

OBITUARY

ALEXANDER BLACK

Alexander Black passed away at his home in Clearfield at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, December 24, 1941, according to belated word received this week. A son of James and Maggie Black, both deceased, he was born and reared at Phillipsburg, but had been a resident of Clearfield since 1904. He is survived by one son, James Rankin Black of Clearfield, and the following sisters: Misses Jessie, Maggie and Ruth Black, Mrs. Elizabeth White and Mrs. Draucker Plant, all of Phillipsburg, and Mrs. Robert Stee, of Buhl, Idaho. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Clearfield and a devout Christian. Funeral services were held Saturday, December 27, in Hillcrest cemetery, services being conducted by the Rev. R. R. Lehman of the Trinity Methodist church.

MISS CARRIE E. RANKIN

Miss Carrie E. Rankin, aged 81, sister of William B. Rankin, of East Curtin street, Bellefonte, died Sunday morning, February 14, 1942, at the Presbyterian Home in Hollidaysburg where she had lived ever since the home was opened in 1926. She had been bedfast since suffering a fractured hip in a fall about four years ago. Miss Rankin was a daughter of Joseph and Mary Blair Rankin and was born at Rock Springs on November 22, 1861. As a young girl she spent many years in Bellefonte and for a time after the death of her sister, Mrs. Charles F. Cook, was in charge of the home. She was a member of the Presbyterian church. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in Hollidaysburg followed by brief services in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte. The Rev. William C. Thompson, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, was in charge of the interment services.

WILLIAM MYLES LUCAS

William Myles Lucas former Pennsylvania railroad employe, was found dead in bed at his home in Howard at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, February 18, 1942, death being attributed to a complication of diseases from which he had suffered for the past two years. Mr. Lucas, for many years a member of the old Howard band, and in recent years an employe of the Centre Brick yards at Orviston, was a son of Reuben and Leah Long Lucas and was born at Howard on February 19, 1869, making his age at time of death 72 years, 11 months and 29 days. He is survived by his wife, the former Elizabeth Williams; three children: Mrs. Leah Benson, of DuBois; Lt. George Lucas of Ft. Benning, Ga., and Miss Celia Lucas, at home, a teacher in the Bellefonte schools, and two sisters: Mrs. Carrie Confer, of Howard, and Mrs. Sarah Sicklick of Buffalo, N. Y. He was a member of the Christian church at Howard. Funeral arrangements had not been completed last night.

MRS. J. A. SCHRECKENGAST

Mrs. Kathrine Elizabeth Dornblaser Schreckengast, 72, of Greenburr, widow of J. A. Schreckengast, died Monday, Feb. 16, 1942, at the Private Hospital, Lock Haven, where she was admitted two weeks ago in a serious condition. Born in Nittany Valley, she was graduated from the Kee Mar College, Hagerstown, Md., also the Coombs Conservatory of Music, Philadelphia, and was at one time superintendent of music in the Elk City schools. She was a member of Episcopal Methodist church at Greenburr, and also of St. Paul's Lutheran church at Nittany. She had been very active in all church work. Surviving her are one son, Albert, at home; one daughter, Mrs. Marion Rice, of Cincinnati, O.; a grandchild, Lynn Rice, a brother and sister. Arthur S. Dornblaser, of Lamar, and Mrs. H. G. Rumberger, of Kansas City, Mo. Funeral services will be held today at 2 p. m. at the Morris funeral home, Loganton, and continued at 2:45 o'clock at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Nittany Valley, with the Rev. Fred Dembeaux of Rebersburg, officiating. Burial will be made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

MRS. W. H. KNARR

Mrs. Minnie Blanche Knarr, wife of W. H. Knarr, died at 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning, February 14, 1942, at her home, Crystal Springs Valley, Tyrone, R. D. 4, of complications. She was born at Boalsburg, Centre county, August 9, 1870, a daughter of Amos and Margaret (Aston) Tyson. Her husband, W. H. Knarr, survives, with these children: Floyd T., of Tyrone; Verne A., of Chicago, Ill.; Ian C., of Tyrone, R. D. 4; and Richard H., at home; also six grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. William Bray, of Greensburg. As a girl she bore a devoted devotion to her parents to a farm near State College, where on April 30, 1895, at the home of her parents she was united in marriage with W. H. Knarr, of Pine Grove Mills, by her pastor, the Rev. A. W. Guyer, pastor of the State College Methodist church, assisted by the Rev. Charles

