

COLLEGE TOWNSHIP

Mrs. Emil of Centre Hall, mother of Mrs. William Brown, spent several days with her daughter and family.

Robert Gimble of Harrisburg, called to see Mr. and Mrs. John Hoy on Friday, while at State College on a business trip.

Charles Straub had as his guests on Sunday his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Straub of Lewisburg.

Weekend visitors at the Pomeroy Brooks home to see Mrs. Mary Weaver, who is ill were: her son, Orvis Stover and family of Lock Haven; Mrs. Jacob Weaver and Miss Ruth Garner, of Hubbersburg.

Mrs. F. A. Keller of State College, spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Hoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lee of Bellefonte, spent Saturday with their son, Marvin and family.

Mrs. John Betz is recovering at her home from a serious illness.

(From Last Week) The College Township news correspondence is being turned over by Mrs. Charles Shearer to another writer, Mrs. Hogan Markle of Millbrook.

The work is not new to her since she was the correspondent for Hubbersburg for several years prior to coming to this locality. Report news items to her by calling 4540, State College rural.

John Lyle, a head butcher, proudly announces that he had one butchering already this season. He helped Charles Houser butcher one hog on Nov. 2. We say "proudly" and rightly so, when we recall that he had critically ill for weeks last spring following being struck by a car on the highway and being seventy years old at that. He says he is scheduled for eleven more butchering this season.

Mrs. Charles Shearer shopped in Bellefonte on Friday, and in the meantime spent some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Tressler and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Tibbens at Pleasant Gap. Mrs. Tressler, 88, who broke her hip several months ago, is able to be about her home on crutches and is happy and contented, while Mr. Tressler, 99, was traveling about town afoot on a business jaunt.

Mrs. Oscar Williams, a surgical patient in the Centre County Hospital, is reported to be getting along nicely.

Alvin Krebs and Charles Shearer were among the several men who assisted in partially installing some playground equipment on the College Township schoolground on Saturday afternoon. The equipment and materials for installation are being furnished by the Lemont Woman's Club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lloyd Spicer became the proud parents of a baby daughter, Janet Louise, on October 28. The little family now consists of a boy and a girl.

Miss Anna Lyle is working for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wirtz.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Spicer and son Glenn, visited his uncle, William Walk and daughter, Miss Esther at DuBois, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Roy Wirtz was operated upon for gallstones at the Centre County Hospital on Friday.

A little daughter, Betty Jo, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Neff at the Centre County Hospital on Nov. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Houser spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Houseman at Millheim.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Chestnut moved from the John Schreck home into the Harold Houts house about Nov. 1.

Harold Houts, who is building a new home, moved into the Klinger apartment until the completion of his new house.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bierly of Bellefonte, were Friday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hogan Markle and his mother, Mrs. Eva Markle, the latter who has been ill at the home of her son but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Watkins spent Sunday with Mrs. Watkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Miller at Howard.

Arthur Watkins of Ft. Meade, Md., spent a couple of days recently with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Watkins.

Mrs. Charles Vaughn returned from a week's visit with her husband who is employed at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Knepp and family of Houersville, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shaffer and children of State College, and Mrs. Ruth Coble visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Peter W. Knepp and family.

Callers during the weekend at the Hogan Markle home were: Rev. James B. Musser of Scranton, Rev. Charles Link of Hubbersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Bierly and family of Bellefonte, R. D.; Prof. and Mrs. Lloyd Markle and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Springer, daughter Jean, of State College; Mrs. Hugh Markle and daughter Carol, of Tyrone; also Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yearick, Mrs. Frank Vonada, Mrs. Ada Youcum and Mrs. Ida Markle.

Walter Yeager is working for Blain Benner at this writing. Those who are on the sick list are Anna Louise and Betty Jane Lyons.

The John Blair sale was held on November 14. Everything brought good prices. George Owens butchered two nice hogs on Saturday.

Dutch Crust is finished husking his corn crop this week. Walter Yeager and sister Mrs. Glenn Lyons, spent one day last week in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Guyer Crust shot a wild turkey on Thursday afternoon.

Congressmen, as a rule, are extremely patriotic when it means votes at home.

JACKSONVILLE

(From Last Week) Alice and Virginia Wolfe of Clintondale, spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Harold Dolan and family.

Miss Virginia Young of Hubbersburg, spent the weekend with her friend, Miss Bette Aley.

Mrs. Catherine Weight of Howard, spent Thursday at the E. R. Bartley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shaffer of Lyontown, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Shaffer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vonada and sons called at the home of his brother Richard Vonada and family, on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Minnich of State College, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clevenstine of Zion, spent Sunday evening at the Nevin Yearick home.

