

UNIONVILLE

Methodist Church Services:—The Thursday evening service will be in charge of the Woman's Society and is a meeting planned in observance of the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial. Service will be at 7:30 p. m. and everyone is invited. A special program is planned and promises to be interesting. Sunday School Sunday morning at 9:15, H. E. McElwain Supt. Epworth League in the evening at 6:30, immediately followed by the regular preaching service at 7:30 at which time will be observed the Annual "Joshua Chest" Day. Bring your gifts for in the chest to be applied on the church debt. Service in charge of the pastor, Rev. Snyder.

Presbyterian Church Services:—A very interesting program was held in the church on Wednesday with a morning and afternoon session for all persons interested in the missionary work. Miss Turner was the principal speaker and a box luncheon was held at the noon hour. Special services are being planned for next week in the church, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings at 7:30 with Rev. E. G. Sawyer of Mount Pleasant, Pa., as the speaker each evening. Special music and inspiring messages each evening. Everyone is invited. Services in charge of the pastor, Rev. H. E. Oakwood. We trust they will have a good attendance each evening.

Free Methodist Church Services:—Prayer service Friday evening, Sunday School on Sunday morning followed by the regular preaching service with sermon by the pastor, Rev. Howard Jacobs.

W. S. C. Meeting:—The regular monthly business meeting and social of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held next Monday evening, November 3rd, in the church. Notice this change in time and plan to be there as there is much business to be transacted. Service will convene promptly at 7:30 p. m.

To All Tax Payers:—Don't forget this is the last week in which to pay your tax before the 5% rebate will be lifted. Take advantage of the rebate now as it will mean pennies in your pocket.

Mrs. Mary Brink spent a couple days last week visiting with relatives in Lemont, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer of Bellefonte called on friends and relatives in the community on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Dorothy Kerchner, who is employed in Northumberland, Pa., spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Kerchner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shipley and family expect to move soon from the Mrs. Mollie Holt property into the Ed. Hall property which will be vacated when Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams and family move to Port Matilda.

Mrs. Amanda Way made a business and pleasure trip to Bellefonte last Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Ann Fisher, who has been employed in Pittsburgh, is home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Fisher.

Mrs. Charles Bechtel of Howard spent a few hours with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bullock, on Saturday evening.

Mr. C. W. Bullock returned to his home the latter part of last week from a several days visit with his daughter and son and their families, in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams (Bud) and family are moving from the Ed. Hall property in town, to Port Matilda where Buddy is employed at the brick plant.

A birthday dinner was held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall in honor of the birthday of their son, Kenneth Hall. The immediate families were guests.

Mrs. Mary T. Davis of Julian is spending a couple weeks at the Askin home while her daughter, Mrs. Nora Bronson is accompanying relatives on a motor trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Holtzworth of Fairmont, West Virginia, spent Sunday at the Holtzworth home here and with her sister, Mrs. Alice Bosworth who spent the weekend at the Buck home.

Mr. Kenneth Hall, who is assistant Rural Mail Carrier out of Unionville, is taking care of the mail on that route until the appointment of a permanent carrier, the regular carrier, Mr. Williams of Julian, having retired recently.

Several of the members of the Unionville Rod & Gun Club spent the weekend at their camp "Camp Askins" on the Allegheny Mountains. C. W. Holt and son B. E. Holt and E. L. Parsons and others were included in the party.

The following persons attended the meeting of the Centre County Council of Republican Women near State College on Saturday afternoon: Miss Ruth Parsons, Mrs. G. W. Bullock, Mrs. J. R. Williams, Mrs. J. C. Cox and Mrs. F. M. Lucas.

Mrs. Alice Bosworth and daughter and husband and two sons of Buffalo, N. Y., spent the past weekend at the Duck home here. We are glad to learn that Mrs. Bosworth has regained her usual good health after having been ill for some time past. We trust her good health will remain with her.

A birthday dinner was occasioned on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stere in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Stere. Guests present were her mother, Mrs. Brownlee a sister, Mrs. Emma Carter and several other relatives all from Lock Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson of Altoona, and their immediate family.

JULIAN

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chandler moved to Bellefonte.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Mary Richards is ill, she is attending Holiness Bible School at Allentown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Williams and family of Elizabeth, Pa., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander on Sunday.

