

MILESBERG

Mrs. Kauffman of Tyrone, was a weekend guest at the Linus Gill home. Mrs. M. H. Hall and son Emerson, spent Sunday at Mill Hill. Miss Sara Peace of Lock Haven, spent the weekend at her home here. The girls of the Philathea class of the Baptist church are making plans to hold their annual strawberry festival on June 11. Strawberries will be served in various ways, also home made ice cream and candy will be on sale. Plan now to attend. Mahlon Harvey of the U. S. Army, is spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harvey of Moore Run. We extend to the family of Mrs. T. C. Sprinkle our sympathy in their bereavement. The Sprinkle family were former residents of our town. If you are thinking of sending a box of good things to eat to your boy in the service or some friend, include a box of that good crunchy candy, which is for sale by the Philathea class of the Baptist church. Candy can be procured from any member of the class, and is 35 cents per pound. It is vacuum-packed and easy to mail. Delicious and healthful—just try some. Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bittner, had the misfortune to wreck the family car on Friday night near the John Furl home in Runville. The car hit the bank and upset, Paul escaped with some cuts on the head, but the car was beyond repair. The accident was due to the fog which was very heavy. Paul is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. William Eckenroth of Central City. A young son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis McClellan had the misfortune to cut his foot badly when he stepped on some glass while wading in the creek. He is getting along nicely at this writing. The Wo-Fo-Lo class of the Baptist Sunday school celebrated their anniversary with a chicken dinner at the Flesher tea room at Julian on May 8th. A feature of the evening was the revealing of secret sisters for the past year and a drawing of names for the coming year. Also an exchange of gifts. Election of officers for the coming year followed. Those elected were: Lucy Brown, president; Ruth Miles, vice president; Helman, secretary; Dorothy Dorman, assistant secretary; Evelyn Gettig, treasurer; Virginia Miller, assistant treasurer. Those present were: Rhoda Sheetz, Miriam Sheetz, Mary E. Miles Ruth Miles, Anna Wolfe, Lucy Brown, Laura Helman, Dorothy Dorman, Evelyn Gettig, Mary McKinley, Virginia Miller, Minnie Winn, Violet Watson. As a surprise to their teachers, Miss Rhoda Sheetz, the girls presented her with a beautiful umbrella on which was pinned handkerchiefs from each girl. RATIONS Rations on sugar and coffee. Rations on gasoline. And rations on other things. The end remains to be seen. They're not putting cuffs anymore. On the bottom of men's pants; But they were just a hiding place for a lot of dust and ants. Those who drank two cups of coffee. And used lots of sugar, too. Will wish the war was in Hades. Before the thing is through. But what is a little sacrifice. And still we can win the war. Like we did before. —L. S.

