

LOCALS

Mr. C. H. Vonada and son Homer, of Aaronsburg, were in Bellefonte Saturday on a combined business and pleasure trip.

William H. Baird, of Altoona, retired Pennsylvania Railroad agent, called on friends in Bellefonte and vicinity, Friday, while on one of his frequent visits to Centre county.

H. J. Lambert recently returned to his home in Centre Hall for the summer after having spent the winter, as has been his custom for some years, at his home in Lakeworth, Florida.

Mrs. Carrie Gerend and Mrs. A. Noel, of State College, explored the famous Endless Caverns at New Market, Va., while on a motor trip through the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Erickson returned to their home in Frackville last Thursday after a several days' visit in Bellefonte with Mrs. Erickson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Walker, of East Linn street.

The Misses Geraldine Noonan and Helen Bieger, of East Elizabeth street, spent last Thursday in Williamsport, Miss Noonan being with her cousins, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Delaney, while Miss Bieger attended a meeting of insurance agents.

Mrs. Cyrus Tinstant, of Turtle Creek, spent the latter part of the week in Bellefonte with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Brachbill, of Mrs. Brachbill's street. Mrs. Tinstant came to Bellefonte with Mrs. Brachbill, who had been visiting her mother in Turtle Creek.

George McClellan, vice president and general manager of the Bellefonte Central Railroad, who last Thursday, was discharged from the Centre County Hospital after undergoing treatment for a kidney ailment, returned to his duties at the Bellefonte Central offices, Monday morning.

Miss Margaret Haines, of McKeesport, spent the latter part of last week in Bellefonte as a guest at the home of Centre County Commissioner Harry V. Keeler and family, on Blanchard street. Miss Haines and her father, Charles Haines, also of McKeesport, were former well known residents of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Walter Cohen, of North Spring street, last Wednesday went to New Kensington for a visit with her son, George. Mrs. Cohen has made plans to vacate the Parker house on North Spring street about June 15, to live at the Brockerhoff hotel. She will assist with the management of the Cohen store here.

Yarr for making sleeveless sweaters, muffs and helmets, and wristlets for the armed forces was received last week by Mrs. W. Harrison Walker, of East Linn street, chairman of knitting for the Bellefonte Chapter Red Cross. Women interested in knitting for service men are asked to call at the Walker home to obtain yarn.

Mrs. Grayce Tressler, of East Curtin street, was called to Altoona on Friday to be in attendance at a meeting of the State Nursing Defense Council of District number 5, which was held at the Penn Alto hotel. Mrs. Tressler also attended the meeting of District number 5 held at the Cresson Tuberculosis Sanatorium on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Wood, of Bloomfield, N. J., are receiving congratulations on the birth of their first child, a son born last Wednesday at the Mountaineer Hospital, Mont Clair, N. J. The child has been named Arthur Spangler. Mrs. Wood is the former Virginia Spangler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Spangler, of North Spring street.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Leary, of Milesburg, are receiving congratulations on the birth of their first child, a son, at the Centre County Hospital, Tuesday of last week. Mr. O'Leary is the former Loretha Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox of Milesburg, and Mr. O'Leary is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. O'Leary, of North Penn street.

Among those from Bellefonte who motored to Punxsutawney last Thursday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Bert Steffy, the former Rachel Young, of Bellefonte, were: Mr. and Mrs. Christ D. Young, Mrs. May Faulk, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Young, John Young and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Young, all of Bellefonte; Calvin Young, of Milesburg; and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shirk, of Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. Walter Adams, Mrs. George Carpeneto and Miss Mary Beezer, all of Bellefonte, were honor guests of Court Patrick McArdie, C. D. of A., of Bellefonte, at a social gathering in the K. G. room last week. The three women were leaving Bellefonte to reside in other cities and the gathering was in the nature of a farewell party. Cards were in play and a covered dish supper served. Mrs. H. E. Dunlap was chairman of the event, at which 28 persons were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Hall, of Oskosh, Wis., who had been visiting Mrs. Hall's father, William H. Brouse and Mrs. Brouse, on Thomas street, departed Friday for Washington, D. C. for a several days' visit before returning to Wisconsin. Mr. Hall, employed as a consulting engineer for a firm with headquarters in Washington, D. C. is being transferred to Columbia, Tenn., and expects to locate in that city within a month. Mrs. Hall is the former Carolyn Brouse, of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Susan Jane 'Jennie' Keichline, mother of Charles Keichline, of Lakeworth, Florida, post office department, who resides at 619 Lucerne avenue, Lakeworth, celebrated her 83rd anniversary here recently. An informal party was given in her honor with many friends calling and many gifts received by the honoree. Mrs. Keichline has lived at Lakeworth for some time, going there from Bellefonte. She is a member of the Methodist church in Bellefonte and is an avid reader, spending many hours with her books and magazines.

