

LOCALS

Mrs. Sarah Dawson Smith on Monday moved from East Lamb street into an apartment in The Watchman building, West High street.

Mrs. Alexander Brown and son, Larry, of the Schaeffer apartments, East Curtin street, spent last week in Portage with Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. C. M. Hobbs.

Alexander Cromer returned to his home in LaGrange, Ill., Friday, after having been in Bellefonte during the critical illness and death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Helen Brodick, of North Thomas street.

We are sure you will like the new Easy Spinners Washer. See it today at the Electric Supply Company. A limited shipment has just arrived. Same prices—$109.95 to $139.95. Liberal trade allowance.

Miss Virginia Coll, of Philadelphia, and Fred Moory, of Pittsburgh, spent the weekend with Miss Coll's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Uhl of South Thomas street.

Miss Marie Conaghan, of the Library apartments, went to Brooklyn, N. Y., early last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Rearek and family, and with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elder, at New Brunswick, N. J.

Mrs. Ray Stauffer, of Pottstown, and her sister, Miss Stella Cooney, of Philadelphia, returned to their respective homes during the week-end after a visit with their father, Martin Cooney, of West Bishop street, who is recovering rapidly from injuries received recently when he was struck by a car.

W. W. Hampton, of Bellefonte, Service Officer, and James J. Letzler, of Millsburg, deputy chief of staff and deputy inspector of the Department of Pennsylvania, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Monday night attended the annual dinner of the State College V. F. W. at the Methodist church in that community.

The weekly card party sponsored by the Women's Democratic Club of Bellefonte will be held in the Democratic headquarters, West Bishop street, this Thursday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. Bridge and five hundred will be in play and admission of 25 cents includes refreshments. Prizes will be awarded. The public is invited.

Mrs. Clayton Shope, of East Curtin street, is recovering rapidly from a recent illness. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Shope's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haigh, of Ringwood Manor, N. J., departed for St. Petersburg, Florida, to be guests for two weeks of Mr. Haigh's parents, Mrs. Haigh is the former Miss Pearl Shope, of Bellefonte.

Jimmy Toner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Toner, of North Allegheny street, was guest of honor at a party held at his parental home Saturday noon in celebration of his seventh birthday. More than a score of Jimmy's young friends were present for the festive party, during which refreshments were served and games were played. The guest of honor received a number of gifts.

Harold L. Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Oeman, of Millsburg, was one of eight aviation cadets making up the first class to be graduated as flying officers in the Army Air Corps from the newly-constructed Fort Rucker, Virginia, Texas. This class received its wings two weeks ahead of schedule. Price, a Penn State graduate, participated in boxing and basketball while in college.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gonsalus, of near Bellefonte, recently received word from their daughter, Mrs. Mary Marcelonia of Chickasha, Oklahoma, that her husband, Joseph P. Marcelonia, of Ft. Silas, Okla., was promoted to a rating of technician, Fourth Grade, with a sergeant's three stripes. Mr. Marcelonia has served a year in the army and is with a Tank Destroyer Battalion.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Best, of the Brockerhoff Hotel, on Sunday with their two children expect to go to New York City on the first leg of their return to their home in the Foster Hotel, Victoria, Texas. This night entertained at dinner at the hotel. Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gearhart, the Misses Anne and Alice Fox, Joseph and James Fox, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Plumb and Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Parrish, all of Bellefonte, and Mrs. John McStay, of Harrisburg, who is the former Mary Parrish, sister of Dr. Joseph A. Parrish.

Pfc. Martin C. Gates, Jr., better known as "Jimmy," of Camp Croft, S. C., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clait Gates, of Pleasant Gap, on Sunday. He has been transferred to an eastern army base. Mr. and Mrs. Gates have three sons in the service, the other two being Russell, of Camp Shelby, Miss., and William, of Washington, D. C. In addition, two other sons are employed by the government at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland. They are Ben and Adam Gates. All five boys are substantial and trustworthy and are a credit to the family and to the nation they are serving.

