According to word received by local friends, Mrs. Joseph Hogentogler, of Clearfield, former well known resident of Bellefonte, fell at her home ten days ago and suffered a fracture of the left arm at the elbow. The injury resulted when Mrs. Hogentogler fell from a porch of her home to the pavement.

Prof. L. E. Baird, supervising principal of the Falls-Overfield Joint Vocational School, Mill City, former principal of the Pleasant Gap schools, was a visitor in the Bellefonte-Pleasant Gap area during the weekend. Prof. Baird recently was signally honored when he was elected at Scranton as president of the supervising principals' section of the northeastern district of the Pennsylvania Education Association. The district includes 12 counties, in which there are more than 7,000 teachers.

Donald Billett, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billett, of Coleville, employed at Sparrows Point, Md., became ill while at work, Saturday, and with a fellow workman as a chauffeur, set out immediately for Bellefonte. Arriving here he consulted a physician who found him to be suffering from acute appendicitis. Within two hours from the time of his arrival home, Billett was undergoing an operation at the Centre County hospital. Yesterday his condition was reported to be satisfactory. Billett and the former Velda Hoover, of Pine Glen, recently were married in Bellefonte.

Reports that Harry L. Zimmerman and his son, Harry R. South Spring street, east of a turkey last week, were much exaggerated, members of the family claim. Both men got several pheasants but neither brought home a turkey. The son, Harry Richard, who is 16 years old, covered himself with hunting Monday of this week, how Charles and Fred, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Derstine and son Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stine, Lavery Poorman, C. Announcement was made on Thanksgiving Day by Mr. and Mrs. Luther Fisher of East Lamb street, of the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn M. to Charles Koch of Lock Haven. Announcement of the engagement was made at a family dinner held at the home of Mrs. Fisher's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Saylor, of North Penn street. Miss Fisher is a graduate of the Lock Haven high school and for some time has been employed as a bookkeeper in the offices of Widmann & Teah Company at Lock Haven. No date for the wedding has yet been set.

Mr. Robert E. Lee, who officiates at the taps at the Markland Hotel, while hunting small game last week saw a rabbit in the fork of a tree, about 30 feet above ground. No one seems to know how it got there, but that's not a part of this story, anyhow. Lee threw a stone at the rabbit to get it out of the tree, and as the bunny leaped he fired at it. Striking the ground, the slightly injured rabbit executed a few somersaults before another shot brought it to earth for good.

D. A. McDowell returned to his home at week-end Saturday from his first visit to Niagara Falls and he is glowing in his praise of the scenic wonders of the falls, which he visited on three separate occasions, and of Endicott Beach, on Lake Ontario. During his stay "Sandy" also was taken on side trips to Buffalo and into Canada. He made the trip to Niagara Falls as the driving guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller, of that city who drove here to get him, and he returned home with his grandson, Elwood Steele, also of Niagara Falls. "Sandy" was accompanied on the outing by his pet dog, "Porkey."