Hallmark Greeting Cards, Everitt's Drug Store.

Pvt. John Eisenhoth, of Rockview sub-station State Motor Police, is spending a two weeks' vacation with his family in York.

John Hull, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., was among the many Bellefonte Academy alumni who came to Bellefonte to attend the annual reunion at the Penn Belle Hotel, Saturday evening.

V. H. Pifer, director of the Bellefonte Banjo Band, expects to go to Springfield, Mass., this week to make arrangements for the band to attend the National Banjo Band Convention there the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Brown, of Greensburg, Pa., were callers at our office Saturday, while in Centre County 'on a few days' visit with the Justus Leathers family at Mt. Eagle.

A son was born recently at a York hospital to Pvt. and Mrs. John L. Eisenhoth, of York. Pvt. Eisenhoth is stationed at the Rockview sub-station of the State Motor Police.

Miss May Tomer, night supervisor of the Bell Telephone exchange, departed Monday for Riverside, N. J., to spend a week with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tomer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Shutt, of West Lamb street, are the parents of the fourth child and first son, born Sunday at the Centre County Hospital. The child weighed eight and a half pounds at birth.

Walter Long of Pittsburgh, former well known and popular Bellefonte Academy graduate, was a weekend guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Smith while in Bellefonte attending the annual Academy alumni banquet Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Hara and children, Joan, Margaret and Thomas, of North Spring street, on Sunday attended May Day exercises at Mercersburg College, in Erie. Miss Mary O'Hara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O'Hara, is a student at that school.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Lois Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Miller, of West Hill street, and John E. Kelleher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Kelleher, of South Spring street, was made this week. There are no definite plans for the wedding.

Miss Verna Smith, of East Bishop street, left yesterday morning to visit for a week with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Simmons, of Altoona. Her mother, Mrs. P. Smith of Chester, and two other sisters, Mrs. Royden Kellogg, of Oaklyn, N. J., and Mrs. Robert Heckanour, of Chester, also will visit them.

Mrs. W. R. Cliffe, of Hershey, arrived in Bellefonte yesterday and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Warner and family, of East Linn street. Tomorrow Mr. Cliffe and children, Jack and Catherine, are expected to join her here and the family will spend Memorial Day and the weekend at the Nittany Country Club.

James Spangler, student at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, and several college friends are expected to spend the weekend in Bellefonte with Mr. Spangler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Spangler, at the family home on North Spring street. Mr. Spangler will return to Philadelphia early next week for commencement exercises, he being a member of the graduating class.

Members of the Red Cross First Aid class sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America, Bellefonte, and taught by Fred Hayes, held their last session at the Logan fire house last Thursday night. After the meeting of the class served a lunch at the American Legion home. Members of the auxiliary firemen, presented Mr. Hayes with a gift.

Earl Musser who resides on a farm along the Jacksonville road, is reported to be recovering slowly at his home from the effects of a stroke he suffered Monday of last week. Mr. Musser was engaged in cutting brush on the farm when he was stricken. His right side is affected and while considerable improvement has been noticed in his condition, he is still confined to bed. Mr. Musser formerly resided in Bellefonte where the family is well known.

