Girl Stunned by Lightning Beatrice May Andrews, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Andrews, of Lock Haven, and her pet dog were stunned by lightning Friday evening during the severe electrical storm, when she was in the cellar getting the dog. The lightning struck a tree outside the cellar window and was deflected, numbing both girl and dog. Hearing her cry out, an older brother, Richard, 15, went to her aid and worked with her for 15 minutes before he was able to restore normal circulation. The dog did not appear to have been affected as severely as his mistress.

BILLIONS IN GOLD IDE IN ENGLISH BANK Piled up in the vaults of the Bank of England are hoards of gold and treasure, unclaimed for years. Now efforts are being made to use the wealth against enemies of Great Britain. Don't miss this unusual story in the August 31st issue of the American Weekly, the big magazine distributed through the Baltimore Sunday American. On sale at all newsstands.