Mrs. Walter Daily is spending a few days at the Delmer Ertley home.

Mrs. Emerick and Pearl Weaver spent last Thursday afternoon with their friend, Mrs. William Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul, of Mineville, Millford Beightel spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conway and family.

Mrs. Hubert Vonada and children were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler of Howard.

Callers at the James Shaffer home during the week were Mrs. Harry Swope, Arline Swope, Mrs. Donald Lucas and daughter Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Emel, daughter Nancy and sons Clair and Bobby, Mrs. Mary Deitz, Pearl Weaver and Bud Pike.

Mrs. James Lucas called at the E. R. Bartley home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Mabus of Bellefonte, Mr. and Mrs. John Shaffer and daughter Nancy and son Ronald of Centre Hall, spent Saturday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dixon and children Billy, Elaine and Ronald spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. William Boone, Monday supper guests at the Ted Dixon home were Mr. and Mrs. William Boone and sons Boyd and Dean.

Those who called at the R. J. Vonada home Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vonada and children and Homer Yearick and son John, of Little Nittany.

Mrs. Elsie Noll and Mrs. Sara Kaufman of State College, attended the roast chicken supper Saturday evening and spent the evening with the former's son, Sumner Noll and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lucas have gone to housekeeping at Clintondale on the Harry McCauley residence.

Tuesday evening visitors at the C. E. Aley home were: Mrs. Honza Yearick, Mrs. George Weight, Mrs. Sumner Noll, Mrs. Ted Dixon, Mrs. Hubert Vonada. Wednesday evening visitors at the same place were Mrs. Ed Bartley and Mrs. Miles Bartley.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dixon of Washington, D. C., spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. William Dixon Sunday evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. John Weber, Jr. of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Neidish and son Bobby, of Bellefonte, R. D., called Saturday evening at the Noll home.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stover and daughter Janet, Ray Lyons of Bellefonte, Mrs. Laird Korman of Mt. Eagle, were Wednesday visitors at the D. P. Ertley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harter and daughters Gertrude, Ann and Beverly, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Annie Winslow and family of Beech Creek.

(From Last Week) Mr. and Mrs. Dale Peters and children of Blanchard, Eleanor and Caroline Confer of Beech Creek, spent Sunday with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Confer.

Verna Shank of Tyrone, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Shank.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Lomison, daughter Julian, and Mr. Ossie, of Winburne, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Page of West Decatur, visited on Sunday at the Sherman and Annie Confer homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Confer and family visited relatives at Milesburg on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daley of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gerwer of Lancaster, visited at the Clair Butler and Paul Lomison homes on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Leo Condo of Williamsport, spent the weekend at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bechdel of Williamsport, spent the weekend with Mrs. Bechdel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson.

Doris Daley was admitted to the Lock Haven Hospital on Saturday for medical treatment.

Sunday visitors at the Clayton Watson home were Mrs. Thomas McClosky and daughter Alice Jean, of Clarence, Mr. and Mrs. William Sprout and son Kenny, of Lewis town, Mrs. Donald Galbraith, and Miss Caroline Confer of Beech Creek, R. D. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aber and William Mayes, of Lock Haven.

(From last week) B. H. Watson, of Baltimore, Md., was a Tuesday visitor with his brother, Clayton Watson.

Mrs. Frank Deltrich of Williamsport, and Miss Doris Young of Washington, D. C. visited with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gillespie on Sunday.

Sunday visitors at the Clayton Watson home were William Crispin of Julian, Mr. and Mrs. George Bechdel of Williamsport, Charles Aber and Maxine Watson, of Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Butler were

HOWARD NEWS

(From Last Week) Floyd Heverly of Howard, R. D., returned to Cumberland, Pa., after spending the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Heverly, and from there entered training at Camp Lee, Va.

Miss Anna Bechdel of Blanchard, spent Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Regel.

Mrs. Temperance Loder has moved from the home of her sister, Mrs. Mollie Bullock, to the second floor of the T. E. apartments.

Ronald Coder and friend, Rev. Amos Groff, of Conshohocken, spent several days last week hunting and calling on friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Diffenderfer, son Kenneth and daughter Janet, visited a few days at Lewisburg.

Corporal Nelson McClure and Pvt. William Bathurst, of Camp Shelby, Miss., are home on a furlough with their parents, Mrs. McClure and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bathurst.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fletcher, of Upper Darby, spent a day recently with his in-laws, Mrs. Mabel Inns and Miss Alice Fletcher. The following day he, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Mabel Inns spent several days with their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kaseman of Wheelersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Confer visited several days last week with friends at Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Welsh, of Philadelphia, spent the weekend as guests of Mr. Welsh's parents.

