

Echoes From the Past

Fifty Years Ago

It is said that Archie Allison, who for some time past was connected with Harris & Co.'s hardware, has taken charge of the management of his brother, William Allison's roller flouring mill at Spring Mills. On Monday County Chairman L. A. Schaeffer rented two rooms in the opera house front, of Daniel Garman, for Democratic Headquarters. They are the next rooms to the hotel, on the first floor, with a small balcony in front. The apartments are being supplied with desks, chairs and other necessary furniture.

On last Tuesday morning Mrs. George Krumbine died at her home on East High street, after a prolonged illness of five weeks. She leaves a husband and one child five weeks old and was aged 24 years. The deceased was a daughter of Patrick Dooley. The interment took place on Monday in the Catholic cemetery.

Mr. Frank Lukenbach was tendered a position in the Mohancon Bank, Philadelphia, and he has accepted the same. He left Wednesday to assume his duties. Frank is one of our promising young men and we know that from his previous experience of nine years in the banking business that he is well qualified for his new position.

On Wednesday Mr. W. R. Haines, of Snow Shoe, came to town with a bunch of seven pheasants which he presented to Hon. Jno. H. Orvis. Mr. Haines killed the seven birds in one day's hunt. Last spring Mr. Haines caught over 3,800 trout and says he fished very little during the first of the season. In one day he caught 20 pounds of trout, clean weight.

The Millheim Journal reported that one of John Stoner's cows, in jumping over a fence caught on one of the sharp railings which penetrated her body to the depth of 22 inches. Mr. Stoner says it was a herculean job to extricate the paining, requiring the assistance of several strong men. However, it was accomplished and the injured animal was carefully attended and will get well.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle recently initiated seventeen new members. The organization at this place has over one hundred active members. It is one of the oldest and best of the kind in the county. Mrs. Curdin expect to leave for Florida where they will spend the winter months. Their visit to that sunny clime last year proved enjoyable and healthful. The glass works started last week and eight ovens are now in full operation. They produce a fine quality glass and pleased all. Mr. Charles Cruse has accepted the position of pianist for the opera house. He is a good performer and gives the best of satisfaction. Professor Lieb has not returned from his tour of the States. He is reported as his health is not improving as rapidly as might be desired. Hon. J. P. Gephart of Bellefonte, is breathing the pure ozone of Loganston this week.

The Bealburg hunters captured two fine deer in the Seven mountains last week. Recorder William H. Brown, Jacob Barlett, Frank T. Kern and Robert Hood, all prominent Elks, motored to Milton in Mr. Kern's car to attend the Miller Fair. The shifter engine was disabled on the Morris branch when a split rail threw it from the tracks. The wrecking crew from Tyrone was called to place the locomotive back on the rails. The Misses Annie, Elizabeth and Emily Parker were arranging to close their home on Spring street about November 1, and were to spend the winter months in the Empire apartments, Atlantic City. An automobile owned by a Mr. Buschman, of Bellefonte, was stolen in front of the Sim Baum Clothing store about 7 o'clock one evening and was found later that night in front of the A. E. Schad Plumbing shop. Authorities were investigating. John Garthoff, Bellefonte mail carrier, suffered a leg injury when he fell down a flight of stairs at the Nick Lall shoe repair shop while delivering mail. While he was confined to home his duties were being filled by Clyde Corman, a substitute carrier. The S. H. Poorman garage on South Water street was purchased by Charles E. Yearick, of Williamsport, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Yearick, of near Bellefonte. The new owner expected to conduct a repair shop and had taken on the agency for Paige automobiles. David Chambers entertained the following prominent men of the Snow Shoe area at dinner at the Brockenhoff Hotel: A. J. Jore, Mohancon; James F. Uzzell and James F. Uzzell, Jr., Snow Shoe; Harry Shive, Clarence; John Banks, Snow Shoe; Roy Chambers, Clarence; J. F. Confer, Snow Shoe, and Hon. H. C. Quigley, Bellefonte. While playing soccer on the high school commons, Ralph Owens, son of Edward R. Owens, suffered a fracture of a bone in the left foot, and sprained a ligament in his right ankle. Sunday School Lesson

THE HOLY SPIRIT OUR HELPER International Sunday School Lesson for October 19, 1941. GOLDEN TEXT: "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God."—Rom. 8: 14. Lesson Text: John 3: 5-8; Acts 1: 8; Rom. 8: 26-28; Gal. 5: 22-26.

In the two preceding lessons of this quarter, we have studied about God the Father and Christ the Son. In this lesson we give our attention to the third person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit. We should keep constantly in mind, not only while considering this lesson, but at all times, that the Holy Spirit is a person—a divine person who is to be worshiped, served and loved.

The doctrine of the Personality of the Holy Spirit says R. A. Torrey, "is both fundamental and vital. Anyone who does not know the Holy Spirit as a person has not attained a complete and well-rounded Christian experience. Anyone who knows God the Father and God the Son, but who does not know the Holy Spirit, has not attained unto the Christian conception of God, nor to a fully Christian experience."

One of the questions which arise in the minds of some is, "What is the function of the Holy Spirit?" In a discussion of the gift of the Holy Spirit, Dr. John Snape says that four prepositions illustrate and explain the operations of the Holy Spirit in his relation with men. These prepositions are: to, in, with, and upon. Thus the Holy Spirit comes to men when he convicts them of sin; in men at their regeneration; with men for fellowship; and upon men for power.

In talking with Nicodemus about the new birth, Jesus said that no one can enter the Kingdom of God until he is born of the Spirit. Therefore it must be very important that we know how this new birth comes about and what part the Holy Spirit plays in such regeneration.

First, the Scripture teaches that the Holy Spirit convicts of sin, Jesus said, "And when he (Holy Spirit) comes, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment." (John 16: 8). The Holy Spirit quickens the heart of man into a recognition of sin, a consciousness of having done wrong, a recognition of guilt and a realization of his separation from God.

Then, the Holy Spirit points the unaved to the Saviour, Jesus Christ. While this produces a deeper sense of sin, in contrast to Christ's sinless life, it also assures the sinner of God's love. The acceptance by the sinner of Christ as his Saviour is accompanied when the Holy Spirit imparts to the trusting soul spiritual life.

Thus, we owe our salvation to the regenerating work of the Holy Spirit. It, through him, God draws the sinner to himself, causing him to re-
