

PLEASANT GAP

(From Last Week) Mrs. Martin Matthews, whose husband died suddenly at home on February 23, has stored her furniture and she with her three children has gone to Baltimore to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton B. Tate of Bellefonte, plans to move this week into the A. D. Smeltzer house vacated by the Matthews.

Donald Shank, a former employe of the Markle Dairy, but who left there some time ago to accept a position in Baltimore, was here for a few days recently and stored his furniture, and his wife and daughter Margaret accompanied him to Baltimore, where they will all make their home.

Mrs. Henry Noll spent a few days in Harrisburg last week. Mrs. Josephine Dyer of Pleasant Gap, was a recent overnight guest at the Noll-Melroy home.

Mrs. Ray Melroy returned home from Harrisburg Sunday evening, after spending ten days with her husband, who was very ill in that city. His condition has shown considerable improvement the last few days.

Earl Rimmey has been confined to his home for more than a week with the grippe.

Mrs. Rachael Noll has been very ill for the past ten days or more.

We are glad to report that Theodore Ramsey of Harrisburg, but well known in this community as the husband of Ethel Noll, formerly of this place, was able to return home about two weeks ago from the hospital, where he had been a patient since the early part of December.

Jack Baney had the misfortune of wrecking a car belonging to Millard Schreffler, while driving one evening last week. Jack was not hurt but the car was most too badly damaged to be repaired.

Miss Martha Wise left Saturday evening by bus for her home at Woodmont, Conn., after a two weeks' visit with friends here.

Mrs. Monzell and daughter motored to Altoona Tuesday to consult a child specialist about the latter's health.

The last meeting of the first aid course was held at the home of Mrs. Hugh Crumlish on Tuesday afternoon. The ladies were given their certificates and then enjoyed a delicious luncheon.

Miss Genevieve Kerstetter has been absent from her post at Melroy since Saturday, due to a severe attack of the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams were among those who attended the open house at the Masonic Home at State College Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Fetzer and son and Miss Lulu McClincy of Baltimore, spent a weekend with relatives here recently.

The Vance Alterio family will move from Whitecock to one of the Spier houses in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Noll entertained the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leach of State College at dinner last week one day.

Dr. Taylor of the Phillipsburg Hospital, will lecture to the Women's Civic Club on April 7 at 8:30 p. m. on Cancer, and also show motion pictures. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Harry Spear is spending a week with her mother at her home in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Feldman Hamilton and daughter Helen Louise of Houtdale, spent a few days last week at the W. H. Noll home.

Mrs. Martha Evey of Howard, was a dinner guest Sunday evening of the Wade Eveys.

William Rover of Niagara Falls, was a dinner guest of Mrs. Mary Swartz Saturday, and also called upon a number of other friends.

Among those who attended the annual turkey dinner and dance of the Old Port Masonic lodge at Centre Hall last Thursday evening in the school house, were Dr. and Mrs. I. R. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Noll, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stitzer, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Crumlish, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Simpson.

A luncheon was held at the Red Cross sewing room in the church last Thursday afternoon, at which time the closing exercises were held and certificates presented by Mrs. Ben Beizer, chairman, of Bellefonte chapter of Red Cross home nursing. Miss Brockerhoff, chairman of nursing activities, Mrs. Harold Kirk, chairman of publicity, and Mrs. Jean Harris were guests.

Communion services will be held in our church on Easter Sunday. Everybody welcome.

J. B. Poorman of Johnstown, spent the weekend with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson and sons of Warren, Ohio, spent a few days with relatives at this place and Pleasant Valley.

Visitors at the Arthur Burd home on Friday were Mrs. John Possinger of Coleville, Mrs. Charles Miller and Mary Miller of Dry Top, Mrs. William Rogers of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Edith Burd.

Mr. and Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. Olive Rhoades and children and Mrs. Nevin Watson were supper guests at the Walter Sweitzer home in Bellefonte on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Confer and three sons of Pleasant Valley, called at the J. T. Watson home on Friday.

A quilting party was held at the Lee Johnson home on Thursday. Those present were: Mrs. Clyde Watson, Mrs. Esther Reese, Mrs. Ben Fetzer of Milesburg, Mrs. Maurice Depeuy of New York, Mrs. Roy Leathers and son, Mrs. Ida Johnson, Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. James Wesley and daughter, Mrs. Clair Shawley and son of Yarnell.

Gladys Kelley of Bellefonte, called at the Orvis Watson home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Watson were callers at the John Watson home on Saturday.

Mrs. Orvis Watson and children spent Friday evening at the Roy Sheesley home at Howard.

Buy Defense Bonds now!