Mrs. Elizabeth Eckenroth visited with her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Eckenroth of Milesburg.

The Friendship Circle class of the Church of Christ will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Clara Lyons, Friday evening of this week. Plans have been made by the class for a Christmas bazaar Friday and Saturday, December 5 and 6, with a bake sale on Saturday. It will be held in the building formerly occupied as an office by the "Jim Dandy" cleaning business.

Mrs. Edward Voorhes and Mrs. W. E. Reborn of Breille, N. J. visited several days last week at the homes of Miss Alice Fletcher and sister, Mrs. Mabel Inns. Mrs. Evelyn Berlew of Blanchard, is spending a two weeks' vacation with her sister.

Joseph Allison of Philadelphia, visited with his wife over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Leitch of Conneaut Lake, N. Y., are visiting with the latter's sisters, Mrs. Maggie Breth and Mrs. Mary Fletcher. They expect to leave here to spend the winter months in Florida.

Balser Weber is able to be around again after being confined to his home several days with an infected toe.

The first rehearsal of the chorus for the Union Thanksgiving service Sunday afternoon in the Methodist church, under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Weber Farris and Thomas Ward, was well attended. The next rehearsal will be at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church, and rehearsals will be at the different churches at their regular choir practice. The Reformed church Monday evening at 7:30, and the Methodist church Thursday evening after their regular choir practice. Mrs. Farris requests all taking part to lay aside all social engagements during the time of preparing for this service.

Samuel Wolf, of Blanchard, gave a very interesting talk on faith, obedience and perseverance last evening at the Church of Christ, supplying for Rev. M. S. Rogers, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Troxell of Shamokin, and Hugh S. Taylor, Sr., of Bellefonte, were Monday evening callers on Miss Carrie Butler.

The Civic Club of this place met in the I. O. O. F. Hall Friday evening. Forty-seven members and friends were in attendance. Each person present gave twenty-five cents, a total of $11.75 for the U. S. O. defense fund. Bingo was played with prizes given. Mrs. Joseph Allison was chairman, and hostesses were Mrs. J. A. Eckdahl, Mrs. W. K. McDowell, Mrs. C. C. Dreese, Mrs. George Buckley, Mrs. Warren Carson and Miss Carrye Butler. The door prize was won by Mrs. T. J. Leathers. The Christmas party will be held Friday evening, Dec. 5. The subject will be Christmas Shopping. Exchange of gifts will be the entertainment of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Baney of Bellefonte, called on the latter's sister, Mrs. Willis Markle, Sunday evening.

The music of chimes from the tower of the Methodist church is to be the Christmas gift of the Howard Methodist church to the community of Howard, according to an announcement made Sunday by Rev. Wallace J. Cummings. Plans are under way for the amplification of the chimes of the pipe organ from the tower of the church, and it is hoped to have the organ dedicated during the Christmas week. The work is to have the direction of the music committee of the church, and the fund-raising program began November 11 with a roast turkey supper served by the women of the church. The amplification system will be a permanent installation, it was announced, and may be used to broadcast not only the chimes, but the music of the pipe organ and the choir as desired. A feature of the system will be the possibility of a later unit as a hearing-aid for the deaf.

We are glad to see "Murd" Wallace around again.

John H. Wagner, Hilda W. Leathers, daughter Eleanor, Miss Sophia Caprio, of Lock Haven, Carl Deitcher, of Bellefonte, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wagner, of Johnstown, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wagner of Denver, Sunday.

Isaac Whitaker, M. W. Wagner and John H. Wagner attended the dedication of the new Masonic building in State College, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. James Craig of Bellefonte, called on the Misses Anna and Nelle Holter, Armistice Day.

Charles Stearns of Joliet, Ill., was a guest of Lloyd Kemp and family this past week. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clevenstine and Sam Clevenstine, of Bellefonte.

(From Last Week) There were 156 present at Sunday school.

The Loyal Women's class met at the home of Mrs. Earl Lomison on Friday night for their regular monthly meeting.

The P. O. of A. lodge entertained delegations from the Bellefonte and Howard lodges on Thursday night.

The Win One class met at the home of Mrs. David Confer, on Tuesday night for their regular monthly meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Orle Heaton of Bellefonte, spent the weekend with Mrs. Heaton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gillespie.

Mrs. Dale Peters and children of Blanchard, Eleanor and Caroline Confer of Beech Creek, spent Sunday with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Confer.