We finished mailing our statements last week to all subscribers whose accounts were either due or past due. What we are interested in mostly is paid-up subscriptions. The cost of labor and materials that enter into the publication of a newspaper have increased substantially. We have not increased the price of our subscription rate, as many other papers have done, but will continue our present rate only as long as our subscribers co-operate in keeping their subscriptions paid-up.

At a meeting of the American Home Club of the Bellefonte Woman's Club last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Miller on East High street, Mrs. E. E. Widowson was elected chairman of the section. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Benjamin Bradley, co-chairman; and Mrs. C. Ross Buller, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. W. J. Emerick described her trip to Holland in 1938 Co-hostesses, Mrs. Spangler will return to Philadelphia early next week for commencement exercises, he being a member of the graduating class.

Members of the Red Cross First Aid class sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America, Bellefonte, and taught by Fred Hayes, held their last session at the Logan fire house last Thursday night. After the meeting of the class served a lunch at the American Legion home. Members of the auxiliary firemen, presented Mr. Hayes with a gift.

Earl Musser who resides on a farm along the Jacksonville road, is reported to be recovering slowly at his home from the effects of a stroke he suffered Monday of last week. Mr. Musser was engaged in cutting brush on the farm when he was stricken. His right side is affected and while considerable improvement has been noticed in his condition, he is still confined to bed. Mr. Musser formerly resided in Bellefonte where the family is well known.

We finished mailing our statements last week to all subscribers whose accounts were either due or past due. What we are interested in mostly is paid-up subscriptions. The cost of labor and materials that enter into the publication of a newspaper have increased substantially. We have not increased the price of our subscription rate, as many other papers have done, but will continue our present rate only as long as our subscribers co-operate in keeping their subscriptions paid-up.

At a meeting of the American Home Club of the Bellefonte Woman's Club last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Miller on East High street, Mrs. E. E. Widowson was elected chairman of the section. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Benjamin Bradley, co-chairman; and Mrs. C. Ross Buller, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. W. J. Emerick described her trip to Holland in 1938 Co-hostesses, Mrs. Spangler will return to Philadelphia early next week for commencement exercises, he being a member of the graduating class.

Members of the Red Cross First Aid class sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America, Bellefonte, and taught by Fred Hayes, held their last session at the Logan fire house last Thursday night. After the meeting of the class served a lunch at the American Legion home. Members of the auxiliary firemen, presented Mr. Hayes with a gift.

Earl Musser who resides on a farm along the Jacksonville road, is reported to be recovering slowly at his home from the effects of a stroke he suffered Monday of last week. Mr. Musser was engaged in cutting brush on the farm when he was stricken. His right side is affected and while considerable improvement has been noticed in his condition, he is still confined to bed. Mr. Musser formerly resided in Bellefonte where the family is well known.

We finished mailing our statements last week to all subscribers whose accounts were either due or past due. What we are interested in mostly is paid-up subscriptions. The cost of labor and materials that enter into the publication of a newspaper have increased substantially. We have not increased the price of our subscription rate, as many other papers have done, but will continue our present rate only as long as our subscribers co-operate in keeping their subscriptions paid-up.

At a meeting of the American Home Club of the Bellefonte Woman's Club last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Miller on East High street, Mrs. E. E. Widowson was elected chairman of the section. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Benjamin Bradley, co-chairman; and Mrs. C. Ross Buller, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. W. J. Emerick described her trip to Holland in 1938 Co-hostesses, Mrs. Spangler will return to Philadelphia early next week for commencement exercises, he being a member of the graduating class.

Members of the Red Cross First Aid class sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America, Bellefonte, and taught by Fred Hayes, held their last session at the Logan fire house last Thursday night. After the meeting of the class served a lunch at the American Legion home. Members of the auxiliary firemen, presented Mr. Hayes with a gift.

Earl Musser who resides on a farm along the Jacksonville road, is reported to be recovering slowly at his home from the effects of a stroke he suffered Monday of last week. Mr. Musser was engaged in cutting brush on the farm when he was stricken. His right side is affected and while considerable improvement has been noticed in his condition, he is still confined to bed. Mr. Musser formerly resided in Bellefonte where the family is well known.