REBERSBURG

Rev. Ed. Bierly returned Thursday from Tallahassee, Florida, where he had been visiting his brother, Elmer Bierly, for the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beyers spent the weekend at Danville with the former's parents, and at Camp Meade, Md., with his two brothers, who are stationed there.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hettinger last Thursday.

Dick Berkstesser, who has been employed at the Middletown air depot, has been transferred to a station in Maine.

Mrs. Mary M. Abott attended a principals' meeting in Bellefonte last Thursday.

Miss Margaret Grubb is nursing a cracked wrist as a result of a fall while roller skating last Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock, Mrs. S. O. Mallory and daughter Doris, Mrs. C. A. Page, Miss Betty Page, Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg, Mrs. W. H. Hackenberg and daughter Joanne, were Saturday business visitors in Williamsport.

Donald Meek, who is attending an officers' training school at Carlisle, called at the Paul Winters home on Monday.

Miss Beatrice Brungart of Milton, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brungart.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wolf were notified that their daughter, Mrs. Stover Musser, R. N., is a patient at the Lewisport Hospital, where she has been employed.

Paul Stover and family of Locanton, called on Mrs. Elizabeth Weaver on Sunday.

Corp. Woodrow Bierly of Harrisburg, Corp. Paul Bierly of Carlisle, Pvt. Eugene Bierly of Savannah, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Gray of State College, were weekend visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bierly.

Mrs. Annie Miller of Pitcairn, spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Tena Brungart. She was accompanied here by Mrs. Minnie Mallory, who spent the past months in Irwin with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frye.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beahm of Harrisburg, and James Klinefelter of Millheim, called at the J. E. Ziegler home, Sunday.

Miss Doris Meyer, who is a student nurse in a Pittsburgh hospital, returned to her work last Thursday after a three weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beal and daughters Patti and Donna, of New Florence, and Mrs. Wayne Wagner of Lewisport, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Moyer, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Schade and family of Greenburg, visited at the H. A. Meyer home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lambert were Thursday visitors at the homes of Harry Weaver of State College, and Allen Mark of Spring Mills.

Theodore Baker of Pittsburgh, spent several days last week at the Sholl-Diehl home while making plans for the building of a new home in this town.

The following out-of-town relatives attended the funeral of Mrs.

Fred Fehl last Wednesday: Rev. Noah Fehl of Newberry, Mrs. Howard Struble of Cogan Station, Mrs. Emma Fehl at Danville, and daughter and granddaughter of Clearfield, Harry Weaver of Greenburg, and Harry Shreckengast of Avis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer returned home Saturday after having spent the winter months with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Masteller and family at Bloomsburg.

C. J. Weaver, Sr., is confined to his home because of a sore foot.

Mrs. M. C. Haines, Mrs. S. G. Ziegler, Mrs. John Reish and Mrs. Paul Winters attended a Republican council meeting at Port Matilda on Saturday.

Mrs. Floyd Bresler passed away at her home last Saturday, after a prolonged illness. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon, in God's Missionary church at Wolf's Store. Mr. Bresler died several months ago. One son, Paul, survives.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Reish and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hackman were Saturday visitors in Bellefonte.

Earl Burd, who is employed by the Woolworth stores, has recently been transferred from Allentown to Easton.

Miss Cella Brungart spent the weekend in State College with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Deeter.

Paul Dinges has moved his household furnishings from Millheim into the home of his father-in-law, Lee Wolf. Mr. Dinges will remain here for the present, while Mr. Dinges is employed in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Elery Herman, Mrs. Marion Young, and Mrs. Elizabeth Page of Jersey Shore, were Sunday visitors at the A. B. Wolf home.

C. C. Smull and daughter, Mrs. Paul Winters, were Friday business visitors in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Williamsport, spent the weekend with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wolf.

Mrs. Ellen Bierly, Miss Helen Shultz and daughter, Hilda, and C. C. Smull were Sunday dinner guests at the Meyer Brungart home.

Dr. K. A. Law vacated the Mrs. Volga Walker home, where he had his residence the past year and the Harry Garrett home, which has been his office and moved to Millheim on Monday. The former home is to be occupied by the Floyd Barner family of Tylersville, and the Garrett home is being tenanted to Dr. William Kelly, who will vacate the former Fehl home (now owned by Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg) Charles Garrett moved into his newly built house in West Rebersburg from Rockville; Ed. Gilbert, from Wolfe's Store in to the former J. P. Garrett house at Rockville, vacated by Chas. Garrett; John Hanselman from the west side of the E. H. Hosterman home to the home at Wolfe's Store which he recently purchased from Willis Bierly; George Day from the west side of the A. E. Lambert home to a farm near Lemont; Roy Gentzel from the L. A. Kidder home into the home vacated by George Day; Frank White from Spring Bank to Oak Hill, and Fred Stover to the farm vacated by Frank White; Ernest Lon from the Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg farm to the Frank farm near Madisonburg; Mr. Roekey from Spring Mills to the W. J. Hackenberg farm.