Verna Shank of Tyrone, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Shank.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Lomison, daughter Julian, and Mr. Ossie, of Winburne, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Page of West Decatur, visited on Sunday at the Sherman and Annie Confer homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Confer and family visited relatives at Milesburg on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daley of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gerwer of Lancaster, visited at the Clair Butler and Paul Lomison homes on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Leo Condo of Williamsport, spent the weekend at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bechdel of Williamsport, spent the weekend with Mrs. Bechdel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson.

Doris Daley was admitted to the Lock Haven Hospital on Saturday for medical treatment.

Sunday visitors at the Clayton Watson home were Mrs. Thomas McClosky and daughter Alice Jean, of Clarence, Mr. and Mrs. William Sprout and son Kenny, of Lewis town, Mrs. Donald Galbraith, and Miss Caroline Confer of Beech Creek, R. D. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aber and William Mayes, of Lock Haven.

(From last week) B. H. Watson, of Baltimore, Md., was a Tuesday visitor with his brother, Clayton Watson.

Mrs. Frank Deltrich of Williamsport, and Miss Doris Young of Washington, D. C. visited with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gillespie on Sunday.

Sunday visitors at the Clayton Watson home were William Crispin of Julian, Mr. and Mrs. George Bechdel of Williamsport, Charles Aber and Maxine Watson, of Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Butler were

HOLTS HOLLOW

Our Revival is now in progress and we invite all who can come and help in this good work.

Mrs. Edith Burd and son called at the Milford Burd home at Pleasant Gap on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Watson and family, Mrs. Kelly and daughters and Mrs. Ruth Johnson visited with Hayes and George Johnson at Huntington, Sunday.

Helen Confer of Runville, spent a few days at the Charles Lucas home. Other visitors at the Lucas home were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson and son of Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Reese and children, of Gum Stump, Mrs. John Watson and Joanne Rhoads.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and Donald Catherman of Howard, called on relatives at this place on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley and daughter of Clearfield, spent a few days with home folks and with Mrs. Lee Johnson and daughter took supper at the J. T. Watson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Johnson of Centre Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baird of Milesburg, were Sunday guests at the Ida Johnson home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Reese and children of Gum Stump, and Billy McClure of Milesburg, were Sunday visitors at the Lee Johnson home.

Sunday visitors at the Charles Poorman home were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Farringer and son Elmer, Mrs. Jack Farringer and daughter Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Benson and daughter Ruth of Ridgway, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoover of Clearfield, Dan Lose of Coleville.

Bessie Johnson did some shopping in Altoona on Saturday.

Recent visitors at the Leathers home were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dreese and son of Pine Grove Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lucas and family of Yarnell.

J. E. Confer of Milesburg, and his sister, Mrs. Edith Burd, called on friends at Avis on Saturday.

Supper guests at the J. T. Watson home on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. George Magarek, Jr., and daughter and Milford Burd of Pleasant Gap, and Claude Wyland of Milesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leathers and family called on relatives at Yarnell on Sunday.

(From Last Week) Mrs. Ida Witmer of Wingate, took dinner Monday of last week with Mrs. Jane Lucas at the Charles Lucas home.

Mrs. Annie Raleigh of Altoona, was an overnight guest at the Orvis Watson home Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Possinger of Coleville, visited with Mrs. Edith Burd Sunday.

Visitors at the John T. Watson's home were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Watson and sons Kenneth and Eugene of Milesburg, Mrs. Clark McKinley of Dry Top, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Masargel, Jr. and daughter Ruth of Pleasant Gap, Julia Geovlenko of Bellefonte, and Tomer Robb of Wingate.

Edward Lucas of Rock, visited with his mother, Mrs. Nannie Lucas, Sunday.

Mrs. Lee Johnson and Mrs. Olive Rhoads and son Jon, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Alta Reese of Runville.

Ira Lucas made a business trip to our town Monday morning.

Mrs. Orvis Watson is on the sick list at this writing.

Jacqueline Lucas spent the weekend with her grandmother, Mrs. Jane Lucas.

Mrs. Arthur Burd spent Monday in Central City with Mrs. Howard Burd, who is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leathers and daughter Marjorie, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dreese attended a very lovely church wedding at Kennedy

Bellefonte shoppers Saturday.

Otto Shenck spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gardner in Howard.

Mrs. Essie Lomison, Mrs. Florence Butler and Mrs. Lois Gillespie attended the Sunday school convention at Philipsburg on Thursday.

A goodly number of our church folks attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Millheim on Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Butler and Otto Schenk visited at the homes of Rev. and Mrs. Sheets and family and also with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox on Sunday afternoon.