REBERSBURG

Mrs. Emma Sheehan of Rochester, N. Y., arrived Friday at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg, for an indefinite visit. Mrs. Edith Breen and daughter Betty Gentzel, were weekend guests with the former's son-in-law, William Rachau and family, in Milesburg. Mrs. H. G. Hubler of Wilkensburg, and son William, of the Royal Air Force in Canada, were guests of the latter's grandmother, Mrs. Ada Hubler, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Weaver and daughter Elva Mae, of Reading, spent the weekend with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver, Sr. Maxine Page of State College, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Page, this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Brungart, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wert, Mrs. Lawrence Diehl and daughter Betty, and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Auman attended a Dairymen's League meeting at Hughesville last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Smith and family were Saturday evening callers in Centre Hall. John Diehl and wife of State College, visited relatives here on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gentzel motored to Boalsburg on Sunday to visit the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muser. Mrs. Gentzel is spending this week in Boalsburg. Mr. and Mrs. William Tyson Sr. and grandson Ardell, spent Saturday with their son Carlos, who is a patient in the Harrisburg Hospital. Carlos had been quite ill last week but is improved at this writing. Rev. and Mrs. O. K. Wheelock of Spencerville, Md., visited Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock last week. Their son, Rev. Paul Wheelock and wife, also of Spencerville, were Thursday overnight guests at the Evangelical parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Baker moved on Monday from Pittsburgh into the west side of the E. H. Hosterman home (the former J. R. Brungart home). Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sholl, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Tweedy and daughter Lila Jane, of Turtle Creek, were weekend guests at the Sholl-Diehl home. Mrs. Tweedy and daughter remained for a longer visit. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hackenberg were Monday business visitors in Williamsport. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Masteller and family of Williamsport, visited Mr. Masteller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer, the past weekend. Samuel Esterline moved last Thursday from Greentown into the Mrs. Volga Walker home. Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ziegler and daughter Rae, Anna and Mrs. Knouse of McAllisterville, were Sunday guests with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ziegler. Mrs. Dale Kohr, Mrs. C. R. Brungart and Mrs. J. V. Brungart attended the Lutheran Women's Missionary Society conference at New Bedford last Wednesday. Herbert Fleiker of New York City, was a weekend guest at the home of Rev. N. F. Douty. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Diehl and two children of Alliquippa, were weekend guests with the former's mother, Mrs. Lloyd Tate and family. Mrs. Ida Weaver returned home after spending the winter with her son, Edwin of Lewistown and daughter, Mrs. John Metzger, of Pennbrook. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cummings were Saturday visitors in Centre Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roush of Aaronsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shay of Williamsport, Mrs. Sallie Weaver and Robert Kerstetter of State College, were Sunday visitors at the Ray Stover home. Maurice Zettle and two children of Lock Haven, were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Reish. Mrs. Calvin Breen and infant daughter were discharged from the Centre County Hospital on Saturday and brought home. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver, Jr. were Sunday callers at the Roy Weaver home in Tyrerlyville. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Confer of Harrisburg, were Sunday dinner guests at the S. G. Ziegler home. Mrs. Ziegler's father, Clarence Strayer of Madisonburg, visited them on Saturday. C. S. Hosterman and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. Breen of town, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breen and daughter Nancy, of Centre Hall, were Sunday dinner guests at the H. O. Yearick home, of near Mill Hill. Mr. and Mrs. John Seigel of Williamsport, were Sunday visitors at the H. S. Small home. Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Harer of Newberry, were Saturday callers at the W. M. Tarbert home, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Harer and daughters Jean and Lois, of Williamsport, were Sunday supper guests at the same home. Miss Jean Hartman of Harrisburg, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hartman. Rev. and Mrs. N. F. Douty, Miss Laura E. Gayley and Miss Betty Gentzel went to Hephzibah Heights at Monterey, Mass., on Wednesday, when they will spend the summer months. Miss Alma Corman was a Sunday visitor at the Glenn Hosterman home in Aaronsburg. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bierly, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Ocker of Millheim, motored to Bellefonte on Sunday. Mrs. Elsie McClellan and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan and two children of Centre Hall, were Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Helen Shultz. Mother's Day dinner guests at the Nile Stover home were: Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Stover and daughter Romayne of Aaronsburg, Mr. and Mrs. George Stover and sons Bobbie and Russel of Salona, Mrs. Arthur Klomhaus and Mrs. Michael Eich of Oswego, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stover and children, Connie and Freddie of Wayne, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Stery Bressler and sons Jimmie and Stover of Spring Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stover and son Dick of Millheim, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tate and sons 'Sonny' and Dick of Rebersburg, Mr. and Mrs. John

Official U. S. Treasury War Bond Quotas For May

The above map of Pennsylvania shows the War Bond quotas, by counties, for the month of May, 1942. Total War Bond quota for the State is $33,814,500. Every income earner in the State is expected to slip a War Bond purchase on a basis of ten per cent of net income. This is necessary to help America's armored forces take the offensive against the Axis powers. The American voluntary method of War Bond purchases must be successful in reaching the quotas set by the Treasury Department for every county in the nation. The job of every American now is to stop spending and save dollars to help win the War.

Looky! Looky! A Sugarless Cookie!

PASS up the sugar bowl and heat up the oven, for you don't need that precious sweet stuff to make these brand new sugarless cookies. They're sweet and simple, and since sugar tends to mask ingredient flavors, an all-phosphate baking powder leaves no after taste in sugarless recipes. Here is the basic recipe and its four flavorful variations: Sugarless Cookies: 2 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1/2 cup shortening, 3 teaspoons all-purpose flour, 1 1/2 cups honey, 1/2 cup white sugar, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup molasses, 1/2 cup vanilla, 1/2 cup baking powder, 1/2 cup cream shortening, add honey slowly and cream until fluffy. Stir in well-beaten egg and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients, a little at a time, blending well after each addition. Drop by teaspoonfuls on lightly greased cookie sheet and bake in a moderately hot oven (425° F.) for 12 to 15 minutes. Yield: about 4 dozen cookies. VARIATIONS: Chocolate Drop Cookies: Add 1/2 cup grated semi-sweet chocolate to creamed shortening mixture before adding sifted dry ingredients. Nut Drop Cookies: Add 1/2 cup chopped nut meats to creamed shortening mixture before adding sifted dry ingredients. Orange Drop Cookies: Add 2 teaspoons grated orange rind and 1/4 teaspoon orange flavoring to cookie batter in place of vanilla. Fruit Drop Cookies: Add 1/2 cup raisins, chopped figs or prunes to creamed shortening mixture before adding sifted dry ingredients.