MOSHANNON

The Methodist Sunday school was rather small last Sunday, due to sickness and the heavy snow storm. The sermon by Rev. J. C. M. Hammond was on "The Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem."

Mr. and Mrs. James Beak, Mrs. LeRoy Lewis and Hope, motored to Brubbin last Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral of Thomas Lobb. They also called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. and Lillian Morris. They were glad to find Lillian much improved.

Kay and Dan Watson took supper at the Lewis home Sunday evening. Others from our town who attended the funeral of Thomas Lobb in Brubbin last Saturday were: Mr. Tine Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Rhetoric and Miss Sue Wagner.

David Watson and Ted Beals are on the sick list at this writing.

John McClusick returned home from the Phillipsburg hospital last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Condo, Elizabeth Condo and friend of Lock Haven, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Billy.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Bible class of the Methodist church, met Thursday evening, March 26, at the home of Mrs. Clyde Borger. After the business meeting refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. Clyde Borger, Mrs. Jacob Hazzard, Mrs. Ambers Fye, Mrs. Roman Wagner, Mrs. Doyle Borger, Mrs. Glenn Fye, Mrs. H. L. Yeager, Mrs. Harold Borger, and Mrs. Homer Quick.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis and Hope made a business trip to Jersey Shore. At Lock Haven Mrs. Lewis called to see Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fye, who were injured in an auto accident. Mr. Fye is able to work again, and Mrs. Fye is getting along nicely.

A rug sewing party was held at the home of Mrs. R. G. Fye, Wednesday evening of last week. Those present were: Mrs. Irvin Borger, Mrs. H. L. Yeager, Mrs. Harold Borger, Mrs. James Beak, Mrs. Doyle Borger, Mrs. Margaret Guver, Mrs. Gregg Watson, Mrs. Amber Fye, Mrs. Ray Watson, Mrs. Alfred Borger, Mrs. Jack McKean, Mrs. Andy Billy, Faye and Ernestine Quick, Mrs. Clarence Quick, Mrs. Mack Fitzsimmons, and Mrs. Cyrus Schnars.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Smith and children of Clearfield, visited at the Charles Guenet and John McClusick homes Sunday. Mrs. Guenet returned home after spending a week with her daughter.

Health is an asset to everyone but the doctors.

SNYDERTOWN

Communion services will be held at St. Mark's Lutheran church on April 5, Easter Sunday, at 9 a. m.

Mrs. Elery Krape was an all-day visitor with Mrs. Orvis Rhine on Wednesday. Afternoon callers at the same home were Miss Nellie Ferree and Mrs. Harry Walizer.

Little Donny Stover was taken to the Lock Haven hospital on Thursday morning where x-ray pictures were taken of his head injuries, received a week ago in an accident when he fell from his father's car. The x-ray revealed a small fracture of the skull.

Mrs. Elery Krape and son William, Clifford Rhine, Mrs. Harry Walizer, and daughter Jean, of town, were Saturday shoppers at Williamsport. On their return home they stopped at Linden and were supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gingery and family.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul J. Keller and family, of Martinsburg, were Monday callers in town. Rev. Keller participated at the funeral at Salona that day.

Mr. Norman Stover, of Salladyburg, was a week end visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stover.

Mrs. Annie Lutz and sister Katie, entertained little Mary Lou and Joe Keller, of Martinsburg, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burrell and daughter Edith, of Salona, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Haagan and family.

Callers at the Nevin Stover home during the past week were Mary Lou and Joe Keller, of Martinsburg; Norman Stover, of Salladyburg; Mrs. Annie Lutz, Mrs. Elery Krape, Jean Walizer and Barbara Haagan, of town; Mrs. Glenn Rogers, Nittany; Mrs. Emory Miller and sons, of Hubersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Walizer, of Clintondale.

Mrs. Ed Graves and Harold Haagen left Friday night for New York to attend a funeral of Mr. Graves brother.

Mrs. Elery Krape was an all-day visitor with Mrs. Orvis Rhine on Wednesday. Afternoon callers at the same home were Miss Nellie Ferree and Mrs. Harry Walizer.

Little Donny Stover was taken to the Lock Haven hospital on Thursday morning where x-ray pictures were taken of his head injuries, received a week ago in an accident when he fell from his father's car. The x-ray revealed a small fracture of the skull.

