DR. PAULINE B. MACK TO ADDRESS P. T. A.

Dr. Pauline B. Mack, professor of Textile Chemistry at Penn State will speak at a meeting of the Centre Hall-Potter Parent-Teacher Association Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, on "Nutrition and the Nation's Fitness."

BASEBALL SEASON TO OPEN FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The opening game of the current high school baseball season will be played here Friday afternoon against Port Matilda, beginning at 3 o'clock.

Of a large group reporting for practice, Coach Donald Rose finds only a small group of veterans including: John Rimmer, Jr., Ernest Frank, Jr., and Nevin Rimmer as infielders, and Albert Dutrow and Marlin Fye with some pitching experience.

Robert Ross and William C. Booser, Jr. may also mature as pitchers this year. The catching of the battery will probably fall to Nevin Rimmer, Dean Ross, or Robert Puff.

Others trying out for infield posts are: George Ralston, Bruce Moyer, G. F. Smith, Jr., Jack Brouse, Edwin Crawford, Fred Horner and Bill Reese.

The outfield positions will be filled from this group: Bill Puff, McDonald Fletcher, Eldon Whitman, Jack Riegel, Bob Moyer, Don Brouse, Paul Bradford, Jr., and Miles King.

The duties of the solicitors is to visit every home in the community and secure pledges to purchase stamps or bonds periodically throughout the war. These stamps and bonds are to be bought, however, not from solicitors but from banks or post offices.

The National Defense Savings staff hopes by this means to secure a two-fold advantage, additional funds for the war effort and a form of security for individual citizens against post-war depression.

The campaign is to be closed after a few days of concentrated effort. Among the reports from committees was the following from J. F.