MRS. LULU PENNINGTON

Funeral services were held Saturday morning in Cleveland, Ohio, for Mrs. Lulu Kramer Pennington, a Bellefonte native, who died Wednesday, February 11, 1942, in Cleveland. Interment took place in Cleveland. She had been ill two years. Mrs. Pennington was born in Bellefonte more than 30 years ago a daughter of William and Annie Flory Kramer. Her husband, Arthur, and three children, two daughters survive, in addition to three sisters. They are Mrs. Gertrude McCafferty, Mrs. Dean Shope, both of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Willis Rishel, of Dover, Fla.

MRS. ROSELLA HOFFMAN

Mrs. Rosella Hoffman, of Selinsgrove, died at the home of her brother, H. E. Snyder, of North Barnhart street, State College, at 9 p. m. Friday, February 13, 1942, after a two-days' illness following a stroke. She had been visiting her brother, David L., and Mary Jane Campbell Snyder, her husband, William H. O. Hoffman, died in 1924. Three brothers, Clark W., of Reading; David L., of Shamokin, and Harry E., of State College, survive.

MRS. ALICE F. MAFFET

Mrs. Alice F. Maffet, wife of John H. Maffet, died at her home in Sinking Valley Monday morning at 1 o'clock following several years' illness with a heart condition. Mrs. Maffet was a daughter of Martin and Mary Stuart Fleck and was born in Bald Eagle Valley on December 18, 1873. On April 20, 1897, at Martha Furnace she was united in marriage with John H. Maffet. She is survived by her husband and one son, F. M. Fleck, Derry, Pa.; also three sisters and a brother: Mrs. W. J. Ammerman, Homestead; Mrs. Jacob F. Hoy, Bellefonte; Mrs. A. M. Herman, State College and Stuart Fleck, Niagara Falls, N. Y. She was a member of the Sinking Valley Presbyterian church at Arch Spring and of the Sinking Valley Grange, No. 484, Patrons of Husbandry.

MRS. PETER HAUSER

Mrs. Catherine B. Hauser, wife of Peter Hauser, of near Snow Shoe, died at the family home early Monday morning, February 16, 1942, after a several years' illness with a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of Joseph and Eunice Trumble Bastian and was born at Antis Port on August 23, 1868, making her age at time of death 73 years, 5 months and 24 days. Surviving are her husband; two sons and two daughters: William, of Snow Shoe, and Harry, at home; Mrs. Bessie Moore, of LeConite; Mrs. Edna Huntington, of Johnstown. Funeral services will be held at 8:30 o'clock this Thursday morning at St. Mary's Catholic church, Snow Shoe, with the Rev. Father J. F. Connolly officiating. Interment will be made in the church cemetery.

JOSEPH GARBRICK

Joseph Garbrick, well known resident of Bellefonte and retired employe of the Federal Match Corporation (now the Universal Match Corp.) died at 5:40 o'clock Sunday afternoon at his home on Willowbank street, after an 18 months' illness with a complication of diseases. His illness did not become serious until about a week before death occurred. Mr. Garbrick was a charter member of the Bellefonte P. O. S. of A. and Moose lodges and held various offices in those organizations. For 48 years he had been a member of the Bellefonte Evangelical church. A son of Joseph and Susan Miller Garbrick, he was born at Linden Hill on December 14, 1866, making his age at time of death 75 years, 1 month and 11 days. He was united in marriage with Edith Lucas, who survives with four sons: Charles E. and J. Russell Garbrick, both of Bellefonte; Earl Garbrick, of New York City; and William Garbrick of Sarver. He was the last member of his immediate family. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Bellefonte Evangelical church, with the Rev. H. H. Jacobs, pastor officiating. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

LOUIS WATSON

Louis Watson died Thursday morning, February 12, 1942, at 3 o'clock at his home in Nanty Glo after spending fifteen months at the Mt. Alto Sanitarium. Mr. Watson returned home December 10, 1940, and bedfast only two days. Funeral services were held at his late home Sunday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Kees, pastor of the Methodist church. Burial was made in the Lloyd cemetery at Ebensburg. Mr. Watson was born at Snow Shoe in 1885, the son of George and Sarah Ellen Watson, both deceased. He had resided in Nanty Glo since going there with his parents 29 years ago. His wife was the former Mary A. Quick, of Moshannon, with whom he was united in marriage August 18, 1905. Eleven children were born to the union. Survivors include the widow and the following named children: Mrs. Bernard O'Farrell, Mrs. Walter Kelly, Mrs. George Dault, all of Nanty Glo; George Watson, Twin Rocks; Clarence and Calvin Watson, both of Nanty Glo;

