

LOCALS

—M. E. Houser, of Cleveland Ohio, is spending his annual summer vacation with his mother, Mrs. P. A. Brooks, at Pleasant Gap.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mallory, of the Hazel apartments, North Allegheny street, expect to depart tomorrow for a week's vacation at Atlantic City.

—Mrs. T. R. Morgan of Philadelphia, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday and is at the home of Mrs. M. A. Kirk and family on West High Street.

—A motor party consisting of Jake Monnell, Bob Fromm, Frank McGovern and Stryl Rocky set out for the weekend at Rehoboth Beach, Del., and Atlantic City.

—Mrs. Frank Scott and Mrs. Gertrude White, both of Cleveland, O., returned to their homes Friday, after a visit in Bellefonte with Mrs. Scott's sister, Mrs. Levia Martin, of West Bishop street.

—Miss Sue Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Armstrong, of East Bishop street, and an employe of the local Bell Telephone exchange, is undergoing special instruction this week in Lebanon.

—Miss Virginia Bertram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bertram, is spending a month's vacation at her home along Spring Creek. She is a junior at the Allegheny General Hospital School of Nursing, Pittsburgh, Pa.

—Mothers of Banjo Band members will serve hot meals in the Y. M. C. A. for visiting firemen next Thursday. Band members must attend rehearsal Monday night, which will be followed by a short business meeting.

—Lester Lohselle, of Wilkes-Barre, a field representative for the United States Department of Labor, was a business visitor in Bellefonte Tuesday, and was a guest overnight of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daly and family at their home on West Bishop street.

—Miss Harriet Showers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Showers, of Pleasant Gap, on Monday resumed her duties in the Bell Telephone Company business office after spending a two weeks' vacation at Rehoboth Beach, Del., and Allentown.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dempsey, recently of Harrisburg, have leased the Mrs. Elizabeth Hazel apartment on East Logan street. Mr. Dempsey, an employe of the Bell Telephone Company, is here to aid in the installation of lines and equipment for dial telephones.

—The Misses Nancy and Jane Wright, daughters of Mrs. Mary Wright, of the Baum apartments, East Curtin street, are spending a week's vacation with relatives and friends in Philadelphia. Mrs. Wright is with relatives in Unionville during their absence.

—Miss Mae Toner, night supervisor at the local telephone exchange, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from her duties. The Toner family last week moved from their former home on East Howard street to the corner of Spring and Curtin streets.

—Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Purnell, of East Curtin street, are rejoicing over the arrival of their first child, a son, born at 11:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the Centre County Hospital. The youngster, who weighs eight pounds, has been named Richard Thiele Purnell. Both he and Mrs. Purnell are reported to be getting along nicely.

—Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walters, along the Jacksonville road east of town, included Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Walters, of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harster and children, Pauline and Dean, and Mrs. Adna Harster, all of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Lal and family, Ray, Jr. and Ronnie, of Bellefonte, R. D. 3.

—Edward Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson, of East Lamb street, who since November had been employed at Niagara Falls, has terminated his work there and arrived in Bellefonte during the latter part of the week. Saturday he and his mother motored to Elmira, N. Y., to spend the weekend with Mrs. Nelson's brother, Robert Ward and family.

—Monday morning's sun freezing temperatures and bright sunny skies were reminiscent of Halloween, pumpkin pies, cider, football, the pungent aroma of burning leaves, and the other accoutrements of fall. Mr. and Mrs. Adna Harster, all of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Lal and family, Ray, Jr. and Ronnie, of Bellefonte, R. D. 3.

