

OBITUARY

CHARLES W. MILLER

Charles William Miller, of Tyrone, died Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the State Hospital at Philipsburg. Mr. Miller was born September 10, 1885, at Milesburg, a son of E. R. and Dora (McKinley) Miller, June 5, 1917, at Huntingdon, Pa., he was united in marriage with Ada Shaver Swayne. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Dora Miller, Tyrone; his wife and two daughters, Mrs. G. Blair Fink and Mrs. Josephus Naylor, Tyrone; also two sisters and one brother, Miss Lavina Miller, Mrs. J. M. Gillman and J. P. Miller, all of Tyrone. Mr. Miller was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Tyrone, and of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineemen. He was an employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad having served as a freight fireman for 25 years.

MRS. SUSAN DOHERTY

Mrs. Susan Doherty, of Spangler, died in the Spangler Hospital at 9 o'clock Saturday night, April 4, 1942, after a short illness. Mrs. Doherty, mother of George Doherty of Snow Shoe, assistant superintendent of the J. H. France Brick Company at Clarence, for many years resided at Hawk Run. She was born at Stratfordshire, England, on April 16, 1870, and had she lived until April 16 would have observed her 72nd birthday. Her husband, Bernard, preceded her in death. Surviving in addition to the son, George, are these children: Mrs. Morris Lehigh, Mrs. James Vitale and Lawrence Doherty, all of Clarence; Paul, of Snow Shoe; and Mrs. Martin Zeleny, of Ham-tranck, Mich.; a brother residing in Spangler; and ten grandchildren. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at St. Agnes Catholic church, Morrisdale, with interment in the church cemetery.

MRS. CHARLES E. HASSINGER

Mrs. Margaret B. Hassinger, wife of Charles E. Hassinger, of East Curtin street, Bellefonte, died unexpectedly at 10:15 o'clock Sunday night, April 5, 1942, at the Geisinger Hospital, Danville, where she had been undergoing treatment since last Wednesday. Mrs. Hassinger underwent an operation for a gall condition on Friday. Deceased was a daughter of John H. and Martha J. Alkey Barnhart and was born in Bellefonte on October 13, 1873, making her age at time of death 68 years, 5 months and 22 days. She is survived by her husband, Charles E. Hassinger, a guard at Rockview penitentiary; four children, Charles A., of Coudersport; Gilbert B., Bellefonte; Mrs. William Shields, Indiana, Pa., and Miss Ellen Hassinger, at home; and two sisters and a brother, Mrs. David C. Grove and Miss Carrie Barnhart, both of Bellefonte, and Harry Barnhart, of Steubenville, Ohio, in addition to nine grandchildren. Mrs. Hassinger was an active member of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, was a member of Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R., and of the Woman's Club, and was a charter member of the Bellefonte American Legion Auxiliary. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Widows home, with Rev. William C. Thompson, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

BARBARA JAYNE McMONIGAL

Barbara Jayne McMonigal, nine-year-old daughter of Mrs. S. P. Gray, died at her home at Port Matilda, R. D., Friday evening at 6 o'clock, following a three months' illness of measles and pneumonia. She was born July 23, 1933, and is survived by her mother, stepfather, a half-brother, Samuel Harry, 20-months-old, and grandmother. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the S. P. Gray home, with Rev. J. H. Weaver of Port Matilda, officiating. Interment was made in Black Oak cemetery, Port Matilda.

RAYMOND H. MARTIN

Raymond H. Martin, of South Atherton street, State College, died in the Centre County Hospital at 2:03 o'clock yesterday morning, April 8, 1942, after five days' illness of pneumonia. He was 70. The deceased was born May 7, 1881 at Howard, a son of Hugh and Cecelia Krapp Martin. He was the last member of his family and is survived by one niece, Miss Sarah E. Miller, of State College. Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at Koch's funeral home, State College, with Rev. E. H. Jones officiating. Interment will take place in Union cemetery, Bellefonte. Friends will be received at the funeral home tonight from 7 to 9 o'clock.

JOHN B. BURKET

John B. Burket, one of the few remaining Civil War veterans in Huntingdon county, died at his home at Warriors Mark Monday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock. Mr. Burket had been ill with chronic nephritis since last Christmas. Mr. Burket was a son of Peter and Nancy (Homer) Burket and was born at Warriors Mark, March 31, 1849. He was twice married, his first wife being Jennie Lowe October 24, 1877, at Altoona, he was united in marriage with Ella B. McFarland. He was a resident of Warriors Mark his entire life, following the occupation of funeral director until his retirement a number of years ago. Mr. Burket, when a lad of 14 years of age, enlisted in the Union army during the Civil War, serving with distinction with the 205th Pennsylvania volunteer infantry. He was a member of the Warriors Mark Methodist church and for many years was a very active member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He is survived by two children to the first marriage, Mrs. Carrie Mouck, Altoona, and Mrs. Minnie Mong, of Bellwood; and two children to the second marriage, Dr. C. W. Burket, of Altoona, and Mrs. Edna Burton, of Philadelphia; also five grandchildren.