Every citizen can make a contribution to the Defense Program by saving all cast-off rubber articles. In order to make it easy for collecting worn-out rubber, Charley's Shoe Shop, opposite the Plaza Theatre, West High street, has established a station where you can deposit anything in the line of old rubber heels, soles, boots, galoshes, etc., to be turned over to salvage agencies. The proprietor invites you to bring in the old rubber-heeled shoes in your closets, and he will take of the rubber. As this is a purely patriotic gesture on the part of the proprietor, no money is paid for articles contributed, nor is any received for the collection when turned over to the government.

Mrs. James Pinge, of West Curtin street, last week attended a three-day Spencer style meeting in Huntington.

Dr. D. L. Flegel, of North Allegheny street, spent most of last week attending a dental convention in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Weaver and young son, Dickie, of Howard, R. D. 1, were business visitors in Bellefonte, Monday.

Miss Mary H. Linn returned to her home on North Allegheny street during the weekend from a month's visit with friends in Harrisburg.

Fred Love, of Reynolds avenue, and Charles Harrison, of West Howard street, Friday attended the funeral of William L. Coffman, at Altoona.

Miss Sarah Love, of Reynolds avenue, last week accepted a position with the War Department as an inspector at the Titan Metal plant here.

Rose Marie Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison, of East Howard street, is confined to her parental home because of an attack of measles.

Mrs. Ralph Eyer, of East Bishop street, an operator in the local telephone exchange, is reported to be recovering slowly at her home from an attack of erysipelas.

Mrs. William Schreffler, of Valentine street, is reported to be recovering slowly from a heart ailment which has kept her confined to bed for a number of weeks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rearek, of Brookline, N. Y., is here for a two-week visit with her brother and sisters, John, Kenneth and Marie Conaghan, at the library apartments.

Pvt. William Moerschbacher, of Camp Lee, Va., spent the weekend in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Moerschbacher and family at their home on East Logan street.

The Drama Section of the Bellefonte Woman's Club will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Leslie Thomas, South Thomas street, on Wednesday, February 18, at 8 o'clock.

A postcard from Roger T. Bayard informs us that he and his wife are enjoying the sunny climate of Orlando, Florida, and that Mrs. Bayard's health is greatly improved since their arrival in the South.

Robert Curtin, son of John Curtin, Sr., of West Linn street, went to Pittsburgh last week for a visit with William O'Brien, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O'Brien, of East Linn street, who is employed in that city.

Mrs. John E. McStay and children, Joan and John, of Harrisburg, arrived in Bellefonte during the latter part of the week for a brief visit with Mrs. McStay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Plumb, of North Allegheny street.

Do you know you can rent the new General Electric Sun Lamp, at only $1.00 per week? It can be purchased outright, complete with automatic timer, for $39.95. Keep healthy. Call Electric Supply Company, phone 3111 for immediate delivery.

George K. Von Gunden, employed at the DeHaas Electric Store, is spending this week at a Westinghouse servicing school at Philadelphia. He is receiving special training in the repair of Westinghouse radios and electrical appliances.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Long and family of Spring Mills, expect to move this week into an apartment in the D. Wagner Geis house on South Thomas street. Mr. Long is employed by the City Bakery here, and has been commuting to work since last June.

L. M. Kirchoff, manager of the Western Union offices in Philadelphia, has been transferred to Bellefonte as manager, to replace T. W. Dillenburgh, of Dunkirk, N. Y., who had been in charge of the offices here for some time. Mr. Dillenburgh has returned to Dunkirk.

James Confair, of Cleveland, O., native of Bellefonte, and brother of Miss Anne Confair, of West Linn street, suffered a stroke at his home in Cleveland last Thursday. His wife, who has been in poor health for some months, is reported to be critically ill at this time.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Curtin, of Bellefonte, who had been with her sister, Mrs. Eleanor Wilcox, at Norfolk, Va., for several months, has gone to Bronxville, N. Y., to be with her brother-in-law, Chief of Police Harry Dukeman, of Bellefonte. The article points out that Chief Dukeman has an outstanding record of public service, having held his present position since 1912, except for four years, 1920-1924 when he served as Sheriff of Centre county. Chief Dukeman began as a Bellefonte police officer in 1908 and became chief four years later.

