

UNIONVILLE

Methodist Church Services:—Sunday School Sunday morning at 9:15. H. E. McElwain, Supt. The regular preaching service immediately following at 10:30 with sermon by the pastor, Rev. M. F. Kenstler, Epworth League in the evening at 6:30 and Prayer service this Thursday evening at the close of which will be held the regular official board meeting.

Free Methodist Church Services:—Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:30 followed by Class meeting; Prayer service Friday evening. No preaching this Sunday on account of the pastor being attending Camp Meeting at Avila, Pa.

Presbyterian Church News:—The regular Monday night Bible Study Class will not be held during the month of August, the pastor, Rev. H. E. Oakwood, having his vacation at this time.

Mrs. Mollie Molt is visiting with relatives in Bellwood, Pa. They have come down by auto and took her up.

Miss Kathryn Smith spent several days last week visiting with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bechtel of Howard, Pa.

Mrs. Donald Fisher and two children are in Pittsburgh this week with friends and relatives also visiting a doctor toward the interest of the health of their daughter.

The 4-H Lunch Box Club of this place will hold their next meeting on August 6th at 9:30 a. m. at the home of Miss Betty Ann McElwain. Everyone come and bring the things assigned.

Mr. John C. Stere and Louise Tingle, who accompanied his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson of Altoona, on a several days outing at Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, and other places of interest along the coast, returned to their home Sunday evening.

Don't forget the Sunday School picnic to be held at Moshannon Park on Thursday afternoon and evening, August 7th. Also bear in mind the picnic supper of the Woman's Society of Christian Service held on the lawn and when the minister arrived found his congregation all outside. It became very comfortable outside and a very enjoyable service was had.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Miss Edith Eckley left this week for State College where she has accepted a position for a time.

Miss Ida M. Groe and lady friend of Moshannon called at the home of Miss Eva Rowan on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fisher and children spent the past weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hall and son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hall of Altoona, called on the former's brother, Mr. Robert Hall, on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nancy Wright of Bellefonte visited for a couple of days this week with Miss Dorothy Kerchner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Kerchner.

The regular monthly meeting of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will be held this Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miles in the form of a picnic.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miles of Union Township, last Wednesday, were Mrs. Ivan Walker, Mrs. Milton Walker, Mrs. Gross of Bellefonte and Mrs. Daniel Reynolds of Bloomsburg, Pa.

Some of the members of the Methodist church gathered at the church on Wednesday and had a general house cleaning of the main auditorium since it has been papered and some repair work done. The Sunday School room will be painted in the near future.

The regular meeting of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held on Monday evening, August 4th in the church, at 7:30. A good attendance is desired at this meeting as some important matters are to be discussed.

The congregation of the Methodist church, who gathered for services Sunday evening, found the temperature so high in the church that they took their chairs out on the lawn and when the minister arrived found his congregation all outside. It became very comfortable outside and a very enjoyable service was had.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Southard and son of Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger having stopped off here on their way on a trip through the New England States and left their son with the grandparents and upon their return came back this way for a couple of days before returning home.

Additional Locals

—Youngster, watching borough employees test fire plugs, Monday, had his own explanation for the reason for opening the plugs. He commented: "They do that to get clean water in the plugs."

—Mrs. Dell D. Dean, of the Orvis apartments, East Curtin street, is spending this week with relatives in Logan and Renovo while her son, David, is at the Boy Scout Camp in the Green Mountains.

—Mrs. Ellis O. Keller and four children, of Mt. Lebanon, Pittsburgh, spent Saturday in Bellefonte with Mrs. Keller's mother-in-law, Mrs. Harry Keller, at her apartment in the Orvis building, East Curtin street.

—The annual picnic of the Bellefonte Methodist Sunday school will be held on Friday, August 1, at Hickory Park. Buses furnished by the church will leave the church at 1:30 p. m. and on the return trip will leave the park at 8:30 p. m.

—A motor party consisting of A. L. McGinley, Sr., Carmen Torsell, Swengel Smith and O. B. Malin, all of Bellefonte, and A. A. Koblbecker, of Milesburg, went to Pittsburgh Sunday, to see a double-header baseball game. Pittsburgh won both games.

—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Royko, of the Coxye apartments, East 10th street, and Mrs. Royko's brother, Frank Wojcik, of Forest City, returned home Sunday from a week's vacation spent at Atlantic City. Mr. Royko is a member of the staff at Rockview sub-station of the State Motor Police.

—J. Boscart DeHaas and sons, Joe and Tom, of East Logan street, and a motor party, including a party for a week's vacation. Enroute they stopped in Philadelphia to attend a baseball game between Detroit and the Athletics, as guests of Lou Dolin, Westinghouse advertising manager in the district of which Bellefonte is a part.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perkins, of Morgantown, near Pittsburgh, spent the latter part of last week in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kline, at their home on East Bishop street. Mrs. Perkins is the former Grace Pellenbaum, who many years ago lived with her parents in the present Martin Cooney family home on West Bishop street.

