All Together Now

The land of the Rising Sun will soon discover America the land of the Rising Sons.

That's Self-Control

Pat decided to pass by his favorite tavern on his way home. As he approached it, he became somewhat shaky, but, after plucking up courage, he passed on.

She'll Have Strawberry

A sweet young thing was driving in her new car when something went wrong with the motor. The traffic light changed from green to red and back to green, and still she could not get the car to budge.

And The Game'll Be Over

If all America play ball together, there will be three outs—Japan, Germany and Italy.

Young Johnny was in difficulty during class, and when the teacher called him out he anticipated trouble, and slipped a book in the seat of his pants.

No Blackout

To his Negro company of the 367th Infantry at Camp Claiborne, La., a black first sergeant spoke dire words.

No Good For Us

Dietician—"An exclusive vegetable diet would give you a trim figure." Patient (skeptically)—"Did you ever take a good look at a hippopotamus?"

More K. P.

The colored soldier had been peeling potatoes until his hands ached. Turning to a fellow K. P., he said: "What dat sergeant mean when he calls us K. P.?"

Misfired

Trying to bring home to his audience the evils of drink, the speaker was telling a group of soldiers how his own life had been influenced by total abstinence.

A Little Feebler

Customer (after waiting patiently in a restaurant for fifteen minutes)—"Are you the girl who took my order?" "Yes, sir," replied the waitress.

On Their Way

One day a car with German officers coming at great speed rumbled over the quay in a town in western Norway and all those in the car were drowned.

Two Killed In Motor Accidents

According to evidences at the scene it is believed that Kline's car ran along the berm for a short distance, hit a concrete culvert and a tree, before plunging into an 18-foot ravine.

It was reported that Kline left the home of his brother, Fred Kline, in Valley View, about 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening. That was the last time he was known to have been seen alive.

Mrs. Humphrey was a daughter of Nell and was born in January 1877. For some time she had been employed as housekeeper for Oscar Shay in Milesburg. The remains were taken to her former home in Lock Haven, where funeral services were scheduled to be held Wednesday.

PENN STATE CANCELS MID-YEAR EXAMINATIONS

Officials at the Pennsylvania State College took the first action today to adjust the academic program to emergency conditions by cancelling mid-year commencement exercises.

Mid-year graduation has been held at Penn State for the past 28 years. The 29th annual mid-year commencement was originally scheduled for January 30.

According to William S. Hoffman, registrar, seniors completing their college course next month will receive their diplomas by mail. They will have the privilege of participating in the formal commencement in June.

We're tired of having Uncle Sam play sucker to the Axis. We're tired of having our government treat Germany, Italy, Japan and their puppets as gentlemen. They aren't.

It's none of our business how you treat your baby, but why not give him a break on Christmas? Inspect the toys given him by fond relatives and friends to see that the paint won't run off if he should put them in his mouth; see that there are no sharp edges to cut his hands or mouth; keep the Christmas tree with its hot bulbs, sharp needles and tinsel out of his reach, and set a time when the baby will "receive" friends and relatives. If you keep him on schedule he—and you—will have lots more fun.

Young Curtin street girl came down town the other day to buy an ice cream cone. Long curious about parking meters and their operation, she put the nickel in a meter to see how it worked, thinking, of course, that since she didn't have a car the machine would return the nickel. Result: No ice cream cone.

Dr. W. J. Schwartz, answering telephone the other day, heard twice over the other end ask: "Is this Mrs. Blank's residence?" Dr. D. replied that it wasn't. Came the voice from the other end: "Oh, these 1 & 11 telephone operators!" (Note: Bellefonte has had dial telephones for two weeks).

Malcolm Kunes, of Blanchard, with the U. S. forces in Hawaii, is reported to be safe following the Japanese surprise attack there December 7. Mrs. Flora DeLallo of East Beaver street, Bellefonte, has received word that her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caldwell, also in Hawaii during the raid, are safe. Mrs. Caldwell is the former Lucy DeLallo of Bellefonte, and her husband is a U. S. Navy officer.
