

This Week In Defense

Navy Ships

Fourteen new ships were launched in "Liberty Fleet Day" ceremonies held at shipyards on Saturday, September 27, at Baltimore, Md., Los Angeles, Calif., Richmond, Va., Portland, Ore., Quincy, Mass., Chesapeake, Pa., Keary, N. J., Pascagoula, Miss., Seattle, Wash., and Wilmington, Del. The Navy announced launching of the battleship Massachusetts, three minesweepers—Summit, Guide and Ideal, and the submarine chaser PC515.

Aid to Britain, Russia

The Navy Department announced 16 British and Free French warships currently in United States ports, and said 12 others already have left U. S. ports where they had put in for repairs or supplies. The War Department said 59 officers and enlisted men of the British armored corps are studying American methods at the Army Armored Force School at Fort Knox, Ky. Treasury Secretary Morgenthau announced the Soviet Government has already repaid in gold "a little more than half" of the $10,000,000 advanced by the U. S. Treasury to Russia in August.

Production

Assistant Attorney General Arnold, speaking at Yosemite, Calif., said "there is not an organized basic industry in the U. S. which has not been restricting production" to avoid what they fear may be ruinous overproduction after the war. They have concealed shortages by over-optimistic predictions about supplies.

Small Business

Director Odium of the OPM Contract Distribution Division announced between 100 and 200 offices to help small shops and businessmen get defense work will be opened soon. Already scheduled are offices in Hartford, Conn., Providence, R. I., Youngstown, Dayton and Columbus, O., Indianapolis, Ind., Rochester and Albany, N. Y., Portland, Me., Springfield, Ill., Springfield, Mass., Trenton, N. J., Wichita, Kan., and Spokane, Wash. Existing offices at Harrisburg, Wilkes-Barre and Allentown, Pa. will be enlarged and the present 39 offices of the abolished Defense Contract Service will continue to operate, he said.

Mr. Odium asked 56 major defense contractors to appoint "farming out" directors to cooperate in spreading defense work among smaller firms. He also announced defense contracts with five aluminum um war companies forced to abandon civilian production by shortages and priorities. Contracts such as these to avoid community hardship can be negotiated up to 15 percent above minimum prices, performance bonds can be waived and bid splits allowed to enable pools of small firms to obtain contracts for "bits and pieces."

Army Preparedness Status

Assistant War Secretary McCloy, speaking in Jackson, Mich., said the U. S. has an army and an air force "in the sense that one is in process of production. Some of its elements are prepared to meet any foe." Yet that army is just becoming an army.

He said the army has its full amount of the fundamental weapons—rifles, bayonets, machine guns, artillery, grenades—but does not have its full equipment of light and medium tanks, anti-tank and anti-aircraft weapons. He said there is sufficient equipment for training but heavy production will not come until this winter or next spring. He said the Army has much to learn about the tank-plane and anti-tank plane combinations and "we still have a long way to go in our coordination between air and the ground but we are beginning in earnest in Louisiana now."

He said the plane production "at this time is still not satisfactory as a result of shortages in manufacturing facilities and essential raw materials but it is coming up." He said several U. S. planes far exceed any in the world.

Priorities

Priorities Director Nelson limited production of spare parts for passenger automobiles and light trucks for the period September 15-December 31, 1941 to 60 per cent of the number sold during the first six months this year. SPAB said it will extend to American industry assistance in obtaining repair parts.

Anti-Axis 'Black List'

The State Department added 300 South American firms and individuals to the original Anti-Axis 'Black List' of 1890 names and deleted 65 names where corrective action had been taken since July 17. The new additions included "Air France" and "atl," a French and an Italian airline, and the German news agency "Transocean." Firms placed on the blacklist are automatically deprived of American oil and gasoline and other supplies from this country.

Agriculture

Agriculture Secretary Wickard told Northeastern farm leaders and agricultural workers Britain will need between now and June 30, 1942, cheese, evaporated milk and dried skim milk that will require processing of more than 4 1/2 billion pounds of milk; a billion and a half pounds of pork and lard; about 500 million dozen eggs; 18 million pounds of poetry meat, and quantities of tobacco, vitamin-rich fruits and vegetables. He said the British need a minimum of $1,000,000,000 in food between now and February 28, 1942.

SPAB announced special attention will be given provision of equipment necessary for expanding dairy production to meet domestic and British requirements. The Agriculture Department said total income from farm marketing will reach $10,000,000,000 in 1941.

Prices

Labor Secretary Perkins said food prices continued to rise during the first half of September with biggest increases in pork chops, lard, eggs, and milk. Price Administrator Henderson said election proceedings had begun by "unscrupulous" landlords in various parts of the country against tenants who complained or threatened to complain of rent increases to their local Rent Committee.