Book Campaign Exceeds Quota

Shoemaker Brothers Volunteer to Transport Over 4000 Volumes to Harrisburg

The recent Centre county drive for books for the use of men in the armed forces of the United States nearly tripled the quota of 1500 volumes set for this county, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. Carl Iverson, librarian at the county library, who was in charge of the campaign.

JAMES EDWARD HOUTZ

James Edward Houtz of Millbrook, 76, died at his home there at 9:35 Monday morning, February 16, 1942, from a heart attack following a year's illness. He was born in Halfmoon township, a son of John and Julia Houtz, and was married to Bertha Dunnington who died in 1907. The following children survive: Calvin H. Houtz, Altoona; George E. Houtz, Altoona; Harry S. Houtz, Woodcrest; and William O. Houtz, Millbrook. Two brothers, Oscar, of Sinking Valley, and Willis, of Stormtown, also survive. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Koch funeral home, with Rev. T. G. Jones officiating. Interment was made in Gray's cemetery, Buffalo Run Valley.

ADDITIONAL DEATHS ON PAGE SIX—SECOND SECTION

44 Seniors On Trip To Washington, D. C.

Forty-four members of the senior class of the Bellefonte High School visited Washington D. C., the latter part of last week. The group left Bellefonte Thursday night and returned Sunday.

ILLNESS FATAL TO W. C. CHAMBERS

This week, the Rev. Evans D. Brown of the A. M. E. church of Bellefonte will be the guest speaker. Following in succession will be the Rev. Ivan L. Miller, of Pleasant Gap; the Rev. William A. Snyder, of Meadburg; the Rev. H. H. Jacobs of Bellefonte; the Rev. B. L. Stenger, of Altoona; and the Rev. H. F. Babcock, of State College. The public is cordially invited to attend any and all of these services.

ILLNESS FATAL TO W. C. CHAMBERS

W. C. Chambers, 43, of Bellefonte, died at his home in East Curtin street, with the Rev. H. C. Stenger, Jr., pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, and the Rev. Ward Williams, of Tyrone, officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

OFFERS LIBRARY FOR DEFENSE GROUP MEETINGS

Mrs. Carl Iverson, librarian at the Centre County Library, this week offered the rooms and facilities of the library to any defense organizations which are in need of a meeting place.

THANKS REGISTRARS

Local Board No. 2, of Bellefonte, takes this means of expressing its appreciation and thanks to the registrars who volunteered for service during the Selective Service registration day, Monday. The work of the registrars is deeply appreciated by the board.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Sartz-Wilde

Miss Helen Elizabeth Wilde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl I. Wilde, of South Gill street, State College, and Richard Sigmund Sartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sartz, of "Fox Lake," West Leasport, were married Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Methodist church at York. Mrs. Harry Freer, Seaford, Delaware, was matron of honor. Harry Freer was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Wilde attended Penn State and is a member of the Kappa Delta sorority. Mr. Sartz is a graduate of Penn State in the class of 1941. He was a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Sartz will make their home in York where Mr. Sartz is in defense work.

Coffee-Wieland

Miss Blanche Lorayne Wieland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Scott Wieland of Hartwick avenue, State College, and Paul Albert Coffee, son of Mrs. James A. Coffee and the late Mr. Coffee, of Lawrenceville, N. J., were married at high noon Saturday in Baltimore, Md. Rev. Quintan F. Beckley, Princeton University chaplain, performed the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. John Gaus, Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. James Walter Coffee of Cranford, N. J., was his brother-in-law. A reception was held at the home of Mrs. Gaus at Eden Terrace, Catonsville, Md. The couple will reside in Mt. Holly, N. J., where Mr. Coffee is employed as business manager of the Bell Telephone Company.