—Pvt. Walter Weaver, of Camp Shelby, Miss., is spending a ten-day furlough with his brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Boob, at Millheim, and with other relatives and friends in that area. Mr. Weaver is quite well known in Bellefonte, having been employed as a clerk in the jail office when his brother-in-law, John M. Boob, was Sheriff.

—Tomorrow marks the 27th anniversary of the beginning of World War No. 1, and it is to be hoped that the day, this year, will mark the beginning of the end of Hitler's lack of spectacular success in his campaign against Russia, it may be that the present conflict is on the way to an end, with the downfall of Nazi No. 1 and his empire.

—Miss Evelyn Saylor, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Miss Angelina Barabro of Olean, N. Y., were in Bellefonte during the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Saylor of Valentine Street. Miss Saylor was transferred from the Western Union office in Bellefonte two months ago to Olean, N. Y., and about ten days ago was again transferred to the Niagara Falls office as bookkeeper and operator.

—Miss Marion Volynch, of West Bishop street, secretary in the office of E. K. Stock, supervising principal of Bellefonte schools, departed during the weekend for a two weeks' vacation which she is spending as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henri Ayres, of New York City, at a farm they recently purchased near Clinton, N. Y. Mrs. Ayres is the former Mrs. Amelia Carpeneto, daughter of Mrs. Louis Carpeneto, of Bellefonte.

—Last week the power shovel at the Bellefonte school site completed excavation work and was placed at one corner of the playgrounds on Lamb street until it is needed for back-filling operations. Activities at the site are now less spectacular than when the shovel was in operation, and the work continues without benefit of the large number of spectators who were drawn to the scene when the shovel was working.

—Miss Rose Marie Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Callahan, of Williamsport, and Kenneth P. Hoag, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Hoag, of North Thomas street, Bellefonte, will be married Sunday, August 18, in the Church of the Annunciation, Williamsport. Miss Callahan attended Dickinson Seminary and Bucknell University. Mr. Hoag, a graduate of the Bellefonte High School and the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science, is employed as a pharmacist in Williamsport.

—The 6-foot fish weathervane atop the Centre county Court House, together with the ball and iron tripping below the fish were given a fresh coat of bronze paint last week by Ralph Rote, of Aronsburg. Mr. Rote also made necessary repairs to the system of lightning rods on the Court House. When asked why the dome of the Court House was not given a fresh coat of paint before the firemen's convention here next month, a spokesman for the board remarked facetiously, "We'll let the firemen do that!"

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

PINE GROVE MILLS

Don't forget the Quinn sale, Aug. 8 at 9:30 a. m. an excellent bunch of stock and good line of farm equipment. A clean up sale.

Our efficient school janitor Howard (Pete) Harpster, is a patient in the Centre County Hospital, having submitted to an appendix operation. At this writing he is doing fine and will be home in a few days.

Mrs. Estella Lenberg is enjoying two weeks vacation with friends in New York State.

The Lester Horner family recently flitted from the Wilbur Haffner home on N. Water Street to the David Barr homestead on the Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. William Swartz of State College were short callers Thursday evening with friends in West Ferguson.

The school bus drivers for 1941-42 are Royal Kline, Stine Walker, J. H. Gihman, Gilbert Barto and Carl Gates.

One of our young up-to-date farmers, Jim Lake is now milking the modern way with a new Delaware machine installed last week by the John H. Bailey agency.

Carpenter Dan Wagner and daughter of Strubles Station were business visitors in town last Saturday evening. The Wagners left Sunday for two weeks fishing for big stuff, vacation in British Columbia, where sun isn't as hot as in Ferguson Twp. the past week.

Chief butter maker of the Morrison Cove Dairy Milk, Inc. of the Mt. City, Ralph Swartz, wife and daughter enjoyed their annual vacation last week with Mrs. Swartz's

University, Upland, Ind., where Rev. Brooks recently completed a missionary course.

—Rumor has it that of the hospital sites inspected several weeks ago, five remain under consideration, and Bellefonte is among the five.

—Mrs. Paul Croarkin returned to her home in Washington, D. C., last Thursday after having spent several weeks in Bellefonte as a guest of her brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daly at their home on West Bishop street. Mrs. Croarkin made the trip home as driving guest of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Boob, at Millheim, and with other relatives and friends in that area. Mr. Weaver is quite well known in Bellefonte, having been employed as a clerk in the jail office when his brother-in-law, John M. Boob, was Sheriff.

—Miss Evelyn Saylor, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Miss Angelina Barabro of Olean, N. Y., were in Bellefonte during the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Saylor of Valentine Street. Miss Saylor was transferred from the Western Union office in Bellefonte two months ago to Olean, N. Y., and about ten days ago was again transferred to the Niagara Falls office as bookkeeper and operator.