Clifford Hess, proprietor of the Hess billiard room on West High street, and part owner of the C. & H. grocery on South Water street, enlisted in the U. S. Navy and last week departed for a naval base along the Atlantic coast to undergo preliminary training before receiving a permanent assignment. Mr. Hess left the management of the billiard room to Merrill Johnstonbaugh and to William Lucas, but since Lucas is scheduled to be a Selectee in the army this weekend it is probable that Johnstonbaugh will be manager of the business here. The C. & H. grocery is being managed by Mrs. Hess.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stover, of Coleville, of the engagement of their daughter, Pauline A., to Donald Meek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Meek, of Willowbank street, Bellefonte. The announcement was made last Wednesday night at a linen shower held by Mr. and Mrs. Stover at their home. Miss Stover is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School and has been employed at the Plaza Theatre here for some time. Mr. Meek, also a graduate of the Bellefonte High School and Penn State College, recently returned from six months' service in the U. S. Army at Puerto Rico. He is now in the Administrative Officers' School at Carlisle. No date has been set for the wedding. Approximately 30 guests attended the announcement party.

Mrs. Anne Curran, of West Linn street, spent the weekend with relatives and friends in Pittsburgh.

See the new model Zenith Radios with Radiogon at the Electric Supply Company. Liberal trade allowance.

Mrs. Anne Allen moved last Thursday to Millsburg from one of the Morrison houses on East Howard street.

Phillip Bickett, of South Water street, is recuperating nicely from a tonsillotomy he underwent at the Centre County Hospital during the weekend.

Harry Vonada, employed as a clerk at the Milner Hotel, Harrisburg, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Vonada, of East High street.

Mrs. Louis Carpeneto and daughter, Angela, of South Allegheny street, on Tuesday attended the funeral of Mrs. Angela DeFerie, of Tyrone, a close friend of the Carpeneto family.

Local relatives have received word of the death of Charles Fishburn's youngest son, Clarence, of Freeport, Ill. The youth died of pneumonia while in an Army camp. His father is a brother of the late William Fishburn, of Bellefonte.

Miss Marie Conaghan, of the Library apartments, went to Brooklyn, N. Y., early last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Rearek and family, and with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elder, at New Brunswick, N. J.

Henry A. Brockerhoff was honor guest at a dinner given at the Brockerhoff residence, West High street, last Wednesday night, by his sister, Miss Margaret Brockerhoff. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Newell B. Long, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hassall Montgomery, and Mr. and Mrs. William T. O'Brien, all of Bellefonte.

Shirley Brown, aged 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brown of the Petrikon apartments, West High street, suffered a fracture of the left forearm Monday when she fell while returning home from school. The injury was given medical treatment and she has resumed her studies in the sixth grade of the Bishop Street school.

Mrs. Leslie Thomas was hostess at a dinner given at the Thomas home on South Thomas street, last Thursday night, in honor of Mr. Thomas' birthday. Guests included Mr. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Thomas, and Shirley Thomas, all of Bellefonte. Mr. Thomas is a member of Bellefonte Borough Council.

Kenneth Hoag, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Hoag, of North Thomas street, graduate pharmacist, is now located in the Harrisburg area, and his wife having taken an apartment at Camp Hill. Mr. Hoag is traveling through the eastern part of the state as a representative of a drug manufacturing concern. Until accepting his new position Mr. Hoag was employed as a pharmacist in Williamsport.

Having completed thirteen weeks of basic training at Camp Wheeler, Georgia, Pfc. Ronald W. Harvey was transferred to Fort Benning, Georgia, where he completed a course in radio operation. After graduation there recently he was assigned to the infantry school as an instructor in that field. He is a son of Mrs. and Mr. Lloyd Harvey, of Millsburg, and was a former student at the Lock Haven State Teachers' College.

