Houck Slated For Hearing In County

District Attorney Gettig reported yesterday that Houck will be brought to Bellefonte next Tuesday, February 3, and will be arraigned before Justice of the Peace Harold D. Coward, of East Bishop street, on the following charges, resulting from Centre County attacks:

December 7, 1940, Mrs. W. E. Crossley, of Bellefonte.

December 29, 1940, Miss Mary Elizabeth Sloop of Bellefonte.

March 24, 1941, Miss Grace Gray of State College.

April 19, 1941, Miss Betty Schenk of Howard.

June 10, 1941, Mrs. Ernest Teichert of State College.

July 15, 1941, Miss Kathryn Breon of State College.

Of these Mrs. Teichert was the most seriously injured, and hospital treatment was necessary before she recovered. The other five women suffered only negligible injuries.

None had a fractured skull, as did two of the women slugged in Lock Haven last year. One of these, Miss Emily Williams of Jersey Shore, Houck has admitted hitting August 1.

The other June 23, on Miss Dorothy Peters, who has never fully recovered from the severe blow to her head. Houck has never confessed.

Informations against Houck have been made by District Attorney Gettig, but he has never had a preliminary hearing before a Justice of the Peace in Centre County. This step must be completed, or he can waive a hearing before the presentation of his case to the Grand Jury February 9. Mr. Gettig said Houck will be prosecuted here on all six cases listed. Mr. Gettig added that it is almost certain, however, that Houck will not be tried at the February session of Centre County Court but at the May term. Ironing out of a few legal technicalities by the two counties is necessary before the Centre County cases can be tried.

There has never been any formal application for bail for Houck's release from the Clinton County jail. Judge Henry Hipple said, although early in the case there was an informal discussion of the matter between the court and Houck's chief counsel, Samuel H. Lubliner, when the court indicated that if such application was ever made, a high sum would be set.

No decision was given by the Clinton County Court on the question of whether alderman in the city of Lock Haven have jurisdiction outside the district for which they have been elected. The court's opinion declared that the question of aldermanic jurisdiction was eliminated when Houck pleaded "not guilty" and went to trial. The opinion said that by that action Houck had placed his person within the jurisdiction of the Clinton County court.

By ruling that the evidence presented was not sufficient to show that the injuries sustained by Miss Andrews could be considered atrocious aggravated or heinous, the court ruled that the first three reasons for a motion for arrest of judgment should be sustained. These reasons alleged that the evidence was not sufficient to sustain a conviction of aggravated assault and battery and the court upheld that contention.

However, the motion for arrest of judgment was refused on the fourth reason, claiming that the defendant did not have jurisdiction, and on the fifth reason that no judgment against the defendant could be lawfully rendered on the record of the case. The court in his opinion said that "no right or substantial interest of the defendant has been infringed, and the verdict should not be set aside, or a new trial granted in a case such as this, the trial of which was fully and fairly conducted."

Preventing Unpleasant Odor To prevent unpleasant odor when cooking strong flavored vegetables, such as broccoli, cauliflower, and onions, use large kettle with enough water to cover the vegetables completely, have it rapidly boiling and do not cover. Cook only until just tender.

Mustache Lifter Table accessory of the Japanese Sinu tribe, aborigines of the Isle of Yesso, is a carved mustache lifter, skillfully carved from thin shafts of willow, and used to lift the mustache while eating.

Slight Fire at College A carelessly flipped cigarette is thought to have started a smouldering fire which burned a hole in an awning over the front of Mitchell's Dress Shop on East College avenue, State College, Monday night. Alpha firemen, called out shortly after 10 o'clock, put out the small blaze with water from a booster tank. Damage was confined to the awning.

Manufacturers in this district are invited to take or send to the new office information as to their plants and types of products they now make or have made in the past. William H. Johnston, secretary of the Production Credit Corporation of Baltimore, and Joseph Perkinson, secretary-treasurer of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, Baltimore, were guest speakers. Mr. Johnston brought out the various ways and means with which the members and farmers present can assist in helping win the war.

Farm Loan Credit Annual Meeting

board of directors and stated that the Association had loaned a total of $332,900 during 1941 to eligible farmers.

William H. Bishop, secretary-treasurer of Hollidaysburg, gave the treasurer's report and brought out the fact that the Association was in sound financial condition and making progress each year. His report showed that there was a reserve of more than $24,000 to take care of possible losses, and as the local farmers had an investment of approximately $20,000 in cooperative stock, there was a reserve of more than $1.00 for every dollar of farmers' money invested.