There will be a Halloween party Thursday (tonight) in the church basement. The admission will be 10c for those masked and 15 for those unmasked. For this admission fee refreshments will be served. A fish pond will be in operation for the children, price 5c, each time you fish and you will receive a valuable prize. And so folks get out all your glad rags fix yourself up and come to the party.

Edward Donley of Chester, Pa., came to Julian over the weekend and moved the balance of his furniture to Chester.

Mrs. K. M. Alexander and her mother, Mrs. Brennan of State College called on friends at Julian Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greene and daughter Tootsie, visited in Altoona on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sullman Speacht. Mrs. Speacht will be remembered as Loda Brannan.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dunkle who were recently married have gone to housekeeping in Lock Haven. We wish them much success in their new home. The Dunkles had been staying with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corman.

PLEASANT VALLEY BOGGS TWP.

Mrs. Ralph McCartney returned home from the Centre County Hospital, much improved, which is good news to her friends.

Ray Confer fell and cut his knee badly, but glad to say he is improving.

Mrs. Harvey Emlinizer and Jane Emlinizer visited Harry Peese, at the County Home.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sayers and children and Miss Hannah Emlinizer of Yarnell visited on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Richner.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Long and two boys of Jacksonville, visited on Monday evening at the home of Harvey Emlinizer.

Clair Richner and boys visited at Lee Richner's on Sunday morning.

COLLEGE TWP.

Miss Esther Kuhns of East Freedom, Pa., is staying indefinitely at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hinson Mitchell. Miss Kuhns arrived Sept. 1, and is a sophomore in the State College High School.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Williams (Bud) and family are moving from the Ed. Hall property in town, to Port Matilda where Buddy is employed at the brick plant.

A birthday dinner was held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall in honor of the birthday of their son, Kenneth Hall. The immediate families were guests.

Mrs. Mary T. Davis of Julian is spending a couple weeks at the Askin home while her daughter, Mrs. Nora Bronson is accompanying relatives on a motor trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Holtzworth of Fairmont, West Virginia, spent Sunday at the Holtzworth home here and with her sister, Mrs. Alice Bosworth who spent the weekend at the Buck home.

Mr. Kenneth Hall, who is assistant Rural Mail Carrier out of Unionville, is taking care of the mail on that route until the appointment of a permanent carrier, the regular carrier, Mr. Williams of Julian, having retired recently.

Several of the members of the Unionville Rod & Gun Club spent the weekend at their camp "Camp Askins" on the Allegheny Mountains. C. W. Holt and son B. E. Holt and E. L. Parsons and others were included in the party.

The following persons attended the meeting of the Centre County Council of Republican Women near State College on Saturday afternoon: Miss Ruth Parsons, Mrs. G. W. Bullock, Mrs. J. R. Williams, Mrs. J. C. Cox and Mrs. F. M. Lucas.

Mrs. Alice Bosworth and daughter and husband and two sons of Buffalo, N. Y., spent the past weekend at the Duck home here. We are glad to learn that Mrs. Bosworth has regained her usual good health after having been ill for some time past. We trust her good health will remain with her.

A birthday dinner was occasioned on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stere in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Stere. Guests present were her mother, Mrs. Brownlee a sister, Mrs. Emma Carter and several other relatives all from Lock Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson of Altoona, and their immediate family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Williams and family of Elizabeth, Pa., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander on Sunday.

There will be a Halloween party Thursday (tonight) in the church basement. The admission will be 10c for those masked and 15 for those unmasked. For this admission fee refreshments will be served. A fish pond will be in operation for the children, price 5c, each time you fish and you will receive a valuable prize. And so folks get out all your glad rags fix yourself up and come to the party.

Edward Donley of Chester, Pa., came to Julian over the weekend and moved the balance of his furniture to Chester.

Mrs. K. M. Alexander and her mother, Mrs. Brennan of State College called on friends at Julian Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greene and daughter Tootsie, visited in Altoona on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sullman Speacht. Mrs. Speacht will be remembered as Loda Brannan.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dunkle who were recently married have gone to housekeeping in Lock Haven. We wish them much success in their new home. The Dunkles had been staying with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corman.

Mrs. Ralph McCartney returned home from the Centre County Hospital, much improved, which is good news to her friends.

Ray Confer fell and cut his knee badly, but glad to say he is improving.

Mrs. Harvey Emlinizer and Jane Emlinizer visited Harry Peese, at the County Home.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sayers and children and Miss Hannah Emlinizer of Yarnell visited on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Richner.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Long and two boys of Jacksonville, visited on Monday evening at the home of Harvey Emlinizer.