BUSH HOLLOW

Glad for the increase in attendance in Sunday school on Sunday. Hope it continues. Everybody welcome. Cottage Prayer meeting this Friday evening, May 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker of Runville. Come out to the prayer meeting. There will be preaching service next Sunday immediately after Sunday school. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weston and son have moved to Unionville into a couple of rooms they have rented. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Tate and son Franklin, visited in the community last Thursday p. m. Miss Mary Resides is employed in Bellefonte doing housework. Mrs. Clyde Watson returned to her home after visiting relatives and friends at Morgan Run. Rev. and Mrs. Byrd took supper at the Andrew Irvin home on Wednesday night, and at the Roy Spotts home Friday night. The school children had half holidays for four afternoons last week on account of the sugar registration at the school house. 117 persons were registered at the school. The children are looking forward to the last day of school, which will be May 21. Mrs. Harold Watson and Mae Banev visited the Charles Bush

HOLTS HOLLOW

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Fred Wagner and Kelsey Confer of Ohio, spent a few days with home folks at this place and Pleasant Valley. Recent visitors at the J. T. Watson home were: Mrs. George Magar, Jr., and daughter of Pleasant Gap, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and family, Donald Cathman of Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Watson and son of Milesburg, Rose Kislis of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Lee Johnson and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leathers and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dreese and family called on relatives at Mt. Eagle on Sunday. George Johnson expects to leave for Army service on Saturday. Sunday visitors at the Arthur Burd home were: Mr. and Mrs. Clair Burd of Avis, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Burd of Pleasant Gap, Mrs. Edna Bennett and daughter Ariene, Mrs. Hermine Bennett and family of Runville, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burd and family of Unionville, Mr. and Mrs. John Possinger of Coleville, Mrs. Edith Burd and sons, Ed and Monroe. Marjorie and Stella Leathers spent Sunday with relatives at Monument. Mrs. Nevin Watson visited at the Walter Switzer home in Bellefonte on Monday. Visitors at the Leathers home during the week were Mrs. Frank Dreese and family of Lemont, Roll and William Butler of Jackson, Harold Walker of Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leathers, Mrs. J. F. McCartney of Mt. Eagle, Mrs. Harry Lucas of Moore Run, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fisher and daughter of Unionville, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Butler and children of Monument, Mr. and Mrs. William Howell and children of Runville, Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Watson and two children. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brungart spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Clair Burd at Avis, and visited with Aaron Hall at Unionville on Sunday evening.

GOOD CARE PROLONGS LIFE OF WOOL BLANKETS

Now is the time to give special attention to those wool blankets you are taking off the beds for the summer, reminds Miss Helen S. Butler, home economics extension representative of Centre county. Careful laundering, repairing, and storing blankets properly will help to make our present supply of all wool blankets last longer. A careful examination of blankets may reveal some weak places. Mend these before laundering or storing and you will be repaid with extra service from the blankets. Also replace bindings that may be weak in places before they break through. Wash each blanket separately, using plenty of soft water and a mild neutral soap or soap developer, explains Miss Butler. Thoroughly dissolve the soap in the water before immersing the blanket. Never have the water hotter than body temperature. Wash the blanket in the machine 2 to 5 minutes, or squeeze the water through it by hand, but do not rub. Strong soap, hot water and rubbing tend to mat the nap, shrink the fibers, and make the blanket hard and stiff. Rinse the blanket thoroughly in soft water of the same lukewarm temperature. Squeeze the blanket by hand to remove surplus water or put it through a loosely adjusted wringer. Hang the blanket, weight evenly distributed, over a tight line. Avoid strong sunshine or intense heat. If necessary, pull the blanket in shape while drying. When thoroughly dry, raise the nap by gently brushing with a soft brush. Store the blanket in a paper package, trunk or chest that is airtight and mothproof.