Mrs. Daisy B. Henderson is arranging to give her six weeks' summer course in short hand and typing.

We have the new General Electric cleaner that cleans from the floor to the ceiling. Come in for a free demonstration. Electric Supply Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

Mrs. G. F. Little on Sunday returned to her home in Akron, Ohio after spending a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reeder, at Pleasant View.

The Ladies Aid of Logan Grange will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Houser on East Howard street, at 8 o'clock Monday evening, June 1. All members are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. Ray, of East Curtin street, Saturday attended the wedding of a friend in Williamsport, and spent the weekend in that city as guests of Mrs. Ray's father.

Mrs. J. C. Oaman, of Lewisburg, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Edward Kline at her home on West Lamb street for the past several weeks, expects to return home after Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hoy and family, of Pleasant Gap, last week moved to Bellefonte and are now occupying one of the Owens apartments. Mr. Hoy is a teacher in the Bellefonte grade schools.

Aviation Cadet Stanley Kerk on Saturday returned to his duties at a Texas air field after a week's visit with his mother, Mrs. F. F. Hallowell, and Mr. Hallowell, at their home on North Allegheny street.

Save steel and get more comfort by using a new Electric Shaver. Single, double and triple heads with trimmer. A model to suit your shaving needs. Buy now, stock limited. Electric Supply Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Claude Hoy, of State College, announce the engagement of their daughter, Louise Pauline Hoy, to Harry Eugene Breen, son of Daniel G. Breen of State College. The wedding will take place July 13, at Hazelton.

Miss Jean Wright, daughter of Mrs. Mary Wright, of East Linn street, yesterday morning underwent an appendectomy at the Centre County Hospital. Miss Wright is employed in the offices of the Titan Metal Company.

Miss Betty Casbeer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Casbeer, of West High street and an employee in the offices of the State Highway Department on East Bishop street, is spending a week's vacation with relatives in Charleston, W. Va.

Roy Breen, of West Logan street, Monday began working at the U. S. Arsenal in Philadelphia. Mr. Breen had been employed on the construction of the new Bellefonte School building until resigning that post to accept the Philadelphia position.

The executive committee of the Milesburg Community Vacation Bible School will meet in the parsonage of the Milesburg Methodist church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 31, according to an announcement by Rev. William A. Snyder, pastor of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Struble, of Bellefonte spent the weekend in Bellefonte with Mr. Struble's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Struble, of North Potter street. The younger Mr. Struble employed as a railway mail clerk, is recovering from a shoulder dislocation suffered in a recent fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bertschy, of Wheeling, West Virginia, recently visited with Mrs. Bertschy's father, Peter Saylor, of North Penn street, and other relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Bertschy have been spending much of their time recently at Hot Springs, Arkansas, a health resort.

Mrs. C. Edward Robb, of Philadelphia, arrived in Bellefonte early this week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bertha Hoffman, of North Allegheny street. The services were held yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Robb although a resident of Philadelphia, maintains an apartment in Bellefonte.

You can have trouble-free automatic heat, save coal, and help save the natural resources by installing an automatic stoker now. An amendment to Order L-79 permits us to sell stokers as long as manufacturers' stocks last. Act now. Call Bellefonte 3111 for free survey. Electric Supply Co.

Mike Jurkovich, of Bellefonte, R. D. 1, suffered lacerations of the thumb and several fingers of the right hand while working at the Sutton Engineering Corporation. He was injured by a hammer while attempting to Order L-79 permits us to sell stokers as long as manufacturers' stocks last. Act now. Call Bellefonte 3111 for free survey. Electric Supply Co.

Robert Malin, son of Mrs. O. B. Malin, of North Allegheny street, who recently was graduated from the School of Metallurgy at Penn State, last weekend went to Fairfield, Conn., where he has accepted a position with the Aluminum Company of America. Mrs. Malin and other members of the family expect to leave Bellefonte on July 1, but have not definitely decided where they will locate in the future.