Squire A. A. Pletcher and Charles Ellis Pletcher, both of Howard, were business visitors in Bellefonte on Tuesday. Charles E. Pletcher, chief engineer on a Great Lakes ship, is spending the winter season with his family in Howard until spring thaws once more open up navigation on the lakes. He has been engaged in that line of work for nearly forty years. Mrs. Ella Miller, of Baltimore, Md., is a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Squire Pletcher and Mrs. Pletcher, at their residence in Howard.

In the February issue of the State Bulletin, official organ of the Fraternal Order of Police of Pennsylvania, is a photograph and article about Chief of Police Harry Dukeman, of Bellefonte. The article points out that Chief Dukeman has an outstanding record of public service, having held his present position since 1912, except for four years, 1920-1924 when he served as Sheriff of Centre county. Chief Dukeman began as a Bellefonte police officer in 1908 and became chief four years later.

Clifford Hess, proprietor of the Hess billiard room on West High street, and part owner of the C. & H. grocery on South Water street, enlisted in the U. S. Navy and last week departed for a naval base along the Atlantic coast to undergo preliminary training before receiving a permanent assignment. Mr. Hess left the management of the billiard room to Merrill Johnstonbaugh and to William Lucas, but since Lucas is scheduled to be a Selectee in the army this weekend it is probable that Johnstonbaugh will be manager of the business here. The C. & H. grocery is being managed by Mrs. Hess.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

30,000 People Read This Column

every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived, it is undisputedly Centre County's Community Bargain Counter.

RATES—Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisement contains more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged.

REAL ESTATE—A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

KEYED ADS—All advertisements that request replies to be mailed to this office, must be complied with by those answering the advertisements. Please do not call at the office for information concerning such advertisements, as the publishers are not permitted to divulge the name of the advertiser.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat is entitled to a 25-word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

Air Mail Schedule Change Effective Monday, February 23 the air-mail pick-up service in Bellefonte will leave at 5:36 p. m. instead of at 4 p. m. as at present. Postmaster George R. Meek announces. The post office will be closed Monday because of Selective Service registration that day.

LETZLER IS CANDIDATE Senator Al Letzler, representing the 34th Senatorial District comprising Centre and Clearfield counties, in Bellefonte Tuesday, announced that he will seek re-election to the office.

In Memoriam HOLLER—In loving remembrance of my dear wife and mother, Beth S. Holler, who departed this life January 31, 1941, at Rochester, New York. She is not forgotten. Though on earth you are no more, Still among us you are with us. As you always were before. Husband and Son.

Card of Thanks McCELLAN—We take this means of expressing our thanks to those many friends and for the use of their cars for the funeral of Mrs. McClellan, who departed this life January 31, 1941, at Rochester, New York. She is not forgotten. Though on earth you are no more, Still among us you are with us. As you always were before. Husband and Son.

Money To Loan MCNEY for spring needs, whether it be fertilizer, machinery, or livestock is available at 4 1/2 per cent per year, without endorser, through the Production Credit Association. See Robert Ziegler, Saturday or Monday, or call anytime at the office of the Production Credit Association (phone 2589) 13 East High street, Bellefonte, Pa. Geo. Mothersbaugh, Bellefonte, Pa.

Lost and Found LOST—In Bellefonte, Saturday, pair of boy's shoes. Were just misplaced. Finder please notify Mrs. Ira Bueby, Howard, Pa.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—To buy a good second-hand auto. Inquire of M. J. Decker, R. D. 1, Spring Mills, Pa.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—To buy a small farm of 20 to 30 acres near Bellefonte, Pa. Write F. A. M., care of Centre Democrat, Bellefonte, Pa.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—To buy corn and oats by the bushel. Inquire of Wm. Gregory Moore, Neffs Mills, Huntingdon county, Pa.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—To buy second hand shafting and babbit, best price paid. Inquire of Wm. Gregory Moore, Neffs Mills, Huntingdon county, Pa.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—To buy one or more Guernsey or Jersey cows; must be fresh and of good breeding. Write D. E. Anglin, Woodward, Pa., or phone 3111, Bellefonte, Pa.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—Reliable hustler with car and good business sense. 200 household necessities. State age, occupation, references. Rawleigh's, Dept. PNB-24-Y, Chester, Pa.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—Antique furniture, burlesque, writing desks, doughtrains, tables, stands, high poster beds, guns, dolls, pewter, gramophone clocks, old glass and china. Highest price paid. Cora M. Schenck, 136 E. Market St., York, Pa.