Kissell-Beck

A. B. Beck, of Snydertown, Centre County, announces the marriage of his daughter, Miriam Beatrice Beck, to John C. Kissell, of Lock Haven. The wedding was solemnized by the Rev. Paul J. Keller in the St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran church, of Martinsburg, Pa., on Saturday, February 14, 1942, at noon. The bride wore a navy blue, chalk-stripe three-piece suit, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Mildred Wenzke. Both wore shoulder corsages of gardenias. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Prof. John B. Beck of Lock Haven. Following the ceremony a very delightful wedding dinner was served at Teeters Restaurant in Martinsburg. There were 17 people in the wedding party. Mr. and Mrs. Kissell are spending several days in New York City, and will be at home in Lock Haven upon their return.

Stitzinger-Barkley

George Kennedy Stitzinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Stitzinger, of New Castle and grandson of J. Kennedy Johnston, of Bellefonte, and Miss Betty Barkley, of Elwood City, were married yesterday afternoon in the First Baptist church at Elwood City. The bride is a graduate of the Elwood City High School and Slippery Rock Teachers College in the class of 1941, and has been living at home. Mr. Stitzinger is a graduate of the New Castle High School and Slippery Rock Teachers College in the same class as that of his bride. The bridegroom is well-known in Bellefonte, having spent nearly all the summer months since childhood at the J. K. Johnston home and at the Johnston cabin at Hecla Park. He was a life guard at the Hecla Park swimming pool for several years until about four years ago when he served in the same capacity at the New Castle swimming pool. Mr. Stitzinger is associated with his father in the lumber business at New Castle.

Gorman-McMahon

Miss Marie Evelyn McMahon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. McMahon, of 322 South Allen street, State College, was married Saturday afternoon to Joseph Francis Gorman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Gorman, of Allentown. The ceremony was performed in the rectory of St. Catherine's church in Allentown by Rev. Hugh F. McMullan. A luncheon for the families and a few friends was held at the Lehigh Country Club. Mrs. John E. Gorman, widow of the bride's father, was her sister's matron of honor. Eugene Gorman was best man for his brother. Miss Jean Mary Ganey, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. The bride was graduated from Penn State College in 1932 and is a member of Chi Omega women's sorority and member of Williamsport. She attended Lehigh University and was graduated from Georgetown University in 1938. She is affiliated with Beta Theta Pi fraternity. The couple will live in Allentown where Mr. Gorman is employed in the legal department of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company.

Allard-Dehn

Miss Deloris Mary Dehn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dehn of 43 Wendell street, Rochester, N. Y., became the bride of Robert H. Allard, Jr., son of Robert Allard of East Main street, Rochester, N. Y., January 17, 1942, in the Lutheran-Congregational church, Helena street, Rochester. The altar was decorated with gladioli and roses. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Berg. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin in train with heart-shaped neck line and full length veil of tulle held in place by a crown of tulle, and she carried a bouquet of calla lilies. Miss Jane Keyes of Rochester, was maid of honor and wore a gown of pink tulle and cap and veil to match, and carried a bouquet of rose colored lilies and pink daisies. Charles J. Dehn, brother of the bride, was best man. The ushers were Gordon Allard and John Wilson, both of Rochester, New York. Miss Ruth Bundschach of Pauport, N. Y., sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "Saviour Let Thy Soldiers Rest." The bride's mother wore black crepe with accessories and a corsage of orchids. Following the ceremony about 150 guests attended the wedding reception held at the Allard Hotel, Rochester, after which Mr. and Mrs. Allard motored to Florida for two weeks' honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Allard will reside at 96 Garson avenue, Rochester.

Book Campaign Exceeds Quota

Shoemaker Brothers Volunteer to Transport Over 4000 Volumes to Harrisburg

The recent Centre county drive for books for the use of men in the armed forces of the United States nearly tripled the quota of 1500 volumes set for this county, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. Carl Iverson, librarian at the county library, who was in charge of the campaign.

JAMES EDWARD HOUTZ

James Edward Houtz of Millbrook, 76, died at his home there at 9:35 Monday morning, February 16, 1942, from a heart attack following a year's illness. He was born in Halfmoon township, a son of John and Julia Houtz, and was married to Bertha Dunnington who died in 1907. The following children survive: Calvin H. Houtz, Altoona; George E. Houtz, Altoona; Harry S. Houtz, Woodcrest; and William O. Houtz, Millbrook. Two brothers, Oscar, of Sinking Valley, and Willis, of Stormtown, also survive. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Koch funeral home, with Rev. T. G. Jones officiating. Interment was made in Gray's cemetery, Buffalo Run Valley.