Clair Richner and boys visited at Lee Richner's on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Williams (Bud) and family are moving from the Ed. Hall property in town, to Port Matilda where Buddy is employed at the brick plant.

A birthday dinner was held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall in honor of the birthday of their son, Kenneth Hall. The immediate families were guests.

Mrs. Mary T. Davis of Julian is spending a couple weeks at the Askin home while her daughter, Mrs. Nora Bronson is accompanying relatives on a motor trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Holtzworth of Fairmont, West Virginia, spent Sunday at the Holtzworth home here and with her sister, Mrs. Alice Bosworth who spent the weekend at the Buck home.

Mr. Kenneth Hall, who is assistant Rural Mail Carrier out of Unionville, is taking care of the mail on that route until the appointment of a permanent carrier, the regular carrier, Mr. Williams of Julian, having retired recently.

Several of the members of the Unionville Rod & Gun Club spent the weekend at their camp "Camp Askins" on the Allegheny Mountains. C. W. Holt and son B. E. Holt and E. L. Parsons and others were included in the party.

The following persons attended the meeting of the Centre County Council of Republican Women near State College on Saturday afternoon: Miss Ruth Parsons, Mrs. G. W. Bullock, Mrs. J. R. Williams, Mrs. J. C. Cox and Mrs. F. M. Lucas.

Mrs. Alice Bosworth and daughter and husband and two sons of Buffalo, N. Y., spent the past weekend at the Duck home here. We are glad to learn that Mrs. Bosworth has regained her usual good health after having been ill for some time past. We trust her good health will remain with her.

HOWARD NEWS

HOWARD No. 1

A Halloween party was held in the Evangelical Reformed church Wednesday evening of last week. Refreshments were served to thirty some people.

A birthday party was held in honor of Mrs. Lloyd Bechtel at her home, Walnut Street, Oct. 22. An enjoyable evening was spent by the following persons present: Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eklers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hanley and son of Monument; Mrs. Harold Bohn and son of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gorham and friends of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strouse of Flemington; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bechtel and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Phillips and children of Howard, R. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bechtel and daughter Betty of Howard, all children of Mr. and Mrs. Bechtel. A beautiful gift was presented her, all wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Church Notice—Methodist: Rev. Wallace J. Cummings, Curtin: Sunday School 9:30 a. m.; Kennedy: Sunday School 9:30 a. m.; Wesleyan League 7:30 p. m.; Worship Service 7:30 p. m.; Hunter Run: Sunday School 9:00 a. m. Worship service 11:00 a. m.

Church of Christ: Rev. M. S. Rogers, Howard: Sunday School 10 a. m., Lord's Supper 11 a. m., Evening Worship 7:30 p. m. Mr. Harold Robb of Blanchard will have charge of the evening service in the absence of the minister who is conducting an evangelistic service elsewhere.

The program for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Centre County, Fall Institute on Thursday, Oct. 30, 1941, in the Methodist Church of Howard, Pa., is as follows: Afternoon session: 1:30 p. m.—Devotion, Rev. W. J. Cummings; 1:45 p. m., minutes and roll call, Mrs. James Gray; 2:15 p. m., Appointment of committee; 2:20 p. m., Highlights of the National Convention, Mrs. Bertha Broyles; 2:35 p. m., The State Convention in Review; 3:00 p. m., Vocal solos, Mrs. Thomas W. Ward; Department of Poulson, Montana, spent Wednesday of last week at the home of Miss Alice Fletcher.

Mrs. Anna Conley of Bellefonte and daughter, Mrs. William Wallace of New York City, were guests of Miss Nan Lucas last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George DeLong and daughter Beatrice of Bellefonte were Friday evening callers of Miss Nan Lucas.

Mrs. Mabel Ivins of Blanchard spent Monday with her sister Miss Alice Fletcher.

Janice Mapes was a weekend visitor at the home of Robert Uhier at Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Wagner, little daughter of Johnstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wagner of Philadelphia spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Uhier.

Harold Betz was admitted to the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte Saturday, as a surgical patient in a serious condition. A blood transfusion being necessary before the operation.