Help Wanted WANTED—Experienced farm hand and herdman. Call State College 3426. O. H. Bathgate.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—Two first-class metal men. Guarantee good pay and steady wages. Inquire at Piper's Auto Body & Paint Shop, Altoona, Pa.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—Woman for general housework in family of three; no children. Mrs. Fred Conifer, Coleville, Pa. Dial Bellefonte 2005.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—Girl or woman for general house work. Sleep in or out. M. J. H. Simons, 241 Ridge Avenue, State College, Pa. DR 2013.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—Partners for several farms, guaranteed sound. Inquire Jesse C. Peters, R. 1, Beech Creek, Pa. Phone 2261.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—Two experienced waitresses over 18 and cook for plain dining and short orders. Must be experienced. Big Trout Inn, South Water street, Bellefonte, Pa.

Wanted to Buy WANTED—A single or married man with small family to work on tractor. Inquire of W. Ralph Tressler, R. D. 1, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 6343.

Articles for Sale FOR SALE—Two good room stoves. Burn hard coal. Call Bellefonte 3160.

FOR SALE—A maple kitchen cabinet with small family to work on tractor. Inquire at K. R. Wolf street at Howard, Pa.

FOR SALE—DeLaval cream separator and plow. Inquire of Alvin W. Beck, Snydertown, Pa.

FOR SALE—9-piece dinette set in walnut finish. Used since November 1. Practically new. Excellent condition. Dial Bellefonte 6394. Ruth M. Eby, Pleasant Gap, Pa.

FOR SALE—Pigs and shoats. Berkshire and Poland-China crossed. Clarence T. Miller, four miles southwest of Centre Hall.

FOR SALE—Roan mare coming six years old, weight 1500, bay horse, coming seven years old, weight 1400, brown horse, coming nine years old, weight 1500; one cheap horse. Come and see these horses. Hatched. Roy Nixon, Mill Hall, Pa. Phone 552.

Poultry FOR SALE—150 Kerlin quality pullets, tested in fall; good reasons for selling. R. P. Haugh, Madisonburg, Pa.

Dogs, Pets, Etc. FOR SALE—Doberman Pinscher dog, 10 months old, excellent. Watch dog. Inquire of Cydler, Farrell, Bellefonte, R. D. 2. Phone Zion 25-R-2.

Sale or Exchange FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Purebred Angus bull, fresh cows, team work horses, corn ears, oats, jockey hay, and straw. Want young cattle and sheep. Haupt's Place, Bellefonte, Dial 2661.

Real Estate - For Sale FOR SALE—A four-room frame house with bath and all conveniences. Inquire of Mary M. Fauble, Bellefonte, Pa. 7-11.

FOR SALE—A lot 50x150 feet, with house foundation, located on Fifth Ave., Bellefonte, Pa. Inquire of Stephen Spritzer at Boscano's Shop, corner of High and Water streets.

FOR SALE—104-acre farm along Ridge Road between Warriors Mark and Tyrone. 85 acres cleared. All limestone ground, good buildings, electricity. C. A. Geiss, Tyrone, Pa. R. D. 4.

FOR SALE—A 7-room brick house and two lots adjoining garage, located in the Woodbury P. O. 5 1/2 miles from Tyrone. Inquire of Wm. Batzaga, Bellefonte, Pa.

FOR SALE—A 7-room brick house in State College, two lots, 3-car garage, good location and condition. Price reasonable. Also extra lot for sale. Inquire of Mrs. L. B. Shuler, 625 N. Allen street, State College, Pa.

FOR SALE—Farm of 98 acres, coal and timber; good brick house and 3-car garage; large barn and farm buildings. Coal ready to operate; vein 4 to 5 feet. Located two miles from Jeannette, Pa. or three miles from Greensburg, Pa. Mrs. Emma W. Small, R. D. 2, Jeannette, Pa.

