PANEL DISCUSSIONS FEATURE PTA MEETING

The first fall meeting of the Parent-Teacher association centered about school problems as they affect parents, school board, pupils, and teachers.

A panel discussion on this subject included Fred Luce speaking on "School Finances," Daniel S. Daup on "What the Parents Expect of the Teachers," J. F. Wetzel, principal, on "What the Teachers Expect of the Parents," and Miss Mary Delaney and Nevin Rimmey, on "What the Students Expect of the School." Group discussion followed each topic.

Other features of this program were devotions, led by the Rev. W. K. Hosterman; group singing, under the direction of Donald Shope; and an introduction of the new teacher by Mrs. Wetzel.
