Mrs. Cornwall, Rev. Kaufman and Rev. Miller are in charge.

Elizabeth Kettleberger of Curwensville, spent Sunday with the W. C. Adams.

Miss Jane Noll and uncle, Irwin, started here by car last week but due to an accident in which the car was pretty badly damaged, had to return to their home at Lansdowne. Jane received some injuries to her back but hopes to be able to come home soon.

Miss Madeline Noll expects to leave Friday for Asbury Park, N. J. where she has accepted a position for the summer months.

The Woman's Civic Club has set the evening of June 27 for their annual festival.

The Pleasant Gap Band played at Snydertown Sunday morning at their Memorial service.

The Fire Company is planning a centennial for 1945. They now have 144 members. At present they are building an addition to the fire house so they can house the second other truck as they have two in service. They moved their club room to the second floor.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ewing of Pittsburgh, were guests at the M. P. Gardner from Thursday until Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor of Pittsburgh, called Sunday.

The Fred Roy Adams, Ralston Derr, William Tucker Schaeffer, Jacob Corman, Thomas Poes and John Tressler families had breakfast at Brownie's Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Delin, of Rochester, were here over Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Detrick, and daughter Joy, and Mrs. Wanda, of Berwick, spent the weekend with the Tressler family.

Miss Arlene Zimmerman entertained a school mate from York over the weekend.

Dan Hoy of Sunbury, is visiting at the home of Patrolman Shannon and wife.

June 11th has been set as the date for the sportsmen's festival, which was to have been held last Saturday.

Graduation exercises were held last evening at the local Grange Hall with the following program: Processional; Invocation, Rev. I. N. Miller of the Pleasant Gap church; speech, "What Shall We Defend?" Frances Dunkleberger, a p. e. c. h.; "What is Defense?" Philip Barr; music, school orchestra; speech "The Citizen and Defense," Lillian Poes; speech, "Education and Defense," Eleanor Brooks; vocal number, "When the Flag Goes By"; speech, "We Also Serve," William Mony; presentation of diplomas and awards by Leonard Rhoads, president Board of Education and Jacob Corman, president Men's Brotherhood; America's Prayer, Norma Kerstetter; vocal number, "America Beloved Land," Ira B. Williams; benediction, Rev. L. J. Kaufman of the Pleasant Gap Lutheran church; Recessional.

We are glad to report the condition of Samuel Noll who has been ill for three months is slightly improved.

BUSH HOLLOW

Attendance at Sunday school was some better on Sunday as there were 41 present. Come back again. As next Sunday will be observed as Father's Day everyone should get out to church and Sunday school. Usual mid-week service on Wednesday night and cottage prayer meeting this Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Watson. Everybody welcome.

Plans are being made for the annual Lucas reunion to be held in the grove by the church Saturday, July 5. Don't forget the date.

Miles Resides, who had been ill with quinsy the past week, is better and able to be out and around again.

A meeting was held at the Weston home last Tuesday night in the interest of getting the electric lights up the Hollow. We are hoping they will be put up this week in the future, although some thought the monthly rate was too high.

Those who enjoyed ice cream and cake at the home of Mrs. Edna Spotts on Monday night were Mr. and Mrs. J. Benner Hall and children, Rivian, Margaret, Helen, Cecil and Merrill, and Mrs. Roy Spotts and children, Doris and David, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Spotts and children, Freddie and Janice, Mrs. Edna Spotts. We are wondering yet as to who ate the most ice cream.

Everyone was glad for the rain which fell last week. It sure was needed very badly.

ROMOLA

There were 95 present at Sunday School Sunday morning.

Religious services will be held Sunday p. m. at 2:30 at Orviston.

Tent meeting will begin at Mann-town Sunday evening, June 15, and will continue for three weeks.

HOLTS HOLLOW

Dr. Franco and father of New York City, spent the weekend with friends at this place and left early Monday morning for New York, accompanied by Mrs. Olive Rhoads and children who are visiting relatives in that city.

Mrs. Frank Dreese and son of Pine Grove Mills, spent a few days at the Roy Leathers home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and family, Mrs. Ethel Catherman and daughter of Howard, were dinner guests at the Orvis Watson home on Sunday.

J. E. Confer of Milesburg, visited recently at the Edith Burd home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Watson entertained several children and grandchildren on Wednesday of last week in honor of Mrs. Watson's birthday anniversary those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Watson and sons of Milesburg; Mrs. George Margel, Jr., and daughter of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. M. C. Reese and children of Gum Stump; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sweitzer of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and family of Howard; Mrs. William Howell and son of Runville; Mrs. Lee Johnson, Mrs. Al Franco and daughter Dick and Anna Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Watson and family, Robert Confer, Olive Rhoads, and children and Nevin Watson, Mrs. Roy Leathers, Mrs. Frank Dreese and son. A delicious dinner was served also ice cream and cake. Every one enjoyed the day and Mrs. Watson received many useful gifts and all departed wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Recent visitors at the Charles Poorman home were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Spong, of Albany, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fetting of Ridgway and Vernal Poorman.

Mrs. Olive Rhoads and children were Sunday guests at the George Magargel Jr., home at Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. Charles Poorman called on Mr. and Mrs. Donald Poorman and family on Sunday.

Don't forget Sunday School next Sunday at 9:30, Standard time, and Communion at 10:30 and our musical is this Friday evening at 7:30.

PLEASANT VALLEY

BOGGS TWP. Robert McMullin, Anna Eminhizer, of Harrisburg, were Friday afternoon visitors at the home of Harvey Eminhizer.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Yeager and two children, of Summit Hill, visited on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Harvey Eminhizer.