

CENTRE HALL

(From Last Week) Barbara Gray spent Friday night and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. George Sharer on their farm near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer are spending a ten-day vacation in several of the southern states. Their children are with Mr. Spencer's parents in Apollo, near Pittsburgh.

The Latin class of Centre Hall Potter High School is sponsoring a dance for the benefit of the Athletic Association, Friday evening, May 22, in the school gymnasium. The State College High School jazz orchestra will furnish the music.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wert, Jr., entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dale and son Jack at Bellefonte, and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wert, Sr., to supper Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smith and two sons of Lock Haven, called at the Chester Spiker home on Sunday.

Miss Geraldine Heaver and her pupils who have bicycles rode to Linden Hall and back on Saturday. Besides the teacher, the cyclists were: Jeanne Wert, Janet Leister, Miriam Hagan, Donna Luce, James Mowery, Harry Long, Cury Bressler, Kay Kern, Harold Foster, Lester Carlbick, Jr., Teddy White, James Settle, William Sweeney and Robert Brooks.

The dramatic club of the Centre Hall-Potter High School held a winter roast at Camp 62, Friday evening. These members and guests were present: Paul Brown, instructor, Misses Esther Blizer, Frances Noll, Helen Wilkens, Myra Confer, Charletta Gray and Ruth Foust, Harold Bradford, William Reese, George P. Smith, Jr., Floyd Vogt, George Ralston, George Michael and guest.

The Centre Hall-Potter Parent-Teacher Association will hold its last session for this term Tuesday evening, May 19, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium. R. W. Keiser, Ph. D. rural sociologist from Penn State will be the visiting speaker. The Centre Hall-Potter glee club will furnish music for the program.

The Rev. C. M. Hammond, Methodist minister, will deliver the bi-calculare sermon to the Centre Hall-Potter seniors, Sunday evening, May 24, in the Lutheran church. The commencement program will be presented in the school auditorium Wednesday evening, May 27, and the senior class will hold a dance in the gymnasium the following evening, May 28.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Philip Saylor and family of Bellefonte, were supper guests of Mrs. Talitha Delaney. Thursday dinner guests of Mrs. Delaney were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnhart of Warren, O., and Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney and daughter Mary.

The Evangelical church will observe Children's Day at a service Sunday evening, June 7, at 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Homan were: Mr. and Mrs. George Long, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lutz and family, W. H. Homan, Miss Jane Foreman, Miss Cora Homan, and Mrs. William Brooks.

Prof. John Bracken and a class of Penn State students studied the landscaping at the W. W. Kerlin home on Thursday.

Miss Mildred Homan, who was graduated from Penn State College on Sunday, has accepted a position as chemist with the Atlas Powder Company in Delaware.

Prof. and Mrs. Percy Henshel of State College, were callers at the W. W. Kerlin home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Miller were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Miller at Sunday dinner at the Brockerhoff Hotel in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Godshall and two children of near York, visited Mrs. Margaret Godshall and daughter, Miss Eva Bailey, Saturday afternoon and evening.

Roy Seanson and son Rex, of Spring Mills, had Sunday dinner here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Seanson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Seanson, daughter Betty, and Mrs. Philip Shoemaker of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ishler in Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Strohecker and daughter Betty, of Bethlehem, visited friends in town on Sunday. Miss Strohecker was graduated from Penn State that day. Mr. Strohecker reports the health of his mother, Mrs. Mary Strohecker, as somewhat improved.

Mrs. Charles Miller and son Randall, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. George Reed from Pine Grove to Philadelphia over the weekend. Mrs. Miller and son visited Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reish at Upper Darby. Mrs. Roy Seanson of Spring Mills, helped Mr. Miller with the work during his wife's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Shannon Booser, daughter Patricia, and son David, spent Sunday in Harrisburg where Miss Booser registered for secretarial training this summer at Central Pennsylvania Business College. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kleckner at supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Runkle plan to move this spring from their home on the Keller farm to one of the apartments in the Hotel building. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Decker will occupy the farm.

