H. K. Mattern, and O. H. Nason are on the sick list. The young folks are enjoying the fine ice on the streams. This is one good result of the zero weather, lots of good skating. Quite a number of folks had the task of thawing out frozen water pipes. Miss Mary Richards is soliciting for the Red Cross war relief. Anyone in the township who desires to contribute to this worthy cause please get in touch with Miss Richards. We want to have credit with doing our bit in this great work. There is a great need of money and medical supplies to prepare for any emergencies which may arise. The observation post workers are organized and are doing very good work. The boys have done very good work and deserve credit. They are all true Americans and are anxious to do their bit for defense. Anyone who desires to offer their services in any way get in touch with Paul Green, Dick Hennessy or William H. Richards. Miss Mary Swope, who spent some weeks in Harrisburg, has returned to her home here. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gant moved to Buffalo Run Valley. The item last week was not intended for any family who has helped with defense or any one in particular. We are sorry if any one jumped to that conclusion. Let's all be good Americans.