Inflation Control, Taxation

The Federal Reserve Board increased reserve cash requirements for member banks about one-seventh, to the present lawful limit. The Board said the action will not prevent credit for defense needs and all legitimate requirements.

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau announced his staff has started work on legislation to limit corporation profits to six percent of invested capital for the duration of the emergency. He said the profit motive in war ought to be eliminated entirely. He said the move would also head off the inflationary trend.

Farm Credit Administration

Governor Black asked a Washington meeting of leading farm leaders to prevent a speculative boom in farm real estate such as brought bankruptcy to thousands of farmers after the World War. He suggested: (1) Basing all appraisals in connection with loans on normal values; (2) impressing present borrowers with the wisdom of using higher income available now to payment of existing debts; (3) encouraging savings to meet future debts; (4) avoiding fostering speculative increases in production without discouraging necessary shifts and increases.

Women and Army Morale

Mrs. William P. Hobby, Chief of the Women's Section of the War Department, speaking in New York, said "Let us stop talking about the hard lot of the enlisted men. Every possible provision for the welfare of our soldiers is being made as quickly as it is humanly possible. Let us also stop the 'Oh, you poor thing, so you're in the Army away from your family and friends'... Keep your handkerchief in your pocket. Instead, invite him home to meet your sons and daughters."

Selective Service

Selective Service Headquarters asked local boards to assure college students who are not expected to be called for service before the middle of the college semester they will be granted postponement until they finish the semester. Students preparing for essential defense occupations, Headquarters said, should be deferred.

Answers to Modern Etiquette

- 1. No person of refinement is ever guilty of this—nor even in his own home. A quiet voice is a mark of good breeding. To speak for the benefit of other people in street cars, buses, theaters, elevators, stores or on the street, is considered the height of vulgarity.
2. The necessity of recognizing the rank of all officers.
3. No; the man should select the restaurant; for the girl will not know whether he wants to take her to an expensive or an inexpensive restaurant.
4. The proper manner is to say, "May I please speak to Helen," and not "I want to speak to Helen," this being too curt. And when the person replies with, "Just a moment, please," or "I'll call her," don't forget to add a "Thank you."
5. No; toothpicks are never used...

Words Often Misused: Do not say, "We had scarcely arrived when the storm began." Say, "We had scarcely arrived when the storm began." Do not write, "We have your order and shall fill same today." Write, "We have your order and fill it today." Do not say, "I seldom ever see her." Omit ever. If an intensive form is desired, say, "I seldom or never see her." Do not say, "An apartment house sits on the opposite side of the street." Say, "An apartment house stands on the opposite side of the street." Do not say, "He has a medium-size office." Say, "He has a medium-sized office." Do not say, "I like to smell of the new hay." Omit of.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

- Mending Cracked Decanter: A cracked decanter or glass bottle can be mended as follows: First, heat the bottle, pressing in the cork until the hot air within the bottle expands the cracks. Immediately fill the cracks with liquid glass. The liquid glass will be driven in by the pressure of the outer air, and when the bottle cools, the cracks will automatically close.
Smoked-Stained Bricks: Bricks that have become stained by smoke can be cleaned by mixing 2 ounces soda, 1 ounce pumice stone, 1 ounce salt, with sufficient water to make a cream. Rub the bricks well with this mixture. Let stand for a few minutes, and then brush off with a stiff brush.
Mending Kid Gloves: A tear in the kid glove can be mended satisfactorily if one will button hole around the edge of the tear before drawing together; then oversew the buttonhole. The repair will be substantial.
Lettuce: Lettuce can be kept crisp and fresh for many days if it is washed thoroughly, the leaves separated, then put into a tin receptacle with an airtight cover.
Milk Pans: The pan in which milk has been boiled often proves difficult to clean. When this is the case, try covering... the pan with a lid after pouring out the milk, and before the steam escapes. Allow the pan to cool, and then fill with cold water. The pan will wash out easily for you.

Cutting Fur: If necessary to cut fur when removing a coat or other garment never use the scissors. A very sharp knife, or an old razor blade should be used to cut through the skin at the back.

Oil Mops: When water and soap have failed to clean the oil mop satisfactorily, use hot water, ammonia, and a little washing powder.

YOUR HEALTH

From the Educational Committee of the Board of Trustees of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, of which the Centre County Medical Society is a component.

Children are not always kind to one another: They can be extremely cruel to a playmate. Especially if the playmate has some physical abnormality. Any abnormality in a playmate becomes the object of frank curiosity and ridicule.

Consider, protruding ears. The most important effect of protruding ears on a child is psychological. Oftentimes a feeling of inferiority is engendered causing the child to avoid personal contacts. Or a super-abundance of self-expression develops in an effort to compensate for injured ego. Such a state of mind may result in objectionable social behavior, causing the parents considerable anxiety.

Almost invariably the child is