—Mrs. Edna Thomas, of Philadelphia, a caller at this office Tuesday afternoon, is spending some time in Centre County among friends in the Milesburg and Port Matilda areas. Mrs. Thomas' husband, the late Rev. Joseph B. Thomas, died about eight years ago while he was pastor of the Port Matilda Baptist church, and since that time Mrs. Thomas has made her home in Philadelphia. The Rev. Mr. Thomas was pastor of the Milesburg Baptist church about 20 years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Struble and daughter, of Montrose, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Struble's respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Struble, at Pleasant Gap, R. D. 2, and Mr. and Mrs. James Kline, of Pine Grove Mills. The Strubles brought with them a monster wall-eyed pike which Mr. Struble caught last Thursday while angling in the Susquehanna River near Montrose. The fish weighed 6 1/2 pounds and measured 27 inches in length, and is reported to be the largest pike caught in that area this season. Mr. Struble hooked the monster on a plug.

—Lewis Carpeneto, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Carpeneto, of the Keystone apartments, North Allegheny street, who has been with the U. S. Air Corps at Bolling Field, Va., for the past several months, has solved the problem of writing relatives and friends. He has had part of every Sunday writing a miniature newspaper called "Bolling Letters," of which he makes as many copies as necessary, and mails to his list of correspondents. Lewis' letters are breezy, witty, and interesting. He has promised his relatives and friends that he will set it off in a paragraph headed with the name of the person for whom it is intended. All readers, of course, get the same letter, so there's practically no privacy in the correspondence, but this he doesn't know what you have to do to get on Carpeneto's mailing list, but we hereby make application to become a regular subscriber.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beck of Burrows street, are the proud parents of a daughter born Friday at the Centre County Hospital.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Stewart, of East Linn street, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Witmer, of East Bishop street, are spending this week in New York City.

—Mr. and Mrs. Mac Bryan and daughter, Sarah, and Miss Betty Saylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Saylor, all of Penn street, spent Sunday at Hershey Park, Hershey.

—Mr. and Mrs. Willard VanCamp and daughter, of Pittsburgh, spent the weekend with Mrs. VanCamp's mother, Mrs. Martha Evay, at Howards street, with relatives and friends in the Bellefonte area.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Price, of Williamsport, were weekend guests of the P. M. Dubbs family, of East Linn street. The Prices resided in Bellefonte for some years before going to Williamsport.

—After spending two months with relatives in various parts of Pennsylvania and New York, Mrs. Sarah C. Alexander, Saturday, her apartment in the Friedman building, South Allegheny street.

—Miss Isabelle Grove, of E. Linn street, teacher of the second grade of the Bishop street school, returned home Sunday after completing a six weeks' course at the University of Wisconsin, at Madison, Wis.

—Miss Kathryn Coble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coble, of Penn street, returned to the offices of the Centre County Hospital, is spending a week's vacation with relatives and friends in Cincinnati, Ohio.

—James C. Bower, of Indian-town Gap, and Miss Margaret Bitter, of Middletown, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with Mr. Bower's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Alexander, at their home on East Curtin street.

—Mrs. John O. Talbot and son, Jack, were in Bellefonte for a few hours Saturday while on their way home to Detroit, Mich., after a visit in New Jersey with Mrs. Talbot's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Hunter.

—Jack Kusse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Kusse, of West Linn street, returned to Camp Shelby, Miss., during the weekend after having spent a two weeks' convalescent furlough at his parental home here. He is a member of Battery B, 190th Field Artillery, of Bellefonte.

—From the appearance of Bellefonte's streets Saturday night, parking meters didn't keep anyone from coming to Bellefonte. Of course the meters are not effective after 9 p. m., but even before that time parking spaces, even the metered ones, were at a premium.

—Miss Mae Toner, night supervisor at the local telephone exchange, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from her duties. The Toner family last week moved from their former home on East Howard street to the corner of Spring and Curtin streets.

—Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Purnell, of East Curtin street, are rejoicing over the arrival of their first child, a son, born at 11:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the Centre County Hospital. The youngster, who weighs eight pounds, has been named Richard Thiele Purnell. Both he and Mrs. Purnell are reported to be getting along nicely.

—Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walters, along the Jacksonville road east of town, included Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Walters, of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harster and children, Pauline and Dean, and Mrs. Adna Harster, all of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Lal and family, Ray, Jr. and Ronnie, of Bellefonte, R. D. 3.

