OBITUARY

MRS. RENA JOHNSON

Mrs. Rena Johnson, native of Centre county, died suddenly at 7:30 o'clock Thursday morning, December 18, 1941, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Ebert at Zion, where she had resided for the past eight years. The previous day Mrs. Johnson returned home from a visit in Altoona and apparently was in her usual health until about 11 p. m. She had suffered from a heart ailment for some time. Mrs. Johnson was a daughter of Henry and Mary Ann Swint Schindler and was born in Spring township on June 21, 1875, making her age at time of death 66 years, 5 months and 27 days. Her husband, William, preceded her in death. There are no surviving children, or brothers or sisters. Funeral services were held Saturday morning at the Ebert home in Zion, with the Rev. C. Nevin Stamm, pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church officiating. Interment was made in the Zion cemetery. Mrs. Johnson was a member of the Bellefonte Reformed church.

WILLIAM WILSON BRUMBAUGH

William Wilson Brumbaugh, of Howard, died at 12:48 o'clock Saturday night, December 20, 1941, at the home of his son, Wilbur Wilson, of Howard, of complications following an illness of two years' duration. He was 68 years, 5 months and 5 days old at the time of his death. Mr. Brumbaugh, retired railroad employee, was born July 15, 1873, at Mapleton Depot, a son of Michael and Carolyn Wether Brumbaugh. His wife, the former Ette May Miller, preceded him in death. The following children survive: Wilbur A. Howard; Sherman, of Palmyra, N. J.; Robert C., of Philadelphia, and Leslie, of Alexander. Jerry Brumbaugh of Mapleton Depot is a surviving brother. He was a member of the Methodist church. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church at Mapleton Depot, with Rev. C. B. Littleman officiating. Interment was made in Mountain View cemetery, Mapleton Depot.

CLAYTON H. WEBER

Clayton H. Weber, 74, died Thursday evening, Dec. 18, 1941, at 10 o'clock at his home in Flemington, after an illness of six years following a stroke. Born in Flemington, he had lived in Flemington for 45 years, following the carpenter trade. He was a member of the Flemington Methodist church and served as Sunday school superintendent for several years. He was also on the council of the Good Will Hose company. Surviving are his wife and a granddaughter, Miss Eileen Weber, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Fount Brown, Mill Hill; a son, Gurn C. Weber, Lock Haven, R. D.; two stepchildren, Mrs. C. D. Karstetter, Mill Hill, R. D., and Henry Bower, of Hopkeworth; two sisters, Mrs. Ada Bieri and Mrs. W. E. Bieri, both of Rebersburg; two brothers, Clarence, of Tulsa, Okla., and Charles, of Minneapolis, Minn. Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Flemington Methodist church with the Rev. W. H. Gould officiating. Burial was made at Cedar Hill cemetery.

DORA JOAN YOUNG

Dora Joan Young, aged four years, 5 months and 4 days, daughter of James and Norma Williams Young, of Bush Addition, Bellefonte, died at 2:55 o'clock Saturday afternoon, December 20, 1941, at the Centre County Hospital here after an illness with a complication of diseases. The child was born in Spring township on July 16, 1937, surviving her parents, a brother and two sisters, William, Arlene and Jean, all at home; and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Williams, of Scotia, formerly of Bellefonte. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the home, with the Rev. H. C. Stenger, Jr., pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, officiating. Interment was made in the Meyers cemetery, Buffalo Run Valley.

WALTER L. CAIN

Walter L. Cain, of East High street, Bellefonte, for a number of years employed as a mechanic at the Titan Metal Company plant here, died at the Centre County Hospital at 1:25 o'clock Saturday afternoon, December 20, 1941, at the result of complications following an operation. He had been admitted to the hospital on Monday of last week. Mr. Cain was a son of Peter and Flora Keller Cain and was born in Bellefonte on June 19, 1904, making his age at time of death 37 years, 6 months and 1 day. He is survived by his parents; two children, Walter, Jr., and Patricia; and three brothers and sisters, William, Peter, Robert, John, Edmund, Fred, Mrs. Benjamin Sheets and Mrs. Hugh Runkle, Jr., all of Bellefonte and vicinity, and Mrs. William Longmeyer of Tyrone. His wife, the former Louise Rightmeyer, of Bellefonte, died several years ago. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of the deceased's parents.

CHARLES R. STANLEY, Sr.

A heart attack proved fatal to Charles R. Stanley, Sr., 58, of Lock Haven, who died suddenly Thursday evening, Dec. 18, 1941, while making a business call on East Bald Eagle street. Dr. W. J. Sheeemaker, coroner, said Mr. Stanley died while about to enter the home and as his son waited for him in a car at the curb. He had worked the day before and had apparently been in his usual health. Born in Millsburg, he moved to Lock Haven 23 years ago and has since that time been an employee of the North American Refractories Co. He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Evangelical church at Custer. Surviving are his wife and three sons and daughters: Homer Stanley, Mrs. Paul Miller, Mrs. A. D. Cryder and C. R. Stanley, Jr., all of Lock Haven; Mrs. Wilfred Geer, Jersey Shore; Mrs. Charles Hanley, of Monument; also 13 grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Harry Pike-Flemington, and Mrs. Harry Hall, of Unionville. Services were held at the late residence Sunday at 2 p. m. Interment was made in the Millsburg cemetery.

TONER R. ROBB

Toner R. Robb, prominent former resident of Howard, was found dead in bed about 6:30 o'clock Thursday morning, December 18, 1941, at his rooming house in Clairton, near Pittsburgh, where he had lived for a month. He was found by members of the R. G. Taylor family when he failed to leave his room to report for work on a defense job in Clairton. The deceased was a son of William and Bella Heaton Robb and was born at Romola on May 6, 1883, making his age at time of death 58 years, 7 months and 12 days. He and his family lived at Howard until last April when he purchased the general store of Mrs. Ida Wilmer at Wingate. Since then he had worked as a carpenter on the Bellefonte High School building until going to Clairton. Mrs. Robb is a teacher in the Boggs township schools. Surviving are two sons, William, postmaster at Wingate, and Preston, of Detroit, Mich.; his wife, the former Maude Brickley, and these brothers and sisters: Edward, of Avis; Miss Edith, David, and Mrs. Gordon Hamilton, all of Harrisburg; and Charles, of Lock Haven. Mr. Robb was a member of the Pilgrim Holiness church of Highland and was superintendent of the church Sunday school. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Wetzel Memorial Chapel, Millsburg, and were concluded at the Christian church at Romola, with the Rev. Mr. Davies officiating. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

Announcement was received this week of the death of Edwin O. Gramley, formerly of Kaneville, Ill., which occurred in Mercy Hospital at Oakkosh, Wisconsin. The date of demise was not mentioned. Mr.