WILLIAM CLARK LINDEMAN

William Clark Lindeman, six-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lindeman of Boalsburg, died at 9 a. m. Friday in the Cumberland hospital. The child is survived by two brothers and a sister. Funeral and interment will take place at Myersdale.

MRS. LAURA W. GUNSAULUS

Mrs. Laura Wright Gunsalus, of 231 East Bishop street, Bellefonte, died in Bellefonte at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, April 7, 1942, after an illness with a complication of diseases. Mrs. Gunsalus was born in Tusseyville on January 1, 1864, making her age at time of death 78 years, 3 months and 6 days. Her husband, William Luther Gunsalus, with whom she was united in marriage 11 years ago last October, passed away on January 1, 1939. The sole survivors are several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this Thursday afternoon at the Widows home, Bellefonte, with Rev. A. G. Hershey of Bellefonte officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery.

MISS ELIZABETH RUSHNOCK

Miss Elizabeth Rushnock, 54, well-known Clarence resident, died at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, April 4, 1942, at her home in Clarence of complications following a two-weeks' illness with pneumonia. Miss Rushnock had not been well since the death of her mother two months ago when she contracted a cold while attending the funeral. The deceased was born in Austria, July 20, 1887, a daughter of Andrew and Mary Zible Rushnock. These brothers and sisters survive: Andrew, of Warren, Ohio; Joseph and Susan, at home; Mrs. William Takash, New Brunswick, N. J.; Mrs. Catherine Frank, and Mrs. John Pollis, of Clarence. Funeral services were held yesterday morning in St. Michael's church, Clarence, with Rev. J. W. Palfy officiating. Interment was made in the church cemetery.

JOSEPH A. DECKER

Joseph A. Decker of Tyrone, R. D. 3, died Saturday, April 4, 1942, at 12:15 p. m. at his home following an illness of one week of influenza. He was born July 4, 1888 at Marthas Furnace, a son of Joseph and Rebecca (Glantz) Decker, both deceased, and is survived by his wife, Donna Mae Kennedy Decker, and these sons and daughters: Kenneth Decker, of Hanover; Mrs. Mary Shaw and Mrs. Catherine Buhle, both of Barborton, Ohio; Dorsey, who is with the United States Army; and Joseph Jr., Anna Mae and Robert, all at home. Also surviving are a brother, Aquila Decker, of Northwood; and Mrs. Nanny Valentine, of Bellwood. He was a member of the First United Brethren church of Tyrone. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the home

Schnitz and Knapp—or Apple and Buttons (dumplings) to you!—an old Pennsylvania farm dish modernized by lecturer Dorothy Bathgate. It's featured among many other fascinating old recipes on the first of three Centre Democrat Homemaking School classes next Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A.

FRANKLIN M. RACHAN

Franklin M. Rachan, for the past 24 years American Railway Express agent at Bellefonte, died suddenly at 10:15 o'clock Sunday night at his home near Milroy. He had worked as usual Saturday, but complained of not feeling well shortly after retiring Sunday night. He suffered a heart attack when he got up to get some medicine and died almost instantly. Mr. Rachan has been employed by the Railway Express Company for more than 30 years. The family lived on East Howard street, Bellefonte, until about nine years ago when they moved to near Milroy. Since then he had commuted to work. Deceased was a son of Harvey and Amanda Bartges Rachan and was born in Penn Hall on August 22, 1887, making his age at time of death 64 years, 7 months and 13 days. Surviving are his wife, the former Eva Fryer; a daughter, Mrs. Clark Shultz of Bellefonte; one sister, Mrs. John Wertz, of Delmaria, and three grandchildren. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Wetzel Memorial Chapel, Millsburg, with Rev. Harry C. Stenger, Jr. of Bellefonte, officiating. Interment was made in the Oak Ridge cemetery near Unionville.

ADDITIONAL DEATHS ON PAGE SIX—SECOND SECTION

RECENT WEDDINGS

Dugan—Sholl
Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sholl of East Bishop street, Bellefonte, announce the marriage of their daughter, Alice B. to Harry Dugan of Philadelphia. The ceremony took place March 14 in the rectory of St. Clement's Catholic church, Philadelphia, and was performed by Rev. Dunn, pastor. Mrs. Dugan is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School, class of 1938, and is now a nurse in training at St. Vincent's Hospital, Philadelphia. Mr. Dugan, a graduate of the Williamsport High School, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dugan of Williamsport. He is employed by the General Electric Company at Philadelphia. Mrs. Dugan expects to continue her nursing studies. They will live in Philadelphia.

