

LOCALS

—Lock Haven went on daylight saving time at midnight, Saturday.

—John B. Wert, retired farmer from Centre Hall, was a pleasant caller at our office Monday.

—Miss Marilyn L. Miller, Milesburg, is visiting her roommate, Miss Lois Weaver, of Mercer, Pa.

—Mrs. John G. Love, of East Linn street, attended a regional meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Pittsburg, last Thursday.

—Saturday is the longest day in the year. From then on the days will begin to grow shorter and before we realize it the frost will be on the pumpkin.

—Russell McGill and Kline Confer, two well known residents of Salona, were pleasant callers at this office, Monday, while in Bellefonte on a business mission.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, who have been living in the Irvine house on East Lamb street, moved last Wednesday into one of the Berard apartments on South Allegheny street.

—The Rev. G. E. Householder, Mrs. Householder, and their daughter, Mrs. Frederick L. Shope and son Donnie, all of Bellefonte, spent last Wednesday in Altoona attending a district conference at the Second United Brethren church.

—Mrs. Agnes Culyer of Axe Mann returned home Sunday after visiting a month in Harrisburg. She was accompanied here by Byron Blackford, Mac MacDonald and Dr. Charles A. Mehring, of Harrisburg, who visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson.

—Michael Corviera, who for many years has made his home in Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beckwith, in Bush Addition, near town, and who has been a patient in the Centre County Hospital for the past four weeks, is not recovering as rapidly as had been expected, according to reports. Mr. Corviera recently submitted to a series of four operations.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Pendleton and child, of New Kensington, arrived in Bellefonte Friday, to make their home, and are occupying an apartment in the Mrs. Charles R. Beatty home on East Curtin street. Mr. Pendleton is commercial lighting salesman for the West Penn Power Company in this area.

—H. W. Babert, for many years a well known resident of Snow Shoe, this week moved to Bellefonte, on his new residence with his step-daughter, Miss Mary Swartz, in the former Musser home on East Lamb street. Miss Swartz moved into the home recently from an apartment in the Dr. J. C. Rogers building, on South Spring street.

—Roy Immel, for the past 4 years chief of the Diamond restaurant, resigned his position there and he and Mrs. Immel departed Sunday for Millburg, where they have leased a small farm which they expect to operate. During the time Mr. Immel was employed at the local restaurant, Mrs. Immel worked at the establishment on part time basis.

—W. W. Bickett, of Bellefonte, health officer for Centre County, left Sunday for Philadelphia where he will attend a six weeks' instruction course relative to his official position, being held at the University of Pennsylvania. During her husband's absence Mrs. Bickett will spend a portion of the time in Niagara Falls, having gone there on Tuesday to visit for a week or more with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Andrews.

—Bellefonte automobile dealers report a heavy demand for cars. One salesman reported that he's having one of the best selling seasons he's ever experienced. "People will buy almost any kind of car," he said. "Model, year, style, color don't seem to make any difference," he claimed, expressing the belief that the public is anxious to get a car of almost any kind before anticipated price rises and before reduction of production quotas makes new cars scarce.

—Thomas Beaver, Jr., son of Thomas B. Beaver, of West Curtin street, departed Saturday for Scranton, where he will spend the summer working for the Hudson Concrete Company. "Tim" has just completed his first year's studies in mining engineering at Penn State. He was accompanied to Scranton by Robert Barraclough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barraclough, of Bellefonte, who was employed by the Hudson Concrete Company last summer. He returned to Bellefonte Sunday.

—Bellefonte High School Alumni Association officials reported yesterday that a check for proceeds of the former Adaline Dinges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dinges, Bellefonte, former residents of Centre Hall.

—Daniel O'Leary, Jr., returned to Bellefonte by rail, Monday night, from Lakewood, Florida, where for more than six months he had been living with the Charles Ketchine family, having gone there to aid in caring for the late Mrs. Charles Ketchine during her last illness. Mr. O'Leary shows plain evidences of his long sojourn in Florida's sunshine and is heavily tanned. His plans for the future are indefinite at this time as he is now at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel O'Leary, on North Penn street.

—H. M. Harper and Dr. P. J. Rowan, both of Pittsburg, were welcome callers at this office Monday while in Bellefonte on a pleasure mission. Mr. Harper, a native of Centre County who spent his early life in this region, for many years has been a subscriber to the Centre Democrat. Dr. Rowan, a stranger to this county, through association with Mr. Harper long ago began reading his friend's paper. As the years passed he grew to like this newspaper and has long expected to visit the Centre County. Mr. Harper has been planning to bring him here for a number of years, and last week their plans materialized. First the two cronies visited the Gettysburg battlefields then came on to Centre County where they spent several days browsing around, taking in the sights and looking up former acquaintances of Mr. Harper's.

—Mrs. Daniel Rhinewalt, of Clearfield, has been the guest the past week at the home of her sister, Mrs. M. A. Kirk on West High Street.

—Harry Atcherson, of East Lamb street, returned home Friday of last week from the Veterans Hospital at Aspinwall, after nearly five months of hospitalization.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wayne W. Weber and little daughter, Dana Lou, of Pike street, spent the weekend in Hummelstown with Mr. Weber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weber.