—Edward Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson, of East Lamb street, who since November had been employed at Niagara Falls, has terminated his work there and arrived in Bellefonte during the latter part of the week. Saturday he and his mother motored to Elmira, N. Y., to spend the weekend with Mrs. Nelson's brother, Robert Ward and family.

—Monday morning's sun freezing temperatures and bright sunny skies were reminiscent of Halloween, pumpkin pies, cider, football, the pungent aroma of burning leaves, and the other accoutrements of fall. Mr. and Mrs. Adna Harster, all of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Lal and family, Ray, Jr. and Ronnie, of Bellefonte, R. D. 3.

—Mrs. Edna Thomas, of Philadelphia, a caller at this office Tuesday afternoon, is spending some time in Centre County among friends in the Milesburg and Port Matilda areas. Mrs. Thomas' husband, the late Rev. Joseph B. Thomas, died about eight years ago while he was pastor of the Port Matilda Baptist church, and since that time Mrs. Thomas has made her home in Philadelphia. The Rev. Mr. Thomas was pastor of the Milesburg Baptist church about 20 years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Struble and daughter, of Montrose, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Struble's respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Struble, at Pleasant Gap, R. D. 2, and Mr. and Mrs. James Kline, of Pine Grove Mills. The Strubles brought with them a monster wall-eyed pike which Mr. Struble caught last Thursday while angling in the Susquehanna River near Montrose. The fish weighed 6 1/2 pounds and measured 27 inches in length, and is reported to be the largest pike caught in that area this season. Mr. Struble hooked the monster on a plug.

—Lewis Carpeneto, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Carpeneto, of the Keystone apartments, North Allegheny street, who has been with the U. S. Air Corps at Bolling Field, Va., for the past several months, has solved the problem of writing relatives and friends. He has had part of every Sunday writing a miniature newspaper called "Bolling Letters," of which he makes as many copies as necessary, and mails to his list of correspondents. Lewis' letters are breezy, witty, and interesting. He has promised his relatives and friends that he will set it off in a paragraph headed with the name of the person for whom it is intended. All readers, of course, get the same letter, so there's practically no privacy in the correspondence, but this he doesn't know what you have to do to get on Carpeneto's mailing list, but we hereby make application to become a regular subscriber.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Bloom, of Shiloh Church, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Zettle and family, of Johnstown, returned home Saturday from a week's motor trip as far north as Toronto, Canada. The trip was a most enjoyable one, with the exception of an accident which they witnessed near Avon, N. Y. A motorist, apparently falling asleep at the wheel, was instantly killed when his car struck a telephone pole and broke into flames.

—Special—Dresses, 1 to 6, $1.00. Peacock Kiddie Shop, High street, Bellefonte, Pa.

—Mrs. Charles Wagner and five children departed last Wednesday for a motor trip to New York City, to be guests for a week of Mrs. Wagner's sister and her family.

—Mrs. Earl Cartwright, of East Bishop street, spent the latter part of the week in Williamsport as a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Otterbein and family.

—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Clendon and sons, Danny and Frank, moved last Wednesday from State College into one of the Brooks apartments in the former Grauer home on East Linn street.

—School starts September 3rd. Have you had your children's eyes examined? Helping children's eyes often enables them to progress faster. See Dr. Howard F. Bauer, Optometrist, Crossley's Jewelry Store, Bellefonte, Pa.

—Mrs. Green Jordan, of Washington, Pa., and her son, Lyman T. Green, and daughter, of Lorain, Ohio, while on a motor trip east stopped off in Bellefonte Saturday for a brief visit with Mrs. Green's aunt, Mrs. Michael Lamb.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Geary and son, Thomas, III, of South Ardmore, Delaware county, are in Bellefonte for a visit with Mrs. Geary's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Howard, of Reynolds avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. Carroll W. Johnson, Holland, motored to Youngstown, Ohio Thursday last week, where they expect to visit for several weeks. Mr. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Chauncey York.

—Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Pollard and family have made arrangements to move in the near future from the eastern side of the Spicer double house on West Logan street, into one of the Owens houses on East Bishop street.

—Mr. and Mrs. William T. White, of the Henderson apartments, East High street, expect to move this week to Altoona, where Mr. White, a field representative for the Commercial Credit Company, will be stationed in the future.

—Mrs. M. B. Runkle, of North Spring street, early last week underwent an operation at the Centre County Hospital for the removal of a cyst on one finger. Mrs. Runkle remained in the institution overnight and is now at home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Heverly and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kline, of Bellefonte, spent the weekend in the Pocono Mountains as guests of Mrs. Klinger's sister, Miss Dorothy Bowmaster, of State College, who is there for a two weeks' vacation.

—Mrs. John Burnett and sons, Robert and Ronald, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., were guests this past week with Mrs. Burnett's mother, Mrs. John Burnett, at the home of Mrs. Burnett visited her sister in Wilkes-Barre, before coming to Centre county.

—Bellefonte High School football coach John Miller last night announced that fall practice will begin at 9 a. m. Monday morning, August 25. All candidates for berths on the team are asked to report that morning at the Spring street gymnasium.

—Ralph Moerschbacher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moerschbacher, of East Bishop street, departed Monday for Altoona, Moerschbacher, employed by the Bell Telephone Company in the Bellefonte area for the past several months, has been transferred to the Altoona district.

—Mr. Nevin Robb and two children, who for some months have been making their home with Mr. Robb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Robb and family on East Curtin street, moved early this week into the second floor apartment of the Hart home on North Spring street.

—Pvt. Samuel McKinley, stationed at Fort Meade, Md., returned to camp yesterday after spending a one-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Mary McKinley, of near Bellefonte, and with Miss Ann Rocky, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rocky, near Pleasant Gap.

—Mrs. Florence Decker and Miss Mary Moore, of Waynesboro, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Kathryn Nitchman, at the Harry Clevens home on East Bishop street. Miss Moore was a resident of Bellefonte many years ago when her father was in charge of the local telegraph office.

—Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hazel, of East High street, entertained at a family dinner at their cottage along Spring Creek last Wednesday evening, in honor of Mr. Hazel's birthday anniversary. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Heverly, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Houser, all of Bellefonte.

—Miss Virginia Snyder and her brother, W. Cordes Snyder, III, and their nurse, Miss Jean Carwin, all of Sewickley, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cordes Snyder, at their home on East Linn street. Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder attended the wedding in Hollidaysburg of Anna Duncan Hartman, daughter of Mrs. Mary Duncan Hartman, of Hollidaysburg, to Dr. Paul Good, of Easton. The wedding was solemnized in the Hollidaysburg Episcopal church.

—Last week in these columns it was reported that announcement of the engagement of Miss Caroline Virginia Torsell and Girard S. Basinger, both of Bellefonte, had been made at a party held at the Penn Belle Hotel. After publication we were informed that a party had been held at the Penn Belle but that no such announcement was made. Our original information was submitted by mail in the form of a neatly-typed, intelligently-worded note, which was unsigned. We relaxed our rule against publishing false information because of the obvious intelligence of the writer, because of his or her apparent knowledge of the two persons and their families, and because we believe the envelope bore the name of the sender, although the envelope has been mislaid and this cannot be proved. In connection with the unfortunate and embarrassing incident we remind the writer of the note that the law provides severe penalties for wilfully furnishing false information to newspapers.

—All bathing suits, 2 to 8 years. $1.00. Peacock Kiddie Shop, High street, Bellefonte, Pa.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin, Jr., of West Linn street, departed Saturday for a week's vacation at Rehoboth Beach, Delaware.

—Miss Ruth Poorman, of Bush Addition, returned to her duties in the National Gypsum Company offices, Monday, after a week's vacation.

—Messrs. John Thomas and John Kelley, highly respected residents of Port Matilda, Pa., were callers at our office Tuesday while in town on business.

