COMMUNITY CHORUS

HEARD MONDAY NIGHT

A community chorus, directed by Donald Shope, presented a program of Christmas music in the Reformed church Monday evening at 8:45 o'clock.

A complete program follows: "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," "Ring Out, Wild Bells," "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," recordings; "Joy to the World," "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day," "Deck the Halls," chorus; Scripture, the Rev. C. C. Otto; "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "Silent Night," brass sextette; "A Great and Mighty Wonder," "While Joseph Slept," "Bring a Torch, Jeanette, Isabella," chorus; "Birthday of a King," solo, Donald Shope; "With Candles Bright," "Westminster Carol," chorus; "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "Angels from the Realms of Glory," saxophone quartet; "The First Noel," "Wassail Song," chorus; benediction, the Rev. C. C. Otto; "O Little Town of Bethlehem," recording.

CHOIR OF 50 VOICES HEARD IN CHRISTMAS EXERCISES

The Reformed White Gift Candlelight service Sunday evening took the form of a manger scene to the accompaniment of singing by two choirs totalling over fifty voices.

Kenneth Runkle and Ray Delaney, readers, quoted the Biblical Christmas story. This was followed by a candlelight procession of the choirs singing "O Come All Ye Faithful."

Other carols used in this service were: "When the Crimson Sun Has Set," "Holy Angels," "Alleluia Chorus," "The First Noel," "Away in a Manger," "Rocking Carol," "Gentle Mary," "Silent Night," and "Joy to the World."

As part of the musical prelude Jack Garbrick played the trumpet from the balcony. Betty Seanson also played several numbers on the bells. Both were accompanied on the organ by Mrs. D. R. Keener. Mrs. Keener and Miss Helen Odenkirk also played a piano and organ duet.

EVANGELICAL CHRISTMAS PROGRAMS PRESENTED

"Christmas Joy," a pageant and "The Christmas Spirit," a candlelight service were special numbers of the Evangelical program Monday evening.

Characters in the pageant were: Misses Ruth Hartley, Fern Hanna, Betty Sweeney, Mrs. Lawrence Hartley, the Rev. W. K. Hosterman, Gilbert Ralston, William Daup and George Ralston. Mrs. Harold Hazel and Misses Betty Johnson and Margaret Smith were in the cast of "The Christmas Spirit."

Other numbers on the program were a manger scene by the children and a Christmas scene by the junior department of the Sunday school.

Between scenes of the pageant Misses Anna Whiteman and Jean Hanna played a saxophone duet, accompanied on the piano by David I. Graybill, and Miss Betty Johnson played an accordion solo with piano accompaniment as an offertory.

CIVILIAN DEFENSE COMMITTEES NAMED

The local Defense Council, composed of Paul Breen, chairman, Daniel S. Daup, William Kerlin, and Edgar Miller met Wednesday evening to plan organization for this community.

These committees were appointed by the council: agriculture, John Wert, Sr.; George McCormick, and Clarence Blazer; consumer defense, the Rev. W. K. Hosterman, C. Robert Neff, and Stanley Wykes; housing, W. F. Keller, J. W. Bradford, and Harry Neff; health, C. H. Light, M. D.; Mrs. George Vogt, and Mrs. David Graybill; welfare, Thomas Williams, George Johnson, and Howard Emery; recreation, Donald Shope, Roy Dutrow, and George Stover; education, David I. Graybill, J. F. Wetzel, and Roy S. Jamison; women's home defense unit, Mrs. E. W. Miller, Mrs. J. W. Bradford, and Mrs. Thomas Williams.

James Seanson has been appointed by county officials as air raid warden for this sector of the county including Centre Hall and Penns and Brush Valleys east of here.

Make Every Call Count!

Always give the person you're calling enough time to answer before you hang up. People can't always answer the telephone immediately. Thousands of calls are "lost" every day because the person calling hung up just a few seconds too soon.

Your cooperation speeds the calls that speed defense!