The many friends of the Woomer and Nyman families were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Floyd Woomer at the Lock Haven Hospital Thursday morning. Mrs. Woomer was a very loving and kind mother and neighbor to all her acquaintances. She was buried on Sunday afternoon at Fairview cemetery. It was said to be one of the largest funerals to be held in this community. The immediate families have the sympathy of a large number of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Page of West Decatur, visited in our town, Sunday.

On last Monday evening the P. O. of A. Camp No. 53, entertained the Milesburg lodge. There were 20 members from the Milesburg camp. After the lodge session was over the evening was spent in playing bingo and social entertainment. The ladies were served refreshments at a later hour.

Mrs. Paul Lomison spent Sunday evening with her family.

COUNTY ENGINEERS TO MEET AT STATE COLLEGE

A meeting of the Centre County Engineers' Society will be held on Tuesday, November 25, at the Sandwich Shop in Old Main, State College. It was announced this week by a committee composed of C. E. Martin, manager of the Central Pennsylvania Gas Company, and L. W. Whitehead and J. E. Kaufbus, of the department of civil engineering at Penn State.

At the October meeting members of the Society inspected the Piper Aircraft plant at Lock Haven and attended a dinner at the Nittany Country Club.

June Roses Bloom

A rosebush is in full bloom at the home of Mrs. Lester Cochlik, near Linden, Lycoming county, having 25 flowers and numerous buds yet to open. It is of the Thousand Beauty variety, and bloomed bounteously at the regular time.

PINE GROVE MILLS

(From last week) Hon. J. Laird Holmes of State College, was a business caller in our town last Friday and taking time to spin a few hunting fables and a little politics on the side.

Jack Powsley, Eddie Barto and Claire Dean, of the New Cumberland barracks, spent the past weekend at their respective parental homes, returning to camp Sunday night. All like the army camp O. K.

From Altoona comes word of a new baby boy No. 4 at the Harry Gibboney home. His name is Gerald C. Mr. Gibboney was a former highway employee here, moving to that town a year ago.

Three of our big game hunters, Carey Shoemaker, Mike Shoemaker and Dan Wagner, are on a two weeks' hunting expedition in Quebec. They motored up last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Hess entertained last Friday evening at their Branch farm home with wild turkey dinner and a family reunion. A most luscious layout and fit for a 'king', prepared by Mrs. Hess and daughter. Those present were: John Hess, Altoona; Miss Beulah Fortney, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hess, Mr. and Mrs. John Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hess, Boalsburg; Mrs. Harvey Schaeffer, Bellefonte; Mrs. Hal Bettorf, State College; Miss Margaret Kerstetter, State College.

Newton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Colpetzer, member of the Bellefonte troop station at Camp Shelby, Miss., is home on a two-weeks' furlough looking his best from the warm southern climate.

Mrs. Roy Barto, Miss Mary Weiland and Miss Ann Ward represented Baileyville Presbyterian Sunday school at the County convention last Thursday in Philipsburg. Mr. and Mrs. William Dreibellis and Mrs. Paul Wrigley of the Pine Hall Reformed Sunday school, were also among the delegates.

At a recent milk meeting of District No. 10, price control was the main discussion by Director H. B. Stewart. Delegate to annual State meeting Nov. 24-25 in Philadelphia elected was G. Elwood Fry, with Joseph Houck as alternate.

Dr. M. W. Neidigh, of State College, was a recent business visitor among some of our farmers near town.

Our veteran thresherman John W. Miller has been discharged from the Centre County Hospital and is recuperating very nicely from injuries in a fall at the G. C. Corl barn several weeks ago, at home of his son, Franklin Miller.

last Tuesday evening, Nov. 4, when Miss Betty Gates, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Leathers, became the bride of Jack Kellerman of Panama.

John Watson assisted Roy Leathers with killing a beef Tuesday.

Mrs. James Wesley and daughter Dorothy, of Clearfield, are spending this week with Mrs. Wesley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson.

Daniel Lose of Bellefonte, visited at the Charles Poorman home, Saturday night.

Olive Rhoads and children visited at the Wallace Hacketts Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Lucas spent the weekend at the Frank Cox home in Milesburg.

John Watson and daughter, Olive Rhoads, took dinner Monday at the Walter Switzer home in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Ida Johnson and daughter Miss Beale, were shoppers in Lewisburg Saturday.

Orvis Watson and sons Don and Farmer and chicken fancier Lorenzo A. Grubb is erecting a large new modern poultry house on the former N. C. Neidigh farm recently purchased by Mr. Grubb.