ADDITIONAL WEDDINGS ON PAGE SIX—SECOND SECTION

RECENT WEDDINGS

Harner—Bathurst
Alberta Elizabeth Bathurst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Bathurst, became the bride of Harold Horner, Oak Hall, Centre county, Saturday night, April 4, at 7:30 at the home of the bride's parents. The beautiful ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. L. Baughman, pastor of Grace Evangelical church of Juniata. The bride wore a blue dress with a corsage of yellow tea roses. Miss Onda Bathurst, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid and wore a dusty rose dress and a corsage of yellow roses. George Horner, a brother of the bridegroom served as best man. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate families and a number of friends. The couple left the next morning for a trip through Philadelphia and Washington and to points in the south.

Shuey—Lucas

Miss Naomi Violet Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira P. Lucas of Pleasant Gap, became the bride of Don H. Shuey, son of P. B. Shuey, of Axemann, in a ceremony performed Sunday afternoon in the Axemann Methodist church by Rev. Ivan Miller. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a light blue jersey suit with luscious tan accessories and carried a corsage of yellow roses. The maid of honor, Miss Betty Rossman of State College, wore a pale blue wool suit with navy blue accessories and carried a corsage of pink roses. The church was decorated with pussy willows and snapdragons and roses. Best man was Earl Gehret, Jr., of Axemann. Ushers were Nevin Mulfinger and John Stine. Mrs. Ivan Miller presided at the piano before the ceremony, and Mrs. Harold O'Bryan sang "I Love You Truly." The bride is a graduate of State College High

Name Committee At Port Matilda

William A. Ross, District Leader, Announces 'Pledge For Victory' Aides

William A. Ross, chairman of the Port Matilda district of the Centre County Defense Savings Committee, yesterday announced the personnel of his committee to aid in conducting the Pledge for Victory campaign in that area.

Mr. Ross's appointments and the groups they represent, follow: (All addresses are Port Matilda unless otherwise indicated).
For Port Matilda borough: Dr. O. E. Henrity, Burgess; Charles Woodring, bankers; John Bennett, I. O. O. F.; Mrs. Charles Dunlap, Rebekahs; C. Paul Ziegler, sportsmen; Charles Steele, firemen; B. F. Nicodemus, industry; Mrs. Harry Marshall, Garden Club; Mrs. Clair Lykens, Parent-Teachers' Association; Miss Isabel M. Snyder, schools; Rev. W. H. Rissmiller, ministry; Miss Mildred Weaver (secretarial duties); J. S. Williams, postmaster; and John Crain and Mrs. George Rhule, Jr. For Worth Township: Wilbur Woodring, soil conservation; Clarence Weaver, rural mail carriers; Mrs. Boyd Gensmer, Grange; Ernest Ardry and LeRoy Reese. Taylor Township: C. W. Solt, Harold Ehard, Lawrence Nevin, and Robert Miller, Tyrone, R. D. 3. Halfmoon Township: E. E. Phillips, merchant; and Clarence Peters, American Legion.

Huston Township: J. H. Turner, merchant; Mrs. Paul Green, Mrs. Marie Alexander, Mrs. William Crispin and Miss Mary Richards, all of Julian.

Oppose College Parking Meters

A petition signed by more than 60 State College merchants, asking for the removal of two-thirds of the parking meters in that borough, was presented to State College Council at its regular meeting Monday night. The petition was referred to the police and finance committee to suggest a plan for conducting a poll of citizens on the proposal.

The U. S. Employment Service has been expanded and streamlined to meet wartime labor-recruiting needs of industry, agriculture, and business.

Benefit Concert at State College April 10

Featuring Miss Barbara Troxell, soprano, and the Variety Quartette and "Hy-Los," the Penn State Glee Club will present a special benefit concert for the Red Cross in Schwab auditorium, on the College campus, Friday evening, April 10.

Miss Troxell is a Penn State graduate in the class of 1937. During her undergraduate days she established herself as a singer of merit, and since completing her work at Penn State she has been studying voice at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia. She has been well received in several public appearances.

The glee club will sing a variety of numbers, embracing the fields of patriotic songs, college songs, and Negro spirituals. The Hy-Los, a selected group of singers, will present several songs of the sea.

The program is under the direction of Professor R. W. Grant. Admission is 50 cents, tax included, and the proceeds will be turned over to the State College Red Cross War Relief Fund. The concert will begin at 8 p. m.

Democratic Women To Meet at College

A meeting of District No. 8 executive board of the Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women will be held in the form of a luncheon at the Nittany Lion Inn, State College, at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 11. All interested Democratic women are invited to attend. Speakers will include Marie Bickert of Philadelphia, state vice chairman; Emma Guffey Miller of Pittsburgh, national committee woman; Mrs. Myrtle Beard, of Reading, regional director, and Mrs. Florence Armstrong, of Allentown, chairman of the speakers' bureau.