KEEP VITAMIN C RICH FOODS IN DAILY DIET

Persons who complain of being tired all the time and lack pep perhaps are not getting enough vitamin C foods in their diet each day, suggests Miss Helen S. Butler, home economics extension representative of Centre County. Vitamin C is so necessary for keeping the mouth and gums in a health condition. If the diet lacks foods that contain Vitamin C, the bones and teeth of children do not develop properly. There is a lower resistance to infection and there is often loss of weight. Also the gums bleed easily. The vitamin C needs of an individual usually are expressed in terms of orange or tomato because both are available the year round. One medium-sized orange or a half cup of orange juice, or a cup of stewed tomatoes or tomato juice will provide the vitamin C needed for a day. One large serving of raw fruit or vegetable will provide almost as much vitamin C as the orange or tomato. This might be three or four raw apples, a large dish of fresh strawberries, a large dish of raw cabbage salad, or three or four quickly cooked vegetables in season. Potatoes cooked in the skins are a fair source of this valuable vitamin. Vitamin C is easily destroyed in cooking or storage. Tomatoes or citrus fruits do not lose their vitamin C when cooked or canned because of their high acid content. These juices also can be kept in the refrigerator for several days without losing their vitamin C if they are kept covered. Storing a food, such as tomatoes or applesauce, while cooking also destroys this vitamin. Storage affects the vitamin C content of foods. Foods stored for several months do not have as much vitamin C as the freshly packed food. Frozen foods, if not allowed to stand after thawing, contain almost as much vitamin C as when these foods are fresh.

YOUR HEALTH

Names make news. Newsy tidbits record physicians who turned literary and wrote books. Rabelais was a physician, as was Cervantes who wrote "Don Quixote." Jean Charcot, Schiller, Eugene Sue, Schmitzler, and Marat were medical men. Clemenceau, French premier, practiced medicine in New York at one time. Other writers among the profession have been Sigmund Freud, Havelock Ellis, John Keats, Percy Shelley and Robert Bridges. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leathers, Samuel Butler and Sir Thomas Browne, were physicians. The English novelists Warwick Depping, W. Somerset Maugham and Archibald J. Cronlin are medical men. A partial list of books on medicine written by physicians include: "I Swear by Apollo" by Dr. William E. Aughinbaugh. "Devils, Drugs and Doctors," by Dr. William W. Haggard of Yale University. "Rats, Lice and History," by the late Dr. H. Hensley. "An American Doctor's Odyssey," by Dr. Victor Heiser. "The Horse and Buggy Doctor," by Arthur Hertzler. "From a Surgeon's Journal," by Dr. Harvey Cushing. "Fifty Years a Surgeon," by Dr. Robert Morris. "The Labrador Doctor," by Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell. "The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," by Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, creator of Sherlock Holmes; Axel Munthe, author of "The Story of Dr. Mitchell," S. Weir Mitchell, who wrote "Hugh Wynne" were physicians. They are brought into daily contact with life in its most emotional aspects. The physician is trained in critical observation, careful analysis and rational deduction. Given a facility to write, many

Farmers Urged To Boost Soybean Crop

Mrs. Dorothy F. Dore, Home Management Supervisor for the Farm Security Administration urges all FSA borrowers in Centre county to grow soybeans as a family food this year. "Soybeans are the most versatile vegetable I know," the home manager said. "They can be used for any course from soup to nuts and are rich in vitamins, minerals, protein and fats. You might call them the Number One war food." The U. S. Department of Agriculture has asked farmers to boost soybean production to 9,000,000 acres this year—a 54 per cent increase. Estimating that less than five per cent of Centre county farmers grow soybeans for food, Mrs. Dore said, "It's time to get acquainted with soybeans. Remember, lots of people used to think tomatoes were poisonous. We know now that soybeans, like tomatoes, are highly nutritious and should be a part of every farm garden." Soybeans will grow almost anywhere, Mrs. Dore said. "They are drought-resistant, at least partially immune to attacks from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs. Dore said. "For breakfast you might have muffins made with soybean flour mixture to attack from bean beetles, and gives unusually heavy yields, while requiring the same care as ordinary snap beans. They should be planted in rows two or three feet apart when all danger of frost has passed. Seed should be spaced about three inches apart in the row and covered with not more than two inches of soil. They look like a cross between shell beans and limas. "It would be possible to plan meals for any part of the day using nothing but soybeans. Mrs