Walter H. Adams of East Curtin street, manager of the Centre County Thrift Corporation offices here, has been recalled to Army service and will leave next week for Fort Riley, Kansas, where he will receive a lieutenant's commission in the military police. Mrs. Adams and daughter, Mary, will go to Pleasant Gap to be with Mrs. Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Murtha, while Mr. Adams is in the service.

Miss Catherine Ventre, nurse at the Centre County Hospital, has been notified to report to U. S. Army service and expects to be called about July 1. Miss Ventre was graduated from the nurses training school of the local hospital in the class of 1934, served as housekeeper superintendent for the WPA for about two years in this area before becoming a general duty nurse at the local hospital. Miss Ventre will be commissioned as a second lieutenant upon her entering army service.

Relief Fund Report Direct funds distributed in Centre County during the week ending Friday totaled $741.20, according to G. Harold Wagner, State Treasurer. This amount was paid to 181 cases. Last week, 178 cases received a total of $725.30.

30,000 People Read This Column every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived, it is undisputedly Centre County's Community Bargain Counter.

RATES—Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisements contain more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged.

REAL ESTATE—A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

KEYED ADS—All advertisements that request replies to be mailed to this office, must be complied with by those answering the advertisements. Please do not call at the office for information concerning such advertisements, as the publishers are not permitted to divulge the name of the advertiser.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat whose subscription is paid up to date, is entitled to a 25 word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. Otherwise the subscriber will be charged the regular advertising rate. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

WANTED—A middle-aged man to work on a farm. A. W. Winger, Bellefonte, Pa., R. D. 1. Phone 652-222.

WANTED—A woman to cook in restaurant. Inquire at Boston Candy Kitchen, Allegheny street, Bellefonte, Pa.

WANTED—Maid for general household work. Good wages, no cooking. Write H. A. B. in care of The Centre Democrat.

WANTED—Caterpillar tractor driver, paper wood cutters, log cutters. Write for particulars, 2014 College, Pa. Dial 703.

WANTED—A man to work on dairy farm. Must be able to run tractor and do general farm work. Inquire of Fred C. Menach, Millheim, Pa. 222.

WANTED—Daytime cook, 2 waitresses; must be over 21 years of age. Apply in person, Big Trout Inn, White street, Bellefonte, Pa. 417.

WANTED—Men to cut paper wood and logs by contract. Good timber, nice ground, pay anytime. Will furnish cabin. Inquire of G. W. Holt & Son, Farming, Pa. 204.

WANTED—Men between the ages of 18 and 45, weighing at least 150 pounds, and in good physical condition, for furnace work. Good wages. Steady work. Write for particulars to Pittsburgh Metallurgical Co., Inc., College & Highland Aves., Niagara Falls, N. Y. 224.

Articles for Sale FCR SALE—Buckwheat seed. Inquire of W. S. Fisher, Wiggins, Pa. 222.

FCR SALE—No. 2 Russet seed potatoes. Dorey Cronister, R. D. Julian, Pa. 221.

FCR SALE—Three good used tires, 10x30, 2 like new, 1935, 1936, 1937. A. C. Cunningham, Rebersburg, Pa. 221.

FCR SALE—Porch swings, made of hard wood, 4 1/2, 5 1/2, and 6 1/2 feet. H. L. Williams, Martha Furnace, Pa. 222.

FCR SALE—Some tomato and pepper plants. Inquire of John Hollibaugh, Bellefonte, R. D. 3. (Assem.) 222.

FCR SALE—1931 Chevrolet, 5-passenger coupe, in good condition. Inquire of Homer Boone, Rebersburg, Pa. 222.

FCR SALE—Kalamazoo, enamelled range, good as new. Phone Bellefonte 6340 and ask for Mrs. S. W. Zettie.

FCR SALE—Ornamental evergreen trees, at former Bond C. White Farm, near Eagle, Howard, R. D. 2. Pa. James Koch. 222.

FCR SALE—Kindling wood, cut to stove lengths, at our new mill at Leaman, Pa. Prices reasonable. Write for particulars, Leaman-Steele Company. 227.