Mrs. Elery Krape and son William, Clifford Rhine, Mrs. Harry Walizer, and daughter Jean, of town, were Saturday shoppers at Williamsport. On their return home they stopped at Linden and were supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gingery and family.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul J. Keller and family, of Martinsburg, were Monday callers in town. Rev. Keller participated at the funeral at Salona that day.

Mr. Norman Stover, of Salladyburg, was a week end visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stover.

Mrs. Annie Lutz and sister Katie, entertained little Mary Lou and Joe Keller, of Martinsburg, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burrell and daughter Edith, of Salona, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Haagan and family.

Callers at the Nevin Stover home during the past week were Mary Lou and Joe Keller, of Martinsburg; Norman Stover, of Salladyburg; Mrs. Annie Lutz, Mrs. Elery Krape, Jean Walizer and Barbara Haagan, of town; Mrs. Glenn Rogers, Nittany; Mrs. Emory Miller and sons, of Hubersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Walizer, of Clintondale.

Mrs. Ed Graves and Harold Haagen left Friday night for New York

SPRING MILLS

The alumni dance held in the school auditorium last Friday evening was largely attended and was a brilliant success.

William Neese is confined to his room with a heart condition.

The opening of trout season is rapidly nearing, we notice a number of our anglers fishing for suckers in Penns Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Albright spent Sunday visiting at the Merle Walker home at Farmers Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Neese of Millheim were visitors at the William Neese home last Wednesday evening.

Miss Dolores Condo of Lewisburg, recently spent a weeks vacation at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Condo.

We notice a few of our citizens have planted their onions and sowed some lettuce, the 18-inch snow on Sunday evidently was the onion snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wentzel of Logan, were supper guests at the C. E. Zeigler home on Monday evening.

Miss Dorothy Henry spent Sunday visiting friends at Lewisport.

Mrs. Shawner and family recently moved on the Allison farm adjoining town.

Mrs. Charles Kniss has been confined to her home for several days last week with an attack of the grippe.

BUSH HOLLOW

Well, old Bush Hollow was about snowed in for once, or at least a good many of the people were. When there is almost 30 inches of snow fall it's apt to pen some folks in. On Sunday evening there was 28 inches and some more fell after that. We are hoping this will be the last snow for this spring. But we are wondering what this snow would be called, surely not an Easter snow.

Cottage prayer meeting on Friday night, April 3, at the home of Mrs. Fye at Runville at 7 o'clock. Don't forget the change in time. We were glad for the Runville folks who attended our services last Friday evening at the Holt home.

Don't forget the revival which is to start Monday night, April 6, in the church, with the Rev. Schweitzer as evangelist and Frances Massey, of Virginia, as a singer. She will not be able to be present until Wednesday, but come out anyhow and hear Rev. Schweitzer. Services each night from April 6 to continue for two weeks.

Carl Spotts has secured employment in the P. R. R. shops at Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Malin Moore and son spent Thursday evening at the Martin Spotts home.

Martin Spotts purchased a truck last week from J. B. Flick.

Items are scarce this week. Blame it on the deep snow.

BLESSED RELIEF from symptomatic pain and discomfort suffered by millions of "The Look of the Month Ladies." Try CHI-CHES-TERS PILLS as thousands of women are happily doing. Contains no habit-forming drugs nor narcotics. Safe to take as directed. and up 50¢

Remember the glorious butterscotch of your school days? TASTE IT AGAIN IN Sealtest BUTTERSCOTCH ROYALE ICE CREAM. IN THE SEALTEST PINT PACKAGE Butterscotch Royale... April's Sealtest Flavor of the Month... Rudy Vallee says: Try these two delicious April Fountain Specials at your Sealtest Dealer's. "BUTTERSCOTCH ROYALE SURPRISE"—the latest thing in sundaes. "BUTTERSCOTCH ROYALE TOPPER"—a honey of a soda, made with Butterscotch Royale Ice Cream. Hoffmann's Sealtest ICE CREAM. Sealtest, Inc. and this company are under the same ownership.

How to get free HOMEMAKING IDEAS AND TESTED RECIPES. IF YOU BELONG TO THE HONORABLE AND HARD-WORKING ORDER OF HOMEMAKERS PUT ON YOUR HAT... TURN THE KEY IN THE LOCK... AND WALK... DRIVE OR RIDE TO THE HOMEMAKING SCHOOL. THERE'LL BE... TESTED RECIPES NEW KITCHEN EQUIPMENT PRIZES AND FUN THE KITCHEN HAS A BRAND NEW "DECOR". Sponsored by THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT Time and Place... Wed., Thurs., Fri., Apr., 15, 16, 17 2:00 to 4:00 P.M. Y. M. C. A. Mrs. Dorothy Bathgate, Lecturer