Mrs. Kenneth Runkle, daughter, and Miss Cora Homan spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Lepley at State College.

The Rev. William Marks spent several days here over the weekend on his way home from a winter in Florida.

These persons from out-of-town attended the funeral Sunday afternoon of Mrs. Carrie Ruhl: Mr. and Mrs. John Ruhl, Dr. Harry Thornodon, and Miss Mary Thornodon, of Lewisburg; Mrs. J. S. Getchell of Greensburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Darious Waiter, of Port Matilda.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Homan and son Alton, of Pine Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lutrow and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dutrow.

Mrs. Grace Brown, employed at State College, is spending this week at her home here.

Miss Ruth Howley of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday at the Bartholomew home here.

Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew accompanied Mrs. Carl Burkholder to Camp Devitt on Monday.

Miss Miriam Homan of Emporium, is visiting her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Schaeffer of Allentown, spent the weekend here with the Rev. and Mrs. Delas R. Keener. Mr. Schaeffer was granted an M. A. degree at the Penn State commencement on Sunday. Mrs. Keener accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Schaeffer to their home Sunday evening for a visit.

The Rev. Delas R. Keener left on Tuesday noon for a meeting of the Reformed Synod in Alexandria. He will return today. These outstanding speakers appeared on the evening program: the Rev. William E. Lampe, Ph. D., of Philadelphia; the Rev. John D. Noss, D. D., of Franklin and Marshall College; and the Rev. Charles F. Freeman, of Doylestown.

Sunday guests at the D. M. Bradford home were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McClellan and three children of Lock Haven. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCormick of State College, Woodrow Bradford of York, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Bradford and Donald Rose.

Donald McCormick and Lynn Blazer returned on Sunday to Camp Sutton, N. C., after a seven-day furlough.

About fifty persons attended a Mother's Day program sponsored by the Reformed Youth Fellowship Sunday evening. After the program the young people served the guests with tea and cookies.

Miss Freda McClintic, formerly employed at State College, left for Erie to accept a position.

Dale McClintic and father, William McClintic, spent Sunday at Sunset hunting camp.

The mothers of the congregation participated actively in the Evangelical services here on Sunday. Mothers filed the offices in the Sunday school and taught the classes. Later the following program was presented in their honor: "Welcome," George Johnson; a reading, Mrs. George Sweeney; a playlet with her parents, Mrs. Jean and Fern Hanna; Betty Sweeney, George Johnson, Helen Smith and Lillian Rickert, and Edwin Crawford; an address by the Rev. W. K. Hosterman, and group singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Grove and Mrs. Mary Neff were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Neff at Linden Hall. Mrs. Mary Neff spent several days there.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Riegel, son Jack, and Mrs. Feyette Miller and daughter Tatiana, spent Sunday at Camp Antlers in White Deer Valley.

A ten-pouler son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Smith of Baltimore, on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sweeney and two children were Sunday supper guests of Edward Houtz and family at Bellefonte, R. D.

Mrs. Ward K. Hosterman and Mrs. George Sweeney attended the meeting of the Lemont Evangelical church last Wednesday evening.

Bernard Vogt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vogt, fractured his arm while mounting a pony on the Emmett Brooks farm last Tuesday.

The Helping Hand Lutheran Sunday school will meet this evening in Pleasant Gap at the home of Mrs. May.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben S. Rickert and infant daughter, Mary Anne, spent Sunday afternoon and had supper with David Stoner and daughter, Mrs. Alma Rickert.

Donald Rubie and Miss Stella Rubie of Altoona, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sally Rubie. Sunday guests at the Rubie home were Mr. and Mrs. H. Rubie, daughter Marcella, and Mrs. Grace Shaver, of Altoona, and W. B. Hoy, of Ashabuta, Ohio.