ADDITIONAL DEATHS ON PAGE SIX—SECOND SECTION

44 Seniors On Trip To Washington, D. C.

Forty-four members of the senior class of the Bellefonte High School visited Washington D. C., the latter part of last week. The group left Bellefonte Thursday night and returned Sunday.

ILLNESS FATAL TO W. C. CHAMBERS

This week, the Rev. Evans D. Brown of the A. M. E. church of Bellefonte will be the guest speaker. Following in succession will be the Rev. Ivan L. Miller, of Pleasant Gap; the Rev. William A. Snyder, of Meadburg; the Rev. H. H. Jacobs of Bellefonte; the Rev. B. L. Stenger, of Altoona; and the Rev. H. F. Babcock, of State College. The public is cordially invited to attend any and all of these services.

ILLNESS FATAL TO W. C. CHAMBERS

W. C. Chambers, 43, of Bellefonte, died at his home in East Curtin street, with the Rev. H. C. Stenger, Jr., pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, and the Rev. Ward Williams, of Tyrone, officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

OFFERS LIBRARY FOR DEFENSE GROUP MEETINGS

Mrs. Carl Iverson, librarian at the Centre County Library, this week offered the rooms and facilities of the library to any defense organizations which are in need of a meeting place.

THANKS REGISTRARS

Local Board No. 2, of Bellefonte, takes this means of expressing its appreciation and thanks to the registrars who volunteered for service during the Selective Service registration day, Monday. The work of the registrars is deeply appreciated by the board.

Rightmour-Knoeffinger

Miss Isabelle J. Knoeffinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Knoeffinger, of Pleasant Gap, became the bride of Robert Rightmour, son of Mrs. Emma Rightmour of Bellefonte, at a ceremony performed Saturday evening at the parsonage of the Bellefonte Methodist church, with the pastor, the Rev. H. C. Stenger, Jr., officiating. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rocky. The young couple has no definite plans for the immediate future.

House-Schmauder

Announcement has been made of the marriage, February 8, in St. Nicholas Catholic church, Flushing, N. Y., of Miss Shirley Jean Schmauder, of Flushing, and Corp. Patrick House, son of the late John House, of Bellefonte and State College, and Mrs. House, now of Long Island City, N. Y. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Schmauder, of Flushing, and attended Queen College. She is a graduate of Katherine Gibbs Business School and has held a secretarial position in the law department of the New Jersey Central Railroad Company. Corp. House is a member of the U. S. Service Troop, stationed at Fort Devins, Mass.

Kissell-Beck

A. B. Beck, of Snydertown, Centre County, announces the marriage of his daughter, Miriam Beatrice Beck, to John C. Kissell, of Lock Haven. The wedding was solemnized by the Rev. Paul J. Keller in the St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran church, of Martinsburg, Pa., on Saturday, February 14, 1942, at noon. The bride wore a navy blue, chalk-stripe three-piece suit, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Mildred Wenzke. Both wore shoulder corsages of gardenias. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Prof. John B. Beck of Lock Haven. Following the ceremony a very delightful wedding dinner was served at Teeters Restaurant in Martinsburg. There were 17 people in the wedding party. Mr. and Mrs. Kissell are spending several days in New York City, and will be at home in Lock Haven upon their return.

Stitzinger-Barkley

George Kennedy Stitzinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Stitzinger, of New Castle and grandson of J. Kennedy Johnston, of Bellefonte, and Miss Betty Barkley, of Elwood City, were married yesterday afternoon in the First Baptist church at Elwood City. The bride is a graduate of the Elwood City High School and Slippery Rock Teachers College in the class of 1941, and has been living at home. Mr. Stitzinger is a graduate of the New Castle High School and Slippery Rock Teachers College in the same class as that of his bride. The bridegroom is well-known in Bellefonte, having spent nearly all the summer months since childhood at the J. K. Johnston home and at the Johnston cabin at Hecla Park. He was a life guard at the Hecla Park swimming pool for several years until about four years ago when he served in the same capacity at the New Castle swimming pool. Mr. Stitzinger is associated with his father in the lumber business at New Castle.