—William C. Clevens, of Washington, D. C., while on a visit to Centre county with relatives over the weekend, was a caller at our office Saturday.

—Centre County Prothonotary Bond C. White and Mrs. White, of Alexandria, departed Friday for a trip on the Great Lakes as far west as Duluth, Minn.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Rachau, of North Penn street, Saturday attended the funeral of Mrs. Rachau's uncle, Richard Snedden, who died Wednesday at his home in Kyrletown.

—Miss Cecelia Moerschbacher returned to her home in Pittsburgh Sunday, after a week's vacation with her mother, Mrs. Mary Moerschbacher, at her home on South Thomas street.

—Mrs. William C. Rowe and son, Holland, motored to Youngstown, Ohio Thursday last week, where they expect to visit for several weeks. Mr. Rowe's sister, Mrs. Chauncey York.

—Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Pollard and family have made arrangements to move in the near future from the eastern side of the Spicer double house on West Logan street, into one of the Owens houses on East Bishop street.

—Mr. and Mrs. William T. White, of the Henderson apartments, East High street, expect to move this week to Altoona, where Mr. White, a field representative for the Commercial Credit Company, will be stationed in the future.

—Mrs. M. B. Runkle, of North Spring street, early last week underwent an operation at the Centre County Hospital for the removal of a cyst on one finger. Mrs. Runkle remained in the institution overnight and is now at home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Heverly and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kline, of Bellefonte, spent the weekend in the Pocono Mountains as guests of Mrs. Klinger's sister, Miss Dorothy Bowmaster, of State College, who is there for a two weeks' vacation.

—Mrs. John Burnett and sons, Robert and Ronald, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., were guests this past week with Mrs. Burnett's mother, Mrs. John Burnett, at the home of Mrs. Burnett visited her sister in Wilkes-Barre, before coming to Centre county.

—Bellefonte High School football coach John Miller last night announced that fall practice will begin at 9 a. m. Monday morning, August 25. All candidates for berths on the team are asked to report that morning at the Spring street gymnasium.

—Ralph Moerschbacher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moerschbacher, of East Bishop street, departed Monday for Altoona, Moerschbacher, employed by the Bell Telephone Company in the Bellefonte area for the past several months, has been transferred to the Altoona district.

—Mr. Nevin Robb and two children, who for some months have been making their home with Mr. Robb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Robb and family on East Curtin street, moved early this week into the second floor apartment of the Hart home on North Spring street.

—Pvt. Samuel McKinley, stationed at Fort Meade, Md., returned to camp yesterday after spending a one-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Mary McKinley, of near Bellefonte, and with Miss Ann Rocky, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rocky, near Pleasant Gap.

—Mrs. Florence Decker and Miss Mary Moore, of Waynesboro, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Kathryn Nitchman, at the Harry Clevens home on East Bishop street. Miss Moore was a resident of Bellefonte many years ago when her father was in charge of the local telegraph office.

—Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hazel, of East High street, entertained at a family dinner at their cottage along Spring Creek last Wednesday evening, in honor of Mr. Hazel's birthday anniversary. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Heverly, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Houser, all of Bellefonte.

—Miss Virginia Snyder and her brother, W. Cordes Snyder, III, and their nurse, Miss Jean Carwin, all of Sewickley, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cordes Snyder, at their home on East Linn street. Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder attended the wedding in Hollidaysburg of Anna Duncan Hartman, daughter of Mrs. Mary Duncan Hartman, of Hollidaysburg, to Dr. Paul Good, of Easton. The wedding was solemnized in the Hollidaysburg Episcopal church.