Wanted to Rent WANTED—To rent by April 1, five or six-room house in good residential section of Bellefonte. Phone Bellefonte 2764 after 5 p. m.

Wanted to Rent WANTED—Ex-farmer wants to rent small farm on coal basin. May want to do some farming. Good water and hard surfaced road essential. Write to Box 3333, in care of this paper.

Farms For Rent FOR RENT—Good farm, 85 acres, coal and one-half miles southeast of Rebersburg, Inquire of Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg, Rebersburg, Pa. 4-11.

FOR RENT—A small farm of about 60 acres, on shares. Located two miles west of Port Matilda borough. Inquire of Mrs. A. W. Adams, 2054 Adams Ave., Tyrone, Pa.

Apartment for Rent FOR RENT—A two-room apartment with bath. Possession March 1. Mrs. W. H. Baird, Pleasant Gap, Pa. Phone 6413.

FOR RENT—Several apartments and 2-room cottage house, all conveniences. Inquire of Haupt's Place, Bellefonte 2061.

FOR RENT—Four-room apartment, heat and light. Possession March 1. Mrs. W. H. Baird, Pleasant Gap, Pa. Phone 6413.

FOR RENT—Five-room unfurnished apartment with bath, gas, water, phone. Small family preferred. Mrs. Arthur House, 400 East Bishop street, Dial 2316.

FOR RENT—Attractive five-room, second-floor apartment with heat, hot water, gas stove and garage service furnished. Located at 18 N. Allegheny street, over Hunt's Book Store. Dial 2078. Geo. H. Hazel, 20 E. High street, Bellefonte, Pa. 5-11.

Rooms For Rent FOR RENT—Store room located in Bush Arcade building, now occupied by F. R. Hopper piano store. Immediate occupancy. Inquire of Bellefonte Trust Co. Bellefonte, Pa.

FOR RENT—Store room located in Thel building, West High street, formerly occupied by Kalamazoo Excursion Co. Occupancy April 1. Inquire of Bellefonte Trust Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

Houses for Rent FOR RENT—Eight-room brick house in good condition. Can be used either single or double. Inquire of T. Beigel, owner, grades 2-11.

Live Stock FOR SALE—A six-year-old bay mare, guaranteed sound. Inquire Jesse C. Peters, R. 1, Beech Creek, Pa.

FOR SALE—A team of farm mules. Home evenings. Inquire of A. H. Anderson, Box 163, Osceola Mills, Pa.

FOR SALE—One dark iron gray mare coming 5 years old in weight 1500. Howard A. Stern, Julian, R. D. (Dix Run).

FOR SALE—Horses are cheap here now, but will get higher in price. Buy a load or two early. Write J. F. Teal, Keosauqua, Iowa.

FOR SALE—One Guernsey cow, due to freshen the 15th. Also 2 hogs, 175 pounds each. Inquire of Merrill K. Harter, Warriors Mark R. D. 1, Bellefonte, Pa.

FARMERS—Pennsylvania Valley Sales Barn, Centre Hall, Pa., holds sale every Tuesday. Bring your live stock and poultry, you can expect good prices. T. Beigel, owner, grades 2-11.

FOR SALE—I bought 15 head Illinois horses and mules and will sell privately or trade on horses or cattle. These horses can be seen at any time at Dave Yoder's barn in Big Valley, Eugene Irvin, Penna. Furnace, Pa.

RENT A Modern Gas Range ONLY $125 PER MONTH Four top burners with automatic lighting and insulated oven with heat control. CENTRAL PENNA. GAS CO.

Floor Show EVERY NIGHT AT Harry's Tavern S. Spring St. Bellefonte, Pa.

Say Your Valentine with Flowers SEE OUR NICE POTTERY! Woodring's Floral Gardens 127 East Howard St. Bellefonte, Penna.

I LOST 52 LBS. IN FOUR MONTHS! BE PATRIOTIC! Save Your Old Rubber FOR DEFENSE! Charley's Shoe Shop Opposite Plaza Theatre WEST HIGH STREET Who will turn it over to Government Salvage Agencies.