Gorman-McMahon

Miss Marie Evelyn McMahon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. McMahon, of 322 South Allen street, State College, was married Saturday afternoon to Joseph Francis Gorman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Gorman, of Allentown. The ceremony was performed in the rectory of St. Catherine's church in Allentown by Rev. Hugh F. McMullan. A luncheon for the families and a few friends was held at the Lehigh Country Club. Mrs. John E. Gorman, widow of the bride's father, was her sister's matron of honor. Eugene Gorman was best man for his brother. Miss Jean Mary Ganey, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. The bride was graduated from Penn State College in 1932 and is a member of Chi Omega women's sorority and member of Williamsport. She attended Lehigh University and was graduated from Georgetown University in 1938. She is affiliated with Beta Theta Pi fraternity. The couple will live in Allentown where Mr. Gorman is employed in the legal department of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company.

Allard-Dehn

Miss Deloris Mary Dehn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dehn of 43 Wendell street, Rochester, N. Y., became the bride of Robert H. Allard, Jr., son of Robert Allard of East Main street, Rochester, N. Y., January 17, 1942, in the Lutheran-Congregational church, Helena street, Rochester. The altar was decorated with gladioli and roses. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Berg. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin in train with heart-shaped neck line and full length veil of tulle held in place by a crown of tulle, and she carried a bouquet of calla lilies. Miss Jane Keyes of Rochester, was maid of honor and wore a gown of pink tulle and cap and veil to match, and carried a bouquet of rose colored lilies and pink daisies. Charles J. Dehn, brother of the bride, was best man. The ushers were Gordon Allard and John Wilson, both of Rochester, New York. Miss Ruth Bundschach of Pauport, N. Y., sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "Saviour Let Thy Soldiers Rest." The bride's mother wore black crepe with accessories and a corsage of orchids. Following the ceremony about 150 guests attended the wedding reception held at the Allard Hotel, Rochester, after which Mr. and Mrs. Allard motored to Florida for two weeks' honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Allard will reside at 96 Garson avenue, Rochester.

Get in the Game
Come in—register for this Saturday's drawing for a $25 Defense Bond—and other merchandise prizes. If you can't come in, mail this coupon today! Nothing to buy—for all adults.
Clip and Mail at Once
WOLF FURNITURE COMPANY
Bellefonte, Pa.
Gentlemen: Please enter my name for the Defense Bond Drawing for Saturday, February 21.
Name
Address
Drawing Every Other Saturday at 9:15 P. M.
You Must Register Every Week to Win That Week.
WOLF FURNITURE CO.
W. High Street Bellefonte

GARDEN THEATRE
LOCK HAVEN, PA.
FRIDAY & SATURDAY — FEB. 20-21
"Girls About Town"
JOAN BLONDELL
ROBT. BENCHLEY
"Thundering Hoofs"
ORSON WELLES
CITIZEN KANE
WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY — FEB. 25-26
"Father Takes a Wife"
ADOLPH MENJOU
GLORIA SWANSON
"Intermezzo"
The largest number of recruits ever recorded by the Navy in 30 days enlisted in the month following Pearl Harbor—55,888 men.
Read the Classified ads.
For Victory: Buy Bonds.

EASY TAKE YOUR STAND FOR WASHDAY FREEDOM!
NEW EASY SPINDRIER
DOES WHOLE WEEK'S WASH IN LESS THAN ONE HOUR!
Be Sensible—devote more free time to your family, defense activities, other important duties. The EASY Spindrier will wash, rinse, damp-dry 37 pounds of clothes in 59 minutes! See convincing proof... how it washes one load while it spindries a second... no wringer rolls to break buttons... how it washes drapes, slip-covers... watch it whirl out up to 25% MORE WATER... out ironing time because of no wringer wrinkles.
THESE FEATURES MAKE THE EASY SPINDRIER THE FINEST WASHER MADE
Spiralizer—Washes 1/2 faster, gentler too. Overload Switch—Protects motor—saves fuses. Automatic Timer—Insures correct washing time. Sediment Trap—Saves on water changes.
Only $159.95
OTHER MODELS $109.95 to $129.95
TERMS ARE STILL EASY! Buy America's No. 1 Deluxe Washer That's Engineered to Last!
ELECTRIC SUPPLY CO.
Bellefonte State College

Only 3 More Days. Our 101st Anniversary Sale
Positively Closes Saturday Evening, February 21st
For the 101st Year We Say — It's the Store Behind the Sale That Counts!
EVERY ARTICLE ON OUR FLOORS IS REDUCED FROM 10 TO 50% FROM THE ORIGINAL PRICE TAGS!
BRACHBILL'S
South Spring Street Open Evenings by Appointment Bellefonte, Penna.