Mrs. G. William Brooks of Niagara Falls, is spending a short vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Homan. She came on Thursday with Lynn Blazer, who had been visiting his brother and family in Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Paul Patteroff, who spent last week here with relatives, returned to Indiantown Gap on Sunday with her husband.

The annual Eastern Star dinner dance was held Friday evening in the Spring Mills High School building with the Farmers Mills Sunday school serving the banquet. Fifty-seven members and guests were present, according to Mrs. Harry W. Potter, chairman.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary Society was represented by these members at conference in New Berlin last Wednesday: Mrs. C. O. Miller, Mrs. A. Alexander, Mrs. Paul M. Patteroff, Mrs. Ray Mark, Mrs. F. K. Frank, and Mrs. S. W. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Otto had part in the program.

About thirty-five persons attended the mother-daughter banquet in the Evangelical church Friday evening. The men of the church prepared and served the meal.

Mrs. Kathryn Jamison of Millbush, spent the weekend with her son, Roy S. Jamison and family. Other Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jamison were Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary.

A special meeting of the Centre Hall-Potter Alumni Association will be held Friday evening, May 20, at 7:30 o'clock in the high school building.

Mrs. of 8 o'clock as usual. Mrs. P. K. Frank, Mrs. Paul Patteroff, son Drew, Mrs. J. Harold Durst and two children spent Friday in Lemont with Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Houtz. On Thursday Mrs. Patteroff, with her mother and son, visited Mr. and Mrs. Brown Nale in Selkerville, and spent Saturday in Bellefonte with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Benner.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stover at Spring Bank were Mrs. Elsie McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan and children, Robert, Jr., Richard, Donald and Priscilla.

Mrs. Elsie McClellan and Mrs.

HOWARD NEWS

(From last week) Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bower of Reading, visited over Mother's Day with Mrs. Bower's stepmother, Mrs. O. W. McEntire.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ekdahl of Reno, were guests Friday and Saturday of the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ekdahl.

Donald Holter, employed by the Bell Aircraft Co. of Buffalo, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Holter, over Mother's Day.

Mrs. Katie Weber had as her guests over Mother's Day her daughters, Misses Lauretta Weber of Clearfield, Helen Weber, R. N., of Philadelphia, Mary Weber of Somerset, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Weber and two children Kathleen and Peggy, of Mountoursville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chalk, little daughter Nancy, of Philadelphia, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Weikert. Mr. Chalk has enlisted in the Air Corps and will soon leave for service.

Miss May Johnson of Tyrone, visited at the Mr. and Mrs. Milford Heverly home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rankin of Lewistown, were Monday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ekdahl.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fickes spent Mother's Day with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fickes, of the Kline apartments.

The Loyal Workers class of the Church of Christ will hold their monthly meeting Friday evening, May 22, at the home of Mrs. A. H. Schenck, instead of Friday, May 15, on account of the blackout from 10 to 10:30 p. m.

The Friendship Circle class of the Church of Christ will meet at the home of Mrs. Arthur Strunk, Friday evening, May 15.

Mary Virginia Stoltz is able to be around again after being confined to her room for several days.

Mrs. Mary C. Porman of Howard, R. D., an aged lady, is quite ill at the home of her son, Chester Porman.

John Wolf of Williamsport, visited his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Neff, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. James Foltz, son James, Jr., and daughter, Miss Doris, of Shippensburg, were Mother's Day guests of their daughter, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cummings, at the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Cummings and little daughter Anna Lee, of Shinglehouse, were guests Mother's Day of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings, and brother, Rev. W. J. Cummings.

"Ye Old Fire Bell" will ring as a signal for the blackout Friday evening, May 15, at the fire house.