Mr. Herbert Bryan a surgical patient of the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte, for about 10 days has returned to his home on Walnut Street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings are grandparents and Rev. Wallace J. Cummings uncle for the first time. The new arrival is a daughter of the happy parents of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Cummings of Shinglehouse, Pa., and has been named Ann Lee Carol. Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings visited their son and wife Sunday.

Mrs. Esther Fletcher, President of the Sunshine Circle Class of the Methodist church, entertained the following: Mrs. Helen Neff, Mrs. Alice Kumas, Mrs. Ann Joseph, Mrs. Edna Kline, Mrs. Emma Taylor, Mrs. Lillian Holter, Mrs. Ruth Long, Mrs. Anna Fletcher, and Mrs. Grace Holter, at a delicious chicken supper and all the fixings that go with it at Fleisher's restaurant at Julian Thursday night. The business meeting and social hour followed in a room previously arranged for the event.

Wednesday evening of last week a masquerade Halloween party was given in the social rooms of the Evangelical Reformed Church. A large number of members and guests participated in the games and contests. Delicious refreshments were served in keeping with the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muffly and son Mac of Morgantown, W. Va., and Miss Josephine Muffly of New Plat, N. Y., spent the weekend at their home in Howard. Mr. Muffly with his wife and son, Kate and daughter, Misses Nellie and Lauretta, and Mrs. Virginia Farris and son Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Balser Weber and son Baxter Saturday evening partook of a delicious chicken dinner at the Lavonia Hotel.

Mr. A. H. Schwenk and George Evers were taken to Renovo, Wednesday of last week on a business trip. Mrs. Grani Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Shank, Mrs. Earl Lomison, Mrs. Clair Confer, children Ray and Priscilla and David, Mrs. Bertha Condo, Mrs. W. O. Gray, Mrs. John Gray and son Dick, Mrs. Delbert Barnhart, children Ronnie and Phyllis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shank, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Thompson, Edwin Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cyphert, Annie Confer, Mrs. David Confer, children, Bobbie and Carol, Mrs. Leo Condo, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lomison, children, Blanche, Kelsey and Ann, Mrs. Blanche Daley and daughter, Doris, Otta Schenk, Mr. and Mrs. John Daley and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Butler.

Mrs. J. E. Gillespie and Verna Shank spent the weekend at Williamsport.

Clifford Gardner and Kenneth Walker took in the football game between Clearfield and Tyrone at Tyrone on Friday night.

Paul Lomison and children, Blanche, Kelsey and Ann and Mrs. Blanche Daley spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Olyer at Jacksonville.

There are successful business men who take no exercise, either physical or mental.

Schwenks service station. Free bingo and games were played and refreshments suitable for the occasion were served.

A birthday party was held in honor of Mrs. Lloyd Bechtel at her home, Walnut Street, Oct. 22. An enjoyable evening was spent by the following persons present: Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eklers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hanley and son of Monument; Mrs. Harold Bohn and son of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gorham and friends of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strouse of Flemington; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bechtel and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Phillips and children of Howard, R. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bechtel and daughter Betty of Howard, all children of Mr. and Mrs. Bechtel. A beautiful gift was presented her, all wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Church Notice—Methodist: Rev. Wallace J. Cummings, Curtin: Sunday School 9:30 a. m.; Kennedy: Sunday School 9:30 a. m.; Wesleyan League 7:30 p. m.; Worship Service 7:30 p. m.; Hunter Run: Sunday School 9:00 a. m. Worship service 11:00 a. m.

Church of Christ: Rev. M. S. Rogers, Howard: Sunday School 10 a. m., Lord's Supper 11 a. m., Evening Worship 7:30 p. m. Mr. Harold Robb of Blanchard will have charge of the evening service in the absence of the minister who is conducting an evangelistic service elsewhere.

The program for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Centre County, Fall Institute on Thursday, Oct. 30, 1941, in the Methodist Church of Howard, Pa., is as follows: Afternoon session: 1:30 p. m.—Devotion, Rev. W. J. Cummings; 1:45 p. m., minutes and roll call, Mrs. James Gray; 2:15 p. m., Appointment of committee; 2:20 p. m., Highlights of the National Convention, Mrs. Bertha Broyles; 2:35 p. m., The State Convention in Review; 3:00 p. m., Vocal solos, Mrs. Thomas W. Ward; Department of Poulson, Montana, spent Wednesday of last week at the home of Miss Alice Fletcher.

