Cantata To Be Sung at Church

Public Invited to Presentation by Choir of Local Lutheran Church

The beautiful "Crucifixion and Ascension," a sacred cantata for Easter, written by Fred W. Peace, will be sung by the choir of Saint John's Lutheran church, Bellefonte, on Easter Day afternoon at 4 o'clock. The parts of the cantata are based upon Scripture passages telling the story of the suffering and death of our Saviour, His resurrection and triumph. The public is cordially invited to hear this musical setting of the season's meaning to the world. The parts of the cantata are as

-The Easter flower display of the Woodring Floral Gardens in the former Widmann & Teah room in the Brockerhoff Hotel building is attracting much attention. Noticeably absent from this year's Easter flowers are lillies, which are extremely scarce because the war cut off the principal supplies of bulbs.

-Mr. and Mrs. William Brachbill expect to vacate the Orvis apartment on East Curtin street about May 1, and will move into the Brachbill home on South Spring street. Mr. Brachbill's mother, Mrs. Charles Brachbill, who had maintained her home in the latter residence although she has been in Philadelphia much of the time, has decided to locate in Philadelphia indefinitely. Her daughter, Miss Roseann Brachbill, now in school, will occupy a small apartment in the home during the summer months.