The Howard Night No. 297, will meet Thursday night, May 31, at 8 o'clock, at which time memorial services will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Strang of Buffalo, N. Y., were visiting in town over the weekend. Mrs. Strang came to spend Mother's Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Schenck.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bowman of Philadelphia, were again home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kunes and two sons, of State College, visited relatives in town on Sunday. The son, Kenneth, in military duty and stationed at Washington, D. C., was enjoying a few days furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kunes were expecting to have as Sunday guests from State College, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Stull of Cherry Tree.

Robert Bechdel had a day's furlough from his police duties last week, which he spent with his mother, Mrs. Maude Bechdel.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Spangler had as Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Hulse and daughter, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Albert, of Middleburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Albert and daughter of Beavertown.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hancock, Mrs. Myrtle Brower and Mrs. Reuben Lucas of Phillipsburg, attended the funeral of Edward Confer at Milesburg last Wednesday, and stopped off with relatives here.

Elwood Confer is on the sick list at this writing.

Mrs. Ella Housman of Altoona, spent a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Anna Lucas, returning home Sunday.

Mrs. E. S. Bennett celebrated her 71st birthday last Sunday, May 17. Relatives and friends came in and helped her to enjoy the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Watson and children visited with Mr. and Mrs. Mac Reese, last Sunday.

Preaching service next Sunday at 7:45 p. m. Come, everyone is welcome. The prayer meeting held at Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Walker's last Friday evening was very interesting, 25 being present.

The U. B. church trustees are arranging to lay a new floor in the church auditorium and will appreciate your help in any way.

Ernest Fye and son Merrill, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Furl visited at Peterstown with home folks. Mr. James Fye, who has been in bed for some time, was able to be downstairs Sunday.

Margaret Bugash of Clarence, spent Sunday with her friend, Gladys Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. William Plubell of Moshannon, visited at the Fred Plubell home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Ramsey and son Dennis of Altoona, spent the weekend with R. L. Schmoke.

MAKE EVERY PAY DAY WAR BOND DAY STOP SPENDING—SAVE DOLLARS

BOALSBURG

Mrs. Anna Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jarrett and family of Altoona spent Sunday with the Robert Hess family.

George Stuart of Huntingdon, spent Friday with his brother, W. H. Stuart and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Durner spent Sunday in Lewisburg.

Mrs. Earl Flick spent several days recently with her mother, Mrs. Nanette Mothersbaugh, at Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cori, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Albright and son Van David, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Albright at Pennsylvania Furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Calvert and son of Altoona, visited their aunts, Misses Mary Reish and Nora Miller, Wednesday.

Rev. L. J. Kauffman, with Harry Garbrick of Pleasant Gap, are attending Synod at Allentown.

Miss Margaret and Fred Kennedy of State College, were recent callers at the home of Mrs. Foster Charles.

Clarence P. Adleman went to Camp Meade, Saturday.

Mrs. W. E. Kline attended the funeral of a niece, Mrs. Cora Fanning at McElhattan.

Mrs. Elmer Evey, Miss Minnie Whitehill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitehill and family of Pleasant Gap, recently visited at the E. I. Spotts home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wagner of Millroy, and C. M. Fry of Altoona, were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John F. Kimpfort.

George Stitt of Altoona, spent Saturday at the Charles Stitt home.

Mrs. Aude Shutt is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sallie Gill, at Pleasant Gap.

Harold White of Oak Hall, was a dinner guest of the Kauffman family Sunday.

Mrs. Hugh Norris of Falls Creek and Mrs. Helen Deviney and daughter of State College, were guests of Mrs. E. H. Dale, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dale and son of Bellefonte, spent Sunday evening at the L. K. Dale home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stover and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dietz of Altoona, were recent visitors with Mrs. W. H. Stover.

Mrs. Foster Charles, Miss Pauline Charles, Mrs. Herbert Stoffel, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Smith, and Mrs. Thomas Reinhardt, of State College, were visitors in Centre Hall Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hugh C. Dale and daughters of Oxford, were recent visitors with Miss Anna Dale.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brouse and two sons of Williamsport, spent Sunday with Mrs. Emma Brouse.