The various reports brought out the fact that the organization was formed in 1934 and operates as a short-time cooperative lending agency. Loans are made only to eligible farmers at 4 1/2% interest per year. The Association is non-profit making and after local reserves are established, any surplus eventually will go back to the members.

Direction and management of the Association is vested in a board of five directors elected from the membership. This year two directors' terms expired, and the stockholders re-elected S. T. Blough, Johnstown, to serve as director for Cambria county, and Ross Nicodemus, Martinsburg, to serve as a director for Blair county. Both Mr. Blough and Mr. Nicodemus had been directors since the organization of the Association in 1934.

Among the guests present were men associated with various lines of agriculture such as county agents, vocational school teachers, National Farm Loan Association secretaries, supervisors of Farm Security offices, and members of various other farm cooperatives.

One of the interesting events on the program was the presentation of prizes to two vocational high school boys for keeping farm records and account books.

Glenn Wolf of Gregg township, Centre county, won a $5 prize for the best set of farm records in Centre county. Stanley Kozintz, Jr., of Bedford, R. D., won a prize of $5 for the best set of books in Bedford county, and an additional prize consisting of a free trip of two days duration to Baltimore for having the best set of farm records and accounts in the Association's county area. Stanley Kozintz, Jr., gave a 5-minute talk on the things which he had learned from keeping farm records and accounts.

William H. Johnston, secretary of the Production Credit Corporation of Baltimore, and Joseph Perkinson, secretary-treasurer of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, Baltimore, were guest speakers. Mr. Johnston brought out the various ways and means with which the members and farmers present can assist in helping win the war.

39 Lock Haven Firemen Graduate

Geo. Carpeneto, M. S. Wright, Charles Saxion, Bellefonte Instructors, Honored

Thirty-nine firemen of Lock Haven and Renovo, who passed final examinations after a 15 weeks' course of training under the guidance of George Carpeneto, of Bellefonte, fire school instructor, received Certificates of Attainment at graduation exercises held Friday night at Lock Haven.

During the four-hour program, many speakers paid high tribute to the fine instruction given by Mr. Carpeneto, and the instructor was equally high in his praise for the co-operation he had received during the classes.

Carpeneto pointed out that of 42 who started the course 39 finished, a remarkably fine record. He particularly praised 5 Renovo firemen who each week traveled approximately 60 miles back and forth to attend the school.

Among the many guests present from Central Pennsylvania as well as from Harrisburg headquarters, the principal speakers were Hon. Henry Hipple, of Lock Haven; and James R. Hughes, introduced as the "youthful 77-year-old former principal of the Bellefonte Academy."

Mr. Hughes made the welkin ring with like patriotic allusions, interspersed generously with apt stories. In more serious moments he stressed the quality of friendship between firemen and communities, paying tribute to the volunteer status of his auditor.

Accompanying Mr. Carpeneto from Bellefonte were his assistants in the Fire School, Melvin S. Wright and Charles S. Saxion, both being acclaimed for the services they had rendered, and Harold E. Cowher, past president of the Central District Firemen's Association.

As a fitting finale, substantial gifts from the members of the class were presented to those whose competent leadership had brought the Fire School to a successful graduation.—Messrs. Carpeneto, Wright and Saxion.

Poets' Corner

WE'LL NOT FORGET THEM. A quiet Sunday was partly passed, December seventh, forty-one. No more we'll spend Until the victory's won.

"Remember Pearl Harbor" Came back the cry. I'd want to forget you. And I do know why.

There, lives were taken. And some were so dear. We'll not forget them In not more than a year.

We'll want to remember Not one thing, but two; They're defending their home-folks And to their country are true.

We're proud of those lads Who were at Guam and Wake. They fought and are heroes For Victory's sake.

Let us stand up and cheer And give them a toast— Everyone! Right now! From coos to oars.

You boys in the Navy, Here's a toast to you. The Marines and Air Corps Are included here, too.

Our boys will fight hard And we'll win the war. They'll come back home When the victory's o'er.

—Written by Marie J. Yarnell, a sophomore in Walker Township High School.

A PRAYER. Oh, God, our help through ages past, Our hope for days to come, We ask Thee now to bless our boys When they are far from home.

Be near to them flying in the clouds And those upon the sea; May all of us be praying, Give prayers of thanks to Thee!

Lucky Hunchback The Lucky Hunchback was a favorite charm of the Egyptians against all manner of evil. Like the Phoenician god Bes, also a hunchback, he ward off demons and malignant spirits by frightening them with his grotesque gestures or by making them laugh at his deformity and thus forget their evil intentions. The weapons he carried together with his manner of dancing about like a madman, screaming, spitting, sticking out his tongue and rolling his eyes, were thought to strike terror in their hearts.