—Last week in these columns it was reported that announcement of the engagement of Miss Caroline Virginia Torsell and Girard S. Basinger, both of Bellefonte, had been made at a party held at the Penn Belle Hotel. After publication we were informed that a party had been held at the Penn Belle but that no such announcement was made. Our original information was submitted by mail in the form of a neatly-typed, intelligently-worded note, which was unsigned. We relaxed our rule against publishing false information because of the obvious intelligence of the writer, because of his or her apparent knowledge of the two persons and their families, and because we believe the envelope bore the name of the sender, although the envelope has been mislaid and this cannot be proved. In connection with the unfortunate and embarrassing incident we remind the writer of the note that the law provides severe penalties for wilfully furnishing false information to newspapers.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

30,000 People Read This Column

every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived, it is undisputedly Centre County's Community Bargain Counter.

RATES—Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisement contains more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged.

REAL ESTATE—A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

KEYED ADS—All advertisements that request replies to be mailed to this office, must be complied with by those answering the advertisements. Please do not call at the office for information concerning such advertisements, as the publishers are not permitted to divulge the name of the advertiser.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat is entitled to a 25-word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

Slack suits—sizes 1 to 10, 95c. Peacock Kiddie Shop, High street, Bellefonte, Pa.

WANTED—To buy all kinds of live-stock. Bruno Krumpal, Pleasant Gap, Pa. Phone Bellefonte 476-1. All reverse charges if any. 141

WANTED—To buy cattle and hogs of any kind. Also trade or buy bull. Inquire of Hubert Neil, Bellefonte R. D. 2 Phone 729-R-2. 211

Articles for Sale

FOR SALE—Timothy seed, Mrs. John Matz, Hubersburg, Pa. 235

FOR SALE—1930 Chevrolet sedan, in good shape. Isaac Hoyt, Julian Pa. 234

FOR SALE—Timothy Seed, C. E. Yarnell, Phone Bellefonte 657-R-1 234

FOR SALE—Wood sash, 12x30 feet, used one year. Hugh C. Dale, State College, Pa. 235

FOR SALE—A 1938 Oldsmobile coupe in good condition. Inquire of Philip Shoppe, Howard, Pa. 233

FOR SALE—Winter seed barley 75c a bu. Inquire of Glenn McCloskey, R. D. 2, Bellefonte, Pa. 233

FOR SALE—A Healdora goat as new price $25 cash. Mrs. Zora Rines, 114 Pike St., Bellefonte, Pa. 234

FOR SALE—Magic Chef table-top gas range like new. Cheap, to quick buyer. Phone Bellefonte 706-J. 234

FOR SALE—Steam heating plant. Boiler and radiators for six-room house. Phone Bellefonte 206-J. 233

FOR SALE—1 used electric range and 1 used electric refrigerator at the Electric Supply Co., Bellefonte, Pa. 233

FOR SALE—The famous Adams county peaches. Place your order with W. H. Macker, Bellefonte curb market. 235

FOR SALE—Some old antique furniture. Call Meida E. East, 100 E. 1st, mile from Cormans gas station, Port Matilda, R. D. 2. 233

FOR SALE—Two heating stoves, all in good condition. Inquire of Mrs. Fern Rupert, Howard, Pa. 233

FOR SALE—A 1932 Chevrolet Tudor sedan, fair shape, good tires. Inquire of Ivan Lingle, Spring Mills, Pa. Home evenings. 235

FOR SALE—Farm time at price farmers can afford to pay. Inquire of C. M. Long, Howard, R. D. 2, Phone 1913 (Nittany). 211

GUNS—Bought, sold and exchanged. Inquire at the Western Auto Associate store, Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 750. 141

FOR SALE—Coal and wood. I haul ashes away at a low rate. Call 347-J for prices. Sam Capperelli, Bellefonte, Pa. R. D. 1, Coleridge. 141

FOR SALE—Made to measure, all wool suits and topcoats $22.50. Dress shirts made to measure. W. P. Smith, 212 W. Bishop St., Bellefonte, Pa. 234

FOR SALE—A four can milk cooler, 20-gallon capacity, 30" high. Inquire of list price. Inquire H. L. Salmon Service Station, Route 64, Mill Hill, Pa. 234