Miss Clara Jackson of State College, is visiting her niece, Mrs. L. E. Gladfelter.

Mr. and Mrs. James Horner announce the birth of a daughter, Mary Jane, Friday, May 15. Mrs. Horner is the former Jane Hazel.

Mrs. Nell B. Fisher accompanied her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Fisher of State College, to the Charles Fisher home at Danville, Sunday. Mrs. Nevin Fisher is spending the week at the Fisher home at Danville.

Mrs. Clarence F. Adleman, after spending some time at the A. J. Adleman home, returned to her home in Ambridge.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Neidigh of State College, visited at the homes of the latter's brothers, Nevin and George E. Meyer, Sunday.

Miss Rachael Segner spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. H. Dale.

Mrs. Virginia M. Myers is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. R. Goheen and family, at Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hosterman of Milton, R. D., called on friends Friday afternoon.

Tommy Swank of Baltimore, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. P. L. Swank.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horner spent Sunday at the Guy Couch home at Salisbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley McGirk and Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGirk of Altoona, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGirk.

Read the Classified ads

WHAT'S THE Best TIME FOR TELEPHONE CALLS?

SOME calls can't wait. But some calls can. So knowing this may help you— Telephone lines and switchboards are busiest between 9:30 and 11:30 in the morning—between 2 and 4 in the afternoon—7 to 8 in the evening.

You'll usually get faster service on your calls if you can make them at other hours. And you'll be helping us speed a service which is essential to the whole war effort. Thanks!

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA For Victory: Buy Bonds.

PINE GROVE MILLS

Rev. James Fisher will deliver the annual Memorial sermon May 24th at 7:30 p. m., in the Lutheran church. All are cordially invited to this union service. The men's quartette will render appropriate music.

The regular Memorial Day exercises May 30 at 7 p. m. The parade will form at the I. O. F. Hall at 1:30 p. m.; civic organizations and Sunday schools; Citizens' band will furnish the music. The State College V. P. W. will have charge. Please bring flowers to hall at 12 noon. E. J. Ward Fleming of Bellefonte will be the orator. Pine Hall at 6 p. m. with Hon. James G. Vandant as the speaker. Services at Gatesburg at 9:30 a. m., May 30, and at the Grayville cemetery at 10 a. m. with Attorney R. Paul Campbell as speaker.

Frank, Carl and Jesse Dean, three brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dean, were among Saturday's boys leaving for induction into the Army. The train at Lewisburg will be Captain or Colonel Dean in our armed forces.

Mrs. Mary Fye and son David spent several days the past week with friends in Lewisburg, returning home Saturday.

A new service flag with six stars is displayed in the Baileyville Presbyterian Sunday school, in honor of Wilbur Dean, Claire Dean, Norman Powley, Charles Eyer, Jack Powley and Harrison Hilliard.

Our township supervisors, Powley, Albright and Reed are making some improvements this week on our township roads. They are scraping the road and filling holes with crushed stone.

The new state road in Tadpole, the new bridge and mill completed at this writing, except the grading. This new highway is a decided improvement to that valley.

Miss Esther Cori is spending some time at the Arthur Fortney home in State College.

Pvt. Claude Dean, located at an Army camp in Arkansas, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dean, and at the home of his lady friend, Miss Peg Dickson at the F. Reno Fry's.

The W. Hamill Glenn home on East Main street is being improved with a new coat of white paint.

Farmer James Mann and dyed-in-the-wood Democrat Harry Potter of Centre Hall, were pleasant callers last week among some of our political leaders.

Mrs. John Koerber and son are improving nicely from their recent illness of scarlet fever.

About 100 relatives and neighbors gathered at the Ed Frank farm home last Saturday evening for the reception of Daniel Frank and bride. The callthumpians were on hand with the usual music. Choice refreshments were served by Mrs. Ruth Frank. They received a number of gifts. Refreshments were served including sandwiches, coffee, pickles, candy, cake and ice cream.