State College Child Is Painfully Burned

Frederick Kissinger, aged eight months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kissinger, of West Fairmount avenue, State College, was admitted to the Centre County Hospital here, Wednesday of last week. The child suffered burns about the chin, chest and abdomen when he grabbed a cup of hot coffee while sitting on a high chair. His condition was not serious.

"SPRING DAY" PROGRAM AT HUBLERSBURG SCHOOL

The home economics department of the Walker Township School at Hublersburg will observe "Spring Day" on the afternoon of April 16 at 1 o'clock. An interesting program has been planned by the girls under the guidance of the teacher. A hearty invitation is extended to parents and others interested.

Men, Women Over 40 Don't Be Weak, Old Fool Poppy, New, Younger

Take Care, Contains general tonic, stimulates, often needed after 40—by bodies lacking iron, calcium, phosphorus and Vitamin B₁₂. A "spring" tonic writes: "It did so much for patients, I took it myself. Results were fine." Get special instructions. 100% size extra. Taste! Taste! Today for only 25c. Start feeling very "fresh" this very day. For sale at all good drug stores everywhere—in Bellefonte at Widmann & Teah.

When you think of HARDWARE Think of SCHAEFFERS!

- PEAT MOSS in 25—50—100-lb. bags.
- DRY LIME SULPHUR for Dormant Spraying.
- ROSE-AID for Better Roses.
- CERTIFIED MAINE SEED POTATOES, by the pound or bag.
- SHEEP MANURE, Garden Fertilizer and Bone Meal.
- BURPEE'S GARDEN SEEDS, the most complete line in Central Pennsylvania.
- BROOMS, DUST MOPS and Furniture Polish.
- LAWRENCE WALL AND OUTSIDE PAINTS which defy competition in price and quality.
- ECLIPSE LAWN MOWERS. A complete line.
- COLUMBIAN ENAMELED COAL RANGES.

Schaeffer Hardware

Allegheny St. Bellefonte, Pa.

COMMUNITY WELFARE FUND PLANS FORMULATED
A meeting of the board of directors of the Bellefonte Community Welfare Fund was held in the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday evening, March 28. The meeting was in charge of the president, E. Keith Anderson. At this time two new directors were elected to serve on the board, namely Mrs. Carolyn Waite and Leroy Plumb. Mrs. Carolyn Waite, who formerly was secretary of the organization, has resigned to accept a position with the local tire rationing board. Mrs. Hassel Lese has been elected secretary and will continue the same work as that done by Mrs. Waite.

Solicitors will be working during the month of April on the general industrial and commercial subscriptions, and the campaign for all individual pledges will be started on May 1.

Lodge Dues From Afar
From John L. Lucas, former St. Mary's resident now somewhere in the besieged Philippines, where he is working on a hydroelectric project, came a check for four years' dues to the Elks Lodge of St. Marys last week. Lodge secretary F. A. Robinson, Jr., received the check, dated Dec. 22. The accompanying letter gave no hint of Lucas' present location.

Buy Defense Bonds now!

Save Food! Save Time! Save Work! . . . Electrically!

VITAMINS for Victory!

Modern Cooking methods conserve an average of ninety-one per cent of the Vitamins. See the New GENERAL ELECTRIC RANGE at the Centre Democrat Cooking School.

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday April 15, 16, 17, at the Y.M.C.A.

Check These Features . . .

- Clean speed Calrod units.
- Economical focused heat.
- Flexible . . . five measured heats. Fast cooking—starts in less than 30 seconds.
- Durable Calrod units, have a life expectancy of 15 years or more.
- Exclusive G-E oven—three ovens in one for economy, flexibility and capacity.
- Big 7-quart thrift cooker.
- Exclusive G-E triple oven—3 ovens in a color for every heat—a heat for every cooking need.

Buy now and save for Defense. Your old stove as part payment

WE STILL HAVE A FEW ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS FOR IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

Electric Supply Co.

Sales and Service

Bellefonte State College

Approximately THREE-QUARTERS of a MILLION LOAVES of Olde-Tyme and Betty Co-Ed Enriched Bread have been purchased by discriminating housewives!

Just one year ago we began the marketing of our Enriched Breads. We know the value of added amounts of Vitamins and Minerals to our diet.

We know that bread is the natural food to provide these added Vitamins and Minerals.

Our Country is at war, fighting for the continuation of our American way of life. Many of us are working long hours. We can fortify against body and mental fatigue by eating generous amounts of

Olde-Tyme and Betty Co-Ed Enriched White Bread Daily

Our Federal Government's office of Defense Health and Welfare Services advocates the use of Enriched White Breads.

MRS. DOROTHY BATHGATE
Will explain the value of enriched white bread to the diet, at the Centre Democrat Cooking School at the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. WED., THUR., FRIDAY, APRIL 15-16-17