FOR SALE—1941 Silver King tractor, with plow. Fully equipped, electric lights, starter power take off and pulley. Mrs. John Matz, Hubersburg, Pa. 234

FOR SALE—112 rats killed with can of Schutt's Red Squill hamster, 24 animals. Guaranteed money refunded. O. A. Kline Hardware, Bellefonte, Pa. 234

FOR SALE—Automatic gas water heater, almost new, clean, good condition, no further use for it. Inquire of John Matz, Hubersburg, Pa. 234

FOR SALE—Chevrolet School bus with 1935 body and all safety gear throughout in good condition. Inquire of John Balash, Clover Park, State College, Pa. 233

FOR SALE—New brick, sand, limestone. Special prices for loads of brick (2000). Also general hauling. Lloyd W. Lucas, Milesburg, Phone Bellefonte 425-R-1. 234

FOR SALE—Pickles, any size, any amount, by the 100 or by the bushel. Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. Harry M. Shreckenshaft, Farmington, Pa. 234

STONE CRUSHING—We are crushing stones for farms and others in Penna Valley, Brush Valley and Sugar Valley. For particulars write E. B. Biery, West Main Street, Hutersburg, Pa. 235

FOR SALE—Young barred rock roosters. Sam Burris, R. D. 3, Bellefonte, Pa. 233

CHICKS—New Hampshire, Barred Rocks, White Leghorns, Utility Males, 75-90 selected matings $8.50 per 100. Hecla Poultry Farm, Bellefonte, Pa. Telephone Zion 231. 1611

BABY CHICKS—Baby Chicks and Started Chicks of quality, and variety. See what you can get. Good electric battery bins—Black and White Giants, Orpingtons, Reds, Rocks, Buff Orpingtons, Australorps, Anconas, Brahmas, Polish, and hybrid Rock-Giants—all hatched from blood tested selected flocks. Wholesale price from 74c and upward, at Loach Supply Company, Jersey Shore, Pa. 235

FOR SALE—Holstein cow, will produce milk, call for particulars. Inquire of J. E. Witmer, R. D. 2, Bellefonte, Pa. 233

FOR SALE—Holstein bull, ready for service. Harry R. Wolfe, Centre Hall, Pa. Phone 175-R-31. 233

FOR SALE—One nice young sow with 7 pigs and a shoat, weighing 125 lbs. Call Meida E. East, 100 E. 1st, mile from Cormans gas station, Port Matilda, R. D. 2. 233

FOR SALE—Holstein cow, will produce milk, call for particulars. Inquire of J. E. Witmer, R. D. 2, Bellefonte, Pa. 233

FOR SALE—A horse 10 years old, inquire of David Rhoads, 100 E. 1st, mile from Cormans gas station, Port Matilda, R. D. 2. Please call in evenings. 233

FOR SALE—A team of mules or will trade on tractor. Also 2 Guernsey cows, call for particulars. Inquire of L. B. Chilcote, Bellefonte, R. D. 3. 233

FARMERS—Penn Valley Sales barn, Centre Hall, Pa., holds sale every Tuesday. Bring your live stock and farm products. Exchange, Newman S. Jordan, Bellefonte, R. D. 2, Phone 732-4. 233

FOR SALE—Two good Holstein cows and a Guernsey cow, all with second calves by their sides. L. O. Corman, Beech Creek, Pa. Phone Beech Creek, 1513. 233

FOR SALE—A team horses and harness, good for farm or city. East weighing 1300 lbs., one bay mare, 1500 lbs., one sorrel horse 1600 lbs. Call Meida E. East, 100 E. 1st, mile from Cormans gas station, Port Matilda, R. D. 2. 233

FOR SALE—Some Presian kittens, tortoise and red. Inquire of Mrs. George Long, Centre Hall, R. F. D. 233

Dogs, Pets, Etc.

FOR SALE—Some Presian kittens, tortoise and red. Inquire of Mrs. George Long, Centre Hall, R. F. D. 233

Real Estate - For Sale