Boyd Vonads of Bellefonte, was a caller in our town several days the past week in the interests of the Ross campaign for Governor.

Miss Edna Schilling, was a guest last Sunday with Evelyn Fry to help celebrate the latter's eighth birthday.

Big fish were among the biters last Saturday in Spruce Creek. Andy Dean captured a 14-inch, and Jack Johnston a 13-inch beauty. He proudly exhibits it, especially among his lady friends.

Conrad M. Fry of Altoona, was a caller at the J. Ed Elder home on West Main street.

Last Friday evening 55 members and friends of the Baileyville Sunday school enjoyed their annual chicken supper at Boalsburg Reformed church. J. Maxwell was the leader in devotion. Rev. Tom G. Jones in his genial mood spoke for 20 minutes on world conditions as compared to Bible times. Miss Mary Welland and Mrs. Ruth Frank each rendered beautiful solos. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Reed and son Paul, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Albright, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. James Fanning, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frank, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Peterson, Mrs. and Mrs. L. R. Barst, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Barto, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schilling, Mr. and Mrs. John Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sunday, Rev. and Mrs. A. Groendyk, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gensinger, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Harpster, Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Welland, Rev. T. G. Jones, wife and daughter, G. E. Harper, Fred Post, Mrs. Lillie Post, Mrs. Sara Harpster, J. O. Harpster, David Fressler, Nell Crawford, Richard Fye, Stella Isenberger, Janet Barst, Francis Fry, Wilfred Fry, Garland Groendyk, J. H. McCracken, Elizabeth and Mary Welland.

The Viscose plant in Lewistown. The room is employed by the Firestone Rubber Co. in Newark, N. J. After a brief visit at the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds departed Monday for their new home in East Orange, N. J. The many friends of the bride in this locality wish them a long and happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ziegler and daughter Cynthia, of Port Matilda, spent the weekend with relatives here.

"Peggy" Shade of Greenburt, visited with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meyer last week.

Russell Beckenbaugh and family of Flemington, were Sunday callers in Rebersburg.

Mrs. Alton Smeltzer and daughter, Betty Jean, of Danville, O., visited her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Charles O. Frank, this week.

Mrs. W. M. Tarbet, Mrs. H. H. Royer, Mrs. Paul Winters and Mrs. M. C. Haines were Thursday afternoon visitors in Lewistown. Mrs. Haines has been suffering with arthritis and is taking treatment at Lewistown several times each week.

Little Shirley Zettle of Spring Mills, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Reish.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cummings spent Sunday with their son, Walter and wife in Williamsport.

Harry Bowersox and family, Mrs. Nora Weber and son Elwood, were Sunday dinner guests at the Clarence Sheehy home in State College.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lambert visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver of State College, on Thursday.

Warren Corman of Coburn, called at the C. S. Hosterman home one day last week.

Prof. Palmer Weaver of State College, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver, Sr., one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Breen spent Sunday with their son, Paul and family, of Centre Hall.

Miles Miller and family of Lewistown, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller.

Kenneth Gephart, one of Miles Township High School students, who was a contestant in the high school races in Altoona last Saturday, was third in District 6, class B mile. Kenneth's time was 1:52.50 and he and the winner broke the record.

Sergeant Woodrow Bierly spent two days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bierly, before entering an Officers' Training School at Port Washington, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Erle of Nittany Valley, were Sunday visitors with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Erle.

Mrs. Ada Bierly spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Weaver of Lemont.

A fire of unknown origin was started in the Paul Broder farm house last Tuesday morning, which caused quite a bit of damage. Due to the fact that the house had a metal roof, and the good work of the Millheim Fire Co. and the help of neighbors, the building was saved. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

REBERSBURG

Rev. and Mrs. Dale Kahr are attending