Mr. and Mrs. John Neff entertained Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stover and other neighbors and friends at an ice cream party last Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Stover were also surprised at their home this Tuesday evening when a group of neighbors had a party for them and extended their wishes for happiness in their new home near Madisonburg.

J. Harold Durt is employed this week on construction work in Corry.

CAR AND TRUCK IN MILESBURG ACCIDENT

A car operated by Lester Mann of Clarence and a truck driven by Walter Scott of Williamsport, collided at the Weaver crossing in Central City, Monday morning, causing about $100 damage. No one was injured.

The truck was traveling toward Wingate and the car was moving in the opposite direction. While rounding the curve Mann's car skidded into the truck, motor police who investigated, reported.

4-H CLUB MEMBERS HELP SCRAP SALVAGE DRIVE

Seventy-three tons of needed scrap materials were collected recently by

Dauphin county 4-H Club members in cooperation with rural schools, reports J. F. Keim, assistant state club leader at the Pennsylvania State College.

Most of the materials were collected at 10 designated points where 4-H Club leaders or other interested persons assisted in weighing the materials and delivering them to dealers in Harrisburg. Another collection is planned soon to gather remaining scrap materials on Dauphin county farms.