—Miss Marion Volynch, of West Bishop street, secretary in the office of E. K. Stock, supervising principal of Bellefonte schools, departed during the weekend for a two weeks' vacation which she is spending as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henri Ayres, of New York City, at a farm they recently purchased near Clinton, N. Y. Mrs. Ayres is the former Mrs. Amelia Carpeneto, daughter of Mrs. Louis Carpeneto, of Bellefonte.

—Last week the power shovel at the Bellefonte school site completed excavation work and was placed at one corner of the playgrounds on Lamb street until it is needed for back-filling operations. Activities at the site are now less spectacular than when the shovel was in operation, and the work continues without benefit of the large number of spectators who were drawn to the scene when the shovel was working.

—Miss Rose Marie Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Callahan, of Williamsport, and Kenneth P. Hoag, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Hoag, of North Thomas street, Bellefonte, will be married Sunday, August 18, in the Church of the Annunciation, Williamsport. Miss Callahan attended Dickinson Seminary and Bucknell University. Mr. Hoag, a graduate of the Bellefonte High School and the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science, is employed as a pharmacist in Williamsport.

—The 6-foot fish weathervane atop the Centre county Court House, together with the ball and iron tripping below the fish were given a fresh coat of bronze paint last week by Ralph Rote, of Aronsburg. Mr. Rote also made necessary repairs to the system of lightning rods on the Court House. When asked why the dome of the Court House was not given a fresh coat of paint before the firemen's convention here next month, a spokesman for the board remarked facetiously, "We'll let the firemen do that!"

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

—Rev. and Mrs. W. Orville Brooks recently arrived in Bellefonte where Rev. Brooks has become pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance Tabernacle on East Howard Street. Rev. and Mrs. Brooks, both missionaries, have been doing missionary work in the Near East since 1924, and were booked to sail on the ill-fated Zam Zam, but cancelled reservations on the boat when their permits failed to arrive in time. Mrs. Brooks is conducting services at the tabernacle while her husband is attending a two weeks' camp near Mahaffey. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks came to Bellefonte from Taylor

parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barto. The Schilling sisters Lois and Doris were last week pleasant visitors in Altoona, guests at the home of their aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barton and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Miller. They returned home Sunday.

Prof. and Mrs. Robert Lannen of Chester, Pa. are in Centre County with their relatives for their annual vacation at the Robert, Reed and E. T. Parsons homes and with friends in Bellefonte.

Painter George Smith is driving a new Plymouth sedan purchased from the State College Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Albright, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Albright, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Harpster, enjoyed the cool breezes of old Tussey Mountain Saturday and Sunday last, at the Scholls Gap hunting camp, a luscious dinner was main event.

The Johnston Bros. agency delivered a W-60 Allis-Chalmers tractor last week to Samuel M. Hess on the Branch and now Sam will farm the modern way.

Rev. Albert Groendyke, wife, daughter and son, departed Tuesday for a four weeks vacation with their home folks in Grand Rapids, Mich.

"Foxy" Pullan of State College in his new Chrysler sedan accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Rebecca Ewing and Miss Jean Tyson were brief callers in our burg last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Margaret Sunday and daughter Mrs. Waldo Homan of Oak Hill were last Thursday guests at the Paul Sunday home on Tappan.

University, Upland, Ind., where Rev. Brooks recently completed a missionary course.

—Rumor has it that of the hospital sites inspected several weeks ago, five remain under consideration, and Bellefonte is among the five.

—Mrs. Paul Croarkin returned to her home in Washington, D. C., last Thursday after having spent several weeks in Bellefonte as a guest of her brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daly at their home on West Bishop street. Mrs. Croarkin made the trip home as driving guest of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Boob, at Millheim, and with other relatives and friends in that area. Mr. Weaver is quite well known in Bellefonte, having been employed as a clerk in the jail office when his brother-in-law, John M. Boob, was Sheriff.

—Miss Evelyn Saylor, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Miss Angelina Barabro of Olean, N. Y., were in Bellefonte during the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Saylor of Valentine Street. Miss Saylor was transferred from the Western Union office in Bellefonte two months ago to Olean, N. Y., and about ten days ago was again transferred to the Niagara Falls office as bookkeeper and operator.

—Miss Marion Volynch, of West Bishop street, secretary in the office of E. K. Stock, supervising principal of Bellefonte schools, departed during the weekend for a two weeks' vacation which she is spending as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henri Ayres, of New York City, at a farm they recently purchased near Clinton, N. Y. Mrs. Ayres is the former Mrs. Amelia Carpeneto, daughter of Mrs. Louis Carpeneto, of Bellefonte.

—Last week the power shovel at the Bellefonte school site completed excavation work and was placed at one corner of the playgrounds on Lamb street until it is needed for back-filling operations. Activities at the site are now less spectacular than when the shovel was in operation, and the work continues without benefit of the large number of spectators who were drawn to the scene when the shovel was working.

—Miss Rose Marie Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Callahan, of Williamsport, and Kenneth P. Hoag