Mrs. Anna Conley of Bellefonte and daughter, Mrs. William Wallace of New York City, were guests of Miss Nan Lucas last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George DeLong and daughter Beatrice of Bellefonte were Friday evening callers of Miss Nan Lucas.

Mrs. Mabel Ivins of Blanchard spent Monday with her sister Miss Alice Fletcher.

Janice Mapes was a weekend visitor at the home of Robert Uhier at Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Wagner, little daughter of Johnstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wagner of Philadelphia spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Uhier.

Harold Betz was admitted to the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte Saturday, as a surgical patient in a serious condition. A blood transfusion being necessary before the operation.

Mr. Herbert Bryan a surgical patient of the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte, for about 10 days has returned to his home on Walnut Street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings are grandparents and Rev. Wallace J. Cummings uncle for the first time. The new arrival is a daughter of the happy parents of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Cummings of Shinglehouse, Pa., and has been named Ann Lee Carol. Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings visited their son and wife Sunday.

YARNELL

Thursday evening friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Claire Shawley in honor of Mrs. Claire Shawley's birthday, their being 81 present, namely: Mr. and Mrs. Marion Shawley sons Bob and Jim, Edna Shawley, Mrs. Ed. N. Confer and daughter Rebecca, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Petzer, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. York, Mrs. Paul Crispin and son Johnny J. Ed. Confer, Mrs. Miller Rickard, Edgar Wagner and daughter Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shawley, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shawley, sons Linn, Melvin, George, Mrs. Edith Burd, Mrs. Ira Gilbert and children Lester and Faye, Mrs. Fred Kessling, Amy and Ruth Zanner, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haagen, son Vance and Joe Haagen, Mrs. Viola Petzer, Mr. and Mrs. Tomer Petzer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shawley, Mrs. Katie Sayers, Mrs. Vivian Walker and children Cameron, Kenneth and Maxine, Mrs. Agnes Reese and children Billy and Pauline, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mays, son Jean, Mrs. Anna Miller and children, Gerald, Bob, Jack and Jean, June Kessling, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kessling, Duane Doty, Mr. John Shawley, son Ray, Mrs. Cora Lanaberry, Rodney Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher and children Nelson, Ivan, Mark and Gail, Beverly Loe, Jimmy Robinson, Arlene Walker, Mrs. Raymond Coakley, son Melvin, Lee Lucas, and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Shawley, son Harold. Mrs. Shawley received many lovely gifts. At a late hour refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, cake, pickles, potato chips and coffee. All departed for their homes wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Walker and daughter Arlene, spent Sunday at State College visiting with their son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Cole and daughter Ruth.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Shawley, son Harold spent Sunday at Lewisport at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shields.

PURDUE MT.

Sherman Lowry and son-in-law, Donald Bloom and son Sherman and daughter, Mrs. Donald Bloom and Margaret Lowry motored to Roulette for the day and brought back Mr. Lowry's father.

Mr. John Switzer of Bellefonte, visited at Lowry's home on Sunday.

Mrs. Melissa Lowry spent a few days at Centre Hall, with her sister, Mrs. Donald Bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Walters and daughter Joan called at Sherman Lowry's home on Monday.

Mrs. Burket of Bellefonte spent Tuesday at the Lowry home.

Some folks are never happier than when they are getting other people into difficulties.

PINE GROVE MILLS

Many of our farmers from this section attended the 1st annual corn husking contest of Blair County near Martinsburg last Thursday p. m.

Our veteran grain merchant Jacob D. Neidigh of Pine Hill is now a patient of Geisinger Hospital in Danville. "Jake" has been under his M. D.'s care the past two months, his many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

The Milton Sills family recently fitted from East Main Street, to State College where Mr. Sills is employed.

Miss Ruth Snyder is now the efficient cashier in the A&P at State College Super Market.

Grandmother Sophia Reed of Franklinville Huntington county is spending some time with her daughter and family, Mrs. Samuel Everhart at their farm home on the branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frank enjoyed an autumn mountain auto trip through Penna. Sunday via Renovo, Emporium, St. Mary's and home. The mountains are all colors of the rainbow at this season.

Mr. William Isler of Boalsburg Special State Investigator of old age pensions was in town business visitor recently in our town and vicinity.

The new concrete bridge at Bellefonte is being poured this week and the new Tadiopole black top road is being pushed to a finish. I. L. Wilson is road contractor for both jobs.

Bricklayer F. L. Frain and family are now occupying their new stone house near the former Branch school house. Mr. Floyd Uhier was the contractor builder.