FCR SALE—Milwaukee mowing machine, 6-foot cut; International cultivator. Inquire of George Weight, Bellefonte, R. D. 2. 222.

FCR SALE—Some good cooking potatoes, are reported and sprouted. Write for particulars, Bellefonte, Pa. R. D. 2, near Hubbersburg. 222.

FCR SALE—One Hot Point electric range, 1941 model, like new; only used three months. Gordon Walk, R. D. 3, Tyrone, Pa. (Vail). 222.

FCR SALE—Two slightly used horse collars. Checkers Best 24-inch collar. Inquire of H. L. Dorn, Baser, R. D. 1, Mill Hill, Pa. 222.

FCR SALE—1935 Ford coupe, good tires and in good mechanical condition. Price $150 cash, Inquire of Bruce Hoover, Main street, Howard, Pa. 222.

FCR SALE—616 International tractor, tractor plow, 2-section level, good blacksmith. Inquire of Smith, Centre Hall, Pa. Phone 173-R-13. 222.

Wanted to buy baby carriage, second-hand. Phone Bellefonte 6225.

Wanted to buy livestock of all kinds in the vicinity of Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 6444. 1617

Wanted to buy used manure spreader. Write W. M. in care of this office, giving price and condition. 222

Wanted—A station wagon or sedan delivered in good condition. Call or write for anyone interested. Ivan Pluebsel, Pine Glen, Pa. 222

Wanted to buy a small automatic 110-volt light plant. Write or phone description and price to Dr. R. C. Jordan, High street, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 2524. 223

Wanted to buy second hand shafting and rabbit; best prices paid. Inquire of Swartz Machine Shop, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 32-R. 1-11

Wanted to buy a 6-room modern house in the vicinity of Bellefonte, Pa. Inquire of Howard Inquire of Geo. W. Brown, 8 Arch Ave., Greensburg, Pa. 222

Wanted for repairs—Junk of all kinds: iron, metals, rags, paper, chairs, tables, stands, high poster beds, guns, dolls, pewter, grandfather clocks, old glass and china. Highest price paid. Cora M. Schmuck, 136 E. Market St., York, Pa. 222

Wanted—Girl to work at Boston Restaurant, North Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa. 1917

Wanted—A farmer and farm hand, married or single, year-round work. Call Haupt's Place, Bellefonte. 222

Complete Official Count of Election The official count of the vote cast at the primary election last Tuesday was completed Tuesday afternoon. The results of the count were substantially the same as the unofficial tally made by newspapers immediately after the election. There were a few changes in totals, but in no case was the election changed.

The official count was made by the following board: G. Frederic Hoffer, Commissioner; clerk, Russell P. Beezer, assistant clerk; Mrs. W. W. Bickett, Mrs. George Carpeneto, Mrs. Joseph Runkle, and Mrs. Nelle Decker, all of Bellefonte. The count was conducted in the Commissioners' offices.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

Postoffice Open Saturday Postmaster George R. Meek, of Bellefonte, yesterday announced that the service at that office on Memorial Day will be the same as other Saturdays, with a few exceptions. There will be no rural route deliveries and the postoffice windows will close at 12 o'clock noon instead of 1 p. m. Otherwise all services will be operated as usual. Mr. Meek said.

FCR SALE—Living room suite; piano; electric washer; gas stove; 2 zinc lining lamps. Phone 2582, Bellefonte, Pa. 222

FCR SALE—Massey-Harris grain binder, 7-foot cut, in A-1 condition. Good paint. Harvey A. Hoy, Bellefonte, R. D. 2. Dial 6478. 222

FCR SALE—Farm time at price farmers can afford to pay. Inquire of C. M. Long, Howard R. D. 2. Phone Zion 1913 (Nittany). 222

FCR SALE—Tomato, cabbage, manure, etc. and other kinds of plants. Inquire of Emma C. Rider, Warren, Pa. 222

FCR SALE—Whitney baby stroller, and 40-pound capacity ice refrigerator, both in good condition. H. C. Coker, Centre Hall, Pa. 222