A farewell party at the Ward home in Bellefonte last Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Claire Dean and John Powley. Monday evening at the Wilbur Sunday home in honor of their son Mr. Donald Sunday. About 30 members of the Sunday clan were present. These young men will leave Wednesday for New Cumberland induction centre for selective service in U. S. A. camp.

Retired steel worker Mr. Howard Parsons and his wife of Vandergrift, Pa., were dinner guests Sunday at his brothers home on Tadpole, Elery T. Parsons. The Parsons spent the past three months at their summer home near Flemington.

On account of inclement weather the hybrid corn testing and weighing on the Rev. R. W. Reed farm last Monday has been postponed till Nov. 4th, 1:30 p. m. all farmers interested are invited to attend Prof. J. R. B. Dickey will be present at the nine kind demonstrations.

John Poster Musser mingled last

Thursday evening in Bellefonte with his three linker friends at their installation.

The Fred Fry family moved last week from the Mrs. Ida Harpster home to their farm home, the former C. M. Powley homestead. The Charles Laird family fitted from Port Matilda to the Harpster house on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Troskie and son of Beth, N. J. were the past week visitors with his brothers and sisters in our locality and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Troskie of Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cori and sons Lester and H. Samuel were recent dinner guests at the Harry Bilger home in Pleasant Gap.

20 members of the Men's Sunday School class of Bellefonte Presbyterian church were entertained at their regular class meeting last Friday evening at the C. L. Irvin home on the Branch. Devotionals in charge of Robert W. Reed, meeting in charge of class president, J. H. Gilliland, who introduced Rev. James N. Fisher, the evening speaker, taking his subject "Real Citizenship" a talk full of inspiration for all present. Choice refreshments were served by Mrs. Irvin.

Farmers Floyd Uhier and J. H. McCracken are each walling up big cisterns for ample water supply.

Carolyn Jean is the name of the new baby girl at the Ralph Packer home in Lock Haven No. 1. The John Donley and A. W. Fry families called to see the new comer last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Packer, the former Mas Helen Harpster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Harpster, Grandpa Isaac well venture will be wearing a new cow boy hat.

One of our baseball ace's Donny Kepler accepted last week a nice position in the Extension Department of Penna. State College.

Farmer E. E. Elenberger is shy three of his registered Guernsey cows caused by the herd gaining entrance to barn floor where shelled corn from husker was stored. Others were sick but recovered shortly.

Retired state highway foreman, John Ewert of Pittsburgh was a short caller in our town last week. Called home on account of serious illness of his aged mother.

After about 11 years, Master Arva Gates has a little brother, born Thursday in Phillipsburg State hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gates. So our veteran school bus driver and up-to-date farmer, is all smiles and handing out, just-quarter ones for Carl Jr. (see him) for quiet smoke.

Mr. William Johnson of Graysville was in town Monday looking after Johnston Bros. painting contracts. "Bill" is again slinging his

(Continued on Page Seven)

R. K. Owens Electric Store Cordially Invites You to Help Celebrate Their SECOND ANNIVERSARY in the Electrical Appliance Business. We've been in this location two years, folks, and to help show our appreciation to our many patrons, we announce that...

Starting Saturday, Nov. 1st

at 9:00 O'CLOCK A. M., and CONTINUING FOR TEN DAYS, we will make

A Trade-In Allowance of 15% On Your Old Appliance

Regardless of its age or condition, on the purchase of any new Range, Refrigerator, Washer, Radio, Sweeper, etc. That's Right, 15% trade-in allowance for your old appliance, regardless of its age or condition, on the purchase of any new appliance in our store.

ON ALL SMALL APPLIANCES

Except Those on Which There is a Fair Trade Law, we will allow a CASH DISCOUNT of 10%

DO YOUR X-mas Shopping Early! FREE FREE FREE To the first 25 customers in our store on the opening day, we will give absolutely free, a refrigerator water bottle.

R. K. OWENS ELECTRIC STORE

30 South Allegheny St. Phone 1062 Bellefonte, Penna.

GARDEN THEATRE

LOCK HAVEN, PA.

FRIDAY - SATURDAY - OCT. 31, NOV. 1

"Elery Queen And The Perfect Crime"

Margaret Lindsay, Ralph Bellamy.

ROY ROGERS in "Old Cheyenne"

A Cyclone of Action.